and how to prepare it!

WARM UP!

It's Soup Season

One-dish meals comforting

CLAM CHOWDER

- 12 large chowder (Quahog) clams
- 6 cups water
- 2 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 3 garlic cloves, sliced
- 2 medium onions, sliced
- ½ teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 2 tablespoons fresh chopped basil, or 3 teaspoons dried basil
- 2 medium carrots, scraped
- 1 large potato
- 1 large parsnip, scraped
- 1 large leek, thoroughly washed (both white and green parts)
- 1 tablespoon fresh thyme, or 1 teaspoon dried thyme
- 6 tablespoons heavy cream

Wash the clams. Put the water in a large steamer and steam the clams open. Set the steamer aside. In a large saucepan, melt the butter. Add the garlic and 1 minute later, the onions, and fry for 3 minutes, until the onions are translucent, but not brown. Add the cayenne and basil and stir in with a wooden spoon. Chop the clams, add in and fry 4 minutes, so the clams absorb a strong garlic flavor. Add ½ of the clam liquor from the steamer, bring to a boil, and then reduce heat to a quietly bubbling simmer. Coarsely chop vegetables and add to saucepan. Add the remainder of clam liquor. Bring to a boil, and again reduce heat and simmer quietly for an hour, or until vegetables are soft but not mushy. Take the chowder off the heat, add the thyme and stir in the heavy cream. Serve immediately. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

CORN AND KIELBASA CHOWDER

- 4 tablespoons butter
- ¾ pound smoked kielbasa, cut into thin rounds
- 1 medium size onion, finely chopped
- 2 13¾-ounce cans regular strength chicken broth
- 1 cup mashed potato flakes
- ½ cup milk
- 2 10-ounce packages frozen corn

Melt the butter in a soup pot over medium-high heat. When the bubbling subsides, add the kielbasa and onion, stir and saute for about 5 minutes, or until the kielbasa rounds become rosy and begin to pucker slightly. Add the remaining ingredients and heat slowly, until the corn thaws and the potato flakes dissolve to smoothness. Let the chowder simmer for 1 minute and remove the pot from the heat. Either serve the chowder immediately or let it cool, uncovered, to room temperature; then cover and refrigerate until ready to use — for up to 3 days. To reheat, bring the uncovered cold chowder to a boil over medium-high heat, then lower the heat and simmer, covered for 2 to 3 minutes, or until it is heated through. Yield: 4 servings.

CREAM OF BROCCOLI SOUP

- 1 cup water
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped broccoli
- 2 cups milk
- 2 cups processed cheese, cubed
- 2 chicken bouillon cubes
- ½ cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup half and half cream
- Croutons for garnish

In large saucepan, cook broccoli in one cup water. (Do not drain). Assemble blender, put milk, cheese cubes and flour into blender container. Cover and process at grind. Add mixture to broccoli. Add half and half. Cook, stirring frequently over medium heat until hot and mixture thickens. Serve garnished with croutons. Yield: 6 servings.

FIESTA VEGETABLE SOUP

- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 medium onion, diced
- 2 cups mixed frozen vegetables
- 2½ cups water
- 1 8-oz. can whole tomatoes (or 2 medium fresh tomatoes)
- 3 cubes or teaspoons low-sodium beef bouillon powder
- ½ cup broken pieces spaghetti (uncooked)

Heat the oil in a large pot over medium heat. Add the onion and vegetables and cook, stirring occasionally, until lightly browned (about 10 minutes). Add the water, tomatoes with their liquid, and bouillon cubes or powder. Turn heat to high, stir to break up the tomatoes, and bring to a boil. Reduce to low simmer, cover, and cook for 20 to 30 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the vegetables are tender. Yield: 4 one-cup serving.

BLACK-EYED PEA SOUP

- 12 ounces black-eyed peas (about 2 cups)
- 2 medium potatoes, peeled and diced
- 3 stalks celery, sliced
- 2 carrots, sliced
- 3 tablespoons tamari soy sauce
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, diced
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 1 teaspoon basil
- 1 teaspoon dried dill weed

Rinse black-eyed peas well. Place in a large pot and cover with 1-inch of water. Soak overnight. Drain off the soaking water. Add 7 cups of fresh water and remainder of the ingredients. Bring to a boil for 2 minutes. Reduce and simmer 1 to 2 hours or until beans are tender. Stir occasionally, mashing beans and potatoes against the sides of the pot to thicken the soup. Yield: 10 bowls of soup (1½ cups each).

FRENCH ONION SOUP

- 1 pound onions (peeled weight)
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 tablespoon imported paprika
- Pinch of white pepper
- Pinch of freshly ground black pepper
- 1 clove garlic, mashed to a pulp with ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup butter
- 3 cups chicken broth, 3 cups beef consomme, and 3 cups water, or 9 cups homemade stock.

For the croutons:

- ½ loaf long French bread
- 4 tablespoons grated Parmesan mixed with 4 tablespoons other grated cheese of your choice
- 4 tablespoons melted butter

Halve onions and slice very thin. (The thinner the slices, the better the soup). On a large dish or tray, separate layers of sliced onions. Combine flour, paprika, white pepper, and black pepper, and sprinkle mixture over onions. Sprinkle on garlic. In a large pot, melt butter and saute onions over medium heat, covered, for about 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add 9 cups liquid and bring to a boil. Lower heat, cover, and simmer 30 minutes, stirring once or twice. Remove from heat and let stand, covered, for at least 1 hour. Reheat before serving with croutons. Serves 8.

MINESTRONE WITH PESTO

- 1 cup (½ lb.) dry small red beans
- 1 quart water
- 1 14-oz. can whole tomatoes and juice
- 1 cup (1 medium to large) onion, chopped
- ¾ cup (2 medium) carrots, shredded
- ½ cup celery, finely chopped
- 1 garlic clove, crushed
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup cabbage, shredded
- ¾ cup water
- ½ cup (3 ounces) tomato paste
- ¼ cup salad macaroni

Pesto (if desired—see recipe below)

Combine the beans and one quart of water in a large pan or Dutch oven. Heat to a boil, and boil for 2 minutes. Remove from the heat, cover, and let stand 1 hour. Stir in the onion, carrots, celery, garlic and pepper. Stir the mixture and heat until boiling. Reduce the heat and simmer gently, covered, until the beans are tender (about 2 hours). Add the tomatoes with their juice. Stir to break up the tomatoes. Next add the cabbage, the remaining ¾ cup of water, tomato paste and macaroni. Simmer the ingredients gently, covered, for 20 minutes or until the macaroni is al dente. Spoon the mixture into bowls, and top each with a spoonful of Pesto.

Pesto Topping:

- ½ cup of fresh basil leaves
- ½ cup fresh or frozen (thawed) spinach leaves
- 2 tablespoons of grated Romano cheese
- 2 tablespoons of olive oil and 1 tablespoon of chopped fresh parsley in a blender jar.

Blend them until the mixture forms a smooth paste. Yield: 6 bowls of 1¼ cups.

TEX-MEX BEEF SOUP

- 1¼ pounds boneless beef chuck top blade steaks, cut ¾-inch thick
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 2 teaspoons chili powder
- ½ teaspoon ground cumin
- 1 can (16-ounces) tomatoes and liquid, broken up
- 1 tablespoon oil
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 can (4-ounces) chopped green chiles
- 1 can (8-ounces) whole kernel corn and liquid
- 1 cup water
- 1 teaspoon instant beef bouillon granules

Partially freeze beef chuck top blade steaks to firm. Divide each steak into 2 pieces, following natural seam and removing connective tissue between pieces. Cut each piece in half and slice across the grain into ¼-inch thick strips. Combine cornstarch, chili powder, cumin, 2 tablespoons juice from tomatoes and oil, add steak strips, stirring to combine. Cook beef strips (½ at a time) in Dutch oven over medium heat. Remove, reserve. Cook onion and garlic 2 to 3 minutes. Add tomatoes and remaining liquid, green chiles, corn with liquid, water and bouillon granules. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, cover tightly, and simmer 7 minutes. Add reserved seasoned beef strips and continue cooking, covered, 3 minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

SCALLOP OR MUSSEL CHOWDER

- 3 tablespoons butter
- ½ cup diced onion
- ½ cup diced celery
- 1½ cups sliced mushrooms
- 2 medium potatoes, peeled and diced
- 3¾ cups clam juice
- 1 cup milk or light cream
- ¼ cup dry sherry
- Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
- ½ cup freshly grated Parmesan
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch, dissolved in 4 tablespoons clam juice
- ¾ pound drained raw scallops or mussels, cleaned, beards removed, and removed from shells
- French garlic bread, toasted

Melt the butter in a large frying pan. Add the onion and celery and cook over medium heat for 5 minutes. Add the mushrooms, potatoes, and clam juice. Bring to a boil, cover, and simmer gently until the potatoes are tender, about 15 minutes. Remove the cover and add the milk or cream, sherry, salt, pepper and Parmesan and stir to blend. Add the dissolved cornstarch, bring to a slow boil, then add the scallops or mussels. Simmer about 5 minutes, or until the fish is cooked through and tender. Taste and adjust the seasoning. Serve with toasted garlic bread and pass around additional cheese. Yield: 6 servings.

The Falling Leaves...

Farewell summer. The trees begin to change color and, against blue skies, fall brings with it the most brilliant display of all.

As autumn advances, wooded hills and fields are brightened. A beautiful spectacle unfolds as nature's annual show of foliage fireworks bursts with lemon yellow, vivid red and deep orange.

Eventually, the blaze of colors fades and gives way to earthy tones of rust and brown, burnt gold and bronze.

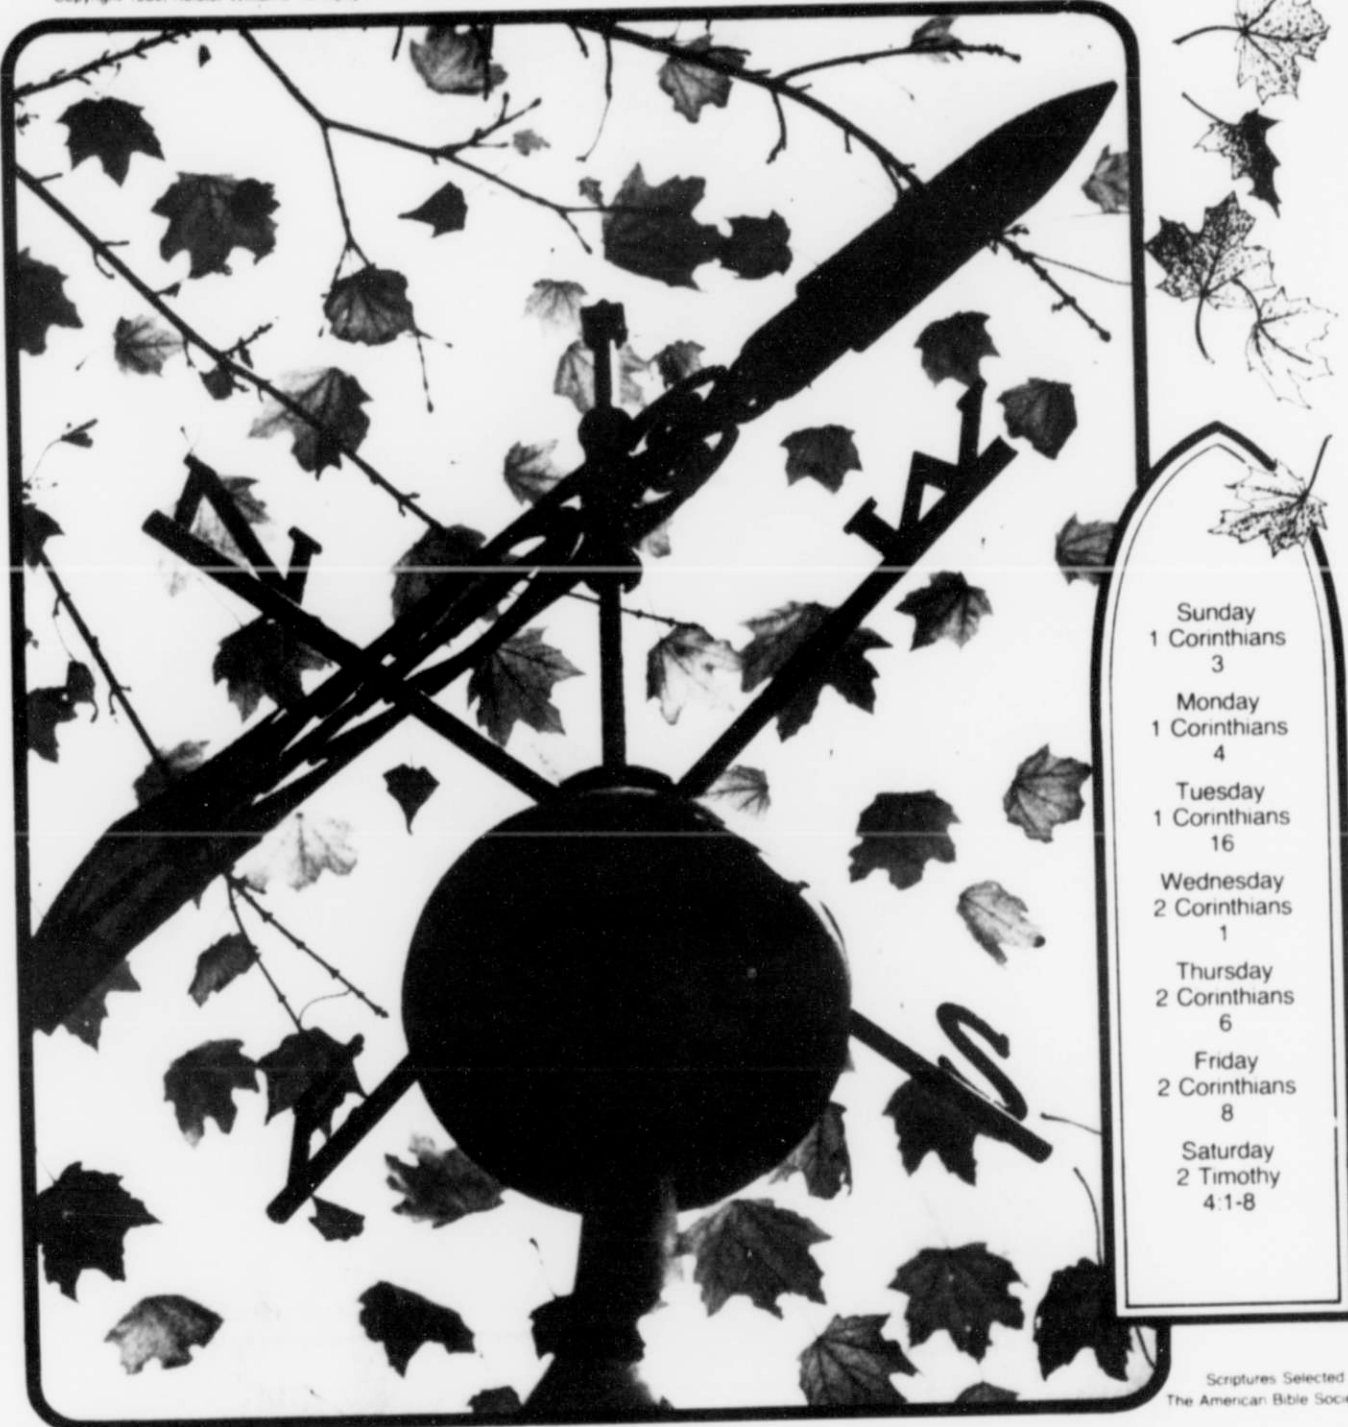

With the first frost, the leaves shrivel. A wisp of wind cuts them down and sends them dancing to the earth below. Even before the last leaf withers away, the trees begin to hibernate. Soon, dismantled and quite naked, a soft white down of snow warmly covers their branches. They will sleep thru winter awaiting the growing buds of spring.

Whatever the season, each plays its part. As one ends another begins. The continuous presence of God in nature, landscape and life is to know there is a Creator, Author and Designer of all things.

Worship this week and feel His presence.

BY NO HUMAN HAND
October 1, 1989

Background Scripture: Daniel 2
Devotional Reading: Revelation 11:15-19

It is a wonder that more people do not commit suicide after reading the morning newspaper! How any of us can go about our work after reading page after page of local, regional, national, and international tragedies and outrages is beyond me. Every newspaper ought to have at least one full page labeled "Good News." But publishers tell us that "good news" doesn't sell newspapers.

What is so discouraging for many of us is that for every step forward that humanity makes, it seems we make at least two steps backward. As a boy I was fascinated with the promise of technological wonders that were "just around the corner." Well, since those days we have seen many more technological wonders than I could have ever dreamed, but none of them seem to have tipped in our favor the balance of the quality of life. In fact, much of that technology has created new problems that we never anticipated: pollution, the threat of nuclear warfare, rampant health problems that are the result of the pace of our civilization, computerized depersonalization, and so forth.

"FEET OF CLAY"
The promise of an enlightened leadership has been pretty disappointing, too. More than ever before, so many of our leaders seem to have "feet of clay." The mistakes and blunders of world leaders in the last few decades are staggering to contemplate. Just as we have found that some of our largest cities have grown to be virtually ungovernable, so we are beginning to wonder whether organized life today hasn't become too complex and chaotic for human beings to handle.

I suppose it is evidence such as this that leads some people to believe that the end of the world is at hand. In fact, some people, utterly frustrated in their attempts to cope with this world, look to Armageddon with a great longing. They are anxious to "get it over with." If we can't manage this world, they seem to say, let God destroy it and put it out of its misery!

What many of those people seem to overlook or forget is that the future of this world is ultimately not in human hands. Of course, we can mess it up and we have. But, no matter how powerful we may think we are—destructively or constructively—we must remember that this world and its course is in God's hands.

BROKEN IN PIECES

There was no mighty monarch than Nebuchadnezzar. He could decree the execution of all the nation's wisemen and counselors if they could not tell him both his dream and its interpretation. There was no court of higher appeal, no one to act against this gross injustice. Yet, for all his power, Nebuchadnezzar's dream revealed that human kingdoms and empires cannot stand against the course of God's ordained history.

In the dream, "a stone was cut by no human hand, and it smote the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces" (Daniel 2:34). In the same manner "the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people. It shall break in pieces all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever" (Dan. 4:3).

Yes, there are definite limits to the power of the human mind and hand, but this world and the promised kingdom that "shall stand forever" is in the mind and hands of God.

'Sweet Bird of Youth' stars Elizabeth Taylor

Newcomer cherished working with legend

By Mary Ann Townsend
For relative newcomer Cheryl Paris, an audition for a part on Divorce Court wound up the chance of a lifetime to work with a legendary actress. Paris takes fifth billing behind Elizabeth Taylor, Mark Harmon, Rip Torn and Valerie Perrine in Tennessee Williams' Sweet Bird of Youth, airing Sunday, Oct. 1, on NBC.

The controversial play and subsequent telefilm is based on Williams' story about a fading movie star who takes a much younger man as her ambitious lover.

Taylor portrays Alexandra Del Lago, the fading star whose troubles are compounded by an alcohol and drug addiction. Harmon plays Chance Wayne, a luckless drifter who unknowingly impregnated his childhood sweetheart Heavenly Finley (Paris). Torn plays political boss Tom "Boss" Finley, the girl's vindictive father, and Perrine portrays Miss Lucy, Finley's alcoholic mistress.

Although the original Williams play does not have a confrontation between Heavenly (Paris) and Alexandra (Taylor) or between Heavenly and Chance, Gavin Lambert's TV adaptation does offer scenes between them, providing Paris a chance to work with Taylor.

Paris, who had actually gone to audition for a part on Divorce Court, which was also casting that day, was thrilled with the opportunity.

"It's really scary working with people like Elizabeth, of that magnitude. It was frightening, but at the same time they're able to teach you so much. Being the underdog, they really want you to do well, so they're very helpful," Paris said. TV Listings Inc.

Elizabeth Taylor stars in Tennessee Williams' Sweet Bird of Youth, a poignant drama about a fading movie star, on NBC Sunday Night at the Movies.

BIG BUSINESS: Bette Midler and Lily Tomlin play dual roles as a pair of mismatched twins separated at birth by a myopic nurse. When the country-fied twins head to New York where the city sisters live, all sorts of mayhem ensues in sorting out the siblings. The comedy debuts Oct. 14 on Showtime, and Oct. 27 on The Movie Channel.

Nancy McKeon stars in A Cry for Help: The Tracey Thurman Story about a woman who pleads for police protection from her abusive husband, Monday on NBC.

Fact-based drama chronicles beaten wife's legal struggle

Nancy McKeon stars as courageous woman

By Shelia Odak
Nancy McKeon stars as a physically abused wife who fights for tougher laws governing domestic violence in the fact-based drama about a Torrington, Conn. couple in A Cry for Help: The Tracey Thurman Story, Monday, Oct. 2, on NBC.

On June 10, 1983, Thurman (McKeon) became the victim of a violent assault by her estranged husband, Buck (Dale Midkiff). A Torrington police officer was dispatched to the scene in response to Tracey's desperate call for help and witnessed the attack, but 47 minutes elapsed before Buck was taken into custody.

Permanently scarred from stab wounds and partially paralyzed from a broken neck, Tracey fought back with a lawsuit that changed the laws regarding police responsiveness to domestic violence.

Although her case encouraged the police to treat domestic violence as they would any other instance of similar violence and encouraged insurance companies to mandate revamped police training programs, only one thing besides the memories can haunt Thurman. Her imprisoned ex-husband, who has threatened to finish the job, is eligible for parole in three years.

McKeon spent a great deal of time with Tracey in preparation for the role, and said the victim is putting her life back together again. TV Listings Inc.

Stephanie Beacham stars in the new NBC comedy Sister Kate airing on Sundays.

Neil Patrick Harris plays Douglas "Doogie" Howser, M.D., Wednesdays on ABC.

CHILDREN'S CHOICE

Lassie adopts new family, stars in current TV show

By Anne Wheeler

America's lovable Lassie has adopted a new family and returned to television in new episodes of Lassie.

That clever collie has moved in with the McCallums, played by Dee Wallace Stone, Christopher Stone, Will Nipper and Wendy Cox. Jon Provost, who portrayed "Timmy" on the original Lassie series from 1957 to 1964, will have a recurring role as "Uncle Steve" in the new series.

A seventh-generation descendant of the original Lassie, trained by the son and grandson of the original trainer, stars in the new episodes.

Provost, who still receives mail addressed simply "To Timmy," is now 39 and a resident of Santa Rosa, Calif. He left the entertainment business in 1969.

Nipper and Cox, who play brother and sister Will and Megan, were chosen by the producers after a nationwide talent search involving more than 700 children.

Nipper, a Los Angeles native, is a baseball enthusiast and knowledgeable baseball card collector. He has also been seen on the TV shows Santa Barbara, Murphy's Law (as a young George Segal) and Highway to Heaven.

Cox, a native of Danville, Calif., was one of the first girls to audition for the part of Megan, but was remembered by producers for her down to earth style.

PERSONALITY PORTRAIT

Lar Park Lincoln to begin as new 'Knots' leading lady

By Shelia Odak

This season's Knots Landing will boast the face of a new leading lady in the form of Lar Park Lincoln. Park Lincoln will portray Michele Lee's daughter-in-law Linda Fairgate, a part that she originated two seasons ago.

"It's just like a dream job for an actor," says Park Lincoln about her role. She says that her character hasn't changed a lot since her first appearance. "She's still extremely opinionated, she still grates on everyone's nerves. She's one of those people that no matter how hard she tries to be nice, she still comes off as being opinionated." She also adds that the role will have a touch of comedy to it. "Not that her scenes are comedic, but when you watch her you kind of laugh to yourself and go 'Oh God, that's Aunt So and So.'"

Park Lincoln has played a number of diverse roles in her career, the most unusual and visible of which was the role of the telekinetic Tina in Friday the 13th, Part VII—The New Blood. She also appeared as a teenage prostitute in the CBS telefilm Children of the Night.

In addition to her challenging new role on Knots, no doubt Park Lincoln will be keeping up with her favorite, if kind of unusual, hobby of picking up stray dogs and finding their owners.

Dale Midkiff admits it was a tough decision to assume the role of abusive husband Buck Thurman on the NBC movie, The Tracey Thurman Story, premiering this week. "It's always a gamble for an actor to play a character as completely unsympathetic as Buck," says Dale. "But it was the importance of this movie, and the gamble itself that appealed to me."

Rumors are flying around Hollywood that Patrick Swayze has been signed for a January start on the filming of Dirty Dancing II. They are still working on the script for the theatrical release.

The heart-breaking Olympic ice-skating duo, Tai Babilonia and Randy Gardner, are shooting a Holiday on Ice special in Toronto for CBS. Who can forget Randy's injury and their elimination from the 1980 Olympic competition?

TV PIPELINE

Mime work led to acting for Jeff Wincott of 'Night Heat'

By Polly Vonetes

Q: Could you give me some information on Jeff Wincott? Since Night Heat, I have not seen him on any show.
—Janet Franklin, Mesquite, Texas

A: Jeff Wincott was born on May 8, 1956 in Toronto, Canada. Upon graduation from high school, he was offered a college scholarship in swimming, but decided to study acting at the Ryerson Polytechnic Institute. After Ryerson, he created and popularized the character Mr. Mannequin performing robot-mime movements on the streets and in nightclubs of Toronto. His career swiftly advanced to doing commercials, and then doing extra work on films and stage. He had performed in series on Canadian television before joining the cast of Night Heat. His feature film credits include Prom Night, Happy Birthday, Gemini and Quest for Fire.

Q: I am inquiring about the TV series Dark Shadows. Recently I saw two movies, House of Dark Shadows and Night of Dark Shadows, and I would like to know if both movies, as well as the TV series, are available in VHS format.
—Ed Chamberlin, El Portal, Calif.

A: Sorry, nothing I have lists the movies or series available on VHS.

Q: I would like some information on the actor Mel Gibson—birthdate, height, schooling and family. Thanks.
—Lydia Andrews, Evansville, Ind.

A: Mel Gibson was born in January, 1956. The sixth of 11 kids, Gibson moved with his family to Sydney, Australia, from Peekskill, N.Y., when he was 12. (He still maintains his American citizenship.) Upon graduating from a Catholic high school, he was torn between pursuing a career in journalism or becoming a chef. His sister solved the dilemma by submitting an application in his name to Australia's National Institute of Dramatic Art. He and his wife, Robyn, have five children. They own a home in Malibu, Calif., but consider their cattle ranch in Australia their real home. He is 5-foot-10-inches tall, has blue eyes and brown hair.

Q: Why hasn't there been a release of the series Rawhide, starring Eric Fleming and Clint Eastwood? I'm aware Eric met his death while filming this series, but I truly enjoyed the program and especially him. I would appreciate any information you may have on this.
—Layne Thurston, Rockland, Maine.

A: Mr. goodness, the show has been in syndication for years. Check with one of your local television stations. If enough requests come in they may air it again.

Please send your questions about television past and present to: Polly Vonetes, TV Pipeline, P.O. Box 17748, Fort Worth, Texas 76102-0748. Because of the volume of mail, only questions of general interest will be answered. Personal replies cannot be granted.

HOROSCOPE

October 1 through October 7

By C.C. Clark

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22)

Libras need to slow down the pace this week. Change is good, but don't try to revamp your whole life in one fall swoop. You will be lucky in love.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21)

You will feel very restless. Get out and do something out of the ordinary. Don't let authority figures bully you into doing something you don't want to do.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21)

This would be a good week for you to work on problems with loved ones. A problem at work could be easily solved by listening to what is not being said.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19)

Don't worry about pleasing everybody, Capricorn. It just can't be done. This could be a time of great change in your life. Sit back and enjoy it.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18)

If you have been thinking about trying for a better job, plan now. It may be necessary for you to return to school in the spring, so save your money now.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20)

Financial difficulties will have you worried this week. Look over your financial future and set up the savings account you have been procrastinating about.

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)

Don't push your luck with loved ones and associates. Distance yourself from others' problems. You might think they need your help, but they really don't.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)

This would be a good week to keep your mouth shut about things you are not sure of. You also need to get back on your diet this week and stick to it.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)

You will find that your energy level is higher than usual this week. Loved ones will act negatively to an idea at first, but will soon change their tune.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)

Cancers are going to have a hard time convincing family members that they know what they're talking about. Keep your confidence level high and charge on.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

Take it easy, Leo. Times have been tough and you need to lay low and let life pass you by for a while. It is a good time to sort through a domestic problem.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22)

Don't try to argue with authority figures, even though you are right. Sometimes it is better to just keep the peace and let them change their minds gradually.

Dr. Herman Hoyt To Conduct Bible Prophecy Event

Dr. Herman A. Hoyt, Bible teacher, author, educational administrator, and president emeritus of Grace College and Grace Theological Seminary at Winona Lake, Indiana, will hold a Bible Prophecy Conference October 1-8 at the Loch Lynn Evangelical Free Church, 107 W. Third Avenue, Loch Lynn. The conference will start Sunday morning at 10:45 and continue at 7 p.m. each night, concluding with Sunday morning and evening services in October 8.

Some of the topics during the week include: "The Revelation of the Anti-Christ," "The Developing Crisis in Israel and the Middle East," "The True Church Before the Judgment Seat of Christ," and "The Financial Crisis at the End of the Age."

Born near Dallas Center, Iowa, in 1909, Dr. Hoyt is the eldest in a large family of children. Distinguishing himself early, he was valedictorian of his high school class in addition to having captained the school football from his junior year, the only team in the state to complete the season without having a point scored against it. Also valedictorian of his graduating class at Ashland College in Ashland, Ohio, he went on to earn highest honors (summa cum laude) from Ashland Theological Seminary, where he was president of his class.

In 1930 he married Harriet Fitz of Dallas Center and the Hoyts have two sons. After seven years teaching experience, he was appointed professor of Greek and New Testament at Grace Theological Seminary — a school he helped to found. He then served as registrar and dean of Grace Schools until 1962, when he succeeded retiring President Alva J. McClain as president of Grace College and Grace Theological Seminary.

For 27 years he served as the professor of New Testament and Greek, and then at the retirement of the professor of theology he served as professor of Christian theology. In the course of this ministry he also taught Hebrew and Old Testament. During this period of ministry he also authored many books among which are expositions of Romans, Hebrews, Second Peter, and Revelation. He also contributed to the field of Christian theology in books on eschatology such as The End Times, and denominational distinctives such as This Do, All Things, and Then Fight. Six manuscripts on various areas of Christian truth are in manuscript form though not yet published, and several themes are now in the process of formulation.

Hundred of articles and brochures have been written by him and published in Christian periodicals over this long period. In addition to this wide writing ministry, he has been engaged in Bible conference and teaching in the United States and Canada and the Caribbean. He has traveled extensively in Europe and Middle East, visiting that area in 1955 and 1967. Just as the Middle East exploded in the Six-Day War, he was in that area.

Dr. Hoyt is a charter member of the Evangelical Theological Society, the National Education Association, the Indiana Conference of Higher Education, a member ex-officio of the Board of Directors of Grace Theological Seminary and Grace College. Twice he served as moderator of his own denomination, The National Fellowship of Grace Brethren Churches. For 25 years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of Bryan College, and for 25 years he served as a board member of the International Ministries to Israel, and more recently the chairman of the Advisory Council and president of the Executive Committee. For 24 years he was a member of the board of directors of the Christian League for the Handicapped, 21 years as its president, and is now president emeritus.

For more information concerning the Bible Prophecy Conference, persons may contact Pastor Russell Hamilton at 334-4172. All are invited to share in this unique Bible Prophecy Conference.

STUDENTS TOUR SWAMP — Students of Zion Christian Academy, Grantsville, recently toured the Cranesville Swamp. Bill Wylie, a native of West Virginia and former member of the West Virginia University faculty, guided the students through the swamp and explained the varieties of plant life along the way. The students observed plants such as wild cranberry, cotton grass, dewberry, and several varieties of ferns. The day concluded with a picnic lunch at Swallow Falls and walking through Swallow Falls State Park.

Potomac Edison Conducting Survey

Potomac Edison mailed its 1989 Customer Opinion Survey last week to more than 3,200 of its residential customers to learn their attitudes about the company's electric service.

"Feedback from our customers concerning their electric service is very important to us," said President Elmer Kaelin. "It is part of our corporate commitment to measure the quality of our service and to understand how customers feel about us, when compared to other goods and services."

Kaelin said many of the utility's customer programs and policies have been based on results of previous surveys. Specific concerns expressed by customers are circulated to division managers, who can address these issues in each of the communities served by the company.

"We encourage everyone who receives a survey to step forward with their opinion," Kaelin said. "Surveyed residents may remain anonymous and can be confident that Potomac Edison places great value on their input."

Taken by Potomac Edison every other year, the survey was mailed to 3,287 residential customers randomly selected through the company's 7,300-square-mile service area in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. The company serves 278,509 residential customers, and 318,746 customers overall. Each mailing includes a survey booklet and a self-addressed, prestamped envelope for the survey's return.

The survey consists of 21 questions — about customer relations, safety, energy conservation and the value of electricity — that will take about four minutes to answer. Several categories include open-ended responses, allowing survey participants to state their opinions about how Potomac Edison could improve service to its customers.

For previous surveys, the company has received about a 33-percent response rate, considered by researchers as a statistically valid sampling. A report on the 1989 survey's results will be released in early 1990.

Two New Alcohol Awareness Training Programs Approved

Maryland State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein has approved two more courses that comply with a new state law requiring alcohol awareness training for the licensee or an employee of establishments with liquor licenses that serve alcoholic beverages for all on-site consumption.

The newly-approved courses are: "Responsible Establishments Alcohol Consumption Trained Servers," (REACT) sponsored by Bartenders Against Drunk Driving, and "Serving Alcohol With Care," sponsored by the American Hotel and Motel Association and its Maryland affiliates.

These two courses join the following previously approved courses: "Techniques of Alcohol Management," (TAM) sponsored by the Maryland State Licensed Beverage Association, and "Training for Intervention Procedures by Servers of Alcohol," (TIPS) offered by the Restaurant Association of Maryland and "Responsible Alcohol Management Course," conducted by the Anne Arundel Community College.

Alcoholic beverage licensees, employees, and other parties interested in attending one of the approved courses should contact the sponsor or the agency conducting the course. The law which created the alcohol awareness training requirement went into effect July 1, 1989, and requires a licensee of an establishment authorized to serve alcoholic beverages for on-site consumption or a designated employee of the licensee receive training in alcohol awareness from a course approved by the state comptroller. All affected licensees must comply on or before September, 1990.

Local liquor boards are authorized to enforce these requirements. Penalties for non-compliance include a first offense fine of $100. Subsequent offenses carry a $500 fine and/or suspension of the liquor licenses. Off-premise licensees are exempt from the law.

CRIME SOLVERS

The Garrett County Crime Solvers case of the week is the request for information about the following:

Between June 23 and July 3, a breaking, entering and theft occurred at the hunting camp of

Dr. Gaba located off Route 135 in the Backbone Mountain area of Garrett County.

Unknown perpetrators forced entry and removed numerous items, including two television sets, a microwave oven, a portable stove, five sleeping bags, a kerosene heater, one shotgun, hunting equipment, and clothes. Total losses exceed $2,800.

Anyone with information on this case or any other unsolved crime is asked to call the Garrett County Crime Solvers at 334-1975.

If a tip leads to the arrest and charging of the responsible party, the caller is eligible for a reward of up to $1,000. The caller may remain anonymous, and need not appear in court.

Banking School Graduates Named

Helen M. Bittinger

Robert M. Broadwater

John W. Golden

Constance L. Judy

Richard G. Stanton, president of First United National Bank & Trust, announced that four members of the Bank's staff were recently graduated from Maryland Banking School. Helen M. Bittinger, Robert M. Broadwater, John W. Golden, and Constance L. Judy were among the 1989 graduates.

Maryland Banking School is a three-year program, sponsored by the Maryland Bankers Association. One week each year is spent on the campus of the University of Maryland. The curriculum covers all aspects of banking including human resource management, lending, asset/liability management, and other bank related subjects. In between the sessions, the students are required to complete several home study projects.

Ms. Bittinger, vice president and personnel director, has been a First United employee for over 25 years. She is a graduate of Southern High School and has attended Catherman's Business School. Since joining the Bank she has graduated from the National Personnel School, offered through the University of Maryland.

Ms. Bittinger is a member of the National Association of Bank Women, vice president of the Bittinger Ladies Auxiliary, secretary and director for the Garrett County Fair, a board member for Hospice of Garrett County, and treasurer of the Meadow Mountain Mennonite Church. She resides in Swanton.

Broadwater, assistant vice president and compliance officer, joined the Bank in 1976. He is a graduate of Bruce High School and has attended Garrett Community College. Since joining First United, he has graduated from the National Consumer Credit and National Commercial Lending Schools.

Broadwater is past president of the Upper Potomac Jaycees and past chairman of the County United Way-Tri-Towns area. He and his wife, Susan, reside in Westport with their children, Josh and Holly.

Golden, customer service officer, began his banking career in 1977. He is a graduate of Hancock High School and is currently attending Allegany Community College, pursuing a degree in business and finance. Since joining the Bank he has completed the National Consumer Credit School.

Golden is treasurer of the Frostburg Lions Club and a member of the Tonoloway Rod & Gun Club. He and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Larry and Matthew. They reside in Corriganville.

Mrs. Judy, assistant vice president and data processing manager, joined the Bank in 1975. She is a graduate of American High School, Chicago, and is continuing her education at Garrett Community College. Since joining the Bank she has earned the designation of certified financial planner, from the College for Financial Planning.

Mrs. Judy has served as treasurer for the Garrett County Crime Solvers since its foundation in 1980 and is a member of the National Association of Bank Women. She and her husband, Charles, reside in Bayard, W.Va. They have two children, Allen and Aaron; and two grandchildren, Ryan and Brent.

New Germany Park Schedules Walks

New Germany State Park will offer a fall color walk on October 1 and 8. Participation is free and visitors are asked to meet in parking lot No. 5 at 1 p.m. The walk will cover about 1½ miles and a color variety of oak, maple, hickory, ash, and poplar to name a few that will be seen. For more information, persons may call 895-5453 or 895-5759.

Hunters Reminded Hunter Safety Course Required

The Maryland Natural Resources Police reminds hunters taking to the field this year that on or after July 1, 1977, a person, regardless of age, may not procure a hunting license without producing a certificate of competency in hunter safety or a hunting license that was issued prior to July 1, 1977.

To meet the requirements of the law, the Natural Resources Police, Outdoor Education Unit, coordinates a state-wide Hunter Education Program.

Cpl. Ralph Parker, spokesman for the Agency, said, "Records prove most firearm accidents result from a lack of hunter safety knowledge or the failure to apply it. Maryland's Hunter Education Program is designed to benefit inexperienced hunters regardless of age and is an excellent refresher course for anyone who enjoys hunting."

Each year over 5,000 attend courses in Maryland, gaining knowledge on the principles of safe hunting practices, hunter responsibilities, wildlife management, basics of firearms and bow hunting as well as game care and wildlife identification.

During the 88-89 hunting season, there were 18 reported hunting accidents in Maryland, with two fatal accidents reported during deer season. Cpl. Parker said all could have been prevented.

"Now is the time to register for a hunter education class," said Cpl. Parker. "Don't wait until the week before deer season and expect to find a course, as most will be full or over for the year."

To find out about courses offered locally, persons should call Garrett Community College or any DNR office.

Attorney Maslow Opens New Office In Cumberland

Richard Maslow has opened a new office for the general practice of law in Cumberland. Since 1984, Maslow has served low-income and senior citizens of Allegany and Garrett counties as a staff attorney at the Western Maryland (Cumberland) office of the Legal Aid Bureau.

"In my private practice, I hope to continue to serve the Western Maryland community — especially those who have had difficulty finding affordable legal services in the past, such as those workers and retirees not qualified for free legal services," Maslow stated.

A graduate of Catholic University's Columbus School of Law in Washington, D.C., Maslow also earned a master of arts in teaching secondary mathematics from Howard University and a bachelor of arts in religion from Oberlin College.

Maslow's office is located at 141 Baltimore St., Suite 210,

Geriatric Aide Course Tuition Help Offered

The New Horizons Program, a Single Parent/Homemaker/Displaced Homemaker Project of Garrett Community College, in cooperation with the Continuing Education Department of GCC, has arranged to pay tuition for the Geriatric Aide and Nursing Assistant class to be held Tuesday, October 3, through Tuesday, November 28, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the McHenry Campus of GCC. There is a requirement of 18 additional hours for clinical training on arrangement as part of the class. State certification will be given to participants upon successful completion of the class.

This course is designed for those individuals who wish to enter the health care profession as a geriatric aide or nursing assistant, for those who are currently working but who wish to upgrade their skills or for those who have been inactive but who wish to re-enter the field. Topics to be covered include rules, patients rights, confidentiality, safety, holistic patient care, basic nursing procedures and vital signs.

Tuition assistance plus $20 toward books is available to persons who qualify for the New Horizons Program. For more information or to see if one qualifies for the New Horizons Program, persons may call 387-6666, ext. 171, weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. or visit the New Horizons office at the McHenry Campus of Garrett Community College in the old mining technology building, now known as the Center for Community and Continuing Education. New Horizons is located in Room 302.

Fellowship Center Slates Flea Market

The Mountain Fellowship Center's Fall Foliage indoor-outdoor flea market will be an event of Saturday, October 7. This kick-off for the Center's fall-winter activities is usually one of the biggest flea markets of the year for this non-profit organization.

Baked goods, baseball cards, books, ceramics, clothing, collectibles, crafts, dishes, dolls, jewelry, novelties, sweatshirts, Watkins products, and wooden items are among the large variety of new, used, and unique merchandise on display.

The lunch counter, with food provided by Sansom Chapel, will be open, and off-road parking is available.

Dealers are encouraged to remain on the premises until 5:30 on this day. Dealers are requested to not sell anything illegal, immoral, or pornographic, as the Mountain Fellowship Center tries to maintain a wholesome, family-style atmosphere.

For more information, persons may call Joanna Bontrager in the evenings at (412) 438-0393. The Mountain Fellowship Center is located along Route 40 at Markleysburg, Pa., near Leber's Log Cabins.

CHECK THE WOODMEN DIFFERENCE

A 100-YEAR TRADITION

The Woodmen was founded in 1890. Today, many third and fourth generation families know of the many extra services that are traditional with the Woodmen. And one of the most important is service after the sale. In the Woodmen, every member has an assigned personal Field Representative, a trained, experienced representative who is a part of a career agency system that is a tradition with the Woodmen.

Local Handicapped Adults, Industry Benefit From New Jobs Program

by Michele Collins

Adults who live with a developmental disability, such as mental retardation, autism or a physical handicap, often feel the frustration of being dependent upon society. For those adults, working at a "regular" job in a corporate environment may seem like an unattainable aspiration. Many talented and productive individuals are unable to realize their full potential because of difficulties they are faced with in mainstreaming in terms of transportation and sometimes the need for added physical or emotional support.

Appalachian Crossroads is responding to the employment needs of developmentally disabled individuals as well as the special needs of industry through an innovative state program...The Maryland Supported Employment Project.

Supported employment is a system which allows adults with developmental disabilities to work in the community along with non-disabled co-workers. Through the program, a supervisor is provided free of charge to a participating business. The supervisor works with the developmentally disabled employees on an ongoing basis, to serve as an added support for them. The program is presently in place in several area businesses.

Bausch & Lomb, Inc., currently employs two teams of maintenance workers through this program. The teams handle inside and outside plant maintenance work.

The outside maintenance team from Appalachian Crossroads has worked on a variety of landscaping and outdoor maintenance duties for the past two summers. They work on a demand basis only and average one day of work every week or two.

Rich Schick, plant manager of Bausch & Lomb's Mountain Lake Park facility, spoke of the outdoor maintenance team. "They do an excellent job. As a group, they are as hardworking and industrious as any group of employees that Bausch & Lomb has. The outside of our operation always looks very nice." According to Schick, visitors often comment to that effect.

Rich Ford oversees all plant maintenance operations. In commenting on the success of the supported employment project, Ford stated, "I am well pleased with the program. I can't say anything negative about it."

The inside maintenance team is breaking newer ground. They have been working at Bausch & Lomb just since February. According to Ford, however, things have fallen into place.

"This is one area I don't have to worry about. I know that the work's going to get done."

The Appalachian Crossroads inside maintenance team consists of five employees, who each work 20 hours per week, and their supervisor, Charla Beiler. Beiler's services are provided to Bausch & Lomb free of charge by Appalachian Crossroads. Appalachian Crossroads pays the employees then bills Bausch & Lomb for 100 hours of labor per week. According to Ford, the program is cost-effective from the company's standpoint.

Charla Beiler emphasized that the program has been a positive and enriching experience for its developmentally disabled participants. "For most of them, it's the first real job they've ever had. They are very dedicated and really enjoy the work."

The employees are proud to be part of the Bausch & Lomb team. Like other employees, they sport photo identification security badges, and recently, they had the opportunity to attend the company picnic.

Other Bausch & Lomb employees have expressed appreciation to them for the work they are doing, which as any worker knows, adds greatly to job satisfaction.

Bausch & Lomb had a few individuals in its employ who saw the group of new employees

APPALACHIAN CROSSROADS IS PROVIDING BAUSCH & LOMB with two effective maintenance teams through an innovative state program entitled The Maryland Supported Employment Project. Supported employment is a program which allows developmentally disabled adults to work in corporate or business settings along with nondisabled co-workers. Through the program, a supervisor is provided to the business free of charge, to give added physical and emotional support to the employees when needed. Pictured above, left, is Charla Beiler, supervisor of Bausch & Lomb's inside maintenance team from Appalachian Crossroads. Above center and right are Mike Welch and Carolyn Sisler. They perform a variety of maintenance jobs in the plant. Pictured below, left to right, are Shelly Lytle, cafeteria worker, and Jeff Bittinger and Renee Vincent, who scrub down eight bathrooms each day.

as a target for their antisocial behavior. Management immediately took a strong stand against such behavior and those few instances were far outweighed by the positive support from the majority of fellow workers.

"Bausch & Lomb's employees have been very receptive. That's made my job a lot easier," Beiler stated.

According to Beiler, the work experience has been overwhelmingly positive for all the developmentally disabled workers involved. For some, the experience has helped them to become more assertive and friendly. Others have learned how better to relax and joke around. Probably some of the greatest fringe benefits of working at a job one enjoys is the pride and self-respect that come with a job well done, and the feeling of independence that comes with earning one's own wages. Beiler has encouraged her employees to take initiative and be creative. If they see that something that is not part of their normal work schedule needs cleaned, they go the proverbial extra mile, and work on that if time allows.

In reflecting back upon the initial training sessions, Beiler stated that there were a few rough spots initially. A major breakthrough occurred when she realized that most of her trainees were left-handed. She then learned to do each of the tasks as though she were left-handed, in order to train those who were.

When asked if they enjoyed working at Bausch & Lomb, each of the employees stated that they did. "I like work," stated Carolyn Sisler, who performs a variety of maintenance tasks around the perimeter of the factory area. Employees may often find her cleaning one of the stairwells. "I like it. I get out of the center," stated Renee Vincent with a grin. Renee and partner Jeff Bittinger scrub down eight bathrooms every day. Mike Welch, like Carolyn, performs a variety of miscellaneous duties in the factory area. Shelly Lytle works in the cafeteria and really enjoys her job. Pat Helbig, cafeteria supervisor, was enthusiastic about the program. "It's made a difference," she stated. "They're good workers."

Beiler's employees are encouraged to work as a team. "They often pitch in and help each other," stated their supervisor. Like other Bausch & Lomb employees, they sometimes play the radio. "It makes our day go fast if we have the

by Loretta Wotring
Public Relations chairman

The Homemakers Council will host its annual Achievement Day this year at the McHenry fire hall on October 3. The event will get underway at 9 a.m. and will include a covered dish lunch. The charge of $1 per person is donated to the fire department. A special awards ceremony and new president, treasurer, and secretary installation will take place. Come join us. The services of Maryland Extension is open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, handicap, religion, age or national origin.

Dues were collected this month among the clubs. It is not too late to join a club. In fact, it is never too late to join. Dues are $4 and it is certain there is a club that meets near you. Please call Irmgard Koscielniak at 334-1990. She would be happy to talk to anyone interested in becoming a member or perhaps starting a new club.

There is still time to register for the Fall State Meeting. It is October 11-12 at the Sheraton Inn in Frederick. Those who can attend the business meeting on Wednesday, the 11th, should contact the Extension Office this week.

Volunteers are needed for the Financial Counseling Service sponsored by the Extension Service. Training begins on Friday, October 13, and will continue for the next five consecutive Fridays. Contact the Extension Office to register.

Homemakers Clubs should remember to pick up the Demonstration packets. Due to cost of mailing, the Extension Office asks that each club pick these up at your convenience.

Also coming up, the County Council Meeting is set for October 17, at Garrett Community College at 7 p.m. Each club should send a representative to these meetings.

Thirty people helped the Bittering Homemakers celebrate their 60th anniversary. The members and their friends took a ride on the Allegany Central Railroad from Cumberland to Frostburg in August. The club no longer has charter members living, but two will soon become 50 year members.

Deer Park Homemakers will meet October 10, at 7:30 p.m. at the fire hall in Deer Park. They extend an invitation to all residents of Deer Park to join them and their club.

The Council is looking for a club to host the Spring Meeting. If your club is interested, let them know at the Achievement Day program. See you there.

Senate Approves New Funding For Veterans Programs

Washington, D.C. — The full Senate has passed the Fiscal Year 1990 Senate Veterans, HUD and Independent Agencies Appropriations Bill which includes $29.2 billion for veterans programs, including more than $11.5 billion nationwide for veterans medical care and over $15 billion nationwide in compensation and pension benefits.

"America's veterans, throughout our country's history, have done what was needed to save our democracy and our way of life. It is our responsibility to say thanks to those heroes by providing them with the benefits and care they have earned and have been promised," said Sen. Barbara A. Mikulski, D-MD, who worked successfully as chair of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Veterans, HUD & Independent Agencies to win approval for the veterans funding.

Included in the measure are the following benefits for veterans:

*$90 million, nationally, for drug treatment and prevention

*$10 million in homeless assistance for veterans.

*$6 million, nationally, for post-traumatic stress disorder treatment.

*$136.5 million for equipment, materials and supplies, to be used in VA medical centers.

*$5.6 million for the VA to begin reducing the backlog of prosthetic devices currently needed by amputee veterans.

*Report language directing the VA to develop and deliver a plan by December 15, 1989 on the disposition of the Loch Raven VA Facility in Baltimore. Loch Raven is no longer suitable for acute care, but has potential for other uses by the VA such as a long-term care facility.

Also included in the bill is $3 million in start-up costs for the Court of Veterans Appeals. The Court of Appeals was created by Congress last year and will be used to resolve disputes by veterans whose disability claims have been denied by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Final Congressional action by House/Senate conferees and Presidential signature is expected soon.

Space Available In Pre-Employment Skills Training Class

Registration is still open for the Pre-Employment Skills Training class to begin Friday, October 27, at the McHenry Campus of Garrett Community College. The class will be offered through the Continuing Education Division of the college and is designed for participants who are interested in learning more about themselves, their career interests, training for employment and job skills awareness.

If a person is undecided about a career field, Pre-Employment Skills Training will help participants by means of interest testing instruments such as the Holland Code Self-Directed Search, G.A.T.B. (General Aptitude Test Battery), and the Career Assessment Inventory Test, to discover career fields compatible with their own interests. Based on this information, decisions can then be made regarding training programs and employment.

The class will meet for seven Fridays beginning Friday, October 27, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at McHenry.

The New Horizons Program, serving single parents, homemakers, displaced homemakers, and adolescent single parents and pregnant teens, has tuition money available to eligible participants who wish to enroll in the class.

Persons who may qualify for New Horizons are encouraged to call the New Horizons office weekdays between 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at 387-6666, ext. 171.

Space in the class is limited so persons are advised to call soon to determine eligibility and enroll in the class free of charge through New Horizons.

DNR Selling Tree Seedlings For Next Spring

Beginning October 1, tree seedlings may be purchased at cost from the Department of Natural Resources' (DNR) Forest, Park and Wildlife Service. DNR's Buckingham Forest Tree Nursery in Harman will offer seedlings to the public for order now and delivery in the spring. State nursery stock must be planted for reforestation, windbreak, wildlife habitat and/or erosion control.

Minimum order is 250 seedlings for coniferous species and 100 seedlings for hardwood species. Environmental packets are available as well as loblolly pine in lots of 100. Price range is $3 to $18 per hundred trees.

Environmental packets include 50 white pine, 25 black locust and 25 each of either (a) ash, (b) dogwood or (c) red oak seedlings. Landowners ordering seedlings must specify which of the three choices they desire in their packet.

Buckingham will also offer 100 percent genetically improved loblolly pine seedlings. The nursery's seed orchards can now produce sufficient genetically superior seed to grow all loblolly pine necessary for Maryland reforestation efforts. All of the seedlings offerings help support Governor William Donald Schaefer's Green Shores program to improve and maintain the quality of the Chesapeake Bay. Green Shores encourages the planting of forest buffers.

Seedlings may be ordered through the project foresters in each of the Maryland counties. Consult the blue pages of the local directory to determine the number of the project forester, under state of Maryland listings.

Seedlings will be offered on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Meal Service Is Reduced At "Eating" Sites

Because of limited funding for fiscal year 1990, the Area Agency on Aging for Garrett County reports it has been forced to cut back on meal service days at four of the 10 Senior Nutrition "Eating Together" sites.

Beginning October 2, the following schedule will be in effect: Flowery Vale Senior Center, Accident, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, noon; Bull's Restaurant, Bloomington, Monday and Tuesday, 1 p.m.; Fintel Fire Hall, Fintel, Tuesday and Thursday, noon; Old Mill Grill, Friendsville, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, 1 p.m.; Old Mill Restaurant, Gorman, Tuesday and Thursday, noon; Casselman Restaurant, Grantsville, Tuesday and Thursday, 11:30 a.m.; Jennings Community Building, Jennings, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, noon; Kitzmiller Community Building, Kitzmiller, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, noon; Oakland Senior Center, Oakland, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, noon; and Swanton Community Building, Swanton, Monday and Tuesday, noon.

Gibbons To Retire As C&P Chairman

Thomas M. Gibbons, chairman and chief executive officer of The Chesapeake and Potomac telephone companies, has announced that he plans to retire effective April 1, 1990. Until his retirement, Gibbons will continue to serve as chairman of the C&P companies with major responsibilities for restructuring changes that will integrate C&P into a streamlined Bell Atlantic organization.

The C&P companies already are part of the Bell Atlantic Corporation, and C&P presidents in Maryland, Washington, Virginia, and West Virginia will report directly to Bell Atlantic President A.J. Campanella on January 1, 1990, in anticipation of Gibbons' retirement. Other officers and managers currently reporting to Gibbons also will be re-assigned within the Bell Atlantic organization.

Gibbons has served the C&P companies throughout most of his telephone career, which he began with Ohio Bell in 1949. After a series of assignments, he was elected vice president and general manager of C&P in 1988.

West Virginia. He later served as marketing director with AT&T in New York and as vice president and general manager of C&P in Maryland. In January 1983 he was elected president of the four C&P companies and became chairman of the boards of directors and CEO in July 1988.

FSU And Garrett County Partners In New Teacher Education Center

A new teacher education center benefiting both veteran teachers and student teachers has opened this fall through a unique partnership between FSU and Garrett County.

Headed by former Northern High School principal Edward Green, the Frostburg State University/Garrett County Teacher Education Center, in a sense, takes the University's long-time teacher internship program one step further by providing FSU Education majors with a teacher education experience broader than just student teaching. "Student teachers are still paired with a classroom teacher," explained Green, "but now, through other programs of the center, they are exposed to other educational disciplines, like special education. At the same time, cooperating teachers benefit from the center's staff development programs."

While there are other teacher education sites in Maryland, the new Garrett partnership is the first to combine the complete range of teacher education from pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade. The center, though based at an office in Garrett's Accident Elementary School, actually services five Garrett schools — Northern High and Northern Middle Schools and Rt. 40, Grantsville and Accident Elementary Schools as well as FSU's School of Education.

FSU's coordinator of field experiences Dr. Norman Nightingale said the ideas for such a center grew from the desire "to establish a more collaborative relationship with a public school system." He said the new center "creates a more efficient method of utilizing staff, a better way of training teachers and the added benefit of in-service staff development." This fall, for example, Nightingale is teaching 20 teachers FSU's first-ever course — at no charges — on the supervision of student interns.

Green, on the other hand, has the responsibility of designing in-service programs for supervising teachers who work with the students. "So far, I've had 100 percent commitment among all the professional teachers involved," noted Green.

The new center, through all of its courses, seminars, workshops, and special relationships with veteran and student teachers should, pointed out Dr. Edward Root, FSU's Dean of the School of Education, "make teachers better teachers and better teachers of teachers." Overall, the new FSU/Garrett County Teacher Education Center should help upgrade the teaching profession, providing more than just one experience for student and professional teachers alike, he added.

Registration For Nursing Program Now Underway

Registration is underway for nurses wishing to enter the 1990 class of the R.N. to B.S.N. degree program operated in Western Maryland by the University of Maryland School of Nursing's Outreach program in cooperation with the Cumberland Area Health Education Center (CAHEC). Sharon Thomas-Parker, R.N. counselor with the outreach program, will be in Cumberland October 9 and 10 to help interested nurses evaluate the transfer of their R.N. credits towards the bachelor of science program. She will meet students in the CAHEC office, 11 Columbia Street, Cumberland.

B.S.N. classes will be held in both the Cumberland and Hagerstown areas. The R.N. to B.S.N. program is designed for the adult student who may be combining both family and professional responsibilities and who requires unusual flexibility in an education program. Students are admitted to the program every other year in September of the even years. Advantages of the outreach program include: 1) the curriculum extends over a two-year time frame, 2) class times are scheduled to meet the needs of the majority of the students, 3) clinical experiences are flexible so students may define their own learning goals and clinical sites, 4) all degree requirements except to a two-week course can be met at the Western Maryland off-campus site, and 5) faculty are avail-

This entering class of 1990 represents 14 years of service to the Western Maryland region by the University of Maryland nursing outreach program and its association with CAHEC. CAHEC serves as the "home base" for the University's outreach programs in Western Maryland. The Center provides support for the program by providing offices and administrative support services for faculty, telephone service, classroom space, an on-site medical learning resource center staffed with a trained librarian and capable of conducting data base literature searches, program publicity and accommodations for visiting faculty. In addition to the baccalaureate program, the University offers a master's in nursing outreach program. The programs are supported by funding from the federal Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Nursing. The University of Maryland coordinator of the outreach programs is Jean Creasia, Ph.D. The Cumberland faculty for the B.S.N. program includes Gail Mazzocco, R.N., Ed.D. and Sue Coyle, R.N., M.S. The Hagerstown program faculty includes Elizabeth Tanner, Ph.D.

radio," stated Renee. Beiler's inside maintenance employees meet every morning at Appalachian Crossroads and they travel together to Bausch & Lomb. This eliminates what could be another barrier to daily employment — dependency on others for transportation.

These five employees are part of the 70 developmentally disabled adults who meet at the Appalachian Crossroads Day Center each morning. Presently there is a waiting list for admittance to the Center. Besides the Day Center, there are currently seven residential homes in the county. One group home houses six trainees, the other homes each have three.

In addition to the daily activities offered in the homes and at the Day Center, area developmentally disabled adults may attend a variety of evening enrichment classes. They may also participate in bowling leagues and aerobics classes. The list of day and evening activities in some of the participants' schedules seems overwhelming.

Maryland is currently at the forefront of this nation's effort to implement supported employment. Maryland was one of 10 states awarded a five-year grant in 1985 by the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services (OSERS), United States Department of Education.

The funds were awarded to the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation of the Maryland State Department of Education, in the amount of approximately $450,000 per year until fiscal year 1990.

The goal of the Project is to convert 65 per cent of current day activity and sheltered work placements to supported employment by 1990.

Whether or not the statewide goal will be met is yet to be determined, but the local programs currently in place seem to have met with success.

In speaking of local developmentally disabled adults, Beiler stated, "The opportunities seem to be endless. We don't dwell on barriers that they have, but on what they can do."

Schaefer Launches State Employees' Charity Campaign

Governor William Donald Schaefer announced Monday that the goal of the 1989 United Charity Campaign for State Employees and Retirees is to raise $2.4 million to support non-profit agencies that help Marylanders.

Nearly 2,000 employees attended noon-hour kick-off ceremonies that included the Morgan State University Choir at the state office complex in Baltimore.

"Each year state employees outdo themselves by supporting programs that benefit people of all ages, all across the state," the governor said. "I am proud of their record of giving. Their generosity proves that they care about their neighbors and that they agree with me, that 'The People of Maryland Are Worth Every Dime.'"

"Without our generous support many private agencies simply could not help people. There was a time when people in a community could rally around to help a family in need. Today our problems are more complex, people are often too busy to personally lend a hand, and there are many more people who need help. That is where the United Charity Campaign comes in," the governor said.

Through state employee support of the United Charity Campaign financial support is provided to programs such as The Red Cross, Salvation Army, Associated Black Charities, Family Counseling Association, Meals on Wheels, Cancer Association, Kidney Foundation, Sickle Cell Anemia, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and neighborhood agencies that provide shelter and soup kitchens.

The 1989 UCC kick-off in Baltimore was followed by a similar program in the House of Delegates in Annapolis on Wednesday. The Bowie State University Jazz Ensemble provided music for the lunch-hour ceremony. One hundred and one prizes were contributed for the kick-offs and free refreshments were donated for each location.

St. Mark's Church To Host Guest Choir

A group of over 20 persons from the Lord of Life Lutheran Church, Fairfax, Va., will be the guest choir at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Oakland, on Sunday, October 1.

The group is under the direction of Chris Johnston, who will be the guest organist for the day. The service begins at 10 a.m.

A reception will immediately follow at the church, and the public is invited to attend.

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, visits, and most of all for their prayers. And the Presence of The Lord with me while in Sacred Heart and Georgetown Hospitals. Thank you again for so many phone calls, cards, and visits. I also wish to thank my sons, daughters, my pastor and all my loved ones.

SUPPLY & DEMAND

Sometimes the old-timers will say "They're not making any more land!" Perhaps they mean to say that since there's only a limited supply of land available, the price goes up as the supply goes down.

That IS the way prices are set on land and housing. As demand for housing in a particular area rises, with a limited supply available for purchase, prices also rise. If there is an over-supply, coupled with little demand, prices will fall.

can also make a difference in the price the public is willing to pay. A home located near shopping, schools, and recreation in a growing city may bring a higher price than one located on the fringe of town away from family activities.

Another phenomenon of valuing real estate is the principle of "highest and best use". Under this concept, a house on a large corner lot currently used as a family residence might, if located near a business district, be worth much more as the location for a restaurant or other business (with the house removed). Learning to place a value on homes and land is a skill learned from long experience. And just imagine how many other factors might cause the value to change. Don't leave the pricing on your home to chance. Use the skills of the best real estate agent available.

If you're planning to sell your home soon and would like information on its current value, give us a call at 387-5303 or come by our office located in the McHenry Plaza.

Mountain Top Christian Church To Show Movies

The Mountain Top Christian Assembly of God Church, located just east of Mtn. Lake Park along State Rt. 135, will hold its monthly movies for all ages this Friday, Sept. 29, beginning at 7 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

One of the films to be presented will be "Twice Pardoned" (Parts 1 and 2), the story of ex-convict Harold Morris whose running with the wrong crowd led him to a double life sentence in prison. Through interview segments with Dr. James Dobson, Morris describes a series of events that prompted him to become a Christian and how he has spent more than a decade since then helping teens avoid the snares that nearly destroyed his life. The evening will begin with a movie from the Bible Adventure Series for Children, entitled "Joseph's Dream," an animated film based on the life of this Bible hero.

A love offering may be given to help cover the cost of renting the films. A time of fellowship and refreshments will follow the film showings. All are invited to attend.

Green Selected CAC Transportation Employee Of Week

The Garrett Transportation Program of Community Action has named Arden Green as Employee of the Week.

Green has been employed as contract mechanic since 1985. He maintains the company's 19 vehicles, keeping them in adherence to the regulations and guidelines of the Public Service Commission. According to a CAC spokesman, the chief function of the contract mechanic is to provide for the safety and comfort of the clients through continual maintenance of the vehicles. The mechanic works co-jointly with the drivers to keep the programs vehicles in top condition.

Linda Green, transportation director, said, "Of course, vehicle maintenance is the key to a safe effective operation. Arden is highly capable and he is dependable. A good mechanic is expedient to our effort. We are glad to have Arden on our team."

Green has also served Garrett County as a school bus driver for 11 years. He is affiliated with the Gortner Union Church. He enjoys sports, especially baseball, and he is an avid fan of the Southern Rams. He is a Vietnam veteran, having served in the war as an aircraft mechanic. He resides in Oakland with his wife and three children.

Alpha Alpha Members Meet In Aberdeen

The Executive Board Meeting of Alpha Beta State of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International met at Aberdeen on September 16. Presiding was Dr. Elizabeth Barger, Alpha Beta State president.

This year's theme is "Charting The Future: Visions For Tomorrow." Vision I is a revitalized and informed membership, and Vision II is more participation on state and local level. Vision III is preparation for leadership-a meaningful leadership program made available to the total membership. Vision IV is effective participatory communications.

Dr. Barger conducted a session on leadership training entitled "What is a leader?" New by-laws and addenda to standing rules were given to each chapter president for distribution to local society executive committee chairmen.

State committee chairmen set goals for the year.

Attending from Garrett County's Alpha Alpha Chapter were President Barbara B. Flinn and Vice President Rosanne Sherwood, and from Eta Chapter in Allegany County were Jane Belt, representing the Eta Chapter president, and Sharon Diehl, Program of Work chairman.

Delta Kappa Gamma is a society for key women teachers. The local chapter has a membership of 40. Other officers of Alpha Alpha are 2nd vice president, Sandra Nesline; secretary, Vonda Yunker; treasurer, Anna Marie Miller; and parliamentarian, Mildred Wucik.

Alpha Alpha held its first meeting of the year last Friday at the Will O' the Wisp, Deep Creek Lake. In charge of the program were Joan Crawford and Anna Kay Beachy, of the Personal Growth and Services Committee. The topic was, "Book Review and Exchange," with Sally Schwing, local author, as guest speaker.

Local Century 21 Realtors Attend Regional Event

Representatives of Century 21 Country Time Realty, McHenry, attended the regional conference of Century 21 of the Mid-Atlantic States in Ocean City, September 12-14.

The conference is held annually to bring together representatives of affiliated real estate companies from throughout the Mid-Atlantic region. Special seminars and sessions were held by nationally-known educational speakers and Century 21 Corporate Vice President Martin J. Reuter gave the conference an international update.

In addition, conferees were able to view an exhibit featuring new real estate related marketing services. Planned social events gave attendees a chance to meet other Century 21 professionals to network and share common experiences.

"As a company, we believe very strongly in educational and motivational programs," said Dick Eagan, president of Century 21 of the Mid-Atlantic states. "These conferences are extremely important in that they allow us to come together and learn from other industry leaders and fellow Century 21 realtors."

"We certainly were pleased to have Robert Kirkham, manager; Barbara Kirkham, broker; Lana Brennenman-Roby and Patty Sines, realtors, of Century 21 Country Time Realty attend and participate. Century 21 is the world's largest real estate sales organization with more than 7,000 independently owned and operated offices serves clients on four continents.

Window Tinting Laws Discussed By State Police

Maryland State Police are developing information on companies which tint vehicle windows in violation of state and federal laws.

"A lot of people don't know it's illegal," said Corporal Chuck Lukoski of the Maryland State Police Automotive Safety Enforcement Division.

Appearing on the Maryland State Police Radio Program, a weekly public service broadcast, Corporal Lukoski warned vehicle owners that troopers will step up enforcement of window tint laws by issuing equipment repair orders or citations.

"A citation doesn't solve the problem although a citation could also be issued," added Corporal Lukoski. According to the Code of Maryland Regulations, Maryland's Vehicle Inspection Program, add-on tinting or glazing is not permitted on any Class A passenger vehicle. Tinting is only allowed on vans and multi-purpose passenger vehicles on any window except the windshield and windows to the immediate right and left of the driver. Add-on tinting is also allowed on rear windows of pickup trucks if they are equipped with an outside rear view mirror on each side of the truck.

If a motorist is stopped by a police officer for having illegal add-on tinting, they will be issued a safety equipment repair order. This requires the motorist to correct the defect within 10 days and have the correction inspected within 30 days to avoid suspension of the vehicle's registration. Add-on tinting is very hard to remove and usually comes off in small pieces.

The Maryland State Police Automotive Safety Enforcement Division says the stepped up enforcement is intended to enhance safety on the highway for all motorists.

"Operator to operator eye sight or signals between operators (drivers) causes a safety problem especially at intersections or stop signs," said Corporal Lukoski.

The Maryland State Police Automotive Safety Enforcement Division is advising people who purchased illegal window tint to request a refund from the installer. If that fails, however, people may file a complaint with the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office.

The Maryland State Police Radio Program is a weekly public service broadcast carried on approximately 50 radio stations in Maryland and the District of Columbia. The program is supported by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and the Maryland Department of Transportation.

Durable Medical Equipment Alert Issued By Curran

Citing a growing number of consumer complaints regarding purchases of durable medical equipment such as wheelchairs, walkers, canes and other supplies, Maryland Attorney General J. Joseph Curran Jr. has alerted consumers to carefully consider all of the facts regarding the use of this equipment and to discuss it fully with their doctor before agreeing to purchase any piece of durable medical equipment (DME).

"Consumers have to be cautious about the purchase and use of durable medical equipment," Curran said. "We have received complaints from many consumers and their health care providers about medical equipment dealers who have not fully disclosed the cost of the equipment, the actual usefulness of a particular piece of equipment for a patient's problems, or the fact that non-renewable insurance benefits may be used to pay for the equipment," Curran said.

For example, Curran said that senior citizens may receive unsolicited phone calls from durable medical equipment salespeople who ask questions about the consumer's medical history and then recommend a piece of equipment.

"A consumer with arthritic knees may be urged to buy knee braces. These recommendations are made without the benefit or full knowledge of the consumer's medical problems and without a thorough medical exam. The company providing the equipment then forwards to the consumer's doctor the forms necessary for insurance benefits to cover the cost of the equipment, apparently hoping the forms will be completed without full review and without discussion between the doctor and consumer," Curran explained.

Curran added that while many pieces of durable medical equipment do genuinely offer relief of pain and increased mobility, equipment that is not properly prescribed or used can, at best, be of no use to a consumer and at worst result in harm. For this reason, he urged consumers to work closely with their physicians before making any purchases of durable medical equipment.

Curran advised consumers not to discuss their personal medical history or health insurance information over the telephone with salespeople. He further advised that some salespeople may claim that Medicare or another insurer will pay for the equipment when it will not.

The Eppley Sisters will play the chimes, vibra-harp, accordion, piano and organ, and will share from other lands, preach, and pray for the sick. Pastor G.K. Hixon invites the public to attend.

"Consumers should not be duped into believing that the equipment will be sent to them without any charge. Most insurers have limits on the benefits available for the purchase of durable medical equipment, and many also require the consumers make co-payments for the purchase except under special circumstances," Curran said.

Curran noted that in a time of runaway health care costs, it is crucial for consumers, their physicians, and their insurers, to work together closely so that any medical equipment prescribed and purchased is necessary and useful.

Any consumer who has experienced problems with the purchase or lease of durable medical equipment or has questions about solicitation by durable medical equipment dealers should write to the Health Education and Advocacy Unit, Consumer Protection Division, Office of the Attorney General, 7 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

Curran Cautions Against Junk Mail Giveaways

Maryland Attorney General J. Joseph Curran Jr. has warned consumers to be leery of "junk mail giveaways" that "may promise you the moon" but often are simply sales gimmicks for land deals, time-share properties and questionable charities.

In the latest issue of the Maryland Consumer Courier, the free tabloid newspaper prepared by the Consumer Protection Division in Curran's office, the Attorney General notes that Maryland law requires promoters to make specific disclosures on the front page of their advertisements that will protect consumers from unrealistic or inflated expectations about the "prizes" they supposedly have won.

Among the required disclosures is the retail value of each prize, the odds against winning the various prizes, the exact number of prizes in each category, and the date and location where prizes are awarded, according to the Courier.

The tabloid's lead article, "Mailbox Menace," also notes that Maryland law says consumers cannot be required to submit a sales promotion or pay any money for goods or services in order to receive their prizes. The law also forbids sellers of time shares to use sweepstakes to promote their offerings, the paper says.

A related article deals with the use of sweepstakes to raise money for charities. It observes that the fundraisers, not the charities, get most of the money raised through sweepstakes promotions — with only 3¢ to 5¢ of every dollar going to the needy.

Other articles in the award-winning, 12-page newspaper, now in its fourth year of publication, cover such topics as food labels ("The Charge of the Lite Brigade"); the perils of lawn pesticides, and the pros and cons of rent-to-own appliance deals.

According to a chart in the Courier accompanying the article on rent-to-own purchases, a consumer who wants a $400 product, but instead agrees to pay $55.55 over 18 months in order to meet the $1,000 price set by a rent-to-own company, ends up paying an "implicit interest" of 145% on that purchase. The newspaper says that consumers must ask themselves the question: "Is the convenience worth the cost?"

The Courier also contains updates on recent consumer cases handled by Curran's office.

The Courier is distributed to community organizations, businesses, public agencies and individual consumers. Copies are available at local libraries, Giant Food stores, Motor Vehicle Administration offices, Baltimore subway stations, Legal Aid offices, and elsewhere. It also is mailed directly to consumers asking to be placed on its mailing list.

Consumers who want to obtain a free copy of the Courier should write its editor, Fran Ludman, at the Consumer Protection Division, Attorney General's Office, 7 North Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202.

Frosted Corn

When do you harvest corn that has been frosted? This is not going to be an easy decision for a lot of Garrett County farmers because most of the corn could have used at least a couple more weeks without frost to approach maturity. You're going to have to keep a close eye on what is happening to your corn to determine your harvest time. I'll make a few comments for you to keep in mind on the different methods of storage.

Corn Silage: Ideally, for conventional silos you would like to put the corn in at 65% moisture, a little lower in moisture for air-tight silos. If you store the silage too wet, you will have seepage of nutrients and extra pressure on the silo walls. If you store too dry, the silo will not pack well. Heat and spoilage will occur. If the corn kernel is in the soft dough stage, chances are the corn silage will be too wet. 40% moisture in grain equals about 65% moisture whole plant silage. However, frosted leaves will result in loss of moisture. The best way to determine the moisture content is to chop up 5 lbs of corn plants. Make sure your weight is accurate. Place the material into a microwave and heat until all the moisture is out of the material. If a microwave is not available, place the material into a 200 degree F. oven for 2 or 3 hours. Subtract the weight of the dry matter from 5 lbs. and multiply by 20 which equals the moisture content. (Example 5 lbs. of original material - 2 lbs. of dry material = 3x20 = 60% moisture). I would check the corn now to see where you stand. If the corn is not ready to harvest, you will have to keep a close watch on the ear. Frosted corn will mold easily. Don't let the leaf become too dry.

High Moisture Corn: The recommended moisture content for high moisture corn is as follows: Kernel 25-30%; Kernel & Cob 27-35%. If your corn is in the soft dough stage, it may not dry down enough before molding. I have a moisture meter in my office if you want to check your corn.

Shelled Corn: The recommended moisture content is 15-18%. If you have a well ventilated storage bin, you can harvest at 22% moisture. Frosted corn, from my experience, does not dry down as fast as one may think.

If you need assistance in determining harvest time, give me a call.

Sorghum Sudangrass - Danger!

I think most of you know by now but I will just remind you that frosted Sorghum and Sudangrass is very poisonous. Prussic acid is formed when frosted. You can harvest and put in silo for 3 weeks or until fermented, then it would be safe to feed.

Caution Urged As Autumn Bike Trek Approaches

The American Lung Association of Maryland's Deep Creek Lake Autumn Bike Trek set for Saturday and Sunday, October 7 and 8, will put approximately 50 cyclists on Garrett County roads that weekend. Glen Besa, an organizer of the bike trek, urges motorists to exercise caution in passing cyclist. Besa noted, "We remind our cyclists to observe the 'Rules of the Road' and to exercise caution when riding in traffic. It is just as important for the motorist to watch out for cyclists and provide them with sufficient room to maneuver." On Saturday, cyclists will depart from the Wisp Resort in McHenry, between 11 a.m. and noon. They will proceed on Sang Run Road, left on Hoyes-Sang Run Road, to Oakland-Sang Run Road, to Mayhew Inn Road, through Swallow Falls State Park, to Cranesville Road, to Swallow Falls Road, to Oakland-Sang Run Road, to Mayhew Inn Road, to Lake Shore Drive, to Rt. 219, to Glendale Road, to State Park Drive, to Rock Lodge Road, and to Deep Creek Drive, returning to the Wisp.

On Sunday, cyclists will depart the Wisp between 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. They will proceed on Deep Creek Drive, crossing Rt. 219 on to Rock Lodge Road, to Rt. 495, to Green Glade Road, to Turkey Neck Road, to Westernport Road, to Sand Flat Road, to Paradise Point Road, to Glendale Road, to Rt. 219, to Deep Creek Drive, and back to the Wisp.

Besa also invited residents along the routes to cheer the trekkers on as they pedal these two 40-mile courses, and he also requested that they restrain their dogs as the bicyclists pass by.

at 4:30 p.m. on October 28. All are invited to attend. The price for the dinner will be $2.50 for adults and $2.25 for children 10 or younger.

The next club meeting will be October 10 to make posters for the dinner.

After the meeting we had two guest speakers from the First United National Bank speak with us on money management.

COUNTRY KIDS

by Rebecca DeBerry
The September meeting was called to order by Heidi Hauser, president. Danielle DeBerry gave the secretary's report and Jamie DeBerry gave the treasurer's report and collected dues after pledges were given. We then discussed the 4-H club picnic held at Kathy DeBerry's house and the success of the Garrett County Fair.

Under new business, we discussed Autumn Glory, Tableland Appreciation Days, and baby beef tickets. We voted to give a donation to the rescue squad and discussed next month's meeting. It will be held October 20 at 7 p.m. at Kathy DeBerry's house. Everyone is to dress up for a Halloween Party following the meeting. Nine members were present and two new members joined: David and Joshua Stephens. Danielle DeBerry and Chris Snyder gave demonstrations. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served.

Continuing Ed. Classes Offered By Garrett CC

A variety of courses are currently being offered by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College. Details about the courses may be obtained by phoning 387-6666, extension 169.

HUNTER SAFETY

A Maryland Hunter Safety Course will be offered by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College. The course will consist of four sessions and will be held at Broad Ford Elementary School. Sessions will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6-9 p.m. beginning October 3 and ending October 12.

This course is designed for the hunter wishing to gain or increase knowledge and skills related to hunter safety. The course will meet and support the Maryland State Law requirement for the new hunter.

PAINTING FOR SENIORS

A Painting for Seniors course has been scheduled by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College. This course will be held at the Oakland Center beginning Wednesday, October 4. This course will focus on tone painting and will be instructed by Louise Kitzmiller. Sessions are scheduled to be held each Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. for four sessions.

Maryland Senior Citizens, persons 60 years of age or older, may attend this course tuition free, but must supply their own materials. Prospective students are encouraged to contact Pat at 334-8304 or 387-6666, ext. 169, for more information.

Ron Friend Is SHA Employee Of The Week

Ronald D. Friend is being recognized as the Employee of the Week under the Maryland State Highway Employee Recognition Program, Garrett County office.

Friend was hired by the SHA in February 1975 as a laborer. He has since worked as a mechanic and was promoted to automotive supervisor in July 1988.

He is currently the chairman of the Garrett County SHA Quality Circle and also serves as co-chairman of the District 6 Quality Circle Advisory Committee, which is composed of Garrett, Allegany, and Washington county members. He is a member of the NRA and North American Hunting Club. He serves as a Sunday school teacher at St. Peter's Catholic Church, Oakland. He enjoys bowling, hunting, fishing, biking, and golf.

Friend resides in Loch Lynn with his wife, Mary Ann, and two children, Kathy and Paul. Mrs. Friend is a teacher at Loch Lynn Elementary School.

"Ron's assertiveness and ability to lead make him one of our most valuable employees," stated an SHA spokesman.

Hoffman Clan Meets

The Hoffman Reunion was held September 17 at Blackwater Falls State Park, with Jim and Mary Hoffman, Cresaptown, as hosts. Some 40 persons, representing the states of Maryland, West Virginia, and Ohio, were present.

Searching for a Flexible Certificate of Deposit?

Open a First United WINDOW* Certificate of Deposit

First United's "Window" Certificate of Deposit allows you to enjoy an attractive interest rate today, without being concerned about where rates will be in six months!

The "Window" CD has a one-year term, with a one-time chance for you to withdraw part or all of your funds without any early withdrawal penalties. Six months from the date that you purchase your CD, there is a seven-day "window". During this period you may take advantage of this early redemption feature. Best of all, you may open your "Window" CD with a minimum deposit of $5,000. So there's no need to worry about rising interest rates since you'll only be locking in, initially for the first six months.

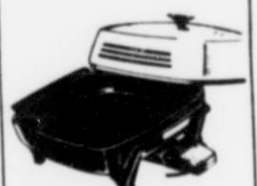

*The "Window" CD is compounded semi-annually. Early withdrawal penalties will be in effect for any withdrawal made other than during the stated "window" period. The "Window" CD is being offered for a limited time only. The above rate is subject to change without notice.

Senior Citizens Back From Trip To Ocean City

Forty-six members of the Oakland Chapter of the AARP returned Friday from a five-day trip to Ocean City. Side trips included one to Atlantic City, N.J., crossing the Delaware Bay on the Lewes-Cape May Ferry; a guided tour of Assateague Island to see the wild ponies; to the Salisbury Zoo; and a pewter factory and show rooms.

The group had a roast beef dinner one night at the Ocean City Convention Center along with other senior citizens. Music and dancing rounded out the evening. Another night they ate at the Phillip's Seafood Restaurant and were entertained by the Wills Family.

The annual Sun-fest was in full swing Thursday and many spent a portion of the day visiting the food and crafts tents, and being entertained by the Mummer's Band from Philadelphia. Others took advantage of the free ride on the board walk tram to see close-up all the many shops, hotels and condos along the waterfront. Everyone had a panoramic view of the city from a boat cruise along the ocean front the previous day.

Those taking the trip were: Holly Bartlett, Fern Beachy, Priscilla Bell, Linward and Wilma Bittinger, Paul and Ruth Calderwood, Raymond and Marie Coddington, Ann Connor, Elsie Cross, Anna Durst, Kathleen Finch, Alma George, Catherine Gibbard, Arleigh and Mabel Hauser, Evelyn Kahl, Mary Lambert, Doty Lear, Dorothy Lear, Elizabeth Lee, Jane Miller, Elizabeth Mina, Norm and Kay Morrison, Elizabeth Mullenex, Josie Parsons, Lorena Smith, Ernest and Alice Spoerlein, Kate Stewart, Keith and Evelyn Steyer, Paul and Eileen Steyer, Laura Turner, Martha Vandall, Oliver and Bernadine Wagner, Elizabeth Watkins, Earl and Kathleen Wentz, Phyllis Winklevoss, and Marguerete Wotring.

C&P DONATES SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS — The C&P Telephone Company has again awarded scholarship monies to Garrett Community College in the amount of $1,600, according to Nancy Nemeth, manager of External Relations, pictured right. This money will be used to pay tuition for 2-4 full time students at the college. Criteria for receiving a C&P scholarship are that a student must be a resident of Garrett County, a full time student at Garrett, with a 2.0 grade point average, and have demonstrated financial need. Selection of recipients for the scholarships will be made by the Scholarship Committee of the college under the direction of Cissy VanSickle, financial aid officer, pictured left.

in Coshocton, Ohio, on Sunday. Their aunt was Irene Brenne-man widow of Robert Brenne-man. She was 86 years of age.

PERSONAL ITEMS
Russell and Dorothy Teets visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brenne-man on Friday evening. Russell and Mary Brenne-man and Clara Wiley visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Brien in Accident on Sunday afternoon.

Sunday dinner guests of Ida Reckner were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Giotfelty and sons, Mr. and Mrs. James Giotfelty, and Lillian Reckner and Michael.

C&P To Begin Construction On Service Center

C&P Telephone Company of Maryland will soon begin construction and renovation work on its new operator service center. The announcement that a new center would be located in Cumberland was made at a press briefing in May by J. Henry Butta, president of C&P Telephone Company of Maryland, and James H. Foster, managing director — C&P Operator Services.

According to C&P Manager-External Affairs, Nancy Nemeth, the new service center will be located in approximately 11,000 square feet of space within C&P's facility at 123 S. Liberty Street. At full capacity, it will accommodate 60 operator workstations and four supervisory positions and is designed to accommodate three shifts if necessary. "We anticipate the office will become operational in the second quarter of 1990," she said.

The operators at this facility will provide customers with assistance locating telephone numbers in Maryland. Ultimately, as calling volumes increase, the number of personnel at the Cumberland facility could reach 125, Mrs.

Nemeth said.

Although some jobs may be filled by existing C&P employees, the majority of the staffing needs will be obtained from the local employment force.

"Even though the center won't be open until sometime next year, C&P is accepting applications for the positions now," Nemeth explained. "Prospective employees can obtain more information by calling 1-800-492-9375 on Mondays or Fridays between 9 and 11 a.m."

"Some new employees will be hired as early as January," she said. "They would be required to report to C&P's facility in Baltimore for training and a temporary work assignment in Baltimore until the Cumberland facility opens. Lodging and certain other expenses relating to the temporary relocation would, of course, be paid by C&P."

CHURCH NEWS

This Sunday, October 1, Holy Communion will be celebrated at each church in the Bittering Parish in keeping with World-Wide Communion Sunday.

An Adult Bible Study will begin this evening, September 28, at 7:30 p.m. at Emmanuel. Catechism class will begin on Saturday, October 7, at 10 a.m. at Emmanuel.

Pastor Louise Knotts, Margaret Herschberger, and Leora Yaste attended the Evangelism Conference held in Hagerstown last weekend.

Lectors for Sunday morning worship were: Charlotte Harkins, St. John's; Ruth DiPaolo, Emmanuel; and Floyd Baker, Zion.

Last Tuesday women from Cherry Glade Mennonite Church froze and canned 50 bushels of corn, grown on the Maust farm. The corn will be given to various needy groups, including the Rosedale Bible Institute of Irvin, Ohio.

Emmanuel's Women of the ELCA will be making layettes for Lutheran World Relief. They plan on making nine layettes. Each layette contains two shirts, four gowns, or footed sleepers, two receiving blankets, four cloth diapers, one sweater, and two safety pins. A box will be placed in the basement of the church for contributions of either new or good used items. Deadline for donations is October 13.

EMMANUEL WOMEN MEET
Emmanuel's Women of the ELCA met September 8 at the church with 11 members in attendance. Linda Buckel presided over the business meeting and opened with the September Response by Lottie Brenne-man.

The fall retreat will be held October 21-22 at Jackson's Mill. Any one planning to go should let Linda know by September 24.

Betty Buckel gave a brief report on the Convention.

Margie Brenne-man reported on the dinner for the Habitat for Humanity.

Members were reminded about the layettes, health kits and school kits. These should all be completed by November 1.

Linda distributed new sheets to go in program booklets.

Women of the ELCA Sunday will be celebrated at Emmanuel on November 12.

Pastor Louise Knotts led the program entitled, "Signs of Your Gracious Love" based on the Offertory Prayer in the Lutheran Book of Worship. The program closed with a hymn and the Offertory prayer.

The next meeting is scheduled for October 13. Ferne Beachy and Martha Giotfelty will lead the program, "Celebrating Women of Faith," a program for the Ecumenical Decade.

ST. JOHN'S WOMEN MEET

St. John's Women of the ELCA met September 21 at the church following hymn practice. There were seven in attendance. Nicky O'Brien and Barbara Herbert led the program, "Bright and Beautiful," which was the theme of the second Synodical Convention of the Women of the ELCA on July 28-29 in Charleston, W.Va.

The goal of the Convention was to educate women to "recognize the value of their inner beauty and their potential to brighten the lives of others." Several prayers, hymns and scripture passages from the convention were shared with the group. The program ended with a reading by Ralph Waldo Emerson and a prayer.

The business meeting was opened by Carole Peck.

The health kits that the group are assembling should be brought to the church by the end of the month and will then be mailed to Lutheran World Relief.

A congregational dinner will be held at the church on Sunday, October 22, and everyone is to bring a covered dish.

A series of questions concerning the group was received from Marjorie Wolf and is to be filled in and returned.

A letter was read concerning the fall retreat at Jackson's Mill to be held on October 21-22.

The meeting adjourned with the missionary benediction. The next meeting will be October 19, with Shirley Harkins leading a Bible Study.

ATTENDS DAV EVENT

Lottie Brenne-man attended the honoring of the Gold Star Mothers of Disabled American Veterans on Sunday at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Oakland. The pastor of St. Paul's spoke of the special occasion, and Mrs. Hazel Meyers spoke briefly and had a special prayer. DAV members attended the church as a group.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

Lana Brenne-man Roby attended the Regional Convention for Century 21 last week in Ocean City. She and her husband, Larry Roby, spent some time later vacationing in Ocean City.

Miss Knotts Weds Mr. Hamperian During Recent Double-Ring Ceremony

Kathleen Knotts recently became the bride of John S. Hamperian at Blackwater Falls State Park, Davis, W.Va. The Rev. Jack Neilson, Parkersburg, W.Va., officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Knotts, Horse Shoe Run, W.Va. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carnick Hamperian, Williamstown, W.Va.

Guitarist was John Rosenbohm, Parkersburg.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white satin featuring an off-the-shoulder neckline extending to short puffed sleeves accented with rosebuds. The fitted bodice and dropped waist of beaded sequins and pearls flowed into a cathedral train accented with sheer window panels of lace appliques and bow.

The headpiece consisted of silk flowers with sprays of pearls, with pout and fingertip veil. The elbow-length gauntlet gloves were accented in lace and pearls. Both accessories were made by the groom's sister-in-law.

The bride carried a cascade of peach miniature roses and peach altermonies highlighted with Stephanotis, ivy and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Amy Martin, Morgantown, W.Va. Bridesmaids were Alisa Hopkins, Parkersburg, and Elizabeth Jenkins, Morgantown.

Flower girl was Leslie Strawser, niece of the bride. Best man was John Henrie, Williamstown. Groomsmen were Brian Porterfield, Morgantown, and Patrick

Riley Couple To Be Honored With 50th Anniversary Reception

Edith and Harvey Riley will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, October 8, with a reception given in their honor by their children.

The reception will be held at the Bethel United Methodist Church, Mtn. Lake Park, from 2 to 5 p.m. All friends and family are invited to attend.

The couple requests that guests bring no gifts except their love and friendship.

Sandra Beachy To Wed Daniel Clark

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Beachy, Confluence, Pa., announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Sandra Lavonne, to Daniel Scott Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Clark Sr., Red House.

The wedding ceremony will take place on Saturday, October 7, at 1 p.m. at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Oakland.

Some invitations have been sent, but the couple invites all friends and relatives to attend.

Beitzel-Diehl Couple To Wed

Marian Lorraine Beitzel, Grantsville, and Lee Allen Diehl, Bedford, Pa., announce their engagement and forthcoming marriage.

Miss Beitzel is currently employed at Goodwill Mennonite Home. She obtained a G.E.D. in 1969, and has had varied work experience, including owner and manager of Casselman Craft and Gift Shop.

She also served as a teacher's aide in the Garrett County School system for nine years, working with the severe and profoundly mentally and physically handicapped for one year. She was a nurse's aide in Garrett County and El Dorado, Ark., for two years, and completed the Dale Carnegie course on public speaking and human relations in Arkansas.

Mr. Diehl graduated from Bedford High School in 1964. He obtained a B.S. degree in agricultural education from Penn State University in 1968, and currently serves as assistant manager with the Farm Bureau in Bedford.

The wedding will be held on Sunday, October 22, at 2 p.m. at the Cherry Glade Mennonite Church. A reception will follow in the church fellowship hall.

Although some invitations have been sent, the couple invites all friends and relatives to attend the wedding.

Wittstadt-Padgett Engagement Noted

The engagement of Rosemary Helen Wittstadt to Ensign William S. Padgett, USN, son of Major and Mrs. Jerry W. Padgett, of Hampton, Va., has been announced by her parents, Judge and Mrs. Gerard W. Wittstadt, of Baltimore and Deep Creek Lake (Swanton).

Miss Wittstadt, a graduate of Notre Dame Preparatory School and Towson State University, is a graduate student at the University of Maryland, School of Nursing. Ensign Padgett, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, is a medical student at the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences in Bethesda.

The bride-elect is a direct descendant of Charlemagne and of many of the royal families of Europe.

Wedding plans have not been completed.

Mathias that the playground had some of the work completed, but that removing exposed roots and making other improvements would cost about $2,800. There also remains the problem of lead in the water, requiring a flushing of drinking fountains. A filter is to be installed to help with rust problems, and a request for replacing of pipes during Christmas vacation will be made.

Lack of planning time for the teachers due to the loss of a teacher and an aide, and having split classes will result in an appearance before the Board of Education on October 2.

A letter was received from Wes Fint, a freshman at Potomac State College, thanking the PTO for scholarship money awarded him.

The Halloween committee is composed of Sheila Reeves, Junelle Harsh, Mary Rembold, Stacy Fint, Betty Fint, Linda Martin, Lois Layman, Delores Harsh and Mrs. Callahan. They report that the party will be held on Saturday, October 28.

Yearbook Committee is chaired by Lori Durst and Betty Fint with Linda Snyder, Robin Feather and Marcia Rumer being members.

The Finance Committee, composed of Linda Martin, Mr. Lofink, Robin Collins, Pam Hinton and Karen Teets, reported that the following need funding: a Birthday Book program, listening centers, window blinds, wood to construct book cases, donations to the Scholarship Committee and Playground Committee. They will also plan a spring fundraiser.

The teachers said they are disappointed in the new reading program. Problems are being encountered both at the elementary level and junior high. They also reported that there remain problems with busing and their schedules.

Karen Teets reported on her attendance at Board of Education meetings during the summer, her involvement in the plan preparation, and what would lie ahead for Aurora if that plan is implemented.

It is hoped to activate an Advisory Committee at Aurora. A request will be made to Mr. Mattingly that his students paint murals for the gym, cafeteria, and elementary hall walls of Aurora School.

The attendance banner went to Mrs. Dixon's 5th and 6th grade class.

Plans will be to have speakers at both the October and November meetings, hopefully to have Dewey Conrad at the October meeting to discuss the problem of the lead content in the water supply.

Correction Noted

In last week's edition of The Republican the Harvey-Wiles engagement announcement incorrectly listed the name of the bride-to-be as Tessa Marie Harvey. It should have read Lesa Marie Harvey.

State Tourism Conference Set

For October 22-24

The Maryland Office of Tourism Development, a division of the Maryland Department of Economic and Employment Development (DEED), and the private sector Maryland Tourism Council will co-sponsor the ninth annual Maryland Governor's Tourism Conference October 22-24 at the Turf Valley Hotel and Country Club in Howard County. The conference is open to the public.

"This year's statewide tourism conference will focus on issues of interest to people in the service industry, which is the second largest industry in the state," said Maryland tourism director Daniel V. McLeod. McLeod said the conference traditionally attracts representatives from the state's hospitality industry, as well as tourism specialists from the public and private sectors in all regions of Maryland.

This year, state legislators will be invited to attend the conference. "We want to bring home the point that tourism is a clean industry that brings in revenue, creates jobs and doesn't cost the taxpayer money," said McLeod. A recent survey by the United States Travel Data Center showed that, in 1988, travelers in Maryland spent $5.8 billion in the state, and that nearly 100,000 Marylanders work in tourism-related jobs.

Among the seminars scheduled for the 1989 Maryland Governor's Tourism Conference are: How to Attract and Keep a Topnotch Workforce; Trade Show Dynamics; Non-Manipulative Selling; Peak Performer's Attitude; Lobbying Part II; Brochure Design; and International Marketing. There also will be a workshop on special events planning.

Sponsors of individual hospitality events include the National Aquarium, The Washington Post, Travel Agent Magazine, The Baltimore Sun, Ocean City Department of Tourism, Central Region of Maryland, America West Airlines, Historic Savage Mill, Three Centuries Tours of Annapolis, The Baltimore Tourism Association and The Chesapeake Tourism Association.

Ron Eyre, Maryland Travel Council president, and conference chairman Stan Kahn will preside at the official welcoming ceremony at 3:45 p.m. on Sunday, October 22. A crab feast with folk music and square dancing will begin at 7 p.m. that evening, and will be sponsored by the Turf Valley Hotel, Crab Shanty Restaurant, the Restaurant Association of Maryland and The Columbia Inn.

Howard County Executive Elizabeth Bobo will give the official welcoming address on Monday, October 23 at 11 a.m., and introduce DEED Secretary J. Randall Evans as the keynote speaker. A familiarization tour of Howard County will take place that afternoon. The evening awards ceremony will recognize the Travel Person of the Year, the winners of the 1989 Tourism Media Awards will be announced.

Cost of the three-day 1989 Maryland Governor's Tourism Conference is $250 for Maryland Tourism Council members and $325 for non-members. The event is open to the public. To register, persons should call the Maryland Tourism Council at (301) 974-4473.

Both flies and frogs have been known to catch athlete's foot.

ARMED SERVICES REVIEW

Gary Warnick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Warnick, Swanton, has enlisted in the U.S. Army.

A 1987 graduate of Southern High School, Warnick has been serving several years with the National Guard, Co. C 121st Engineer Battalion, Oakland. He took basic training and A.I.T. training as an H.E.O. at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. He was also employed by Shur's Tin Shop prior to his enlistment. He left for Ft. Leonard Wood on August 27, where he spent two weeks. He then left on September 9 for a tour of duty in Korea as a heavy equipment operator. His fiancée, Michelle Rhodes, will be attending college until his return.

U.S. Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Theodore L. Wakefield, son of Shirley A. and Theodore L. Wakefield Sr., Oakland, recently visited Palma, Spain on the Island of Mallorca while serving with Helicopter Anti-Submarine Squadron-17, Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla., embarked aboard the aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

This marked the first port visit during the squadron's Mediterranean Sea deployment.

ment. The visit came after several weeks of flight operations at sea. During the visit, Wakefield participated in various tours and activities in and around Spain.

He joined the Navy in January 1977.

Chris A. Davy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie L. Didawick, Mount Storm, W.Va., has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior airman.

Davy is a tactical aircraft maintenance specialist at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, N.C., with the 4th Aircraft Generation Squadron.

The airman is a 1986 graduate of Union Educational High School, Mount Storm.

Basic Education Courses Available In Three Places

Adult Basic Education/GED classes are being offered by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College in three locations in the county.

Classes are currently underway on Monday and Wednesday evenings at the Oakland Center of GCC and on Monday evenings at Grantsville Elementary School. The Oakland classes meet from 6 to 9:15 p.m. on Mondays and from noon to 3:15 p.m. on Wednesdays, while the Grantsville class meets from 5:30 to 8:45 p.m. Mondays.

The third class will be held at the Bloomington Elementary School and is slated to begin October 4. It will meet from 6 to 9:15 p.m. on each successive Monday through January 18, 1990.

The ABE/GED classes are designed to meet a variety of student needs, according to Patricia Baer, coordinator of ABE instruction for GCC. Students may study for a Maryland high school diploma, brush up on forgotten skills to enter college, or learn basic skills such as reading. Trained tutors are available to assist non-readers.

The course is designed to accept students on an on-going basis at no cost to the student. Pre-registration is not necessary. Persons wishing to attend may simply walk into the class.

Persons with questions about the program may direct them to Ms. Baer at 334-8304 or 387-6666, extension 169.

New Class Focuses On Supervisory And Management Skills

A new short course, "Essential Skills for Supervisors," is being offered by Garrett Community College for those who face the many daily challenges of supervision.

According to a GCC spokesman, it is designed to help supervisors and managers learn to plan, organize and control their work in the most effective and productive manner. The class will also deal with the "how to's" of getting work done through others and staffing for productivity. The "hands-on" nature of the class will make it valuable for new as well as experienced managers.

It will be held on three consecutive Tuesdays, from October 10 through October 24, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. at the McHenry campus. Anyone wishing to register for this course or obtain additional information should call the Continuing Education Division of the college at 387-6666, ext. 169.

It was decided to have another reunion in two years.

African Dance Concert Set At Frostburg State

The insistent rhythms, thrilling dances, and powerful dramas of West African culture are coming to Frostburg this Friday, September 29, as part of Western Maryland's "Africa! A Celebration of Human Spirit."

The critically acclaimed WO'SE Dance Theatre, under the artistic direction of Aidoo Mamadi, will present two programs — a master class and concert performance — combining African dance with classical drama and Senegalese drumming.

An emerging African-American dance company, the WO'SE Dance Theatre specializes in West Africa's unique forms of dance expression. These dance forms, at once deeply sensual and acrobatically athletic, include acrobatics and still-dancing, and they hauntingly evoke the history, culture and spirit of Senegal, Guinea, Mali and Liberia.

"Often startling in their dynamic displays of technical virtuosity and always exotically beautiful, the WO'SE dances materialize in the insistent, ever-changing rhythms of the 'Drums of WO'SE,'" stated an FSC spokesman. "This battery of superb percussionists through their authentic instruments tell the stories and express the mind and heart of the West African people."

Both the master class and the concert performance will feature the premier dancer/acrobat, Mohammed Camara, who starred for many years with Djoliba, the internationally award-winning national dance company of Guinea. Mohammed Camara is known throughout the world for the genius of his dancing pyrotechnics and the magic of his creative artistry. As a cultural diplomat representing Guinea, he has traveled the world over, sharing the West African culture and spirit in international festivals, competitions, and concerts.

The Master Class in African Dance by WO'SE with Mohammed Camara will be presented on Friday, September 29, in Frostburg State University's P.E. Center Dance Room from 9 to 11 a.m. The concert performance, African Dance: A Display and Explanation by WO'SE featuring Mohammed Camara, will be presented that afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in Beall High School. The public is invited.

"Africa!" is sponsored by the Maryland Humanities Council (NEH), the Maryland State Arts Council (NEA), the Regional Education Service Association (RESA), FSU, Allegany Community College, and Garrett Community College. The 10-day festival continues through September 30. For more information on WO'SE or any of the African festival's other events, persons may call (301) 689-4151.

STANDING TIMBER FOR SALE

The Maryland Forest, Park and Wildlife Service is offering for sale the following timber on 61 acres of Compartment 29-30 of Savage River State Forest. Said timber is estimated to cut 359,209 Bd. Ft. of sawtimber according to the International "Saw Key" Rule, and 221 standard cords of pulpwood, more or less. All trees 11" DBH and larger with at least one 6" log to an 8" top DBH with less than 50% defect were felled as saw timber. Timber is located off the Fairview Road approximately 3 miles East of its intersection with the New Germany Road. Timber is offered for sale subject to the following conditions:

1. Timber will be shown at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, October 10, 1989. Anyone interested in seeing this timber may meet the new section of the Fairview Road at the above date and time.
2. Contract/Bid Forms will be available at the showing or from the Savage River State Forest Headquarters, Route 2, Box 63-A, Grantsville, MD 21536 or phone 301-895-5759.
3. A Security Bond in the amount of $4,000 must be posted upon submission of the bid to the Maryland Forest, Park and Wildlife Service.
4. The Operator must be a registered Forest Products Operator in Maryland for 1989 to be awarded successful bidding.
5. A Performance Bond in the amount of $4,000 must be posted upon acceptance of the Contract by the State of Maryland. The Security Bond may be applied to cover the Performance Bond.
6. All Timber volumes noted in this offering are estimates. Parties bidding on this timber should determine such volumes to their own satisfaction. No adjustments on the basis of volumes will be made with Buyers.
7. Bidder may pay 50% of Bid Price on acceptance of Contract, with the balance payable within 90 calendar days from bid acceptance. If the Buyer selects this option, the delayed payment must be covered by a payment surety bond in a form acceptable to the State.
8. Bids will be received up until 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 24, 1989. —Adv. 31-21.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Public notice is hereby given that the Town of Oakland will receive sealed bids until 10:00 a.m. on October 12, 1989, at the City Hall, 109 South Third Street, Oakland, Maryland 21550 for construction associated with emergency water distribution rehabilitation.

Plans and specifications are on file at the office of the Town of Oakland, City Hall, 109 South Third Street, Oakland, Maryland 21550. Bids may not qualify any of the specifications immediately after the closing time for receipt of bids, all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud at the office of the Town of Oakland.

Copies of the plans and specifications for this Contract may be obtained by depositing Fifty Dollars ($50.00) with the Town of Oakland. The deposit is non-refundable.

A prebid conference will be held at the offices of the Town of Oakland on Friday, October 6, 1989, at 1:00 p.m. Attendance at this conference is recommended for anyone considering submitting a bid.

This procurement is subject to the applicable provisions of Title 14, Subtitle 5 of the State

Finance and Procurement Article, covering purchases from South Africa and Namibia. For any procurement over $100,000, the successful bidder or offeror, at the time of contract award, shall certify that (1) it is not doing business with or in South Africa and Namibia, it abides by certain principles regarding equal treatment for races, and the hiring, training and improvement of quality of life for Blacks, Asians and other Non-Whites.

A certified check payable to the Town of Oakland or a bid bond on the bid form executed by the bidder and a surety company approved by the Owner, in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the bid, shall be submitted with each bid, to guarantee the bidder's entrance into the contract. If given the award, No bid bond shall be waived or returned because the Bidder has failed to or cannot comply with any requirements as set forth in the specifications and any applicable municipal ordinances. No bid may be withdrawn for thirty (30) calendar days after school closing time for receipt of bids.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in the bidding.

LEGAL NOTICE

Town of Grantsville $372,800 Water System Improvements Bond of 1989.

Notice is hereby given by the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Grantsville, Maryland, that Ordinance No. 89-1 was adopted at a duly constituted Meeting of the Mayor and Council on September 18, 1989.

Ordinance No. 89-1 authorizes and empowers the Town of Grantsville to issue and sell, upon its full faith and credit, a general obligation bond in the aggregate principal amount of Three Hundred Seventy Two Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($372,800), pursuant to the authority of Sections 31 to 37, inclusive, of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1987 Replacement Volume and 1988 Cumulative Supplement) and Sections 18.59 and 18.61 of the Charter of the Town of Grantsville, as amended, the bond to be designated the "Town of Grantsville Water System Improvements Bond of 1989," the net proceeds of the sale thereof to be used and applied for the public purpose of financing a portion of the cost of acquiring, constructing and developing a water treatment facility and other waste system improvements, together with the acquisition of all necessary property rights and related design, engineering, planning, financial and legal expenses; prescribes the form and tenor of the bond and the terms and conditions for the issuance and sale thereof at public sale, including the form of the official notice of sale; provides that the bond will be payable in the first instance from revenues received by the Town in connection with the issuance and sale thereof at public sale; provides for the levy and collection of ad valorem taxes sufficient for the prompt payment of the maturing principal of and interest on the bond, provides that the full faith and credit and unlimited taxing power of Town of Grantsville shall be irrevocably pledged to the payment of such principal and interest; and generally relates to the issuance, sale, delivery and payment of the bond.

Ordinance No. 89-1 is available for review by the general public at the Town Office, Grantsville, Maryland 21536.

THE REPUBLICAN

VOLUME 112

OAKLAND, GARRETT COUNTY, MD., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1989

PER COPY 30¢

THERE ARE MANY WAYS to enjoy Garrett County's autumn scenery, one of which is to travel over hill and dale on horseback. The young people in the photo above are students at the Maryland Salem Children's Trust near Long Stretch who will host an open house this Sunday, Oct. 8, from 2 to 5 p.m. Among the events will be demonstrations by the children on horseback riding, music, and dance. The public is invited to attend and take a tour of the facility that serves children from troubled homes. See story on page A-9.

Thayer Notes New Policy For Drug Offenders

Garrett County Circuit Court Chief Judge Fred A. Thayer has announced that first offenders charged with simple possession of a controlled dangerous substance will receive some jail time. In the past, such offenders have almost always received a suspended jail sentence, fine and probation.

Thayer said, "This decision came after a good deal of thought about the escalating drug problem in the United States. It occurred to me that there were no customers, then there would be no street corner pushers, and eventually no drug kingpins."

Thayer noted that he heard a statement that the drug problem is the result of demand in the United States rather than the supply from Columbia. He said, "If we begin to do our best at eliminating the demand by making it tougher for the simple consumer, perhaps we can locally discourage some of the drug trade."

Thayer stated that he discussed this policy with District Court Judge Jack Turney, who also concurs. He also noted that Garrett County Sheriff M. Van Evans "concurs wholeheartedly" despite the potential space problem in the local jail. He stated that space will be made available.

Thayer's statement followed the sentencing of a Deer Park woman convicted of possession of a controlled dangerous substance. She was sentenced to five days in the Garrett County Jail.

Hagerstown Man Charged With Drug Distribution

A Hagerstown man was arrested September 26 on drug charges, according to a report by the Garrett County Sheriff's Department.

Curtis Mark Pritts, 31, was charged with the distribution of marijuana, conspiracy, and the possession of marijuana. Deputy J.D. Murphy served the arrest warrant. He was later released on $10,000 bond.

Larry Melvin Bittinger, 21, Grantsville, was arrested on two warrants last Thursday. The arrests were made on the strength of a Garrett County Grand Jury indictment stemming from an August 11 incident involving a Sheriff's Department deputy in Grantsville. Bittinger is charged with assault with intent to murder a police officer, resisting arrest, reckless endangerment, openly wearing and carrying a dangerous and deadly weapon, misdemeanor assault, destruction of property, and numerous other charges including seven traffic violations. Deputy J.B. Sowers served the arrest warrants. Bittinger was released on $500 bond.

Bobby W. Smith Jr., 23, Oakland, was arrested September 26 on the strength of a bench warrant. He faces charges of failing to appear in District Court earlier that day. Detective R.L. Sines made the arrest. Smith was released the same day on $1,000 bond.

John William Valiton, 22, Salisbury, Pa., was arrested last Thursday on a bench warrant. He is charged with the failure to appear in District Court on September 7. Chief Deputy H.S. Tichnell made the arrest. Valiton was released from police custody later that day on $300 bond.

Charles Leroy Guthrie, 29, Oakland, was arrested last Thursday on the strength of two bench warrants for failure to pay deferred payments. Deputy C.P. Nolan was the arresting officer. Guthrie is currently being housed in the Garrett County Jail.

Patricia Sue Wilt, 25, Grantsville, was arrested September 26 on the strength of a bench warrant. According to Deputy J.D. Murphy, Wilt is charged with failure to pay fines. She was released the same day after posting $15 bond.

Rex Ashley Jr., 21, Oakland, was arrested Friday on a warrant issued by Judge Turney, District Court. The warrant alleges that on August 12 the defendant furnished alcoholic beverages to two minors. Detective R.L. Sines made the arrest. Ashley was released on his own recognizance later that day.

MOST BEAUTIFUL PERSON — Ida Maust has been selected as Garrett County's Most Beautiful Person by the "Maryland, You Are Beautiful" nominating committee. She is involved in numerous community activities, including Hospice of Garrett County, Habitat for Humanity, and the House of Hope. Pictured above, left to right, are Paul Mulian, committee chairman; Maust; and Garrett County Commissioners Elwood Groves, Ernie Gregg, and John Braskey.

Stinson Trial Removed To Washington Co.

As a result of a hearing held Tuesday in Garrett County Circuit Court before Chief Judge Fred A. Thayer, the murder trial of Juanita Irene Stinson has been moved to Washington County Circuit Court.

The defense has also moved to relocate the trial involving the perjury charges. A hearing has been scheduled for October 26 for a ruling on this motion.

Stinson, 36, of Oakland, is charged with the murder of her husband, Charles William Stinson. His dismembered body was found in a shallow grave near their home on April 21.

Committee Names Ida Maust County's Most Beautiful Person

The Garrett County "Maryland, You Are Beautiful" committee has announced that Ida Maust, Accident, has been selected as Garrett County's Most Beautiful Person. She was chosen from dozens of nominations submitted by the general public in August.

Maust is involved in numerous activities throughout the community. Her services include Hospice of Garrett County, the House of Hope, and Habitat for Humanity, where she chairs the Family Ministry Committee. This committee is responsible for staying in touch with a family after their house is built to be sure that their additional needs are being met.

In addition, she is active in the Cherry Glade Mennonite Church, where her husband, Elmer, serves as pastor. She is a Sunday School teacher for two- and three-year-old children. She and her husband also own and operate Country Acres Strawberry Farm, raising strawberries, sweet corn, broccoli, cauliflower, green beans, and various other vegetables. She and her husband have nine children, and five granddaughters.

Maust said, "It was hard to believe when I got the call. I knew I was nominated, but I felt like I didn't deserve it. I thought someone else should be selected."

She noted that her most rewarding experiences have come from her involvement with Hospice. She said, "I saw a need for the Hospice concept for many years. So many people draw away from a family during terminal illness and death. It's very rewarding to be able to make dying easier for someone, and to be there to help comfort them. I've gotten very close to some of the families I've worked with."

Maust noted that with nine children, she had always done a lot of giving. "I also wanted to get involved in the community, and when my children got older, I was able to do that."

She noted that her giving comes from her Christian faith. She said, "I have a strong commitment to God. When I look at what He has done, what I do seems very little."

Maust will be featured in the 1989 Autumn Glory parade through downtown Oakland on Saturday. She will also be invited to attend a dinner with Governor William Donald Schaefer with honorees from other counties.

Deer Park Man Gets Three Years For CDS Charge

A Deer Park man was sentenced to three years in the Garrett County Jail for possession of a controlled dangerous substance with intent to distribute, during a trial held last week in Garrett County Circuit Court.

Daniel M. Tasker, 30, was sentenced by Chief Judge Fred A. Thayer, who suspended two years of the sentence. One year will be served in the Garrett County Jail, and Tasker will be placed on two years supervised probation upon his release from jail. He was also ordered to undergo drug therapy.

Tasker pled guilty to the charge during an August 17 trial, when a pre-sentence investigation was ordered. He was indicted on April 18, 1989. Charges of possession of a controlled dangerous substance and possession of drug paraphernalia were not prosecuted.

The charges stemmed from a February 14, 1989, incident, when a search warrant was served on Tasker's home.

Tasker's attorney was Robert E. Watson, Oakland.

The judge sentenced Pamela D. Tasker, 29, Deer Park, to five days in the Garrett County Jail for a charge of possession of a controlled dangerous substance. A pre-sentence investigation was ordered on August 17, when Tasker pled guilty to the charge.

Tasker was also indicted on April 18, and charges of possession of a controlled dangerous substance with intent to distribute and possession of drug paraphernalia were not prosecuted.

The charges were filed by Garrett County Sheriff's Deputy P.J. Pratt, and stemmed

PERSONALLY YOURS ANNOUNCES THE GRAND OPENING of its new store on 217 E. Alder Street in downtown Oakland. Theresa Feather, owner of Personally Yours, said that the grand opening will be held from Friday, October 6, to Tuesday, October 10. Personally Yours does embroidery and design on jackets, sweatshirts, tote bags and towels. Sheriff's Dept. Investigates $2,000 Theft

The Garrett County Sheriff's Department is investigating a theft that occurred last Thursday in Friendsville.

Robert Mark Tressler reported a breaking and entering that occurred that day between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. at his Trap Run Road residence. Loss from the theft is estimated at over $2,000. The stolen items include a Sears VHS Video Camera Recorder, a Remington model 7600 30.06 caliber rifle, a Remington model 721 or 722 .222 caliber rifle with six power scope, a Marlin Lever Action 30.30 rifle with 3x9 Bushnell scope, a Remington model 870 12-gauge shotgun (pump), and a Mossburg bolt action .22 caliber rifle with 2.5x8 Weaver scope. According to Detective R.L. Sines, the investigation is continuing.

Norman L. Hanline, Oakland, reported the theft of a $1,100 backhoe bucket that occurred sometime between September 21 and 28. The item was stolen from an open field in Sandy Beach Development off of Stockslager Road. The 18-inch backhoe bucket is designed to fit a John Deere backhoe. Detective R.L. Sines is conducting the investigation.

Jeff Alan Engel, Oakland, reported a theft that occurred early Sunday morning outside his Route 50 residence. A 1985

Honda three-wheeler all terrain vehicle (ATV) worth an estimated $1,000 was removed from his property. Police surmise that the perpetrator(s) pushed the vehicle from where it was parked near the house to Route 50 (across a pasture), where a fence was cut. The ATV was then loaded onto another vehicle at that point. Corporal L.E. Gnegy is the investigating officer.

Joseph Steven Collins, Oakland, reported a breaking and entering and theft that occurred between September 16 and 30. According to police reports, the perpetrator(s) broke through a fiberglass panel in his garage and entered the home. The inventory of missing items has not yet been completed, but a Black and Decker circular saw and a Black and Decker 1/2-inch drill valued at $175 were removed. Corporal L.E. Gnegy is investigating the theft.

A spokesperson for Mineral Fabrication, Inc., reported a breaking and entering and theft that occurred at a work site on Route 40, just west of Amish Road. The lock hasp and lock on the door were pried open and a small microwave oven was removed from the premises. Deputy P.J. Kelly is conducting the investigation.

Connie Elizabeth Harvey, Oakland, reported an attempted breaking and entering that occurred at a tool shed located on her property. According to Deputy P.J. Kelly, the perpetrators broke the shed's lock and hasp with a rock, but did not gain entry. The investigation is continuing.

Other cases currently under the investigation of the Garrett County Sheriff's Department include one involving the slaying of a family's pet dog.

Mary Catherine Paugh, Deer Park, reported that at approximately 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, someone shot and killed her family's nine-year-old female dog, part Terrier and Chihuahua. According to police reports, Mrs. Paugh left the residence for about 10 minutes, and returned to find the dog lying, shot and killed, in their driveway. His dog tags were presumed to have been stolen by the gunman. Deputy P.J. Kelly is continuing the investigation.

Virginia Hazel Kifer, Swanton, was the recent victim of a forgery, according to the Garrett County Sheriff's Department. Three personal checks belonging to Kifer were stolen and forged. According to Deputy P.J. Kelly, the investigation is continuing.

Police Reports Include Stolen Motor Vehicle

Several local thefts, including that of a vehicle, are currently under the investigation of the Maryland State Police at McHenry.

Jean L. Swauger, Grantsville, reported that her 1983 Ford Escort was taken from her driveway between 2 and 8 a.m. on Sunday.

The vehicle was reportedly unlocked, and an extra set of keys was hidden inside. The vehicle has Maryland registration NVE 876. Tfc. R.J. Resh is conducting an investigation.

William E. Enlow, Friendsville, reported that numerous hand tools were removed from a tractor shed on his farm between 9:30 p.m. on September 25 and 4 a.m. on September 26.

Tfc. G.R. Chaney is investigating the report. Total losses are valued at $688.44.

Chestnut Ridge Gas & Liquors, Grantsville, reported that their establishment was entered between 12:01 and 6 a.m. on Monday.

Entrance was reportedly gained through a duct in the rear of the building. An undetermined amount of property was removed from the store. Tfc. Resh is investigating.

Diehl Ford Sales, Grantsville, reported a destruction of property and attempted motor vehicle theft which occurred between September 23 and September 30.

According to police, someone attempted to steal a 1985 Pontiac Sunbird from the lot. The ignition switch had been removed, and the culprit attempted to hot wire the vehicle, which caused considerable damage to the steering column.

Timothy A. Artice reported the theft of four 15-inch tires and wheels from his vehicle on Saturday.

According to reports, the vehicle was at Lakeview Exxon, McHenry, for repairs. When Artice returned to pick up the vehicle, he found that all four tires and wheels had been stolen.

A 24-foot aluminum extension ladder was removed from private property on Lake Shore Drive, McHenry, between 11 a.m. last Wednesday and noon on Thursday.

The ladder, owned by Delmer Snyder, Mtn. Lake Park, was left on the property by Jerry Cline, who was working for L. &

L. Tree Service.

Tfc. D.W. Broadwater is investigating. He reported that there are no witnesses or suspects at this time.

Bloodmobile Visited By 147 Persons

One hundred forty seven persons donated blood at the September 25 visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile to Grantsville. Twelve additional persons were deferred. There were nine first time donors.

Gallon donors were Jerry Spiker, Janet Sanner, and Lizzie Y. Yoder. Sarah C. Yoder was a two gallon donor. Kathleen Margroff and Joseph B. Yoder became four gallon donors, and Olen Rembold completed his sixth gallon.

Volunteer nurses were Mildred Yoder, Rhoda Keefer, Rhoda Maust, Leona Maust, Karen Maust, Rachel Miller, Katherine Miller, Alice Orendorf, and Marvin Yoder.

Other volunteers were Rosie Miller, Lois Bender, Lois Durst, Glenda Yoder, Helen Durst, Mabel Breneman, Claudine Opel, Esther Opel, Hilda Sturtz, Alice Younkin, Kathryn Bowser, Cleda Baker, Mary Broadwater, Bertha Gerhart, and Ruth Horning.

Members of the Grantsville Volunteer Fire Department provided custodial service. Milk and orange juice were donated by Potomac Farms Dairy and Yoder's Country Market.

HELP! was the cry from several local residents recently as they desperately called their business associates, friends, and relatives to raise bail in order to be released after their "cardiac arrest." This unique fund-raiser, coordinated by A&A Realty, Better Homes and Gardens and for the benefit of the American Heart Association, raised over $8,000 for the Western Maryland office of the AHA, monies that will be used for research and educational programs on the nation's number one killer, heart disease. "Cardiac arrest" warrants for "crimes against the

"Cardiac Arrest" Benefit Raises More Than $8,000

Over local 50 "outlaws" were caught by surprise Thursday, September 21, when they were taken into custody by local "law enforcement officers," sentenced by a "judge," and jailed for their "crimes against the heart." The American Heart Association-Western Maryland Division was the benefactor of this first "Cardiac Arrest" fund-raiser in Oakland, which raised over $8,000 for the Western Office of the AHA.

Patty Manown, coordinator of the event, said that funds will be used to benefit local community programs, public and professional education and heart research.

The event, held in the former Ben Franklin building in Oakland which was provided by Wendell and Ruth Beitzel, was successful as members of the community were "arrested" by members of the Garrett County Sheriff's Department and other local volunteers.

After being "arrested," a citizen raised bail money by calling individuals who pledged donations to the Heart Association. Individuals called volunteers at the event, providing could have two persons "arrested," who would then appear before local "celebrity judges."

Judges included County Commissioner John Braskey; Francis Grimm, of First United National Bank; Rob Michael, of State Farm Insurance; Jan Finkel, of Garrett Community College; Oakland Mayor Asa McCain; local attorney Suzanne Conger; and Gary Shafer, owner of Englander's Pharmacy.

Mike Boyce, Kevin Liller, Steve Liller, Mike Walker and Talon King served arrest warrants and escorted the suspects to appear before the judges.

Other volunteers for the day's event included: Pam Holloway, Janice Hanline, Mary Friend, Jan Shafer, Trudy Savage, Debbie Tasker, Nuala Sinsel, Kimberly Grimm, Marci Stemple, Adelaide Beitzel, Ruby Margroff, Marilyn Filemyr, Chris Howell, Mary DiSimone, Bob Henline, David Martin, Cosette Harman, Kathy Johnson and Kathy Lohr.

Karen F. Spiker, broker/president of A&A Realty, served as chairman of the event. "It was extremely successful. This was the first time the American Heart Association attempted this type of event in this area and we hope it can be held every year," she said. "Everyone had lots of fun. We'd like to thank radio station WMSG/WXIE, The Republican Newspaper, and all the local employers who allowed time for the 'jailbirds' to participate in the event."

Oakland Woman "Satisfactory" After Mishap

An Oakland woman remains hospitalized at Garrett County Memorial Hospital this morning, where she was taken following a two-vehicle accident last Thursday on John Drive in Oakland.

Jean Donham, 69, Mtn. Lake Park, was listed in "satisfactory" condition this morning by a hospital spokesman.

According to Maryland State Police at McHenry, Norma J. Sharpless, 65, Deer Park, was operating a 1986 Chrysler Caravelle, and was preparing to make a left turn from North 11th Street to westbound John Drive.

Police said Sharpless failed to yield the right of way to a 1986 Chrysler LeBaron operated by Joan C. Murray, 59, Oakland, causing a collision. The Murray vehicle then continued on and struck a tree.

Donham was a passenger in the Murray vehicle. A second passenger, Helen G. Wagner, 77, Oakland, was treated and released from the hospital following the incident. They were taken to the hospital by the Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad.

Tpr. P.R. Brown responded to the scene, charging Sharpless with failing to yield the right of way at the entrance to a highway.

A single-vehicle accident occurred Saturday on U.S. Route 219.

Police said Rebecca J. Perry, 27, Deer Park, was operating a 1980 Dodge Colt, and had slowed to make a left turn into a private drive. Lester Burns, 74, St. George, W.Va., was driving a 1979 Ford pickup truck, and attempted to pass Perry's car, striking it in the left side.

Tfc. J.E. Foley investigated the 10:25 a.m. mishap, and charged Burns with passing in unsafe conditions.

Perry was taken to Garrett Memorial by the Southern Rescue Squad, where a spokesman reported that she was treated and released.

A single-vehicle accident occurred early Sunday morning on the Crellin Road.

Police said William H. Lee, 42, Baltimore, was driving a 1976 Ford truck when it went out of control, ran off the road, and struck a utility pole.

Tpr. J.K. Moore investigated, charging Lee with driving while under the influence of alcohol and negligent driving.

A passenger in the vehicle, Robert Stemple, 38, Oakland, was taken to Garrett Memorial by the Southern Rescue Squad, where he was treated and released.

A Friendsville youth was injured on September 22 when he was struck by a vehicle on Maple Street in Friendsville.

Police said Josh D. Friend, 6, was injured when he ran out in front of a 1988 Ford Bronco II driven by Diane L. Wampler, 25, Friendsville.

Friend reportedly suffered broken legs, and was taken to Ruby Memorial Hospital, Morgantown, W.Va., by the Northern Rescue Squad. A spokesman there reported that he was discharged on September 24.

The mishap was investigated by Tfc. G.S. Becker.

Drugs And Parenting . . .

Although there is no obvious gunfire being exchanged between the United States and another nation right now, our country is nonetheless in the midst of a war that is taking lives every day. The war to which we refer is the one against drug abuse and the kingpin suppliers of those drugs, and it is going to be an extremely difficult war to win.

The efforts against drugs have been stepped up recently, though, and there seems to be some progress. Just in the past week there have been nearly 25 tons of cocaine, worth literally billions of dollars, seized, including a record 10-ton grab last week in California, a 5.5-ton take yesterday on a ship bound for California, and a nine-ton seizure last night in Texas. There is growing cooperation between our administration and those of Colombia and Mexico that is no doubt contributing to these busts. The president's multi-billion-dollar drug abuse plan, that was strengthened further by Congress, will also hopefully be effective. The continued brave crackdown by Colombian officials on powerful drug lords, despite the retaliatory terrorism that is occurring almost daily in that country, is also yielding positive results.

Locally, we were pleased to hear this week that our own Circuit and District Court judges, Fred A. Thayer and Jack Turney, have vowed that local drug users, including first offenders, will do some jail time. Judge Thayer's philosophy is that getting tougher with drug users will hopefully curb their behavior and slowly take away the drug market for the suppliers. Sheriff Van Evans has indicated that, despite the space problem in the local jail, he is totally in favor of Judge Thayer's approach.

All of the above actions are effective weapons in the drug war; however, the primary key to winning this conflict lies not in law enforcement nor big drug busts nor Congress nor international cooperation. The drug war must be attacked first in each and every household, then in every community, no matter how small, and in our schools. Parents need to become better educated about drugs and get more involved on a local level. Even more importantly, they need to learn how to be better, more understanding parents and to become more aware of their children's needs when it comes to the all important feeling of self-worth. Far too many young lives are destroyed by the treatment they receive from their parents, many times unintentionally. Even if drugs were magically eliminated from the face of the earth, there are plenty of other methods of self-destruction available, many of which are even legal.

There is nothing else in the world that has a greater effect on society than parenting. It is an awesome responsibility and to do it well is an incredibly complicated task. Perhaps parenting classes should be mandated by law for all who choose to assume that role.

need of drastic revision to best serve the needs of our community as it currently exists and is projected to grow due to the growth of the wastewater industry, etc. As elected officials of Friendsville we initiated the process to revise this ordinance, with the assistance of the Maryland State Department of Planning, approximately two and one-half years ago — long before the kayak business or the proposed laundromat were issues brought before this council.

We are not fond of employing the editorial page as the forum in which to conduct town business, but due to the fact that municipal business was the recent topic of a couple of letters to the newspaper as well as the subject of a recent editorial, we felt it necessary to clarify the issues through this letter. Finally, we hope that in the future if a controversial issue involving our town is raised, the newspaper will contact us to verify the facts and to clarify any ambiguities.

We urge all interested persons to attend the October 9 Public Hearing at 7:30 p.m., Friendsville Municipal Building, regarding the repeal of the current Zoning Ordinance and the subsequent adoption of a new Zoning Ordinance. The input of all interested citizens will be taken into consideration during the process of possible repeal as well as when the new ordinance is drafted by the State Department of Planning. Sincerely,

Mayor Spencer R. Schlomag
And Friendsville Town Council Members

To the Editor:
October is National Lupus Awareness Month. Systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE), commonly called "lupus" is not rare. Nearly 500,000 Americans are known to have the disorder and perhaps an equal number are going unrecognized. Thus, President Bush has set aside October to emphasize the importance of SLE and its early diagnosis/treatment, and in Maryland, he is joined by Governor Schaefer, Mayor Schmoke and all County Executives in the effort to increase public awareness of this disorder.

SLE, or "lupus," affects primarily young adult women but can occur in anybody at any age. Its clinical problems vary broadly from one individual to another with a skin rash in one, or arthritis in another, or involvement in internal organs like kidney or nervous system in still others. Early recognition with appropriate treatment can, in most patients, forestall or even prevent many of the major problems. The Maryland Lupus Foundation is one of more than 100 national chapters dedicated to supporting research in lupus and to helping patients and their families cope with it. Educational materials and programs are available as well as support groups and counseling services.

Now is the time to join us at The Maryland Lupus Foundation and help us help you. Your support of our activities and participation in our programs benefits both of us. Call 301-366-7272 and take the first step in learning more about lupus.

September Term Grand Jury Convenes, Meets With Agencies

The September Term Grand Jury for Garrett County convened recently, with jurors divided into committees to visit the Ruth Enlow Library, Garrett County Roads Department, Garrett County Memorial Hospital, Garrett County Court House, and Garrett County Board of Education Office.

Following the visitation to the various agencies, the group met with Sheriff Van Evans, Sybilla Sharps, Ruth Enlow Library, County Commissioners John Braskey, Ernest Gregg and Edward Groves, Patty Glover, county treasurer, Paul Shockey, county roads administrator, Superintendent of Schools Dr. Jerome Ryscavage, and Mike Kozier, ASCS representative.

Sheriff Evans gave an overview of the function of the Sheriff's Department. He highlighted the function of law enforcement, which is divided into two departments which include road enforcement and correctional staff.

He pointed out that there were many times throughout the year when there were overcrowded conditions in the male section of the jail.

The office is run under State of Maryland guidelines and audited yearly. There is a need for an increase in the salary standard for all department staff in order to keep qualified staff and reduce employee turnover.

Sheriff Evans expressed a need for a crime prevention officer to organize a community watch, burglar-proof system for homeowners as well as businesses. There is also a need to implement a Grand Jury recommendation from September, 1988, which states a need to combine Central Alarm and the sheriff's office communication center.

The Grand Jury's recommendation was as follows: The crime prevention officer is a necessity, and there is a need to increase the salary scale. The overcrowding of the jail is an issue which should be addressed, and was submitted by the March Term of the Grand Jury.

Ruth Enlow Library
The library has had many improvements recommended by the previous Grand Jury. The current recommendation was: The lighting in the main library needed to be improved, and the shelving needed to be uniform and, in essence, replaced. There is also a need to increase the salaries in order to obtain qualified personnel.

Commissioners
The commissioners answered various questions concerning current local projects. The airport project is being sent to the Federal Aviation Commission for approval, and the Southern High School renovation project is slated to begin in the spring of 1990. The commissioners also discussed the landfill and explained the purpose of the liner.

Hospital
The facilities are in excellent condition. They are improving the conditions for the mammogram facilities. The personnel

Gov. Schaefer Speaks Out

NEW GOALS FOR EDUCATION DEFINED IN HISTORIC MEETING WITH PRESIDENT

by William Donald Schaefer

Only three times in our history has the President called a meeting of all the governors. I feel very honored to have taken part in one of those meetings — the education summit called by President Bush last week in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Back in 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt called all the governors together to talk about how the country was going to deal with the Great Depression. Now President Bush has done the nation a great service by bringing us together to focus on the problems of education.

The problems we face in education today may not be as serious as those we faced in 1933. But they are serious. Our students today aren't doing as well in school as they should or as well as students in other countries. If a new direction isn't taken, we will produce a poorly educated population, ill-equipped to face tomorrow. We cannot allow this to happen.

The President picked an ideal site for the education summit. Charlottesville and the University of Virginia were a perfect setting. The campus of the university is a beautiful place — a site selected by Thomas Jefferson who founded the University of Virginia in 1819. Because he was such a scholar and had such a deep interest in education, Jefferson has been called the "educational president."

Some of our meetings with the president were held in The Rotunda, a building designed by Jefferson and now an architectural landmark. A very impressive place.

What did we do at the education summit?
I believe we took an historic first step. The governors and the President made a long-term commitment to improve education in the United States.

Why is this so important? Because for the first time we agreed that we must set some realistic goals for education.

We agreed that there must be greater flexibility in our system of education. We agreed that the federal programs to help education and the state and local school systems must work more closely to reach the goals we decide upon.

States and local school administrators must be allowed to try new ideas. They must be encouraged to make better use of what resources they have to reinvigorate teachers, students, and administrators.

We also talked a lot about accountability — making our system, our teachers, our administrators, and our political leaders at all levels, accountable for how well students learn. That was not a new idea to me. Only a few weeks ago, a special commission on school performance in Maryland stressed the importance of making our education system accountable. I intend to see that the idea of accountability and other good ideas in the report of the summit meeting receive the attention they deserve.

At the summit, we also agreed to concentrate on solving some of the other problems we hear so much about — kids who aren't prepared to start school when that time comes, kids who drop out, the need for more concentration on science and math, and more focus on average students who could do a lot better with a little attention.

Now there is a commitment by the President and all the governors to make a new start on these problems. Once we have established our goals, we can begin to work together — at the federal, state, and local levels of government — to reach them. Solutions won't come quickly and they won't be easy. But we have made a strong start.

Some people tell me we can't improve the schools without spending more money. I disagree. If the federal government will just honor the financial commitment it has already made to education, and if we maintain the momentum for change we saw in Charlottesville, we can work wonders in education today and tomorrow.

On a personal note, I have been very concerned about the reports of hardship and devastation as the result of Hurricane Hugo. Many Marylanders have asked me what they can do to help. It is typical of the generous spirit of our citizens.

We have set up a hurricane relief fund in response to the needs expressed to me by Governor Campbell of South Carolina and officials in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. If every Marylander donated only $1.00 it would provide enormous support for people who need it.

If you want to help send your donation to Hurricane Hugo, c/o Governor William Donald Schaefer, The State House, Annapolis, MD 21401.

are very qualified, but there are shortages in staff.

The facility is expanding to a walk-in health center in Deep Creek Lake area.

Treasurer

Glover presented an informative overview of the county accounting policies. She stated that through August, 1989, 59 percent of the real estate taxes have been collected. The department has remained at five full-time staff members for the past ten years. There is a need for two summer employees to aid in the duties adequately.

The recommendation was that there be budget money provided to enable the hiring of two summer employees. The Grand Jury is in agreement that the DMV, even though it is not bringing revenue to the county, is a valuable asset to the citizens of Garrett County.

Roads Department
Paul Shockey gave an overview of the Garrett County Roads Department and its structure. The department currently has 106 employees and 13 staff members. As administrator, Shockey is charged with the duty of road administrator as well as director of solid waste.

Several roads were brought to the attention of Shockey for his inspection. There is a need for updated equipment such as graders, loaders, trucks and mowers. More office space is also needed, as well as summer employees. The group commended Shockey for his

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

We would like to respond to the editorial which appeared in the September 28 issue of The Republican. In this editorial several valid questions are posed regarding the issue of the proposed repeal of Friendsville's current Zoning Ordinance and the subsequent adoption of a new Zoning Ordinance. If any elected official of the town has been contacted for an added perspective to this issue, we are not aware of it.

We are compelled to clarify several points which you made. After having received complaints regarding zoning violations at the kayak building business, this office did indeed issue a cease and desist order to the kayak builder on March 29, 1989, through the town attorney. After further review of the Zoning Ordinance and a meeting with the kayak builder and his attorney on May 23, 1989, it was determined that it was not in the best interest of the town to enforce this cease and desist order at this time. Subsequently, a letter of clarification was sent to the kayak builder stating that, "This correspondence is to assure you that the Town of Friendsville will take no action to enforce its letter of March 29, 1989 until such time as a resolution of this matter is reached or it is determined amicable accord cannot be concluded." For some reason the kayak builder chose to ignore this particular piece of correspondence and has, of his own choosing, not operated his business for several months. His attorney received correspondence dated July 19, 1989, reiterating that the kayak builder could "operate commercially until such time as resolution of this matter is reached."

If study is made of the Friendsville Zoning Ordinance it would be apparent that this document is complicated, difficult to enforce, open to several interpretations, outdated, in Does mental illness affect the average person?

No one is immune to mental illness. In fact, you probably know someone who suffers from a diagnosable and treatable disorder. The U.S. National Institute of Mental Health recently learned that one in five Americans has some form of mental illness in any given six months. That means between 30 million and 45 million people, possibly your friends, family members, and co-workers, suffer from symptoms that can be effectively treated.

Psychiatric problems of all ages, from infants to the elderly. They occur in all income groups, in urban and rural areas and in all religions.

You may have heard someone comment, "Harry just isn't the same these days." Perhaps you said it yourself about an "average" person, a family member, friend, or co-worker you've known for years.

For some reason, Harry is overly sensitive or irritable or he's drinking too much. Maybe he's withdrawn from work or social activities or expresses excessive anxieties he's never had before. Or he suffers unexplained aches and pains, insomnia or loss of appetite. But whenever you suggest Harry get help, he adamantly refuses.

All these behavior changes suggest a possible mental disorder which, with appropriate diagnosis and treatment, can be cured or controlled. Harry needs a complete medical and psychiatric evaluation to be sure he doesn't suffer from a physical malady. Hypothyroidism, heart or lung disease, and certain medications can cause depression. But only a

With appropriate treatment, the vast majority of psychiatric disorders are effectively cured or controlled. Treatment, which often combines medications and psychotherapy, can effectively stop acute symptoms in 80 percent of those suffering from schizophrenia, and the terms of phobic disorders, and halt the downward spiral in approximately 90 percent of those suffering from depressive disorders.

Unfortunately, only one in five people with a diagnosable mental disorder seeks treatment.

Let's Talk About Mental Illness

October 17 has been proclaimed Mental Illness Awareness Week by the United States Congress and as part of that observance, this newspaper will carry three columns concerning mental illness. The first of the columns appears this week. This information was supplied by Dr. Alan Arnsen, medical director of the Garrett County Mental Health Department. Dr. Arnsen received his education at Yale University and through the National Institute of Mental Health. For more information on mental illness, persons are encouraged by Dr. Arnsen to contact their family physicians, the Garrett County Mental Health Department (334-6111), various counseling centers and clinics in the tri-state area, or the American Psychiatric Association, Division of Public Affairs, 1400 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

Senior Citizens' Menus

The Area Agency on Aging/Garrett County Community Action Committee announces the Senior Nutrition Program menus for the week of October 9-13 as follows:

October 9 Orange juice, roast beef with gravy, parsleyed potatoes, spinach, oatmeal bread, and pumpkin pie.

October 10 Grape juice, tomato aspic, macaroni and cheese, peas, white bread, and carrot cake.

October 11 Apricot nectar, bowl homemade potato soup, grilled ham and cheese on rye, 3-bean salad, and Jello with fruit cocktail.

October 12 Cottage cheese with peaches on lettuce, stuffed peppers with tomato sauce, harvard beets, whole wheat bread, and cookie.

October 13 Jellyed cranberry sauce, baked chicken breast with stuffing, whipped potatoes, mixed vegetables, roll, and pineapple chunks.

Milk, coffee, and tea are served with all meals.

"Eating Together" sites that operate five days per week will be following the menu as is. Those that operate only two or three days per week have the option of choosing menus within the same week.

On occasion, a site may opt to make a substitution in the menu. Senior citizens who wish to eat at one of the "Eating Together" sites are asked to call the individual site to check the menu for the day and to make reservations.

The selection of Woman of the Year and Employer of the Year will be announced at the program observing National Business Women's Week to be held Thursday, October 19, at the Will O' the Wisp, which is open to the public. The program will begin at 6:30 p.m., with Woman of the Year and Employer of the Year being announced at approximately 8 p.m.

Reservations for the dinner are necessary and should be made no later than Monday, October 16. Interested persons may call Peggy Jamison at 334-1920. The BPW is open to all working women.

Oakland Police Note Incidents

The Oakland City Police Department this week reported a hit and run accident and a theft.

The hit and run occurred Monday afternoon in the lower parking lot at Garrett County Memorial Hospital. According to reports, a burgundy 1977 four-door Lincoln owned by George Goff Jr., Terra Alta, W.Va., was struck in the rear left fender area, causing $500 damage.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the police department at 334-2100. Chief John K. Sines is conducting the investigation.

Decorsey Bolden, Oakland, reported a $300 theft which occurred at 403 E. Oak Street on Monday evening.

Police reported that a 1969 transmission was taken from that location.

The births of five babies, one boy and four girls, were announced this morning by the Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

A daughter was born Thursday, September 28, to Clifford James and Shelly Renae Mayfield Pennington Jr., Swanton.

A daughter was born Friday, September 29, to Joseph Andrew and Danita Jean Friend Jenkins, Friendsville.

A son was born Saturday, September 30, to Daniel Thomas and Betty Jo Roy Reall, Mt. Lake Park.

A daughter was born Saturday, September 30, to Ronald Duane and Bonita Lynn Boyce Bowers, Swanton.

A daughter was born Tuesday, October 3, to Patrick Gayle and Theresa Ann Hipp Reckart, Terra Alta, W.Va.

There were 57 admissions and 68 discharges over the past week. The census this morning was 37.

A son, Aaron Michael, was born Thursday, August 24, at the 363rd Medical Hospital Shaw AFB, South Carolina, to Sgt. Richard and Theresa Evans Niner. He weighed nine pounds and eight ounces.

Paternal grandparents are Elmer and Peggy Niner, Oakland. Maternal grandparents are Donald and Marjorie Evans, Oakland.

A son, Garret Lewis, was born Saturday, September 30, to Mark Anthony and Melanie Ryan Brittingham at Poudre Valley Hospital, Fort Collins, Colorado. He weighed eight pounds, six ounces.

Maternal grandmother is Ruth H. Ryan, Mtn. Lake Park. Paternal grandmother is Eleanor Brittingham and paternal great-grandmother is Laura Brittingham, both of Lexington, Ky.

C&P Telephone Asking Customers To Choose Long Distance Company

Choose one. That's what C&P Telephone has asked thousands of Maryland customers to do.

"We are asking our customers to choose one primary long distance company," said C&P spokeswoman Nancy Nemith. "If they don't want to make a choice, we can do it for them."

C&P is phasing in a system which gives customers equal access, or easy dialing, to all long distance companies. The provision of easy dialing requires technological changes in C&P's switching equipment. Those changes are being made soon at several Central Offices in Western Maryland.

Equal access, which is a condition of the Consent Decree that broke up the Bell System, was initiated in September, 1984. By May, 1989, more than 2,489,000 telephone lines — or 94.3 percent — in Maryland had been converted to equal access.

Approximately 31,300 customers who are served by the Cumberland, Accident, Bittering, Cresaptown, Flintstone, Friendsville, Grantsville, Kitzmiller, Lonaconing, Mount Savage and Oldtown Central Offices will be receiving information telling them about equal access and asking them to choose a long distance carrier by a specific deadline. The mailer includes a ballot for customers to return to C&P, indicating their choice.

"The ballot is designed to encourage customers to make a choice. Customers will benefit by choosing a long distance company and mailing the ballot as soon as possible," explained Nemith. "This allows them to take advantage of the free sign-up period and to begin using the company of their choice as soon as possible after their serving office is converted." The mailer also explains that customers who do not choose a long distance company will be assigned to one by C&P.

Customers whose telephone numbers begin with 245, 264, 395, 453, 463, 478, 722, 724, 729, 746, 759, 777, 826, and 896, as well as those customers in area code 304 whose numbers begin with 446, 726, and 738 will receive the information from C&P. Long distance companies serving the area includes: MCI Dial "11", Long Distance Service, ITT Long Distance Service, AT&T

Long Distance Service, Mid-Atlantic Telecom, Inc., US Sprint Direct Dial Service and Long Distance Service of Washington. These customers will have equal access available to them on January 7, 1990.

"Equal access gives customers the advantage of selecting one long distance company as a first choice. Normally, this would be the company customers intend to use most often for long distance calls," Nemith said. "Customers would then only need to dial one, plus the area code, plus the phone number to use that long distance company. A dial or pushbutton phone may be used."

Customers who do not choose a long distance carrier within 120 days will receive a second mailing from C&P which includes the name of the long distance company to which they have been assigned and another ballot.

"At that time customers will still have the opportunity to choose a long distance company at no charge by filling out and returning the ballot," said Nemith. "If they decide to choose more than six months after equal access service is available to them, they will pay a $5 service charge by C&P."

According to Nemith, C&P, the Federal Communications Commission and most long distance companies agree that this method is the fairest to customers. All customers will choose or be assigned to a reputable long distance company. And those companies will have an equal opportunity to compete for customers.

Assignments will reflect the percentage of customers actually choosing each long distance company. For example, if 20 percent of the customers in a local area select Company X, 20 percent of those customers who do not choose will be assigned to Company X.

"Since C&P is not allowed to provide detailed information on the long distance companies, we encourage customers to call the companies themselves and CHAPTER 1 SPEAKER — Dr. Michael Yura, parent liaison, spoke to parents of Southern Garrett County Chapter 1 Schools last Friday at Dennett Road School on the topic of "Motivating Your Child." Dr. Yura emphasized that parents should encourage their children. He said that encouragement is a direct way to motivate children and encouragement needs to be developed internally, as well as externally. Parents from Northern Garrett County Chapter 1 Schools attended a meeting at Friendsville School on September 26 with Dr. Yura presenting the same topic. Parents were given the opportunity to ask questions following his talks. Yura will be making similar presentations on October 18 at 9 p.m. at Grantsville School and at 1 p.m. at Kitzmiller School, and on November 8 at 1 p.m. at Broad Ford School. Parents are welcome and encouraged to attend the parenting sessions. Dr. Yura received his Ph.D. in counseling and school psychology from Ohio State University. He is joint Mental Health Consultant for the Garrett County Health Department and the Garrett County Board of Education with the Continuing Personal Adjustment Program. He has published numerous articles and books. He presently resides in Morgantown with his wife, two sons and daughter.

see which one best meets their needs. They can also call the Teleconsumer Hotline, Inc., on a toll-free number, 1-800-332-1124, to get tips on how to decide which company to choose. "C&P truly hopes customers will choose a long distance company and mail in their ballot," says Nemith. "We'd rather they make the choice, than have us do it for them."

"Your Friendly Ford Dealer"

Named CAC Transportation Employee Of Week

Lawrence "Rocky" Ford has been named Employee of the Week by the Garrett Transportation Program of Community Action.

Ford has been employed with the program since 1984. He began his career as a substitute Head Start bus driver, then graduated to full time driver. He has since been promoted to dispatcher driver, and had a history of Head Start volunteer work before his employ with the Transportation Program.

According to the transportation coordinator, "The function of the dispatcher driver is to plan and schedule daily trips. Ford makes an assessment of the schedule and then dispatches the program's 16 full time drivers to various locations throughout the southern and northern points of the county as well as to Baltimore, Cumberland, Morgantown, Pittsburgh, or other out of town destinations as required. In order to fulfill the driver aspect of his job, Rocky maintains a daily Head Start bus run.

"The job of dispatcher driver is a responsible position, and Rocky is doing a fine job. He is a great asset to our operation."

Ford is an annual player for the Bausch & Lomb softball team, and is also a leisure time fisherman. He resides in Oakland with his wife and three children.

GCC To Offer J.T.P.A. Building Trades Course

Garrett Community College is currently recruiting students for a unique training program designed to meet the growing need for productive, skilled employees in the construction trades. This class is designed to prepare students to enter the building trades this spring. The 18-week course which is scheduled to start in November, is offered in cooperation with the Western Maryland Consortium and is funded by the Job Training Partnership Act. It is free to those who qualify economically. Financial help is also available to meet related expenses.

Students will be trained to assume positions as carpenter helpers or carpenters, masonry helpers, electrician helpers or carpet installers. They will also be equipped to function effectively in retail sales associated with building, and in the manufacturing of building materials as well as in service, remodeling and maintenance positions.

According to Sandy Major, GCC Office of Continuing Education, the course is especially appropriate for individuals who have had minimal construction experience in the past or have indicated an interest in construction work for the future. It would also be valuable for individuals who are qualified in one area of construction, but are seeking skills in another.

Students, who range in age from 18 to 59, will begin their studies by learning basic math for carpenters, building trade terms, blueprint reading and retail selling fundamentals. They will then progress to

"hands on" learning activities in frame carpentry. This includes learning how to frame floors, walls, ceilings and roofs, as well as how to build steps and do repairs. The final coursework will involve ten-week sessions in either masonry, plumbing, electrical wiring or finish carpentry. The students will construct a small building during the course.

Upon completion of the course, each student will have achieved specific competencies in frame carpentry as well as in his individual specialty area. Students will also have been trained in appropriate work habits, getting along with co-workers and employer-employee relations.

According to Major, all participants in last year's program subsequently received employment.

Persons desiring more information about enrollment should contact Sue or Sandy

State Association Of Forestry Board Chairmen Convene

The Maryland State Association of Forestry Boards had a meeting in Annapolis of the chairmen from the 24 forestry boards in Maryland on September 27. The chairmen discussed the accomplishments of each county board and shared ideas on increasing the effectiveness of the boards.

The forestry boards are an advisory group of volunteers from the local community who are interested in promoting good forest management. They assist the Forest, Park & Wildlife Service in the promotion of forestry through their information and education efforts, such as the Forest Conservation Workshops, and the tours for legislators on gypsy moth damage in our forests. "The forestry boards are also a very important voice with the legislature on issues directly affecting our natural resources," stated a DNR spokesman.

The men of the forestry boards spent the afternoon developing a list of the four most important issues facing each region. The Western Region's four issues were: gypsy moth, land planning, information and education, and the lack of small forest products operators and the need for more markets for the small trees or low grade forest products that are harvested.

Judge Turney Hears Numerous Charges Of DUI

Judge Jack Turney heard numerous cases of charges of driving while under the influence during recent trials at Garrett County District Court.

Lisa Renee Sweitzer, 22, was found guilty of driving under the influence. Judge Turney ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

James Milton Smith, 55, was found guilty of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 90 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed Smith on 18 months probation.

Roger Dwight Rexrode, 44, was found guilty of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 90 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed Rexrode on 12 months probation.

Linda E. Henline, 38, was found guilty of driving while intoxicated. She was fined $500 and sentenced to 30 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and $300 of the fine and placed Henline on 12 months probation.

Robert Walker McCracken Jr., 38, was found guilty of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 30 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and $300 of the fine and placed McCracken on 12 months probation.

Dennis Lee Hetrick, 21, was found guilty of driving under the influence. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 30 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed Hetrick on 12 months probation. He will receive a $300 refund upon completion of DWI clinic in Virginia.

David Updyke Bowman, 27, failed to appear for a charge of driving while under the influence. Judge Turney issued a bench warrant and bond was preset at $2,000.

Lisa Ann Davis, 27, was found guilty of driving under the influence. She was fined $500 and sentenced to 60 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed Davis on 12 months probation. She will receive a $300 refund upon completion of DWI clinic in West Virginia.

Donald Aaron Mikus, 45, was found guilty of driving under the influence. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 30 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed Mikus on 12 months probation. He will receive a $300 refund upon completion of DWI clinic in Pennsylvania.

Albert C. Maerkle, 24, failed to appear for a charge of driving while under the influence. Judge Turney issued a bench warrant and bond was preset at $1,000.

Randy Lee Humberson, 32, was found guilty of a charge of driving under the influence. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 30 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and $300 of the fine and placed Humberson on 12 months probation.

The following two cases were heard by Judge Tim Finan:

Francis Wade Hinebaugh, 41, was found guilty of driving under the influence. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 60 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Finan then suspended the sentence and placed Hinebaugh on 18 months probation.

Donald Forster Frazee, 52, was found guilty of driving while under the influence. He was fined $500 and sentenced to 90 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Finan then suspended the sentence and $200 of the fine and placed Frazee on two years probation.

Betsy Colaw Is SHA Employee Of The Week

Betsy Colaw is being recognized as Garrett County's SHA Employee of the Week through the Maryland State Highway Administration's Program.

Mrs. Colaw was hired by the SHA in November 1982 and is employed as an Office Secretary II at the Keyser's Ridge maintenance shop. She is co-chairman of the Garrett County SHA Quality Circle for the Garrett County shops and is currently serving on the Planning Committee for the State Employees Conference. When not working in a secretarial capacity, she dispatches trucks and operates the radio system for the state during the winter months, often putting in long hours.

"Betsy's dedication to her job and fellow employees makes her a very valuable employee," stated an SHA spokesman.

A resident of Oakland, Mrs. Colaw is also extremely active in various community organizations. She is a 12-year member of the Southern Garrett Athletic Association, having served as president for two years. She is past president of the Oakland Little League Auxiliary and also serves as a board member for the Garrett County Liquor Control Commission. Her hobbies include horseback riding, swimming, and reading.

Mrs. Colaw resides with her husband, Dennis, who is employed by the Maryland Department of Assessments and Taxation. They are the parents of two sons, Scott and Jamie. Scott was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in May of this year and Jamie is currently attending Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh.

Kurtz Chapel To Sponsor Turkey Dinner

Kurtz Chapel United Methodist Church will hold an Autumn Glory Turkey Dinner at Loch Lynn Restaurant on October 14, beginning at 3:30 p.m., to benefit the church's building fund.

The menu will include turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, homemade bread, iced tea or coffee, and cake.

Annual Byron Bullroast Set For October 15

Representative Beverly Byron (D-Md.) has announced that this year's Byron Bullroast, celebrating her 12th year in Congress, will be held on Sunday, October 15, from 1 to 4 p.m. As in previous years, the site for the event will be the Frederick Fairgrounds.

Along with the bluegrass music of Maryland State Banjo Champion Shawn Snyder and his group, True Grass, will be hayrides and games for children, as well as a hearty menu of open pit beef, country ham sandwiches, half smokes and hot dogs provided by the Urbana Volunteer Fire Department and Rescue Squad. Drinks will also be served.

Admission is a $12.50 donation to the Byron for Congress Committee with children under 12 admitted free. In addition to the food and entertainment, a video cassette recorder will be raffled as a door prize at the end of the day. Tickets can be purchased by contacting Bill Abrecht at (301) 663-8283, or at the door.

Salem Children's Trust To Hold Open House Sunday

The Maryland Salem Children's Trust will hold an open house on Sunday, October 8, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The open house will feature demonstrations from the children with horseback riding at 2 p.m., music at 3 p.m. and dance at 3:30 p.m. The children and houseparents will welcome visitors into their homes from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The Maryland Salem Children's Trust provides a Christian home and care for 20 needy children. There are currently three homes at Salem, with a fourth home expected to be open this fall. Two new homes have been built over the past year, along with a grandparents' home and a small gymnasium.

The children spent the summer working in activities designed to encourage and build self-esteem. The children are demonstrating their growth and development by presenting the three special programs on Sunday.

The Maryland Salem Children's Trust is located on the Lower New Germany Road in Garrett County. For further information, call Salem at 689-8176.

Reception For Artist Set At GCC

"An Enigma of Forms" is the title of an art exhibit by John Buckel opening in the Garrett Community College art gallery October 8 at 2 p.m., at which time the public is invited to a reception for the artist.

The show, a collection of sculptures, paintings, and assemblages, will be on exhibit through the month of October. In his work, Buckel concentrates on color and composition.

A native of Garrett County, Buckel now lives in Allegany County.

Born December 12, 1916, in Westernport, she was the daughter of the late Frank and Mary (Mills) Cowatch.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Gordon A. Green Sr., on February 14, 1987.

Mrs. Green was a restaurant owner in Westernport for 31 years. The business started as a confectionery and teen dance center, and was later converted into a restaurant with banquet facilities. She was a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church, the Tri-Towns Soroptimist Club, the Commission of Fair and Equitable Education, the Westernport Housing Authority Board and Tri-Towns Chamber of Commerce and a former member of the board of directors of Tri-Towns Teen Town.

Mrs. Green was instrumental in obtaining a grant for and organizing the Board of Directors of Westernport Revitalization Inc. She received the Upper Potomac Jaycees' Humanitarian Award, the St. Peter's Community Service Award, the Tri-Towns Lions Club Achievement Award, the Potomac Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary Outstanding Service Award and the Junior Firemen's Community Service Award. The 1964 graduating class of Bruce High School designated its 25th reunion in her honor.

She is survived by one son, Gordon A. Green Jr., Bloomington; one daughter, Kathryn Ann Lannon, Keyser, W.Va.; two brothers, Joseph Cowatch, Frostburg; and Francis Cowatch, Rockville; three sisters, Mrs. Ann Myers, Piedmont, W.Va.; Winifred Cowatch, Westernport; and Mrs. Virginia McCullough, Petersburg, W.Va.; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Friends were received at the Boal-Warnick Funeral Home, Westernport. Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Tuesday at St. Peter's Catholic Church by Father Paul Byrnes. Interment was in the parish cemetery.

The family requests that memorials take the form of contributions to the Clary Street Learning Center, Keyser, W.Va.; St. Peter's School Fund, Westernport; Commission on Fair and Equitable Education, Westernport; or the charity of the donor's choice.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Peggy Buckel, LaVale; and Mrs. Betty Pugh, Cumberland; one sister, Mrs. Charlotte Bills, Ashtabula, Ohio; nine grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Friends were received at the Silcox-Merritt Funeral Home, where a service was conducted Wednesday by the Rev. John J. Duffus. Interment was in Sunset Memorial Park.

The family requests that memorials take the form of contributions to St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

ELEANOR G. ROBEY
Eleanor Elizabeth "Nelly" (Glotfely) Robey, 85, White Plains, died Sunday, October 1, 1989.

Born in Garrett County on June 8, 1904, she was the daughter of the late Joseph T. and Carrie (Browning) Glotfely. She was also the great-great granddaughter of the Maryland pioneer hunter/woodsman, Meshach Browning, author of "Forty-Four Years in the Life of a Hunter".

A life-long teacher, Mrs. Robey attended Western Maryland College and graduated from The University of Maryland in 1924 in the first co-ed graduating class. She founded the Association for Handicapped and Retarded Children (HARC) in Charles County. After her retirement, she continued to teach and tutor children privately.

She attended Christ Episcopal Church in LaPlata, and was involved with the League of Women Voters.

In 1985, she was chosen "Outstanding Senior Citizen of Charles County" by the greater Waldorf J.C.C.s, and was also selected "Maryland's Mother of the Year" by American Mothers, Inc.

She is survived by one brother, Joseph T. Glotfely, Silver Spring; three daughters, Eleanor Flemister, Silver Spring; Joan Betsill, Jamestown, N.C.; and Joy Klingman, Germantown; one son, John M. Robey, Alexandria, Va.; ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A service will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at Christ Episcopal Church, LaPlata. Interment will be at Fort Lincoln Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Funeral arrangements are being made by Hunt's of Waldorf.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be made in Mrs. Robey's memory to Physician's Memorial Hospital or Christ Episcopal Church, both in LaPlata, or to the charity of the donor's choice.

VIOLET MAE WELCH
Violet Mae Welch, 82, Albright, W.Va., died Saturday, September 30, 1989, at Heartland of Preston County, W.Va.

She was born May 2, 1907, in Corinth, a daughter of the late Carl E. and Jessie Grace Jefferys Everly.

She was a member of Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church.

She is survived by two sons, Glenn W. Welch, Albright, W.Va.; and Harold E. Welch, Kingwood, W.Va.; a daughter, Evelyn L. Welch Jefferys, Terra Alta, W.Va.; a brother, Ronald Everly, Cobina, Cal.; three sisters, Ethel Johnson, Baltimore; Rose Marie Kroll, Westland, Mich.; and Lorraine Seiler, Avon Park, Fla.; eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Omer C. Welch.

Friends were received at the Browning Funeral Home, Kingwood. A service was held Monday at the funeral home by the Rev. Greg Lewis. Interment was in the Maplewood Cemetery, Kingwood.

Rams Bounce Back With 21-0 Victory Over Keyser

After recording their first loss in three years two weeks ago at the hands of Musselman, the Southern Rams bounced right back into the win column at home last Friday evening by blanking Keyser, 21-0, for their third win in four starts this season.

The Rams notched the victory despite the fact that they committed five turnovers and had to play again without their regular starting quarterback and linebacker Marshall Pike and their starting tailback, Billy Welch. Pike is still sidelined with a broken hand, sustained in the Central Preston contest, and Welch was benched by Musselman last week with an ankle injury. Pike is not expected to play for at least two more weeks and Welch is listed as questionable for this week.

Tommy Ritchey stepped in for Pike, however, and got the job done for the Rams at quarterback and fullback Mike Dever moved to the tailback slot and led Southern's rushing attack with 133 yards on 25 carries. Doug Lewis, who was moved to fullback, finished with 177 yards of all-purpose running.

The Rams scored all the points they needed to win the contest on the opening kickoff when Lewis raced 83 yards for a touchdown. John Milligan tackled on the extra point.

On their first possession, the Golden Tornado moved the ball to their own 40-yard line, but then fumbled. Lewis recovered the ball, but the Rams quickly fumbled it right back to Keyser's Greg Pratt.

Keyser moved the ball to the Southern 14-yard line with a 12-play drive, but that is where it stalled on fourth down.

Ritchey then guided the Rams on an 86-yard drive, including a 16-yard keeper by Ritchey, that culminated in a one-yard scoring run by Ritchey at the 8:12 mark of the second quarter. Milligan's kick gave the Rams a 14-0 advantage.

Later in the quarter the Rams blocked a Keyser punt and moved to the Keyser 20, but did not score again before the half ended.

The Rams' first drive of the second half ended with an interception on their own 48, but the Southern defense stopped the Tornado cold and forced them to punt. Taking over at their own 16, Ritchey engineered a 13-play, 84-yard march that concluded with a 10-yard touchdown run by Lewis. Milligan's extra point concluded the scoring.

Southern's offensive production totaled 276 yards, compared to 131 for Keyser, who dropped to 0-5. Shane Hines led Keyser's rushing with 39 yards on 12 carries.

Southern Coach Tom Woods was generally pleased with the victory. "We seemed to be well-prepared for the game, although our execution left a little to be desired," he said. "But some of that was to be expected since we had to move some people around (Dever and Lewis). I thought Tommy Ritchey played an excellent game for us, John Nazelrod really excelled on defense, and Doug Lewis played very well on both sides of the ball. I was also extremely pleased with John Milligan's kicking, both on extra points and kick-offs. He really got the ball deep for us." The Rams will need an outstanding performance from many players this Friday night when they meet what Woods describes as the second most talented team on their schedule — Hampshire.

OFF AND RUNNING past Keyser defenders for an 83-yard touchdown on the opening kickoff last Friday night is Southern Ram Doug Lewis, who was in his first start at fullback for the Rams. Lewis finished with 177 all-purpose yards in the contest which was won by the Rams, 21-0. Also identifiable in the photo for Southern are No. 81, Mike Freyman, and No. 76, John Stem.

Below, regular fullback Mike Dever, who was moved to tailback because of an injury sustained by starting tailback Billy Welch, gains a few of his 133 yards on the evening. Also identifiable is No. 74, James Bateman. The Rams put their 3-1 record on the line against visiting Hampshire this Friday in Southern's homecoming contest.

The Trojans are currently 4-1, having lost only to Frankfort, and are led by a host of veteran players on both sides of the ball. Coach Jim Alkire has seven offensive starters and six defensive starters back from last season's 5-5 team. Most of the seniors played as sophomores on Hampshire's 10-0 team of two years ago and will meet Southern's seniors who, two years ago, finished 9-1, losing only to that Hampshire team, 13-8. The eight points scored by Southern were the only points scored against Hampshire that season. So this will be a rematch, of sorts, of the top jayvee players of two years ago.

The Trojans are led offensively by the area's second leading rusher, Ron Cheves, a 5-7, 152-pound senior, whose stats are second only to those of Northern's Darren McKenzie. He rushed for 257 yards last week against Petersburg and, according to Woods, is reminiscent of Southern's Brent Sanders of a year ago.

Other offensive leaders are their senior quarterback, Monty Edwards (5-10, 160); senior tackle Jim Tenney (6-1, 236), a three-year starter; senior guard Tony Corbin (5-10, 166), and senior tight end Bryan Baidens (6-3, 187).

The Trojans use a veer offense and Cheves carries the ball 20 to 30 times every game. Like Southern, they are primarily a ground-oriented team, but have the ability to pass when necessary, usually only six or eight times per game.

Their 50-front defense is led by senior defensive end Scott Keister (6-1, 178), senior linebacker Bradley Heishman (5-9, 173), and sophomore middle guard Danny Gilman (5-9, 174). Defensively, the Trojans utilize a lot of stunting and have been applying a lot of pressure on quarterbacks and backfields this season.

"Historically we have had some really good games with Hampshire," Woods said. "Although we have won 10 straight games over them, several of them have been decided right at the end of the game."

"With their wealth of talent and our injury situation, we know this is going to be a difficult game for us," he said. "It is also a critical game for us because a loss will knock us right out of the playoffs. But it's our homecoming and our kids are really excited about the game, so I'm looking forward to it."

The Rams may have sustained another major setback because of injury this week, as quarterback Ritchey dropped a 50-pound weight on his foot at practice Tuesday evening. He was scheduled for x-rays yesterday.

If Ritchey is unable to play Friday night, Woods will start senior Mike Fulmer at quarterback. Woods said Fulmer has been practicing some at that position since Pike was sidelined.

"We also might have to pull some kids from our jayvee program, which we don't like to do because it messes up their schedule," he said. "But we may have no choice."

Kickoff against Hampshire is slated for 7:30 p.m.

Huskies Dominate Stats, But Fall To Turkeyfoot

Although Northern High School amassed 406 yards of offense compared to 310 for Turkeyfoot, the Huskies came out on the short end of the score board Saturday afternoon, 29-25, to sustain their second loss in a row and even their record at 2-2. Darren McKenzie, the area's leading rusher, recorded 207 yards in the game before going down with an injury.

Coach Tom Vent's team will attempt to rebound this Friday against a much improved East Preston team that is currently 4-2.

The Huskies put the first points on the board quickly when quarterback Chad Sines scored on a six-yard run early in the first quarter and Jon Houser booted the extra point. But Turkeyfoot came back with a drive that culminated with a one-yard run by John Holliday. The kick for the conversion failed, leaving Northern ahead 7-6 at the end of the first period.

The Huskies extended their lead to 13-6 early in the second period when Pete Bittinger broke loose for a 37-yard touchdown run. But the Pennsylvanians responded with 16 unanswered points before halftime to take a 22-13 lead.

Their scores came on a 36-yard touchdown pass from Scott Burkett to Bill Yunkin and a 31-yard toss from Burkett to Craig Powell. Holliday and Powell also ran for two-point conversions.

The Huskies came back to take a 25-22 lead midway through the third period when Sines hit Lee Holloway with a 60-yard touchdown strike and McKenzie followed with an 84-yard run.

A one-yard sneak for a touchdown by Burkett late in the third quarter, plus his successful conversion kick, proved to be the winning touchdown for Turkeyfoot, whose record is now 4-1.

McKenzie, who sustained a neck injury, has now rushed for 828 yards in just four games. Vent said he is expected to be ready to play this week against East Preston.

"We were driving down the field when Darren went down and you could just feel the rest of our kids tense up and begin to lose faith that we were going to win the game," Vent said. "Overall we played very poorly. Our kids took this team far too lightly. At one time, Turkeyfoot was considered an automatic win, but not any more. They have a good team and our kids have to realize that you can't take anyone lightly."

Vent called the loss "devastating" and said that all weekend he had a "terrible feeling of déjà vu," noting that last year the Huskies won their first two games and then went on to have a disastrous season. He said that is far different than the feeling after the loss to Beall the previous week.

"Against Beall, which is a very good team, we played with tremendous motivation and confidence," he said. "I couldn't have asked for a better effort from our kids. If we would play like that in every game, we would be beating a lot of teams. But they didn't have that same attitude this week."

Vent did comment on the performances of McKenzie on offense, Johnny Joe Friend and Stacy Fike on defense, and Lee Holloway, who played well on both sides of the ball, catching a touchdown pass and recording an interception.

"We just don't have consistency in our program yet," Vent said, "but, the Turkeyfoot game is water over the dam now and we have to put it behind us."

Another team that is often among the easiest on local schedules is East Preston; however, the 1989 Eagles are not lying down for anyone and are off to one of the most successful starts in the school's history. They are currently 4-2 and coming off a win over Clay Batelle last week.

The Eagles are led offensively by their quarterback Craig Friend, a 5-10, 151-pound junior; freshman running back Joey Rodeheaver, 5-10, 148, who was a standout in the Mt. Top Youth Football League last year; and sophomore guard Chris Raneri (5-10, 170).

Defensively, they are led by Raneri at nose guard; junior Joe Houser (6-0, 192) and senior Dan Lambka (6-3, 190) at tackle positions; and third-year senior Larry Garlitz (6-1, 170) at "East Preston is a young team, but they are playing very well," Vent said. "I think Coach (Gene) Davis does as well as any other coach around considering the numbers he has to work with."

Vent said that the Eagles' offense is pass oriented this year, but he said Davis will "do anything he has to" to win. "That is why they are hard to prepare for, because you never know what to expect," he said.

"This team beat Hancock by as much as we did," he added, "and this will be their homecoming game. So I know they will be ready for us."

Southern Jayvees Mash Keyser To Record Third Win

Jason Rinker scored three touchdowns and Shane Skipper a pair Monday evening for the Southern High junior varsity, as the Rams crushed visiting Keyser, 49-18, to record their third win in four contests. Coach Jim Bosley's squads only defeat was a 6-0 overtime loss to Morgantown the previous week.

Rinker scored on a four-yard run in the first quarter and runs of two and 19 yards in the second quarter. The two-point conversion attempts on the first two failed, however Skipper kicked the extra point on the third, fourth and fifth touchdowns.

Skipper pulled in an 11-yard scoring pass from Garth Glofety to make the score 26-6 at halftime. Skipper's second TD came in the third period when he scooped up a Keyser fumble and ran 27 yards for the score.

A fumble recovery by Southern's Mike Stewart in the end zone, followed by a conversion pass from Glofety to Jeremy Bosley made it 41-12. Bosley then added a 17-yard touchdown run and Skipper passed for the two-pointer.

SHS Girls Lose

The Southern girls varsity volleyball team was topped last night at home by undefeated Valley in three straight games, 15-4, 15-9, and 15-7.

Christine Cooper led the Black Knights with 14 service points and Julie McGowen finished with 10.

Laker Women Win Four Of Five Matches

The Garrett Community College women's volleyball team is off to its best start in history, as the Lakers improved their season record to 8-2 during the past week and will attempt to defeat Penn State-Fayette this evening. They will play at Essex CC on Friday and at Cecil CC on Saturday.

The Lakers defeated Prince George's and Hood last weekend, defeated Butler and lost to Altoona on Tuesday, and then whipped Montgomery-Rockville yesterday at Potomac State.

Cheryl Wilt has led the Laker attack and was 21-for-21, 8-for-8 on passes, and had four spikes against Prince George's, as GCC swept three games in a row, 15-0, 15-6, and 15-13. Edee Shepherd led in attacks (11-11) and Heather James led in sets with a perfect 23-for-23 mark.

Against Hood, Wilt was again perfect from the serving line with 11 points, while Julie Koontz led with passes (17-18). Shepherd recorded 14 points out of 15 attacks, and James was also perfect on 11 serves. The Lakers won 15-10 and 15-8.

Against Butler on Tuesday, GCC won the first game, 15-10, behind Amy Fisher's nine service points and Julie Koontz' five attack points. Groves had five service points and Koontz added four attacks in the second game, which the Lakers won 15-8.

The Lakers won the first game of the Altoona match, 15-12, behind six service points by Shepherd and Groves' eight attacks. But they dropped the next two games, 15-8 and 15-8. Fisher had eight service points in the second game and Groves added eight attacks. In the third game Fisher recorded five service points and Koontz finished with five attacks.

Wilt was again 11-for-11 on serves against Rockville, a match the Lakers won 15-9, 15-11. Katie Groves was nine-for-nine in attacks and James was seven-for-seven.

A&A Soccer Club Topped By Westernport SAL

The A&A Realty/Deep Creek Soccer Club dropped its fourth game in a row Sunday afternoon falling to league-leading Westernport SAL, 6-2. A&A jumped out to a 2-0 first-half lead, but their defense faltered in the second half as Westernport SAL scored all six of their goals in the last 40 minutes.

Steve Prosser put Deep Creek on top 13 minutes into the game with his rebound shot off a Manfred Bustamante header. Mike Hoff's cross from the corner went to Bustamante who headed the pass off the crossbar. The rebound bounced out to Prosser who drilled the ball into the back of the net.

A&A's second goal came when Bustamante, an exchange student at Southern High from Peru, rifled a shot from 40 yards out that just grazed underneath the crossbar past the stunned Westernport goal keeper. That put A&A on top 2-0 with six minutes to go in the half.

The ominous second half started with Jeff Hammann's unassisted goal two and a half minutes into the third quarter. His brother, Jim, finished off a pass from Donnie Amann two minutes later to tie the score. Four minutes later, Hammann put Westernport in the lead to stay, 3-2.

Westernport controlled the midfield throughout the second and this was the deciding factor that led to numerous scoring opportunities. They scored one minute into the fourth quarter as they stole an A&A clear and raced right back down the field. Dave Kenner scored off a pass from Mike Wittison. Westernport scored two insurance goals late in the game.

The Deep Creek Club will try again to get back in the win column this week when they travel to ACC to play the Choppers of Cumberland at 1 p.m. This game will go a long way in deciding A&A playoff position at the end of the season, A&A still has an outside chance to host a first-round playoff game, but will have to win their last three games of the season and hope for both Moffett's and Molan Video to falter along the

Steelers Win Battle Of Youth League Unbeatens

The battle of the unbeaten in the Mt. Top Youth Football League resulted in a lopsided win for the defending league champions, the Northern Steelers, who dominated the Oakland Jets, 32-0, Sunday afternoon on the Southern High School field.

The win was the 16th straight for Coach Larry Brenneman's team, finished 10-0 last year and is now 6-0 this season.

Quarterback Derek Mason again led the Steeler offense, throwing for one touchdown, running for two more, and booting a two-point conversion.

Mason connected with Shane House on a six-yard scoring toss at the 7:05 mark of the second quarter and then kicked the two-pointer to make it 8-0.

With just 22 seconds left in the first half, Mason scored on a six-yard run to give the Steelers a 14-0 halftime advantage.

Mason scored from a few inches out with 6:31 remaining in the third period after connecting with Rob Speicher on a 36-yard pass to the goal line on the previous play.

At the 2:48 point of the third, House broke loose for a 25-yard scoring run to give the Steelers a 26-0 lead.

The final touchdown was scored by Mike Bittinger on a six-yard run with 2:05 left in the game.

Second and third string personnel from both teams played the entire fourth quarter.

The Steelers finished with 193 yards passing and 144 on the ground. They will not play again until the playoffs the weekend of Oct. 14-15.

The Youth League schedule for this Sunday pits the Oakland Jets against the Terra Alta Dolphins at 1:30 at Southern and the Raiders against the Thomas-Davis Rams at 3 p.m. The Parsons Vikings will play the Kingwood Bears at Parsons.

Northern Girls Open With Four Straight Wins

The Lady Huskies volleyball team is off and running again this year with four consecutive victories over Allegany, Southern, Calvary Christian Academy, and Fort Hill.

In the season's opener, Northern crushed Allegany in three straight games, 15-5, 15-3, and 15-2. Tammy Brenneman led Northern with 15 service points including five aces. Tracie Yommer added 12 service points including one game point. Other game points were registered by Pam Brenneman and Audra Speicher. Northern recorded a 90.5 serving percentage from the service line.

Tammy Brenneman also led the net offense with four kills. Julie Merkel led the Campers with five service points.

Northern's junior varsity also won its contest by besting the Little Campers in two straight games, 15-8 and 15-7. Pam Miller led Northern with eight service points. Jennifer Dolan and Wanda Swartzweider had game points for the Huskies.

The Rams of Southern High were the Huskies' second victim, going down to defeat in three games, 15-10, 15-8, and 15-13.

Kim Beal led the Husky scores with 13 service points, going 16 for 16 from the service line. Game points were registered by Pam Brenneman, Tammy Brenneman, and Speicher.

Northern had to come from a 13-9 deficit to win the third contest. Speicher picked up six service points in a row to accomplish this feat. The offensive net play was led by Kristin Edwards who had eight kills. Tammy Brenneman also contributed seven kills.

Becky Evans led the Rams with eight points.

The Little Huskies made it two in a row with a 2-1 victory over Southern. Northern won the first game, 15-8, dropped the second, 8-15, and in a thriller won the final game of the match, 18-16. April Slagle led all scorers with 11 service points. Roxie DeWitt had both game points for the Huskies. Becky Few led Southern with 10 points.

Northern's third win was over the Eagles of Calvary Christian. The Huskies won in three straight games, 15-7, 15-5, and 15-11.

Tammy Brenneman led the Lady Huskies with 13 service points including four aces and one game point. Yommer and Beal also picked up game points. Pam Brenneman led the offense with eight kills. Edwards played well defensively, with three blocks and overall aggressive net play.

The Little Huskies suffered their first defeat of the season in this contest. After crushing CCA in the first game, 15-0, they dropped the next two, 2-15 and 10-15. Wanda Swartzweider led Northern with 17 service points. Pam Miller had the only game point for the Huskies.

Fort Hill became Northern's fourth victim of the season in a hard-fought contest. Northern won the match by winning the first two games, 15-5 and 15-1, dropping the third game, 13-15, and finally prevailing 15-10 in the fourth game.

Leading scorers for the Huskies were Pam Brenneman and Beal with 13 service points each, while Yommer recorded 12 points. Each of the three registered a game point.

Northern's team made an amazing 102 good serves out of 106 attempts for a team serving average of 96 percent.

A strong offensive net attack was also displayed by the Lady Huskies, as Edwards led the way with 11 kills. Tammy Brenneman registered nine, and Pam Brenneman and Cara Wachter had six and four, respectively.

"Edwards, the Brennemens, and Wachter all played a super defensive game," stated Vonda Yunker, who is in her tenth year of coaching the Huskies.

Diane Riser had eight points for Fort Hill.

The jayvee Huskies got back on the winning track with an exciting win over Fort Hill's junior varsity. The scores were 17-15 and 15-11 in Northern's favor. Jennifer Dolan led all scorers with 13 points. Stephanie Merrill added nine for Northern and Renae Shelton had 10 for Fort Hill.

from a February 14, 1989, incident. Tasker was represented by Watson.

In another case, the judge ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Belinda K. Springer, 26, Hagerstown, when she pled guilty to a daylight housebreaking charge. Charges of felony theft and conspiracy were not prosecuted.

The charges were filed in connection with the break-in at a house on Paradise Point Road, Deep Creek Lake, between January 31 and February 20, 1989.

Two cases involving similar charges against Springer were not prosecuted by order of the state's attorney.

Springer was represented by John R. Toston, assistant public defender.

Judge Thayer also ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Charles J. Wassil, 22, Oakland, when he pled guilty to a charge of daylight housebreaking. Wassil's bail was revoked.

Not prosecuted were charges of burglary, felony theft, and destruction of property. The charges were filed following a June 17 incident on the Sand Flat Road, Deer Park.

Wassil was represented by Toston.

Two persons were brought before the judge following their indictment arrests.

Curtis M. Pritts, Deer Park, is charged with distribution of marijuana, conspiracy, and possession of marijuana.

His indictment was issued on May 8 as the result of a February 2, 1989, incident.

Judge Thayer set Pritts' bail at $10,000.

Larry M. Bittinger, Grantsville, faces charges of resisting arrest, reckless endangerment, openly wearing and carrying a dangerous and deadly weapon, malicious destruction of property, and two counts of assault.

Bittinger was indicted on September 13, and his bail was set at $5,000. The charges stemmed from an August 11 incident involving the alleged assault of Garrett County Sheriff's Deputy C.P. Nolan.

In a separate case, Bittinger is charged with driving while intoxicated, driving while under the influence of alcohol, attempting to flee and elude a police officer on foot, driving without a license, driving an unregistered motor vehicle, and driving at a speed greater than reasonable. The charges stem from the objected to the proposed site of a laundromat/car wash. The proposed laundromat/car wash would be built in a residential zone, across the street from Whittemore's landlord's home.

The laundromat/car wash was proposed by Terry Spear, a member of the Town Council. So far, Pepper has effectively blocked the proposed plan for the laundromat/car wash.

Several months later, Whittemore received a letter from the Town Council informing him that he could resume his business and that the matter would be resolved after the zoning ordinance was corrected. However, Whittemore, on the advice of his attorney, did not resume his business.

Peggy Jamison, Garrett County Planning and Zoning Office, explained that the town can amend, supplement, change, modify or repeal the ordinance after due process, which involves the notice and public hearing. The Town Council may still repeal the zoning ordinance, even if there are many objections.

Jamison explained that Friendsville does not have to use the Planning and Zoning office and that her office is mainly there to provide assistance and to help implement ideas for orderly development of the towns.

"The Council will weigh the pros and cons of repealing the ordinance and discuss it with the zoning administrator before putting it into practice. If the majority of the people are opposed to repealing the ordinance, we won't go against the grain, but the major idea is to update and improve Friendsville's zoning plan," Mayor Schlosnagle explained.

New National Institute To Be Based At WVU

West Virginia University has established a new Institute for the History of Technology and Industrial Archeology.

"There's nothing quite like it anywhere else in the country," says Dr. Kemp, the institute's newly appointed director and a nationally recognized professor of civil engineering and the history of science and technology.

The purpose of the institute is to establish a center of professional excellence to support programs and projects concerned with the history of technology, industrial archeology and the preservation of engineering works. It will serve projects throughout the state, the Appalachian region and those of national significance.

One such project the center will be responsible for is the complete restoration of the Philippi Bridge, a two-lane covered bridge built in 1852. It was used by both armies during the Civil War and was the last bridge to be included in the federal highway system. Although the bridge was severely damaged by a fire in February, restorations are expected to be completed by next June in time to mark its 138th year.

Multiple sources of funding have been tapped to operate the center. U.S. Rep. Alan Mollohan requested that Congress appropriate $600,000 in federal funds through the U.S. Department of the Interior to support the center. Legislation was approved and awaits President Bush's signature.

Additionally, two grants in excess of $900,000 are expected from the state Department of Highways.

Dr. Kemp said negotiations for grant monies for various research projects are under way with several other agencies such as the Historic American Engineering Record, of the U.S. Park Service and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

THE STAINED GLASS BLUE GRASS GOSPEL SINGERS will be performing at two area churches this weekend. The group will be performing at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Grantsville on October 7 at 7 p.m. They will perform the following day, October 8 at 10:30 a.m. at the Church of the Brethren in Frostburg. The group is composed of members of the Good Shepherd Church, Waldorf. They have performed in Maryland, Washington D.C., and Virginia. The group recently put together a tape, which they offer for $9. Admission to the two weekend concerts, however, will be free of charge. Pictured above, front row is Ross Porter. Mel and Kathy Menker and their two sons of Ohio were weekend visitors here with their friends, Earl and Norma McCombs.

Mrs. Annis Starr of Twinsburg, Ohio, spent three weeks in the Stemple Ridge home of her son and daughter-in-law, Herb and Jean Starr. The latter returned to her home and attended a wedding reception for their newly married granddaughter and her groom, Jennifer Lonsberry and Corey Hartley. Weekend visitors with the Starrs this week were Claud and Eldean Poling, now of Shepherdstown.

Dean and Janie Smith of Indiana have occupied the Claud Poling residence on Stemple Ridge.

Delores Stemple of Aurora is sporting a leg cast following a fracture received in a fall on September 21.

Lillian Knotts of Eglon met her son, Larry, and Donna Knotts and Heather of Cresaptown, and grandson, Greg, and Barbara Knotts of Frostburg and their new son, David James, this week at Kingwood and got her first glimpse of the new great-grandson.

Bryan Fink was able to spend some time at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Vincent Fink, Horse Shoe Run, but will return to Children's Hospital, Pittsburgh, for further treatment.

Programs Slated At Blackwater Falls State Park

Dr. Kenneth Carvell, a professor of forestry at West Virginia University, will present a slide show entitled "Stories and Legends of West Virginia" in the Blackwater Falls State Park Lodge Music Room at 8 p.m. this Saturday, October 7. With photographs from around the state, Dr. Carvell will talk about some of the famous and not-so-famous Mountain State landmarks. This is a show for the whole family. It will last approximately one hour.

On Sunday, October 8, Cleta Long of Hendricks, W.Va., will present stories and poems about her life in Tucker County. Mrs. Long's book, Pass With Care, will be available the night of her performance. This program will last approximately one hour and will be in the Lodge Music Room.

Both of these programs are open to the public and free of charge. Everyone is welcome.

For more information on these and other programs at Blackwater Falls State Park persons may call (304) 259-5216 or toll free: 1-800 CALL WVA.

Loyalty Class To Hold Buffet Dinner

The Loyalty Class will sponsor a buffet dinner on Saturday, Oct. 14, at the Aurora United Methodist Memorial Building. Serving will be from 4:30 to 7 p.m. and the cost is $5 for adults, $2 for children kindergarten through age 12, and free for pre-schoolers.

Preston County Historical Society Meeting Saturday

The Preston County Historical Society will hold its fall meeting this Saturday, October 7, at the Brandonville United Methodist Church on Rt. 26. A luncheon will be served at noon, for which reservations were requested by September 30.

The society's business meeting and program will follow at 1 p.m. Mrs. Faye Wolfe will have on display a doll house replica of her residence in Clifton Mills. It was constructed by society members Zar Kelly and Scott Prinkey.

Election of officers will also be held at this meeting.

To check on possible remaining open luncheon spaces, persons may call Mrs. Clarence Pike at Brandonville, 379-7055.

Local Members Of Maryland Forests Association Meet

Local members of the Maryland Forests Association held a dinner meeting at the Penn Alps Restaurant, Grantsville, recently to discuss plans for holding a "Forestry/Logger Field Day" in Garrett County. The group already reserved the Garrett County Fairgrounds for the weekend of June 15 and 16, 1990, for the field day.

The purpose of the field day will be to provide education and information for landowners, loggers, etc., increasing their awareness of natural resources and the management of these resources. There will be equipment displays, equipment demonstrations, and information and education booths on all aspects of natural resource management.

The planning committee for the Field Day is currently soliciting exhibitors, both commercial and educational, to take part in the program. All interested parties should contact the Maryland Forest, Park, and Wildlife Service office at Mt. Nebo for further information.

NATIONAL GUARD HOLDS OPEN HOUSE — Company C, 121st Engineer Battalion, Maryland Army National Guard, Oakland, held its annual open house Sunday recently at the Oakland armory on Eighth and High streets. The guardsmen had a number of displays and demonstrations for the general public, including engineer equipment and weaponry. The favorite activity for children was the field radio demonstration, where the young people were allowed hands-on experience and could be seen all over the armory grounds with field radios. A door prize of a $50 U.S. savings bond was won by Rosalee Evans. Captain Rick Wakefield was on hand to welcome the public and invited them back again to next year's open house, which he said will be "bigger and better."

Graduates From School For Bank Administration

Richard G. Stanton, president of First United National Bank & Trust, announced that Cynthia L. Vitez was recently graduated from the School for Bank Administration, held in Madison, Wis.

The School for Bank Administration is a three-year banking school. Students attend a two-week residence session each year on the Campus of the University of Wisconsin. Between sessions, students are required to complete several home study projects. The school offers the following four major areas of study: Audit, Community Bank, Financial, and Operations Management. Miss Vitez is a graduate of the Audit Management program.

Miss Vitez, auditor for the Bank, began her banking career in 1980, as a computer operator. She later joined the Audit department as a clerk in 1984. In August, 1986, she was promoted to assistant auditor. She was promoted to auditor, her current position, in 1988.

Miss Vitez is a graduate of Northern High School. She completed the requirements for an associate in arts degree in business administration, with high honors, from Garrett Community College in 1980. In addition, she has completed several bank related schools and seminars, including the National Compliance School, held in Norman, Okla.

She is active in Hospice of Garrett County, and attends the Mill Run Mercy Chapel. A resident of Oakland, she is the daughter of Helen D. Vitez, of Mill Run, and the late James M. Vitez.

The Crellin P.T.A. and the Crellin Community Services are sponsoring homestyle turkey dinners at the Crellin School, rather than the Crellin Community Building, for the Autumn Glory Festival.

Dinners will be served on Friday, October 13, from 4 to 7 p.m. and on Saturday, October 14, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. The charge is $5 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12.

Piedmont Man Arrested On Several Counts

A Piedmont, W.Va., man who was injured in a motor vehicle accident last Saturday on Route 135 has been charged on numerous counts.

Richard W. Duckworth, 31, is charged with negligent driving, failing to drive on the right side of the road, driving while under the influence of alcohol, driving with a revoked license, and possession of a controlled dangerous substance.

The charges were filed by Tfc. D.W. Broadwater.

Bambacus And Bond Address GOP Women

State Senator John N. Bambacus and Allegany County Commissioner Arthur Bond were the featured speakers at the September 26 meeting of the Northern Garrett County Republican Women's Club in Grantsville.

The politicians addressed issues of employment in both Garrett and Allegany counties, education, industry, the environment and tourism.

Senator Bambacus stressed the importance of placing the development of adequate water and sewage facilities as a priority over housing and industry.

According to a club spokesperson, the speakers emphasized the significant role education plays in a high school graduate's successful search for employment. They spoke of the need for continuing education in a society where there are constant technological changes in motion. It was emphasized that education is the key to the survival of rural America. According to the club spokesperson, the local student drop-out rate was also addressed.

The club meeting opened with a poem, followed by a prayer and salute to the flag. President Cora Bowser presided. Roll call, minutes and the treasurer's report followed. Notation was made that $90 had been donated toward the purchase of favors to be used at the national convention to be held in Baltimore in October. Pearl necklaces, similar to those worn by Mrs. Bush, were purchased to be auctioned off at the October 31 meeting of the club.

Those present at the meeting were Helen Keller, Jean Friend, Clea Baker, Ruth Horning, Lula Brown, Evelyn Younkin, Twila Mae Fike, Louise McKenzie, Louise

Police Arrest Davis, W.Va. Man On Drug Charge

Maryland State Police at the McHenry detachment reported that a Davis, W.Va., man was arrested last Thursday on a drug charge.

Shane J. Quattro was charged with possession of marijuana and an alcohol violation. Quattro was reportedly a passenger in a vehicle which was stopped for a traffic violation. A second passenger, Christopher L. Cussins, 18, also of Davis, was also charged with an alcohol violation.

The car was driven by Kevin Evans, 22, also of Davis, who was charged with passing in a no passing zone. The arrests were made by Tpr. P.R. Brown.

"Managing A Small Business" Class Slated

"Managing a Small Business" is a new Garrett Community College class being offered for those who own or operate small businesses. The class is slated to begin October 25 and will meet from 6 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. for six Wednesday sessions at the McHenry campus.

The class will deal with such topics as managing working capital, inventory, debt and unexpected cash demands, banking and payroll needs, marketing techniques, personnel management and managing growth.

This is one of a series of GCC fall sessions planned to offer practical learning experiences which can immediately be put to work in business.

Persons interested in registering for this course or obtaining additional information should call the Continuing Education Division of the college at 387-6666, extension 169.

Good Food and how to prepare it!

AN APPLE A DAY...

APPLE NUT STRUDEL

- 4-6 medium cooking apples
- ½ cup chopped walnuts or pecans
- ¼ cup raisins
- 2 tablespoons honey or maple syrup
- 1 tablespoon oil
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 6 sheets of phyllo dough
- 5 tablespoons melted butter
- Poppy seeds

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Peel apples, if desired. Core and thinly slice. Combine slices with nuts, raisins, honey, oil and flour. Stir together. Unroll phyllo dough. Remove 1 sheet and lay it on a smooth surface. (Keep rest of dough between dampened towels to prevent drying). Brush with melted butter. Cover with another sheet of pastry, butter, and repeat process with remaining 4 sheets. Spread apple filling over the last pastry, leaving wide margins at ends and sides. Fold margin of long sides over on the filling. Roll the pastry from one end. Gently lifting, with the help of a spatula, place the pastry on an oiled cookie sheet. Slit the top in 2 diagonal slashes, and brush with a bit more butter. Sprinkle with poppy seeds. Bake 30 minutes, or until golden brown. Apple Nut Strudel is delicious served warm, topped with yogurt or honey ice cream. Serves 6-8.

PINEAPPLESAUCE

- 3 pounds cooking apples, cored, peeled, sliced
- 16-ounce can juice-packed crushed pineapple, undrained

Combine ingredients, don't add any other liquid. Simmer until soft, 8 or 10 minutes, then remove from heat and cool. Store in covered jars in the refrigerator or freezer. (Sweeten to taste before serving with a few drops of honey or low-calorie sweetener, if desired). Makes 16 servings.

BAKED PINEAPPLE-GINGER APPLES

- 8-ounce can juice-packed crushed pineapple
- ½ teaspoon ground ginger
- 6 baking apples, cored

Drain pineapple well, reserve the juice. Stir ginger into pineapple. Spoon pineapple into cored apples. Stand apples in a non-stick baking dish just large enough to hold them and pour on reserved pineapple juice. Bake uncovered, about 20 to 25 minutes in a preheated 350-degree oven, basting often with pan juices. Makes 6 servings.

APPLESAUCE AMBROSIA

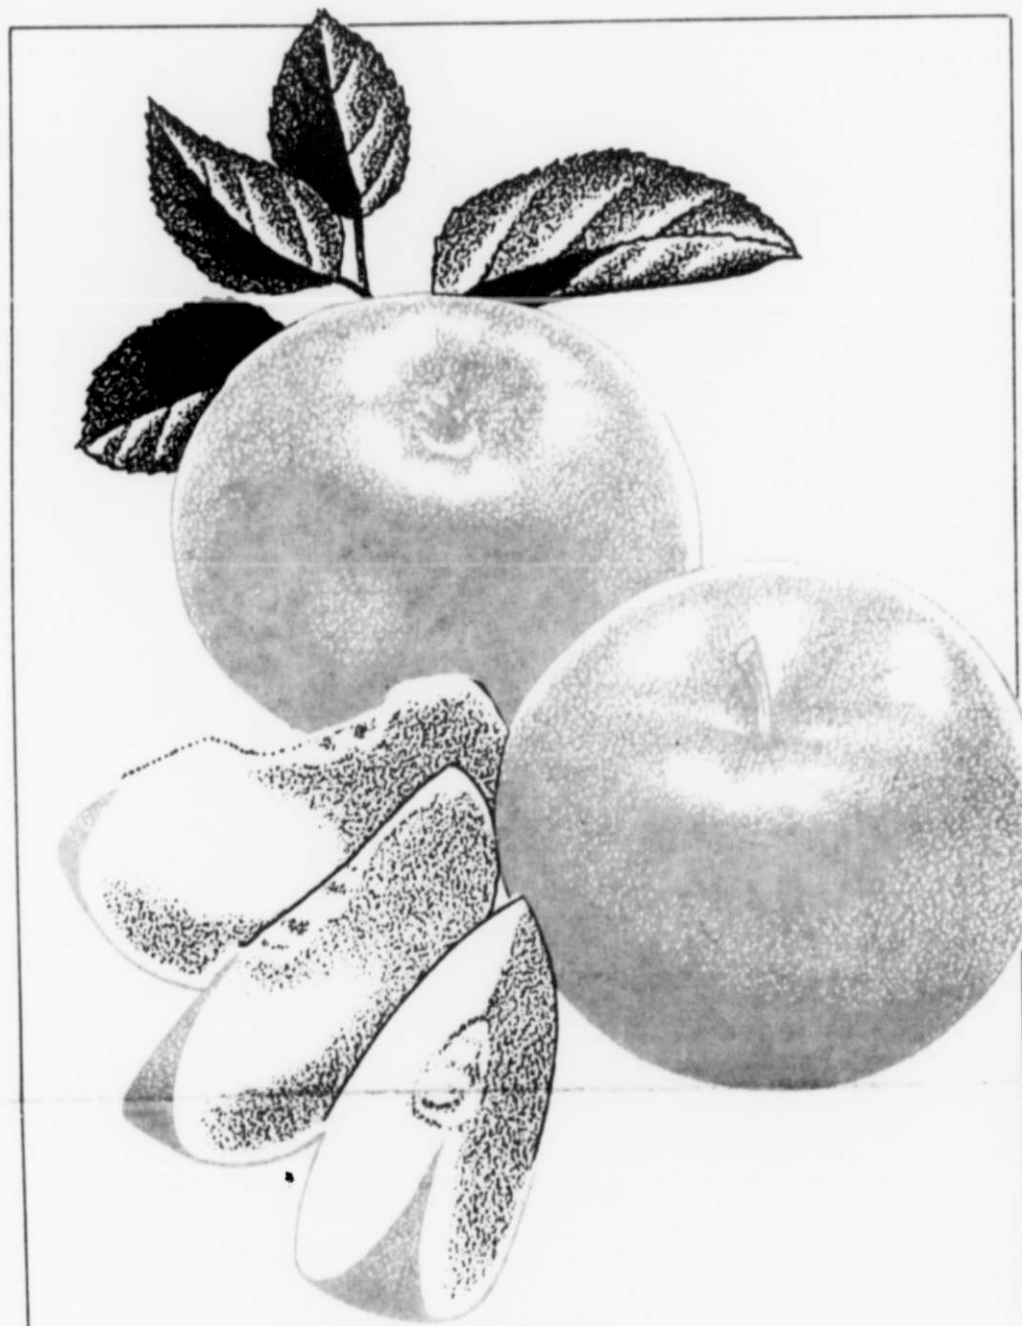

- 1 can (1 pound) applesauce
- 2 bananas, sliced
- 1 can (11 ounces) mandarin oranges
- ½ cup slivered roasted almonds
- ½ cup flaked coconut
- Whipped Cream

Combine all ingredients except cream, chill. Serve in dessert glasses topped with whipped cream. Yield: 6 servings.

SQUASH AND APPLE PUREE

- 3 lbs. winter squash (such as acorn, butternut or Hubbard)
- 3 large baking apples (Rome Beauty, York Imperial or Granny Smith)
- 1 teaspoon dried parsley
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ½ cup toasted wheat germ

Cut the squash in half and scoop out the seed and stringy portions. Place the squash, cut sides down, on a baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees until soft (45 to 60 minutes). About 30 minutes before the squash is to be done, poke a few holes in the apples (to let steam escape) and add them to the baking pans in the oven. When the squash and apples are tender, but not mushy, remove from the oven and let them cool. When cool, scoop out the squash (or remove the peel). Remove the peels, seeds and cores of the apples. Place the squash and apples in a blender or food processor. Add the parsley and pepper and puree until smooth. Spread the puree in a lightly oiled baking dish. Sprinkle the wheat germ evenly over the top. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 minutes, or until bubbling gently. Yield: 6 servings.

SPICY APPLESAUCE

- 8 apples
- ½ cup water
- Strip of lemon or lime peel
- 1 2-inch piece cinnamon
- 3 allspice berries
- 8 whole cloves
- ½ cup sugar (about)

Core apples, cut in eighths, do not peel. Add water, lemon peel and spices, simmer about 15 minutes, or until soft. Press through a food mill or sieve. Add sugar 2 tablespoons at a time, tasting after each addition. Chill. Makes about 4 cups.

A perfect chutney for poultry and meats

Now is the time for hearty meals. And an Autumn Chutney of fresh fruits and vegetables is an ideal partner for roast meats and poultry.

Apples, pears, onions and a red pepper, along with golden raisins and savory spices, simmer into a delicious blend of flavors and textures.

In preparing chutneys, or jams and jellies, sugar is an essential ingredient. This natural sweetener prevents spoilage by "tying up" the water that microorganisms need for growth.

Besides adding a real taste of sweetness, sugar also intensifies flavors, helps keep the fruits plump and preserves the color.

AUTUMN CHUTNEY

- 1½ cups sugar
- 1½ cups cider vinegar
- ½ cup slivered, peeled fresh ginger
- 1 tablespoon mustard seeds
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 2 large pears, peeled and cut in wedges
- 2 large, tart apples, peeled and cubed
- 2 onions, cut in wedges
- 1 red pepper, cut in one-inch pieces
- ½ cup golden raisins

In 5-quart Dutch oven, combine sugar, vinegar, ginger and spices. Add pears, apples, onions, pepper and raisins, mix well. Over high heat, bring to boiling. Reduce heat, simmer, uncovered, 1 hour or until mixture thickens slightly and becomes syrupy, stirring occasionally.

Cover and refrigerate until well chilled. Serve with roasted meats or poultry. YIELD: 4 cups.

SUGAR AND SPICES HIGHLIGHT a fresh fruit and vegetable Autumn Chutney.

APPLE SPICE MUFFINS

- ½ cup packed dark brown sugar
- ¼ cup oil
- 1 egg, lightly beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¾ cup skim milk
- 1½ cups whole wheat flour
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon Oriental Five Spice Powder
- 1 cup apples, peeled and chopped

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Lightly oil muffin pans (enough for a dozen muffins), or line with paper cupcake liners. In a medium bowl blend the sugar, oil, egg, vanilla and milk. Sift the flour, baking soda and spice powder into a large bowl, and stir in any bran particles left remaining in the sifter. Add the liquid ingredients and stir just until blended. The batter does not have to be free of lumps. Stir in the apple pieces. Spoon into the pans, filling each just slightly more than halfway. Sprinkle the top of each with a bit more spice powder or cinnamon. Bake at 375 degrees until done, about 20 to 25 minutes. Yield: 12 muffins.

CARROT-APPLESAUCE CAKE

- 2 cups whole wheat flour
- 1 tablespoon baking soda
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon ground cloves
- 1 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- ½ cup bran
- 4 eggs
- ½ cup oil
- ¾ cup sugar
- 1½ teaspoons vanilla
- 1 15-ounce jar unsweetened applesauce (about 1½ cups)
- 3 cup carrots, coarsely shredded (about 1 pound)

Sift the flour, baking soda and dry spices into a large bowl. Stir in the ½ cup of bran, as well as any bran left in the sifter. Beat the eggs lightly in a medium bowl. Add all the remaining ingredients to the eggs and stir. Pour all this into the flour mixture and stir just to moisten thoroughly. Pour the batter into a lightly oiled 9-inch tube pan and bake at 350 degrees until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean, about 60-65 minutes. Cool the cake in the pan for about 10-15 minutes, then turn it onto a rack to cool completely. Dust with powdered sugar if desired and wrap tightly to store. Yield: 16 servings.

APPLESAUCE MEAT LOAF

- 1 lb. lean ground turkey or ground beef (extra lean)
- ½ cup bran
- ½ cup unsweetened applesauce
- 1 egg
- 1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon onion, chopped
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

Topping:

- 5 tablespoons unsweetened applesauce
- 1½ tablespoons brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard

Combine all the meat loaf ingredients (save the topping ingredients for now) in a bowl and mix well. Pat the mixture in a lightly greased baking pan. Make a depression in the top of the meatloaf. Combine the last three ingredients for the topping. Pour into the depression. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour or until done. Yield: 4 servings.

APPLESAUCE CAKE

- 8 ounces black walnuts
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 tablespoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- ¾ cup butter
- 2½ cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 pinch salt
- 2 cups applesauce
- Applesauce Icing
- 2 tablespoons butter
- ¼ cup thick unsweetened applesauce
- 1 teaspoon undiluted apple juice concentrate, or vanilla, or apple brandy
- 2 cups icing sugar

Chop nuts, dredge with flour, set aside. Cream butter and sugar at medium speed on mixer. Heat applesauce until warm and add baking soda. Add applesauce mixture to sugar and butter mixture. Then add flour, salt, nutmeg and cinnamon. Mix well, add nuts. Pour into a floured 9-inch tube pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes. To make icing: Beat butter, applesauce, and apple juice concentrate (or vanilla or apple brandy) in a medium bowl until blended. Beat in icing sugar until smooth. Add more icing sugar if a stiffer icing is preferred. Serves 12 to 16.

Awards honor top country musicians

Randy Travis up for CMA Awards

By Candace Havens

Randy Travis is a country music traditionalist. He was influenced by some of the great country music legends including Hank Williams Sr., Lefty Frizzell and Merle Haggard. He is a crossover sensation, without trying, and basically he just plays and sings the music he likes. So, why do the world love Travis so much and why do women think he's such a hunk?

"I don't pay much attention to the sex symbol thing," said Travis in a recent interview. "It's an odd situation. I've been playing in clubs since I was 14 years old and the audience has always been there and they had a good time. Funny thing is once you get a few hits, the audience attention is a lot different. It is something you have to deal with."

His Warner Bros. Records debut, Storms of Life, was one of the most successful albums in country music history, becoming the first debut LP by a solo country performer to achieve platinum status in less than one year. The album spawned such hits as "On the Other Hand," "1982," "Digging Up Bones" and "No Place Like Home."

"It's really kind of funny how all that came about," Travis said. "We released 'On the Other Hand' and it made it to 60 something and then it died. Then we released '1982' and it went up to number one in some charts and was in the Top 10 on the others. So, then we decided to release 'On the Other Hand' again and it went to number one and was song of the year."

"I don't think anybody ever knows that a song is going to be a hit. I just pick the songs I like. I have a lot of help. Kyle Lehning, who produces all the records, listens to tapes all the time, so does Martha Sharp. I get tapes in the office constantly and even on the road. We all sort through everything individually and then we listen to them as a group. Usually if we are all in agreement that's the one we pick," he explained.

"I felt like when we did 'Forever and Ever' that it would be a hit record. I had no idea that it would be what it was. I got lucky on that one."

His career really began to snowball after "Forever and Ever, Amen" and he won just about every country music award he could be nominated for. This year Travis is nominated for several CMA awards including Entertainer of the Year, Album of the Year and Male Vocalist of the Year. "I love being nominated and winning too. It's quite a feeling. This is a show where people in the business vote on it. When they like what you're doing, it's a great feeling."

Travis isn't one to rest on his laurels. He spends well over 200 days a year on the road, which doesn't leave much time off. "When I'm not working I usually go out to the house in Ashton City. It's about 25 miles outside of Nashville back in the woods. I try not to do anything when I'm off. I just relax. I raise horses, so sometimes I'm doing that. Sometimes I go to movies, sometimes I just sit out on the porch. I guess I'm pretty easy to please."

PBS THIS WEEK

'Mystery!' gets new host;
introduces new sleuth

By Sheila Odak

"Justice neatly executed. Deserving cases preferred. Nothing sordid. Specialist in fairy tales." That's the motto of the offbeat 1930s sleuth Albert Campion. Created by crime author Margery Allingham, Campion will be the newest detective to grace the PBS Mystery! series when it starts its new season Thursday, Oct. 12.

Campion's first puzzler is "The Case of the Late Pig." After attending the funeral of an old school chum, with the unlikely name of Pig Peters, Campion finds himself investigating his friend's death.

The detective is played by Peter Davison (All Creatures Great and Small). His sleuthing attempts are helped along by his faithful, if disrespectful, manservant Magsfontein Lugg (Brian Glover), an ex-con with some dubious ties to the underworld.

After being cast as Campion, Davison set out to research the character. That proved to be a difficult task however, because Campion's creator purposely gave very few clues about his background. All that is known is that he is the black sheep youngest son of a duke, and that Campion is not his real name.

In addition to introducing this colorful new detective, the season premiere of Mystery! will also mark the debut of its new host, Diana Rigg. She is replacing Vincent Price.

Victoria Principal pairs with Paul LeMat in future TV film

By Steven Alan McGaw

ABC has announced completion of the telefilm Blind Rage, starring Victoria Principal and an actor seen far too seldom, Paul LeMat. The movie tells the story of a fiercely independent blind woman who vows to avenge the murder of her husband. Richard Colla directed, from a teleplay by Edmond Stevens and Robert Carrington. In other ABC news, production is underway on new episodes of Kojak, coming back to life to join the network's new Saturday Mystery series. One of the new episodes, "Ariana," sounds particularly interesting because Kojak himself is a suspect in a case. Guest starring in this particular episode is the great character actor, Hector Elizondo (Nothing in Common, The Flamingo Kid). Sounds good to me.

Willie Nelson says that he's starting a new cable channel called Cowboy Cable Network. Originating from Austin, Texas, the channel will feature old westerns, country music shows and more.

Attention, sports fans: ABC has announced its holiday bowl game schedule. Here's the breakdown: Monday, Dec. 25, Blue-Gray All Star Classic, Eagle Aloha Bowl; Tuesday, Dec. 30, Peach Bowl; Monday, Jan. 1, Florida Citrus Bowl, Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl; and, finally, Sunday, Jan. 21, the East-West Shrine game.

plugging at acting career

By Polly Vonetes

Q: I would like to know if Melissa Sue Anderson is still in movies and also her age when she appeared in Little House on the Prairie. How old she is now? Also, is she married? —Wes Bates, Kermit, Texas.

A: Melissa Sue was born Sept. 26, 1962, in Berkeley, Calif. She was 11 years old when she made her first appearance on Little House. She will be 27 years old this year. She is not married and is continuing her acting career.

Q: I would like some information on Michael Keaton, his full name, where and when was he born, marital status, etc. I wish more was printed on him. I think he's sexy and a great actor. —Roxanne Corey, Lizella, Ga.

A: Michael Keaton was born on Sept. 9, 1951, in Pittsburgh, Pa., the youngest of seven children. He began his acting career while at Kent State University in Ohio where he appeared in a number of plays before dropping out and returning to Pittsburgh. Back home, he worked with theater groups, but comedy was what he was most interested in. Writing his own material, he appeared in small comedy houses around the universities. He eventually decided to go to New York. While appearing in a club for aspiring comedians David Brenner caught his act and encouraged him to continue with comedy. With this in mind, Keaton headed to Hollywood where he found fame and fortune. Currently separated from his wife, he is the father of a son, Sean.

Q: On a recent episode of Paradise there was a character called Langston played by Don Swayze. He sounded a lot like Patrick Swayze. Are they related? How? —Sheila Harmon, Meridian, Idaho.

A: Good for you, Sheila. You spotted Patrick's brother, Don, who also played in the theatrical release Shy People.

Q: I recently watched the premiere of a show on Nickelodeon called Hey Dude. The cast is made up of new actors and one in particular is quite intriguing to me. His name is David Lascher. Could you possibly give me some information about him and an address I could use to write him? —Jennifer Gilbert, Rhinelander, Wis.

A: David, who stars as Ted on Hey Dude, is 17 years old. He lives with his family in Westchester, N.Y., where he enjoys tennis, basketball and horseback riding. His acting career includes the role of Robbie in the NBC pilot Down Delaware Road in 1988 and an appearance in a skit with Dabney Coleman on Saturday Night Live. Write to him c/o Hey Dude, Nickelodeon, 1775 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019.

HOROSCOPE

Oct. 7-Oct. 13

By C.C. Clark

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22)

You will feel a renewed sense of strength. If you were thinking about changing your career, now is a good time to look. Listen to what is not being said by loved ones.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21)

Self-doubt seems to be your motto this week. Take heart, your usual confidence about the world will return soon. Stick to things you are sure of.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21)

Your priorities will come into focus. Try to remember how many times your life seemed to hit rock bottom this past year, and live your life accordingly.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19)

You will feel a surge of emotional security that you have not experienced in years. Family members and friends will rally for your new self confidence.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18)

People all around will be making demands that you shouldn't have to put up with, so take a short vacation from your normal environment and forget them all.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20)

A close friend or loved one will prove just how much they need you. This person will also help you sort out your feelings regarding a relative.

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)

This would be a great week to begin those crafts, or purchase presents you wanted to get for Christmas. You will be very busy at the office over the next few weeks.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)

Your health should be your primary concern this week. If something has been bothering you, talking to a professional about it will help ease matters.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)

A dream that you have dreamed for a long time is going to come true. Don't let others speculate about your new outlook on life. Tell them why you feel the way you do.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)

You will be concerned over an agreement signed many years ago. Don't worry, things will work out in your favor in the end. Finances will improve later.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

An argument with a family member will be resolved this week. A sudden illness of someone close will frighten you, but they will recover quickly.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22)

Your financial affairs improve after reading some helpful material. With sound advice, you're able to choose what type of investments are best for you.

Dear Candace: What happened to Mason Capwell on Santa Barbara? Will he be back? —Thank you, H. Wincoff, Riverside, Calif.

Dear Reader: Lane Davies (Mason Capwell) has taken off to travel Europe, until recently it was believed that he would return to the show. The latest news is that Terry Lester from Y&R is going to replace him.

I want to hear from you! If you have a favorite soap scenario you would like to sound off about, or a question about the soaps, write to Candace Havens, Soap Talk, P.O. Box 17748, Fort Worth, TX 76102-0748. © TV Listing Inc.

Hope Lange has been signed by Fantastic Prods. to narrate its TV documentary Portrait of Montgomery Clift. Lange had co-starred with Clift and Marlon Brando in The Young Lions.

WVU Professor Develops New Dental Technique

MORGANTOWN, W.V. — A new dental technique developed by a West Virginia University professor may improve the appearance of capped teeth and change the procedure dentists use in the future.

Stephen J. Kwiatkowski, professor of prosthodontics, presented his new technique at the Eighth International Symposium on Ceramics in Berlin earlier this month.

People who have their teeth capped often experience a discoloration, or bluing, of the gums surrounding the new tooth.

"For years dentists have wondered what caused the darkening around a crowned front tooth," said Dr. Kwiatkowski. "We've looked at everything from chemical reactions to the metal material in the crowns to damaged tissues."

"The answer was so simple and yet so difficult to pinpoint. It resulted from the loss of transmitted light caused by the opaque elements of ceramic restorations."

Front teeth that are crowned normally are restored with metal posts inside.

Kwiatkowski's method involves changing the material used for the tooth's post from metal to glass-ceramic, maintaining the translucency of the tooth and minimizing the discoloration of the gum surrounding the capped tooth.

He first noticed the problem 15 years ago on a tooth he had crowned for his wife.

After studying with renowned ceramist Willi Geller in Zurich, Switzerland, Kwiatkowski

RECEIVES HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA — William C. Friend, 48, of Oakland, recently passed the GED and has received a Maryland High School Diploma. Friend began GED classes in April, 1988, and obtained a tutor from the Garrett County Literacy Council in June of that year. He was tutored until May, 1989, then helped by a retired English teacher until June, when he passed the GED. Friend noted that when he passed the test, he was "happy because I passed the test, but sad because my tutoring sessions were over." He said, "When I first started the tutoring sessions...I was afraid my tutor would quit because I wasn't learning fast enough. So I tried harder. Then after a while I knew she wouldn't quit. I wish I'd had teachers who pushed me like that." Friend stated that passing the test has changed his life. "I can hold my head up now and be proud. Before the GED, I was at a dead end, but now there is no limit to what I can do. Before, I shied away from people who had graduated from high school. I felt that I was below them. I looked up to them, and didn't think I was quite as good as they were. Now I feel that I am just as good." Anyone wishing more information about the Garrett County Literacy Council should call the Ruth Enlow Library at 334-3996 or Adele Naylor at 334-3105.

came up with the idea of changing the material to reduce the "shadow" and eliminate the discoloration of the gums.

The following year, he and his brother Richard, who practices dentistry in Greenbrook, N.J., collaborated on the idea by performing clinical studies.

"Blue gums surrounding a capped tooth aren't a problem unless it's your tooth. Then, it can become a psychological problem for the patient. When they look in the mirror that's all they see," said Kwiatkowski.

"It's like having a nice picture in a bad frame." Kwiatkowski has applied for a patent on the idea. In joint research projects with the School of Engineering and the School of Dentistry, he plans to perfect the materials used for the posts and conduct strength tests.

Because the materials involved in this technique already are approved for use in the mouth, Kwiatkowski doesn't think patients will have to wait long before they are given the option of glass-ceramic tooth posts in capped teeth. Only the strength of the ceramic must be investigated.

He added that its use is critical only in the six upper and lower teeth for esthetic reasons. Kwiatkowski has been teaching at WVU since 1972 and for the past 15 years has pursued a special interest in esthetic ceramic restoration.

Health Systems Agency Governing Body Convenes

The Governing Body of the Western Maryland Health Planning Agency held its annual meeting recently at the Sheraton Inn, Hagerstown. Lawrence Beck, chairman, presided.

Dr. John D. Stafford, deputy secretary for Public Health Services, was the keynote speaker. Dr. Stafford addressed the priorities of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene for FY 1990 and the health care issues facing the legislators in the up-coming legislative session.

Also invited to speak was James R. Stanton, executive director of the Maryland Health Resources Planning Commission. In May of 1985, Stanton resigned his position as executive director of the Western Maryland Health Planning Agency to assume his present position. He shared his views on local health planning and what areas his agency will be focusing on during this fiscal year.

A portion of this meeting was devoted to a farewell to Kery C. Hummel, who served as executive director of the Agency for the past four years. Hummel recently resigned his position to accept a position with the Maryland Health Resources Planning Commission in Baltimore. He will serve as director of Health Systems Planning there. Hummel was recognized by the Agency volunteers, boards of county commissioners, and hospitals across the five-county region for his many accomplishments in enhancing the health care system throughout the Western Maryland health service area. Delegate Peter Callas, from Washington County and a member of the Agency's Governing Body, presented Hummel with a Governor's citation for his work.

Mrs. Jean Kaylor, out-going Chair of the Governing Body, was presented a plaque of appreciation for her "dedication and leadership" during the past year. This award was presented by Com. Mark Hoke from Frederick County on behalf of the Board.

Horace Murphy, chair of the Review, Evaluation and Implementation Committee, gave an update on recent Certificate of Need applications for Western Maryland. The applications propose new or expanded health care services for this region. More specific information will be provided when these projects undergo review by Agency staff and committees at a later time.

Mrs. Virginia Rosenbaum, chair of the Management Committee, reported that the Committee accepted Kery Hummel's resignation "with regret and best wishes." The Governing Board has appointed assistant director, Kathryn Cannan, as interim director until early November when it will make several staffing decisions. Ms. Cannan has been with the Agency since 1980.

The next meeting of the Governing Body is scheduled for November 15, 1:30 p.m. at Washington County Hospital.

Garrett County members present were Lawrence Beck, Carolyn Gano, and Virginia Rosenbaum.

Post Offices Closing For Columbus Day

All post offices, stations and branches will be closed on Monday, October 9, in observance of the Columbus Day holiday. Baltimore Division General Manager/Postmaster James A. McDougald has announced.

There will be no window service. Post Office Box service will be provided on a holiday schedule. Delivery services will be limited to Express Mail and Special Delivery at offices having receipt of mail. One collection will be made from collection boxes located in front of main offices, stations and branches, self-service postal centers and in designated business and residential areas in the Baltimore Metropolitan area. All scheduled firm pickups will be provided.

Local customers may purchase stamps, from Self-Service Postal Centers which are open 24 hours daily at the Oakland and Mtn. Lake Park post offices.

Several Face C.D.S. Charges In District Court

Several persons faced charges of possession of a controlled dangerous substance during recent trials at Garrett County District Court before Judge Jack Turney, three of whom were not prosecuted as they were indicted by the grand jury and will be prosecuted before Garrett County Circuit Court.

Dewane Richard Smith, 29, Oakland, was charged with three counts of manufacturing a controlled dangerous substance (CDS), and two counts of unlawful possession of CDS. The charges were not prosecuted by Judge Turney, as Smith was indicted by the grand jury and will be tried at Garrett County Circuit Court. The charges were filed by Assistant Chief Deputy P.J. Pratt, Garrett County Sheriff's Department, as the result of a search and seizure warrant issued August 6. Richard Winelander represented Smith.

Brenda Sue Smith, 28, Oakland, was charged with three counts of unlawful manufacturing of CDS and two counts of unlawful possession of CDS. The charges were not prosecuted as Smith was indicted by the grand jury and will be tried at Garrett County Circuit Court. The charges were filed by Assistant Chief Deputy P.J. Pratt, Garrett County Sheriff's Department, as the result of a search and seizure warrant issued August 6. Richard Winelander represented Smith.

David Lee Kitzmiller, 28, Deer Park, was charged with unlawful manufacturing of CDS. The charge was not prosecuted as Kitzmiller was indicted by the grand jury and will be tried at Garrett County Circuit Court. The charges were filed by Deputy P.J. Pratt, Garrett County Sheriff's Department, after an incident which occurred January 19. Richard Winelander represented Kitzmiller.

Elizabeth McCracken, 27, Bethel Park, Pa., was found guilty of a charge of possession of CDS. She was fined $50 and sentenced to 90 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed McCracken on six months unsupervised probation. A charge of possession and use of CDS paraphernalia was not prosecuted. The charges were filed by Department of Natural Resources Ranger Wm. E. Murphy after an incident which occurred July 8 at Swallow Falls State Park Campground.

Michael Jay Hussey, 33, Pittsburgh, Pa., was found guilty of possession of CDS. He was fined $50 and sentenced to 90 days in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence and placed Hussey on six months probation. A charge of possession and use of CDS paraphernalia was not prosecuted. The charges were filed by Department of Natural Resources Ranger Timothy McMillan, after an incident which occurred July 8 at Swallow Falls State Park Campground.

Robert Walker McCracken, 38, McHenry, was found guilty of a charge of resisting arrest. He was fined $250 and sentenced to 11 months in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended 10 months of the sentence and placed McCracken on 24 months probation. The charge was filed by Trp. Stephen Vincent, Maryland State Police, after McCracken was stopped for driving while under the influence on July 23 and refused to exit his vehicle. John R. Toston represented McCracken.

Floyd James Knox Jr., 27, Oakland, was found guilty of a charge of battery. He was fined $25 and sentenced to six months in the Garrett County Jail. Judge Turney then suspended the sentence. The charge was filed by Mary Katherine Housley, Mt. Lake Park, after an incident which occurred August 14.

Ronald Louis Kamp, 23, Grantsville, was found guilty of a charge of battery. He was fined $25 and placed on six months probation. The charge was filed by Tracie Lee Kamp, Frostburg, after an incident which occurred June 7. John R. Toston represented Kamp.

REAL ESTATE

BY ROBERT HUEBNER
DEEP CREEK REALTY

GO AHEAD! TAKE THE FIRST STEP!

When you're ready to buy a home, what's the first step you'll need to take? Start looking at homes? No. Here's a better suggestion.

You probably have a pretty good idea what type home you'll be wanting to buy, don't you? Do you know how many bedrooms and baths will be needed? What style home do you prefer and in what location?

Do you know how much home you can afford to purchase, how much cash you have available for a down payment, and what monthly payments will be satisfactory?

Once you know the answers to all those questions, your first step should be in the direction of the office of the best real estate agent you can locate. You see, there are numerous details involved in locating the right property for you. Those details center around the agent's knowledge of your family's wants and needs. That's why it's so important to meet first at the agent's office, then make plans to inspect homes.

During the first meeting with your agent you'll have the opportunity to explain the importance of school locations, shopping, and other amenities. Close proximity to your employment may also be a factor in making your housing decision.

By understanding your living style, a wide selection of homes can be located. Your purchase can then be made with confidence.

If you'd like to purchase a home, but feel out-of-touch with what's happening in real estate, give us a call today at 387-5303, or drop by our office in the McHenry Plaza.

Naval Sea Cadet Corps Announces Youth Openings

The United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps has openings for additional cadets, ages 11 to 18.

The U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps is a youth organization for youth between the ages of 11 and 18. The young cadets learn citizenship, seamanship, military drill and discipline without any obligation to join the military. The Naval Sea Cadet Corps is sponsored by the Navy League of the United States.

For more information on the cadets call 301-359-9557.

Interested persons may call 301-359-9557.

Human Relations Member To Visit Cumberland

The Maryland Commission on Human Relations will have a representative in Cumberland on Monday, October 16 from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. or by appointment.

Daphner A. Hersher will be available to take complaints of discrimination in the Human Resource Development Building, 19 Frederick Street, Cumberland.

Anyone having questions concerning discrimination in employment, housing, or public accommodation is urged to stop by the office. For additional information, please call (301) 791-4011.

GFWC Holds Meeting, Discusses Show And Sale

The GFWC Civic Club of Oakland held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, September 28, to discuss plans for the 16th Autumn Glory Antique Show and Sale.

The Antique Show and Sale will begin on Friday, October 13 through Sunday, October 15, at the National Guard Armory. Shirley Panther is the antique show management committee chairman and Faye Denison is the co-chairman.

The Antique Show and Sale was first suggested to Frances Riley, former president, by Bob Proudfoot, an area pharmacist. "We decided to try it in the hope that we would at least break even, and the gain these past years has gone in contributions to many different worthy organizations," said Lollie Fridinger, president.

Bobby Henderson and Agnes Dzenzel will take charge of the food booth at the National Guard Armory during the sale; Phyllis Winklevoss will be in charge of quilts; Ann Grant will lead pie-making on October 3 at St. Paul's United Methodist Church; and Roberta Anderson will take charge of soup-making using Polly Hanst's Autumn Glory Soup Recipe.

Faye Denison gave a demonstration on making Christmas tree decorations.

Vice-president Martha Jachowski presided over the meeting as Lollie Fridinger was attending the Maryland Federation of Women's Club Board of Directors' meeting held in Ocean City.

Lioness Club Holds Meeting

The McHenry Lioness Club held its September meeting at the home of Lioness Jan Davis, Lake Shore Drive.

Items included on the agenda were: the Kitzmiller zone meeting; Octoberfest; resuming board meetings; glasses and lenses to be sent to the Lioness Sight Conservation Chairman in Westminster; and a pair of glasses for a needy person. The person that received the back brace purchased by the club spoke to the group.

Anyone having old glasses to donate to the club may contact Mary Foley at 387-5412.

The next meeting will be held October 26 at Garrett Community College, Room 101, at 7 p.m. New members are welcome.

Historical Trust Seeks Applicants For CLG Funds

The Maryland Historical Trust, a unit of the Department of Housing and Community Development, is seeking applications from qualified local governments who wish to participate in the State's Certified Local Government (CLG) Program.

Under provisions of the National Historic Preservation Amendments Act of 1980, Congress expanded the successful federal-state preservation partnership to include participation by counties and incorporated towns. Certified Local Governments are responsible for the review and evaluation of properties from within their respective jurisdictions nominated for listing in the National Register of Historic Places, and are eligible to apply to the State Historic Preservation Office for matching funds earmarked for Certified Local Governments.

In order to become certified, a local government must have enacted an historic preservation ordinance and appointed an adequate and qualified historic district/preservation commission, among other requirements.

Approved Certified Local Governments are eligible to apply for a share of matching federal Survey and Planning grant-in-aid funds, made available through the Maryland Historical Trust. The Trust must make available to these governments at least 10 percent of its federal funds allocated for FY 90, estimated to be approximately $64,000. Funds may be used for survey, registration, preservation planning and educational purposes.

To date, 11 Maryland jurisdictions — the City of Annapolis, Baltimore County, the Town of Bel Air, Calvert County, the Town of Chestertown, the City of Frederick, the City of Hagerstown, Montgomery County, Prince George's County, the City of Rockville, and Talbot County — have been approved and are participating in this program.

Certified Local Government status is required before local governments may apply for current FY 1990 CLG-share matching funds. Applications for such funding are due no later than February 1, 1990. To obtain a copy of the Maryland CLG procedures or an application for FY 1990 matching funds, persons may contact Michael K. Day, administrator, Local Government Preservation Programs, Maryland Historical Trust, 45 Calvert Street, Annapolis, MD 21401 or call 974-3642.

Transportation Program Sponsors Training Course

The Garrett Transportation Program of Community Action recently sponsored a passenger assistance training course at the Community Action offices. The session was directed by Rick Adams of Hanover Patient Services, Gettysburg, Pa.

Transportation drivers and supervisors were instructed on the proper method of assisting and transporting elderly and/or handicapped clients. Instruction consisted of a series of films and lectures, as well as several practical application exercises such as using blindfolds to conceptualize sightlessness and negotiating wheelchairs on ramps provided for the handicapped. Adams also gave individualized instruction on the mechanics of operating the wheelchair lift van.

Linda Green, program director, stated, "This application is another valuable tool whereby we may offer the county quality transportation service. It is our goal to keep our driving staff safety and comfort conscious."

Participants of the program will receive certification patches, and will carry PAT Certified Technician cards.

Completes State Nursing Exam

Brenda Kay Ruff recently received word that she successfully completed the Maryland State Board of Examiners of Nurses exam.

Ms. Ruff is a graduate of Southern High School. She received an associate of arts degree at Allegany Community College, Cumberland, where she was an honor student. She is planning to obtain a B.S.N. through the University of Maryland Outreach Program.

She is employed at Sacred Heart Hospital, Cumberland, as a registered nurse in the coronary care unit. She resides in Cumberland, and is the daughter of Nancy L. and John Ruff, Oakland.

PE Continues To Supply Computers To Local Schools

When children returned to school earlier this fall, they were greeted by more computers than ever — the results of a partnership between Potomac Edison, school districts, and state departments of education in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

More than 2,300 computer screens in 150 classrooms teach math, science and language arts, helping students to make academic progress and interact with state-of-the-art technology.

"The computer is a private tutor that gives instant feedback and individualized instruction to each student," said PE President Elmer Kaelin. "Through these individually-tutored classrooms, students in our rural service territory have access to educational opportunities on par with the best in the country."

The electric utility began the program in 1986, placing its first networked computer classroom in Oldtown (Md.). During 1987 and 1988, more than 70 other classrooms were placed in public schools and colleges throughout Potomac's Edison's 7,300-square-mile service area. In 1989, the number of classrooms exceeded 150, with more planned for this school year.

Garrett County schools receiving new computers this year were Accident, Friendsville, Grantsville, and Route 40 elementary schools. Local schools that already had computer classrooms through this program include Dennett Road and Kitzmiller elementary, Southern High School, and Garrett Community College.

In the beginning, Potomac Edison provided entire classrooms of computers, each with a network, printers and some software, but the partnerships with the three states and local districts are really blossoming, Kaelin said. Now, the company is often providing a network and five computers, which will be matched by 15 more computers over three years by the local districts.

newest trucks, skidders, loaders, chainsaws and other forestry related equipment. There will be activities for the entire family, including old time steam and gas engines, Smokey the Bear, and a crafts market. "Skyline Drive," will be providing continuous music.
Door prizes for loggers will include two chainsaws. There is a variety of other prizes for the general public, including rifles, shotguns and a bicycle. Chainsaw expert Soren Erickson will be demonstrating various safety and limbing techniques. In addition there will be chainsaw maintenance demonstrations. The Maryland Department of Transportation will provide courtesy inspections of log trucks. Experts will be available to answer questions on forestry, the Chesapeake Bay Critical Area, Nontidal Wetlands, wildlife and other forestry and natural resources concerns. Jack Perdue, chief of Resource Utilization, will be conducting the Sediment Control Certification Program (green card).

The "Maryland Logger of the Year" will be honored again this year. This show will present the "best of the past" and the "best of the present" of forestry in the State of Maryland.

A camouflage cap will be given away to each ticket holder who presents a paid $5 ticket at the gate (one hat per ticket); however, only one ticket is required for each family to enter the show. For additional information, persons may call (301) 967-1521. For ticket information, local persons may call 334-9451.

Self-Help Course Is Scheduled By Arthritis Group

Frostburg State
Theatre To Open
With "Reckless"

The University Theatre of Frostburg State University will raise the curtain on its 1989-1990 season with Craig Lucas comedy "Reckless," October 12-14. The performances will begin each evening at 8:15 p.m. in Compton Auditorium on the University campus.

Linda G. McCulloch, assistant professor of communications and theatre arts at FSU, will direct this production which she feels can best be summed up as a "comic nightmare." Robert L. Smith, FSU assistant professor of communication and theatre arts, is designing the show.

McCulloch noted she chose this play not only because of its bizarre humor, but also for its artistic merit. "The humor of the play is undercutting and is derived mainly from the heavily ironic situations written in Lucas' clever script," she explained.

A cinematic, episodic look at the life of a "happy" suburban housewife in the 1980s, "Reckless" revolves around Rachel's odd and eye-opening struggle to maturity. The play opens one Christmas Eve when Rachel is suddenly forced to flee her "perfect" home to save her life. She undertakes a journey of dangerous adventures as she wanders from town to town. Through humor and vividly delineated characters, Lucas creates wonderfully strange and engrossing worlds in which faith and love are still possible despite all odds. Without wanting to reveal too much of the play's thematic threads, McCulloch has chosen selections of famous quotations for her program notes, all of which deal with the concept of dream versus reality.

Although the play has 28 scenes in all, "Reckless" is staged with suggestive sets and scenery. Because of the use of suggestive sets and set dressings, McCulloch pointed out that the weight of the production falls back onto the actors and the script. She feels the combination of Lucas' comedy and the talents and efforts of the student actors at the University is a strong enough one to create both an entertaining and thought-provoking show.

"Reckless" was first staged, in an earlier form, by The Production Company in 1983. The current version was first performed in September of 1988 at New York's Circle Repertory Company. The New York Times deemed the play as "exhilarating... a bittersweet Christmas fable for our time."

For ticket reservations or additional information, persons may contact the University Theatre, Monday-Friday, 1-4:30 p.m., at (301) 689-4145.

Citizens Invited To Assist DNR
With Management

Maryland's Department of Natural Resources (DNR) invites citizens to attend one of a series of 10 workshops being conducted across the state.

According to the DNR, workshops are designed to bring citizens together with resource management planners to formulate wildlife resource management programs for the future. Citizens with varied concerns about wildlife will have an opportunity to address wildlife-related issues and strategies for the next decade.

Information generated in these workshops will aid DNR's Forest, Park and Wildlife Service in the revision of a comprehensive plan for wildlife. The plan will be used to manage Maryland's wildlife resources.

The workshop nearest Garrett County is slated for October 12 at Beall High School, Frostburg, from 7 to 10 p.m.

Bob Teets Joins GCC Faculty To Teach Journalism

Bob Teets, publisher and free lance journalist, has joined the adjunct faculty of Garrett Community College to teach the introductory journalism course. The former editor and publisher of the Preston County News is the instructor of Journalism 101 and advisor to the college newspaper.

Teets, who lives in Terra Alta, has a B.S. degree in journalism from West Virginia University. He was editor and publisher of the Preston County News for five years and has done free lance writing of newspaper and magazine articles and speeches for many years. He is currently working on two mystery novels.

Through his affiliation with the West Virginia Press Association, Teets formed a publishing company that published two books about the 1965 flood in West Virginia, Killing Waters and Killing Waters II. The success of these books led to a call from the California Press Association, and the publishing company subsequently produced a book, Rivers of Fear, about the flood there.

Other books published by the firm have been art books, children's activity books, illustrated trade books, and Garrett County Today, an illustrated account of places and events in Garrett County. According to Teets, the firm is currently working on a biography of A. James Manchinn, former treasurer of West Virginia.

Teets has taught creative writing as part of the Salt Lick Arts Project in West Virginia and says he is looking forward to teaching the journalism course. "It is a tremendous opportunity for me. I am delighted with the interest the students have shown and with the cooperation I have received from the administration and faculty," he said.

The journalism class plans to publish three issues of the GCC Observer this semester, with the first issue to appear in early October. According to Teets, the students in the class will get "hands-on" journalism experience in publishing the paper. The staff is encouraging submission of articles and letters to the editor.

"We want the students and faculty to let us know what they would like to see in the newspaper," Teets said. "A newspaper is an expression of its readers."

First Career Exposition To Be Monday At GCC

Plans are now complete for the first Mt. Top Career Exposition scheduled for Monday, October 9, from 7-9 p.m. in the gym at Garrett Community College in McHenry.

High school students from Garrett County and the surrounding counties in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and their parents are invited to attend the event. Representatives from two and four-year colleges, trade and technical schools, service academies, and the armed services will be available to disseminate literature about their institutions and to answer questions about admissions criteria, academic programs, financial aid, living conditions, sports, student populations, social life, and other concerns of prospective students.

Two information sessions, one on financial aid, and the other on planning for college, will be given in the auditorium, both at 7:15 and again at 8:15. Door prizes, including two $500 scholarships, will be given away. One of these has been

Lodge Hosts
Fall Meeting

The Western Maryland Association Woodmen of the World fall meeting was recently hosted by the Bittinger W.O.W. Lodge 68 with an annual corn roast/covered dish meal.

Tom Bender conducted the meeting with Orlean Rider, secretary/treasurer, calling the roll and reading the minutes of the spring meeting held in Grantsville.

State Manager Ron Ford congratulated Lodge 11 for winning first place for the 1987-88 scrapbook at the National Convention in Omaha, Nebraska. He spoke of the lighting of the Woodmen Tower. Former Miss W.O.W. Bonnie Haines reported on the trip she made to the Soviet Union in July.

Robert Rodeheaver introduced William Hardesty and Spencer Graham, who, together, have been members of W.O.W. for 139 years.

Attending the meeting from Lodge 11, Crellin, were Area Manager Robert Rodeheaver and Rosetta; Joseph and Leota Peck; Thomas and Shirley Bernard; George and Ellen Zimmerman; Field Representative Ed Utterback with wife Mary and daughter Katie; Spencer Graham with his son William and wife Mildred, visitors from Morgantown; and William Hardesty, a visitor from Florida.

The Fraternal Congress will be held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on October 12 and 13.

The Awards Banquet for Lodge 11 will be held on December 2 at the Deer Park Fire Hall.

The Western Maryland Association Spring Meeting is scheduled for April 29, 1990, at Grantsville, at 3 p.m.

Police Request Public Support In War On Drugs

Senior members of the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association are calling on communities to support law enforcement efforts in Maryland's battle against drugs.

"It's going to take everybody working together," said J. Earl Walker, retired Chief, Havre de Grace Police Department.

Appearing on the Maryland State Police Radio Program, a weekly public service broadcast, Chief Walker was joined by J. Vaughan McMahan, retired Chief, Bel Air Police Department in a plea for public support in the war on drugs.

"We need more relations with the family and schools," said Chief McMahan. "I think we have to educate the people first," Chief McMahan added.

"Hopefully the public will get involved and say, hey... we've had enough," added Lemuel E. Porter, retired Chief, Aberdeen Police Department. "Law enforcement (alone) cannot do it," Chief Porter stated.

J. Vaughan McMahan retired from the Bel Air Police Department in 1973 after serving 36 years on the force, 26 of them as Chief of Police. Chief McMahan is a charter member of the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association and served as the association's third president. J. Earl Walker retired from the Havre de Grace Police Department after serving for 38 years with the department, 28 years as Chief of Police. Lemuel E. Porter retired after serving 8 years as Chief of the Aberdeen Police Department. Chief Porter, a retired Lieutenant Colonel with the Maryland State Police, served 32 years with the agency.

All three retired police chiefs remain active with the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association, which held its 25th Annual Conference in Ocean City, Maryland earlier this month.

During the five-day conference, law enforcement executives attended lectures and workshops featuring a variety of topics including Maryland's drug epidemic. A presentation on a new infrared breath program for DWI testing was offered by Yale H. Caplan, Ph.D., State of Maryland Toxicologist. The DWI presentation included a video production on the automation, computerization and modernization of Maryland's system for blood alcohol content analysis.

The Maryland Chiefs of Police Association is comprised of approximately 300 members statewide. The association has participated in a number of community based crime prevention and highway safety programs including National Night Out and Operation C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort).

The Maryland State Police Program is a weekly public service broadcast carried on approximately 50 radio stations in Maryland and the District of Columbia. The program is supported by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and the Maryland Department of Transportation.

Service Academy Applications Still Being Accepted

U.S. Senator Paul S. Sarbanes has announced that his office is still accepting applications for nominations to the four United States Service Academies, noting that the deadline for submitting applications is October 31.

"I urge young people who are interested in attending the U.S. Naval Academy, U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Air Force Academy or the Merchant Marine Academy to obtain a nomination application packet from my office as soon as possible," Senator Sarbanes said. "The packet contains all the necessary information and forms. Completed applications will be carefully reviewed and those candidates who appear to meet the minimum entrance standards established by the academies will be invited to interviews before my Academy Interview Board."

To qualify, applicants must be U.S. citizens who are Maryland residents; at least 17 years old but not more than 22 by July 1, 1990; have the equivalent of a high school education with high academic standing in school; demonstrate extracurricular or community activities or both which show leadership potential; and have received scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test generally in excess of 550 on the verbal portion and 600 on the math portion.

Interested young people should obtain information and packets from Senator Sarbanes' office, 1418 Fallon Federal Office Building, Baltimore, Maryland 21201, or call Sharon Faraone of Senator Sarbanes' staff (301) 962-4436.

Garrett County Census Planners Meet AT GCC

Representatives of 11 agencies met recently at Garrett Community College to begin preparing Garrett County for the upcoming 1990 census of population. The Garrett County Commissioners have stressed the importance of an accurate census count. County funding for housing, roads, schools, and many other features of regional life is tied to the census of population. Communities that do not achieve an accurate census of population stand to lose funding they should rightfully receive.

Dr. Steve Herman, GCC president, convened the meeting. Attending were Bill Aspinall, Appalachian Crossroads; Roberta Baker, Garrett County Department of Social Services; Norma B. Bolding, Garrett County Health Department; Edith Brock, Ruth Enlow Library; Robert Clark, Western Maryland Consortium; Al Feldstein, Maryland Office of Planning; Ronald Gillum, Town of Grantsville; Jim Morris, Garrett County Board of Education; John Nelson, Garrett County Planning Office; and Duane Yoder, Garrett County Community Action.

All participants agreed that an accurate census benefits every Garrett County and that the county should make a maximum effort to get one hundred percent participation. Two factors were identified as most important: community awareness and community cooperation. "People need to know first that completing the forms is the law and second that the people who benefit most from completing the census are Garrett County residents themselves," stated a spokesman for the group.

The group will seek to coordinate with state and federal agencies. Local Census Assistance Centers shall be established, although only one in 20 people will be required to fill out the census long form. "The short form is very easy to complete," the spokesman said.

The Commissioners will be taking a lead role in advertising

PLANNING THE CENSUS — Various local persons, representing a variety of agencies, met recently at Garrett Community College to begin preparation for the 1990 census of U.S. population. County funding for various agencies and programs is based partially upon population, so local organizers are hoping for 100 percent participation in the census by Garrett County residents. Dr. Stephen Herman, GCC president, pictured right foreground above, convened the meeting.

Boat Motor Thefts Investigated By Lake Management

The Deep Creek Lake Management Office is currently seeking information on the thefts of two outboard motors from rental boats at Echo Marina.

According to reports, Ranger Ken Meyers investigated two capsized boats drifting in the Thousand Acres area of the lake on September 30.

Further investigation revealed that the boats were from Echo Marina, and two 9.9 HP Johnson motors had been stolen from them. The locks that secured the motors to the boats had been cut.

Anyone with knowledge of this crime is asked to notify the Lake Management Office at 387-4111. All information will be kept confidential.

Evans Receives Scholarship From NASE

Melinda Evans, Horse Shoe Run, W. Va., has received a $500 scholarship from the National Association for the Self-Employed (NASE) for the fall 1989 school semester.

The NASE was founded in 1981 by a group of entrepreneurs who recognized that small-business owners had been locked out of the benefits big businesses could negotiate. The Fort Worth-based association now has 165,000 members nationwide.

Evans will be a sophomore at Waynesburg College, majoring in English/Secondary Education. Her application was one of more than 800 received by the NASE Foundation, Inc., which oversees scholarships for the NASE. The $35,000 was divided among 70 students from across the nation.

"The NASE hopes to take a role in developing tomorrow's leaders by providing scholarship funds for young people today," said Bill Witcher, association president. Among the qualities judged in the awards, the NASE considered dedication, commitment, above-average academic standing, leadership ability, ingenuity, desire, and need.

"We also looked for students who exemplify the entrepreneurial spirit that is not only the backbone of American business success, but the cornerstone of democracy," explained Witcher. "It is the NASE's wish that those students who receive scholarship awards will make significant economic and social contributions to their families, their communities, and their country."

FSU Homecoming Event Scheduled For This Weekend

The good times are sure to roll at Frostburg State University this coming weekend as the University celebrates its annual Homecoming, October 5-8, with a full schedule of events. FSU Director of Alumni Affairs Colleen T. Peterson anticipates this year's return of alumni and visitors to the campus will top last year's record attendance. She added that the theme of this year's Homecoming is "Let the Good Times Roll."

The University's celebration has all the ingredients of true traditional homecoming weekend, she said, including Friday night's annual Bobcat Growl Pep Rally and Fireworks Show at 9:30 p.m. in Bobcat Stadium, as well as Saturday's parade at 11 a.m. along Frostburg's Main Street, football game at 1:30 p.m., and homecoming dance with dance band Coverstory in the Lane Center Multi-use Room, beginning at 9:30 p.m.

The weekend's festivities get underway this evening, October 5, with a new addition to the traditional Bobcat Homecoming schedule. The first-ever Alumni Achievement Award Lecture Series and Reception will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Lane Center, Room 201, featuring three of this year's FSU Alumni Achievement Award recipients and two from last year's group. Slated to speak are Martin P. Welch, Timothy Martin and James Naron, this year's recipients, and Alfred E. Martin and J. Ronald Hennings, two of last year's honorees.

Scheduled for Friday, October 6, FSU's Career Day 1989 will once again be held in conjunction with the campus' Homecoming activities. Dr. Ernestine Montgomery, FSU director of career services, coordinates the day-long event which features 87 alumni who will speak to students, the campus community and the general public on their career experiences in a vast range of professional fields. Included on this year's program are the five Alumni Achievement Award recipients — Timothy Martin, class of 1970, associate professor of fine arts at the Junior College of Albany; James Harron, class of 1978, director of the Maryland State Games; David Edgerley, class of 1974, director of Allegany County Department of Economic Development; Martin Welch, class of 1974, assistant Baltimore City solicitor; and Henry (Hank) Heller, class of 1964, assistant director of the Secondary Learning Centers.

Following the morning Career Day presentation, the Alumni Achievement Award recipients will be honored with a luncheon, beginning at noon. Presentation of their awards will be made at that time. FSU President Herb F. Reinhard will welcome the guests, while Dr. Montgomery will offer opening remarks and Peterson will make introductions.

Saturday's events will get underway with the six-division parade along Frostburg's Main Street. The parade will step off at 11 a.m. at the intersection of West Main Street and Armstrong Avenue and proceed down Main Street, finally disbanding at Bowery Street. The parade will feature seven local bands, including FSU's own marching band, floats, and a host of state, local and University dignitaries. Lewis J. Ort, of LaVale, is serving as the parade's grand marshal.

Later in the afternoon, the Bobcat football team will take on St. Francis College at 1:30 p.m. in Bobcat Stadium. The

New Horizons Offers Help To Single Parents

"The Caring Connection," an Adolescent Single Parent Program operating through the New Horizons Program of Garrett Community College, funded by the Maryland State Department of Education is seeking to identify adolescent single parents and pregnant teens between the ages of 16 to 21 who need support in completing high school or getting their GED, enrolling in vocational training to further develop their job skills and to successfully enter into employment to become self sufficient.

"The Caring Connection" can provide services to assist the following categories: Single parent who is unmarried or legally separated from a spouse; adolescent who has a minor child or children for which the parent has either custody or joint custody; and pregnant teens.

"The Caring Connection" provides counseling and support to assist adolescent participants through the program, opportunities to participate in career decision-making workshops, assistance to complete high school, information on obtaining a Graduate Equivalency Diploma (GED), community agencies referrals, financial assistance for transportation/child care while attending classes to finish high school or further training, tuition assistance for credit/non-credit vocational

Welding Students At GCC Observe Newest Technology

Students in the welding classes at Garrett Community College were treated to a demonstration of the most modern metal cutting technology available last week when Jeff Purinton of the Thermal Dynamics Corporation and Kenneth Glessner of Cumberland Welding and Supply demonstrated and explained a process known as plasma arc metal cutting.

Unlike the traditional methods of metal cutting that uses saws, grinders, and oxy-acetylene torches, the plasma arc system uses super heated gas, compressed air, and electricity to cut any type of metal. In this technology, the term plasma refers to a gas that is heated to such a high temperature, as much as 30,000-40,000 degrees Fahrenheit, that it becomes capable of conducting electricity.

This process attracted the attention of the industry because of its ability to cut non-ferrous metal such as stainless steel, aluminum and copper. Unlike oxy-acetylene, which is an oxidation process and does not work on metals that do not oxidize, plasma is a melting process that will work on virtually any metal. In recent years, the plasma process has been greatly improved, largely as a result of inventions perfected by the Thermal

Dynamics Corporation, until it is now an efficient and cost effective system to use for metal cutting.

During the demonstration at GCC, students viewed videos on the subject and actual demonstrations in the welding shop. These demonstrations were made possible by the presence of the Thermal Dynamics demo which is equipped with plasma arc cutting equipment of various sizes and designs. The equipment was used to cut steel, aluminum, and copper. Following the demonstration, the students had an opportunity to try their hands using the machines they had been observing. Garrett Community College has been conducting welding classes since 1976 and is equipped to teach arc, mig, tig, oxy-acetylene and plasma arc welding and cutting. According to Ed Norman, instructional shop supervisor, courses are designed to offer training to individuals with no welding experience or to upgrade skills of experienced welders. The program can be shaped to fit individual needs, with emphasis in all classes on safety and hands-on experience.

Welding classes for this fall semester are currently underway, but beginning and advanced courses will be offered in the spring. Anyone desiring further information should call Tom Kierstead in the Continuing Education Office, 387-6666.

CRIME SOLVERS

The Garrett County Crime Solvers case of the week is the request for information about the following:

On July 22, 1989, at approximately 3 a.m., an intrusion alarm was received from Northcraft Sporting Goods, located at the McHenry Plaza. The responding trooper discovered that the building had been entered and numerous handguns, semi-automatic handguns and two assault-type rifles had been stolen.

The assault rifles were a Mossberg Model 10B and a Mossberg Model 500, both 12 gauge. All leads in this case have been exhausted, and Crime Solvers is seeking the public's help.

Anyone with information about this case or any other unsolved crime is asked to call Garrett County Crime Solvers at 334-1975.

If a tip leads to the arrest and charging of the responsible party, the caller is eligible for a reward of up to $1000. The caller may remain anonymous, and need not appear in court.

DIDN'T MOW SO WILDLIFE COULD GROW — Arnold and Oma Moses, pictured above center, have 36 acres of their farm on Paradise Point Road in the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP). This year, in cooperation with the County ASCS and the state Forest, Park and Wildlife Service, a part of this land was used to promote wildlife by leaving an unmowed buffer strip to provide food, protective cover and nesting sites for wildlife. According to ASCS officials, earlier CRP contracts specified that the land must be mowed twice, approximately June 15 and August 15. This wildlife program relaxes the June 15 mowing to benefit nesting animals and small game. This also allows good grass to go to seed, but owners should watch for the growth of noxious weeds which must still be controlled. Officials say that the Moses' farm is an ideal area to promote wildlife. "Being so near the lake (Deep Creek Lake), there is a lot of building going on," said District Conservationist Gary Morfoot. "The land makes a good transition from woods to high grass to low grass, and the area is home to deer, turkey, small game, quail and grouse." The sign pictured below is posted on the property to let the public know why the land has not been mowed. Pictured above, left to right, are Mike Kozier, County ASCS executive director; Gary Morfoot, district conservationist; Mr. and Mrs. Moses, and Al Bourgeois, county wildlife manager. Forest, Parks and Wildlife Service. The Conservation Reserve Program is a voluntary program designed to encourage farmers to stop growing crops on highly erodible cropland and to plant those acres to grass, trees, or wildlife cover for a 10-year contract period.

Maryland Agricultural Education Foundation To Hold Fundraiser

The Maryland Agricultural Education Foundation, Inc. will kick off a major fund-raising effort to promote agricultural education throughout the state. The kick-off will be $50 a plate dinner at 6 p.m. Thursday, November 16, at the Stouffer Harbor Place Hotel at 202 East Pratt Street in downtown Baltimore. The evening's main speaker will be Shirley Traxler, director, Ag in the Classroom, U.S. Department of Agriculture. She will talk on the importance of agricultural education in the school curriculum.

Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer requested that the foundation be created to coordinate public/private sector cooperation to improve agricultural education in the classroom. Wayne A. Cawley Jr., Maryland secretary of Agriculture, responded to the governor's request by forming the foundation. Included on the foundation's board of directors are Secretary Cawley; Dr. James Norton, interim chancellor of the University of Maryland System; Dr. Joseph Shilling, state superintendent of schools, and individuals representing a myriad of interests within the agricultural industry.

"This dinner will be our first public effort to provide financial support for continued development of educational programs that help students understand the important role that agriculture has in this state and in the United States," said foundation president, Vaughn Bradley, an executive of the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company.

In addition to providing financial support for the teaching of agricultural education at all levels, the foundation will also support curriculum development, training programs for teachers and textbook review. For further information on the dinner, those interested may contact Carol Ann Hilton, executive director, at 301-467-5695.

Four County Jersey Herds Place In State's Top 10 For August

A number of dairy herds in Garrett County were listed as "top" herds in Maryland for the month of August by the Maryland DHIA, including four Jersey herds which placed in the top 10 for the breed.

The four Jersey herds which placed in the state's top 10 were owned by: Paul and Naomi Petersheim, 23 cows, 56.4 pounds of milk per day of 3.5 percent fat-corrected milk, top Jersey herd; Eli Swartzen-truber, 34 cows, 53.2 pounds of milk per day of 3.5 percent fat-corrected milk, second highest herd; Homer Kinsinger, 40 cows, 48.5 pounds of milk per day of 3.5 percent fat-corrected milk, fourth highest herd; and Acorn Acres, Howard and Mike Kepple, 28 cows, 47.4 pounds of milk per day of 3.5 percent fat-corrected milk, sixth highest herd.

The Marvin Kinsinger Guernsey herd placed seventh in the state's 10 highest herds of that breed with 31 cows and 43.4 pounds of milk per day of 3.5 percent fat-corrected milk.

The following Holstein herds from Garrett County are considered top Maryland herds, however, no state-wide placings were given. The name of the herd owner is given first, followed by the number of cows, followed by pounds of milk per day of 3.5 percent fat-corrected milk.

Philip Beachy, 49, 80.7; Ez-Mar-Haven, 75, 69.1; Arlin Maust, 28, 67.9; John D. Doerr, 105, 67.3; Carl Bender, 75, 66.5; Paul and H. Kinsinger, 71, 66.3; Delvin Mast, 111, 66.3; Paul Yoder, 48, 65.1; Calvin Schrock, 41, 65.1; Wayne Schrock, 45,

Fairboard Treats Volunteers With Appreciation Meal

The Garrett County Fair Board treated a large crowd of volunteers and fair organizers to a baked steak dinner Saturday night at the Bittering Community Building.

Following dinner, Board President Gerald Giotfelty introduced guests, including Monica Miller, first runner-up in the Garrett County Farm Queen Contest. Giotfelty thanked the Garrett County Extension Agents for all they do before, during and after the fair, and thanked County Commissioner Elwood Groves for his personal donation to the county fair.

Giotfelty said that exhibits at the 1989 county fair were up 672 from 1988's 3,648 exhibits, with the 1989 figure at 4,320. Exhibitors were also up, with 1988 figures at 1,099 and 1989 totals at 1,353, an increase of 254. Premiums also increased with this year's total $13,957, almost a $1,000 increase from 1988's total of $13,119.

"It doesn't look like our fair is going backwards," Giotfelty said. "It's going in the right direction."

Giotfelty noted improvements which were seen at the 1989 fair for the first time. They included a new dairy barn, a new well, and new announcers' stand. One member of the crowd said, on behalf of the volunteers, she would like to thank the fair board for the many other improvements which have been made in recent years, such as the new restroom, paved walkways which got everyone out of the mud, and the landscaping, all of which made the week easier for those helping with the fair.

It was announced that the First United National Bank and Trust, Oakland, had donated one-half a beef to the fair board and that tickets were being sold for a raffle.

Giotfelty announced that Claude Wagner Jr. retired as fair manager in August, and thanked him and his wife, Jane, for their 33-plus years of help and support given to the fair.

Wagner, in return, recognized Giotfelty for "making more trips to the fairgrounds, spending more hours on the telephone, and chewing more 'Honeycut' tobacco" to make the fair a success.

Entertainment for the evening was presented by Pam and Tammy Brennenman, who sang a selection of country and gospel songs. At the evening's end, a benediction was given by Rev. Louise Knotts.

Hints To Growers

by Jim Simms
Extension Agent, Agriculture Science

Fall Lawn Care

Thatch: What is thatch? Thatch is all of the grass clippings that have accumulated at ground level that has failed to decay. This undecayed material can present problems. First of all, it provides an ideal environment for over-wintering diseases and insects. Secondly, heavy thatch crowds out new grass seedlings. Now is the time to remove the thatch and give your grass a chance to develop new seedlings.

Fertilization: Bluegrass and fine fescues mainly reproduce in the fall. This is one reason why it is important to lime and fertilize in the fall. An application of two to three pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet will be very beneficial. The nitrogen will make your grass speed up growth; therefore, it is very important to keep mowing the grass regularly until it goes dormant which could be as late as Thanksgiving.

Weed Control: Fall is by far the most effective time to kill weeds. The perennial weeds such as ground ivy, chickweed (winter annual), henbit, etc., are storing up food for winter; therefore, the plants easily absorb the herbicide. I would suggest using a herbicide that contains two, 4-D and MCPP. Some of the mixed herbicides contain dicamba (Banvel). Be very careful using dicamba around trees and ornamental shrubs. Dicamba is systemic and can be absorbed through the roots and possibly kill trees and shrubs. Read and follow the label carefully.

Dormant Oil Spray

Dormant oil is a very effective and safe pesticide to use on plants for insects and disease control. Many insects, eggs, etc., over-winter on plants. The oil spray will kill many of these causative agents — apply the oil spray when the plants are dormant and the temperature is above freezing.

Crop Notes

*Last week I moisture tested a lot of field corn. Quite a lot was ready to put in as corn silage and some was ready for high moisture corn. My advice is to keep a close check on your corn. I would rather have corn silage a little on the wet side than too dry.

*In most areas of the county the frost was not hard enough to put the alfalfa to "sleep." Don't harvest until dormant.

*Fall is an excellent time to kill perennial weeds such as dock, milkweed, etc. Many times the corn leaf will keep the weeds from getting frosted. If the weeds are still green after you remove the corn, spray with 1 to 1.5 qts. of Roundup with a surfactant.

*Potash puts winter hardiness into alfalfa. Although the potash should have been applied 3 or 4 weeks ago, you still will benefit from 200 lbs/acre.

Will Microbial Inoculants

Improve Corn Silage Quality?

There are several "schools" of thought on the benefits derived from Microbial Inoculants applied to corn silage. Most everyone agrees that forage crops such as alfalfa benefit much more from the inoculant. The objective in silage is to have fermentation take place as soon as possible which means you would like a rapid drop in pH. In the fermentation process lactic acid is produced (you hope, sometimes other acids are produced) that drops the pH for good feedstuff preservation. If corn silage is harvested at the optimum moisture content, you probably won't benefit much from the inoculant. However, if the corn is wet and has a high sugar content, it may be an economic advantage to inoculate. In any case, the inoculant will not replace good management and harvesting practices.

ALCOHOLIC?

Are you having a drinking problem — i.e. problems caused by drinking? Do you suffer from torment, guilt, remorse and try to make up for wrongs you did once you are sober? Do you want to stop? Really? There are several ways a person can stop, however, the basic first step is to admit to oneself that there is a problem — i.e. trouble stopping, causing problems, hurting others, family. Once you can admit you have a problem, then you can take steps to correct it. Sometimes the admission is sufficient to arrest the problem, but for most of us who have suffered from alcohol for years it took a special jolt to realize that we actually had a problem — such as DWI, family breakup, car wreck, loss of job, or a good dose of humiliation — any of which may trigger the realization that "Yes, I have a problem." Once you take that first step, then you can get help and it can be in one of many ways — all of which work, but sometimes what works for one is not for another.

Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) is a very good approach for many people. In it there are certain steps that are taken, and to gain a recovery it is realized that we must remove ourselves from the center of the universe and turn ourselves over to a higher power (generally referred to and acknowledged as God).

Another method of cure (remission) is direct contact with God, however, it is not what we often meant when we asked Him for help to get over a hangover. To gain contact with Him we must be quite sincere. He must be convinced we are sincere and we must turn ourselves over to His care and pray for help.

He is always there and it is we who actually open the door and ask for help. BUT, we must be serious; we must want to change our lives; we must be willing to step into another world of living — and may you seek that world as the rewards are so many you can't count them. You receive peace, happiness, a realization that there is nature out there; you see the birds as they were created; you find a reason to go on (which you didn't have while drinking); you find excitement in each day and problems become opportunities. Yes, when you turn to God for help, He returns all you need, and more. Try it — listen to the words of experience — I was there and thanks to God I have sunshine, peace, happiness, and a reason to live!

Maryland Fire Prevention Week Is October 8-14

Governor William Donald Schaefer has announced that Fire Prevention Week shall be observed October 8-14. In a proclamation ceremony held at the State House on Monday, Lt. Governor Melvin A. Steinburg presented Maryland State Fire Marshal Rocco J. Gabriele and Joseph Robison, president of the Maryland State Firemen's Association, with proclamations from Governor Schaefer proclaiming Fire Prevention Week in Maryland.

"Big Fires Start Small — Keep Matches and Lighters in the Right Hands" is the theme for National Fire Prevention Week. The 1989 theme stresses the importance of keeping children from playing with matches and lighters which often lead to disaster.

Fire Marshal Gabriele stated that children playing with fire has been one of Maryland's most significant fire problems during the last several years. The theme "Big Fires Start Small — Keep Matches and Lighters in the Right Hands" helps to emphasize the importance of early fire safety education to our young children, he said.

In 1988, 129 Marylanders died as a result of fires in the state. Of that number, approximately 40 were children under the age of 15. Children playing with matches accounted for seven of the fire deaths in the state.

Throughout Maryland, the Office of the State Fire Marshal, the Maryland State Firemen's Association, the Maryland Fire Chiefs Association and nearly 350 career and volunteer fire department will recognize the importance of Fire Prevention Week with a variety of programs for the public.

National Fire Prevention Week was first proclaimed by President Warren G. Harding in 1922 to commemorate the Great Chicago Fire which occurred on October 9, 1871. The Great Chicago Fire claimed 250 people, left 100,000 homeless and destroyed more than 17,430 buildings.

As part of the commitment from the Office of the State Fire Marshal to reduce fire loss, deaths and injuries, the following safety tips are provided to the citizens of Maryland:

"Every residential occupancy in the state must be equipped with an operating smoke detector. Smoke detectors should be checked periodically to be sure they are in proper working condition.

"During a fire situation, people need to know how to escape immediately. Take time to develop a home escape plan, commonly known as E.D.I.T.H. (Exit Drills In The Home). "Smoking related fires are one of the leading causes of deaths and injuries to the citizens of Maryland. Smokers must use good common sense when handling all smoking materials and dispose of them properly.

"Educating adults, as well as our children, is important in the on-going battle against fires," remarked Fire Marshal Gabriele. "However, intervention is also a critical component. Matches, lighters and other heat sources must be kept out of the reach of children."

Searching for a Flexible Certificate of Deposit?

Open a First United WINDOW* Certificate of Deposit

First United's "Window" Certificate of Deposit allows you to enjoy an attractive interest rate today, without being concerned about where rates will be in six months!

The "Window" CD has a one-year term, with a one-time chance for you to withdraw part or all of your funds without any early withdrawal penalties. Six months from the date that you purchase your CD, there is a seven-day "window". During this period you may take advantage of this early redemption feature. Best of all, you may open your "Window" CD with a minimum deposit of $5,000. So there's no need to worry about rising interest rates since you'll only be locking in, initially for the first six months.

*The "Window" CD is compounded semi-annually. Early withdrawal penalties will be in effect for any withdrawal made other than during the stated "window" period. The "Window" CD is being offered for a limited time only. The above rate is subject to change without notice.

A prebid conference will be held at the offices of the Town of Oakland on Friday, October 6, 1989, at 1:00 p.m. Attendance at this conference is recommended for anyone considering submitting a bid.

This procurement is subject to the applicable provisions of Title 14, Subtitle 5 of the State

PUBLIC NOTICES

Finance and Procurement Article, covering purchases from South Africa and Namibia. For any procurement over $100,000, the successful bidder or offeror, at the time of contract award, shall certify that (1) it is not doing business with or in South Africa and Namibia; or (2) in the conduct of its operations in South Africa and Namibia, it abides by certain principles regarding equal treatment for races, and the hiring, training and improvement of quality of life for Blacks, Asians and other Non-Whites.

A certified check payable to the Town of Oakland or a bid bond on the bid form executed by the bidder and a surety company approved by the Owner, in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the bid, shall be submitted with each bid, to guarantee the bidder's entrance into a contract if given the award. No bid bond shall be waived or returned because the bidder has failed to or cannot comply with any requirements as set forth in the plans, specifications, or any applicable statutes of the State of Maryland or any applicable municipal ordinances. No bid may be withdrawn for thirty (30) calendar days after the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids.

The Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in the bidding.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given pursuant to Section 1102A of the Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Oakland and State law that the Mayor and Town Council of Oakland, Maryland, are holding a public hearing on the adoption of an amendment to its Zoning Ordinance, providing for the adoption of revised and modified zoning regulations for the Town of Oakland.

The applicant for the change to the Zoning Ordinance is the Mayor and Town Council of Oakland.

The public hearing shall be held at the Oakland Town Hall, 109 South Third Street on:

Monday, October 23, 1989

At 7:00 p.m.

The hearing shall be concerned with the proposal by the Mayor and Town Council for the repeal of the current zoning regulations, and the adoption of new, revised and modified zoning regulations. These regulations deal with all aspects of the use of land within the corporate limits of the Town of Oakland, provide rules and regulations for special exceptions, nonconforming uses, and revision and modification of the regulations, and provide procedures, guidelines and criteria for the same.

The regulations provide definitions, a table of uses for zoning within the Town of Oakland, regulation of off street parking and signs, establish zoning districts, and define the same, provide for map and boundary interpretations, set forth dimensional requirements, setback requirements, minimum lot sizes, and design standards. The regulations also provide for the administration of the zoning duties and powers of the Town of Oakland, establish and define the Board of Appeals, and set forth its power and authority, and provide for such other rules and regulations

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER 31-21

Part-Time Position Opening Coordinator: College and Me Program

Garrett Community College and the Garrett County Board of Education have developed an innovative educational program for fifth grade students. This program, which will operate for thirteen to twenty weeks beginning in late October, will be based at GCC. The purpose of the program is to encourage young students to consider the importance and need for career planning and post high school training.

A coordinator will be appointed to oversee the operation of the program. The coordinator will work with classroom teachers and college faculty in developing activities, ordering students' supplies and materials, interacting with parents, and will be responsible for the coordination and management of the program.

Qualifications: Bachelor's Degree with elementary teaching experience preferred.

Salary: Dependent upon qualifications.

Deadline: Friday, October 13, 1989.

Beaver Creek Bluegrass Band To Perform

Festival Kickoff Slated Wednesday

The Beaver Creek Bluegrass Band, of Beaver, Pa., will offer an evening of foot-stomping bluegrass music on Friday, October 13, as part of the 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival.

The Beaver Creek Band started entertaining audiences in 1981, and from the beginning, according to a spokesman for the group, decided not only to play quality music, but to entertain their audiences. The band is composed of five entertainers who perform a variety of bluegrass music, complete with costumes, including truck stop, railroad and gospel themes.

Band members include Ed Mahonen, banjo player from West Finley, W. Va.; Rich Ord, bass player and vocalist from Monaca, Pa., who has performed with the popular bluegrass gospel group Country Sunshine; Randy Ord, guitar player, lead and harmony vocalist, from Glenwillard, Pa., who began playing guitar at age 13; Mary Mahonen, guitar player and vocalist from West Finley, now a regular on the WWVA

Wheeling Jamboree; and Brad Oviatt, fiddle player and vocalist from Hagerstown, a past Maryland State champion fiddler. The band recently released a new album entitled "Just In Time."

This performance will begin at 8 p.m. at the Southern High School gymnasium. Admission is $5 for adults and $2.50 for children, and refreshments will be available. Tickets may be purchased from Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, Oakland, Md. 21550, or at the door prior to the concert. For more information or a free festival brochure, persons may call Festival Headquarters at (301) 334-1948.

The traditional kick-off reception for the 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival is scheduled for October 11 at the McHenry House at the Wisp Resort, McHenry, beginning at 8 p.m. This year, once again, a special Honorary Golden Ambassador will be honored during the reception and the Autumn Glory Queen will be crowned. Tickets for this reception will be $125.00. Those supporters of the festival are called "Golden Ambassadors" and will be entitled to the following:

1. Admission for two (2) to: Autumn Glory Kick-Off Reception, Beaver Creek Bluegrass Band Concert, TLT Enterprises Baseball Card Show, Maryland State 5-String Banjo and State Fiddle Championships, 16th Annual Civic Club Antique Show & Sale, and Western Maryland Tournament of Bands.
2. Prize give-aways during the reception.
3. Reserve seating at the Grand Feature Parade.
4. Public recognition as special patron supporters of the Autumn Glory Festival.
5. A pin designating them as 1989 Golden Ambassadors of the Autumn Glory Festival.
6. Priority for purchase of 1990 Golden Ambassador tickets.

The sale of tickets will be limited to 150 patrons and no guest tickets will be given. Those who wish to purchase tickets are encouraged to respond as early as possible by mailing all checks to Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, Oakland, MD 21550; telephone (301) 334-1948.

State Banjo, Fiddle Championships Slated

Garrett County's 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival, scheduled for October 12-15, will once again feature the "Official" Maryland State 5-String Banjo Championship and the "Official" Maryland State Fiddle Championship.

Both championships will be held on Saturday, October 14, at the Southern High School Gymnasium. The Maryland State Banjo Championship will begin at 7 p.m. and, following intermission and presentation of trophies, the Maryland State Fiddle Championship will begin at approximately 8:30 p.m. Trophies and prize money will be awarded to first, second, third and fourth place winners of the Banjo Championships. Fiddle contestants will be judged in two age categories — 60 and over, and 59 and under. Trophies and prize money for the Fiddle Championship will be awarded to first, second and third place winners in each age category.

Contestants for the Banjo and Fiddle Championships are from Maryland and the surrounding five-state area. Following the last intermission, winners of both contests will return for a "jam session."

Anyone wishing to enter these contests may do so by contacting the Autumn Glory Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, Oakland, MD 21550; telephone (301) 334-1948. Contestants may also register the night of the championships.

Limited seating is available for these contests, and refreshments will be served. Admission is $6 for adults and $3 for children under 12. Advance tickets and more information may be obtained at Festival Headquarters.

LOTS OF PICKIN', FIDDLIN', AND GRINNIN' await local residents, as the Maryland State Five-String Banjo and Maryland State Fiddle Championships will again be part of the Autumn Glory Festival. Top musicians from a five-state area are expected to compete in the contests, both of which are slated for Saturday, Oct. 14, in the Southern High School gymnasium. A "jam session" by the winners of both contests will be held following the competition.

Manny Sanguillen

Manny Sanguillen To Be Feature Parade Marshal

Manny Sanguillen, former Pittsburgh Pirates catcher, will be the Grand Marshal of the 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival Grand Feature Parade on Saturday, October 14, beginning at 1 p.m. in downtown Oakland, and will also be signing autographs from 10 a.m. to noon at the TLT Baseball Card Show at the Center Street School, 104 East Center Street, Oakland, on Saturday.

During Manny's career with the Pirates, he was called the "Iron Man," and played in 53 straight games at the end of the '74 season and in 93 of the Buc's final contests, starting 90. He finished with a .287 batting average, setting career highs in hits, games, at bats and runs scored, while maintaining his lifetime batting figure at .300. Twice in one game, he threw out the swift Lou Brock attempting to steal. With Duffy Dyer available to spell him on occasion in 1975, Manny could have had an even more productive year.

Manny was born in Colon, Panama and now resides in Pittsburgh. His boyhood participation in track, soccer, basketball and boxing led to an introduction to baseball at the age of 18. Manny played all positions and played for only a few months before signing a contract with the Pirate organization.

The Name You Need To Know!

SWINGING THEIR PARTNERS during a Western Style Dance Demonstration on Saturday, Oct. 14, at 11 a.m. in downtown Oakland (Second Street) will be the members of the Mt. Top Promenaders. The dancers will offer their free, pre-parade entertainment as they kick up their heels until about 12:30 p.m., and the Festival Grand Feature Parade will begin at 1 p.m.

WILL HE RETURN? That's what is on the minds of all those who attended the annual Oakland Volunteer Fire Department's Oktoberfest Celebration last year and are planning to come back this year. This unusual character, who seemed to be vaguely familiar to a number of local folks, took the "oompah" band stage during a break last year and entertained the crowd with what were allegedly funny stories. There has been no word on his whereabouts since.

Arts, Crafts, And Antiques Among Festival Attractions

The 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival, scheduled for October 12-15, will offer a variety of events throughout the four days of the festival, including lots of arts and antiques.

The Garrett County Arts Council will sponsor a Fine Arts Exhibit of Garrett County artists' paintings, drawings and prints at the Ruth Enlow Library on Second Street in Oakland throughout the festival and the month of October. Admission to the show is free.

An Art Exhibit will be held

Thursday through Saturday at 115 South Third Street next to Gregg's Pharmacy featuring amateur paintings of Garrett County in watercolors, oils and acrylics, prints and handmolded clay pieces, and admission is free.

The 16th Annual Civic Club Antique Show and Sale will be held Friday through Sunday at the National Guard Armory at 8th and Green Streets, Oakland, where 30 dealers will be in attendance with antiques, crafts and collectibles on display and for sale. Admission to this event is $1.00 and lunch will be available.

The Autumn Glory Contemporary Craft Show will be held Saturday and Sunday at the Paul B. Naylor Masonic Temple on Wilson and Liberty Streets, and the old Center Street School, 104 East Center Street, Oakland, where numerous contemporary crafts will be on display for sale.

The 10th Annual Heritage Crafts Festival will also be held Saturday and Sunday at the Broad Ford Elementary School on Harvey Winters Drive outside Oakland, and will feature native and heritage crafts on display and for sale. Admission to both these events is free.

For more information or a free festival brochure, persons may contact Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, Oakland MD 21550; telephone (301) 334-1948.

The following poem was written by Roberta Anderson, a member of the Civic Club of Oakland, concerning the 16th Antique Show and Sale:

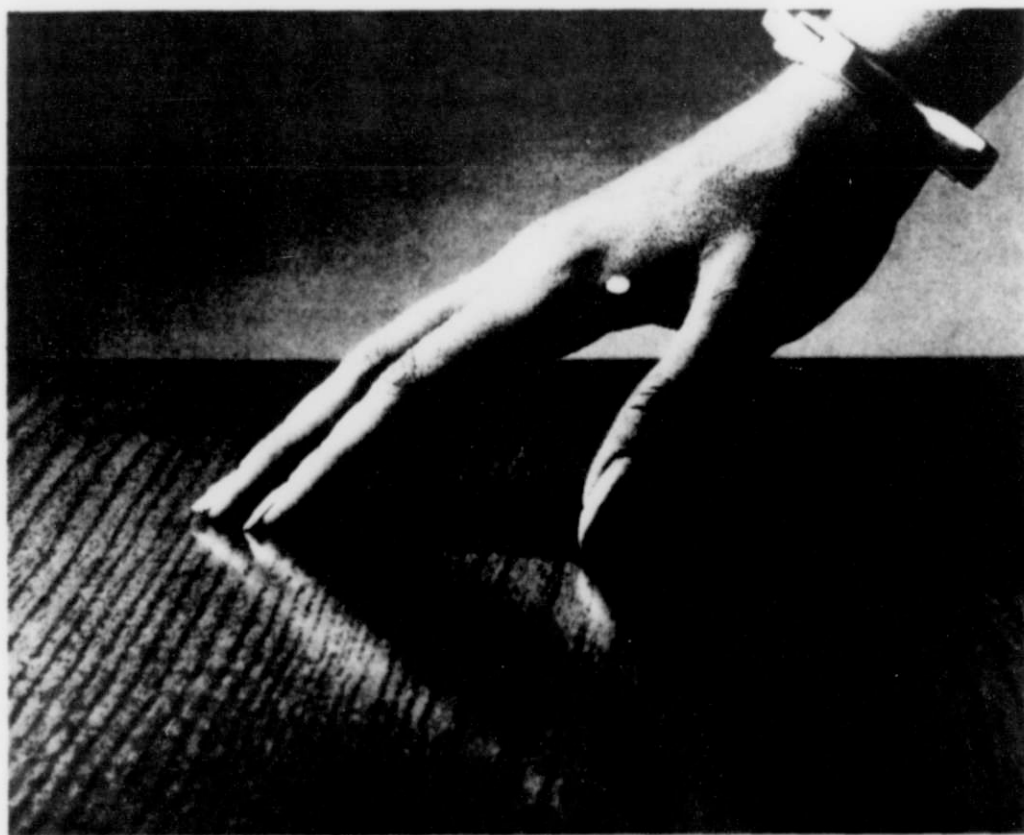

LOOKING AHEAD . . . LOOKING BACK

Your Antique Show Committee isn't wasting any time,
All the Chairmen got together to make our plans for Eighty-Nine.
And, as we laughed and chatted as ladies always do,
Some happy memories came to mind that we'd like to share with you.
Robert Proudfoot whispered into Frances Riley's ear,
And from that little tate-tate, came the project of the year.
The year was nineteen seventy-three, our Antique Show was born,
And Frances lived and breathed antiques each day from dusk till dawn.

The Railroad Station housed us, it was charming, old and quaint.
Soon Frances was surrounded by paper work and paint.
We made a pretty penny, three hundred fifty dollar gain,
And the only casualty we had was our Chairman's ankle sprain.
Success produced the need to grow, the time came to expand.
These dedicated ladies were quick to lend a hand.

Helen Nordeck made her quilts, we raffled them with pride,
Knowing all the loving care in every stitch she tied.
Mabel Hauser's fingers flew, typing recipes galore,
And turning out the work sheets that assigned us each a chore.
Luscious lemon bon bons, and snickerdoodles, too;
For a quarter or a nickel, these goodies came to you.
Our Polly Hanst is famous, she puts Campbell's soup to shame.
The Civic Club's best seller will always bear her name.
It's much the same with pie crust, Diane Thayer was the champ.
Every apple pie in Oakland had her special stamp.
Looking back it's plain to see the standards set are high.
We know your shoes are hard to fill, but we promise that we'll try.
And, maybe some day down the road, we'll have a tribute, too,
And be the Good Lord willing, they'll compare us all with you.

Feel The Difference.

WOOD-MODE
Fine Custom Cabinetry

The first thing you'll notice about Wood-Mode cabinetry is the beauty of the wood. It invites you to touch it. To feel the rich, satiny smoothness. That's the Wood-Mode difference. And it's a difference you can feel. It comes from Wood-Mode's unique multi-step finishing process, complete with expert hand-rubbing. For unsurpassed beauty, sheen, and durability that won't chip, peel, or waterspot.

The Wood-Mode difference. Stop by our showroom and feel it for yourself.

Oakland VFD To Host Parade And Oktoberfest

The Oakland Volunteer Fire County's 22nd Annual Autumn Department will open Garrett Glory Festival by hosting a variety of events on Thursday, October 12, in downtown Oakland.

The first event on the Autumn Glory Agenda will be an Oktoberfest meal held at the Oakland Fire Hall on Third Street, as the local firemen bring "a little of old Germany" to Garrett County with Ger-

A MAJOR HIGHLIGHT of the Autumn Glory Festival is the Grand Feature Parade, an event which includes thousands of participants and draws thousands of viewers along the streets of downtown Oakland. Numerous high school bands, other marching units, floats, clowns, and other units convene to present a two and one-half hour parade. The event is slated to get underway at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 14, with Manny Sanguillen, former catcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates. There will also be a firemen's parade on Thursday, Oct. 12, at 7 p.m.

Miss Maryland, Virginia Cha, To Be Among Festival Guests

Miss Virginia Cha, Miss Maryland 1989, and first runner-up in the 1989 Miss America Pageant, will participate in the 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival Grand Feature Parade on Saturday, October 14, at 1:00 p.m. in downtown Oakland.

Miss Cha is a resident of Frederick, a 1982 graduate of Governor Thomas Johnson High School, and a 1986 graduate of Princeton University, majoring in comparative literature and East Asian studies. During high school, Miss Cha achieved numerous honors, including the National Honor Society, PTSA Awards, Governor's Award, gifted and talented selectee, the R. Ames Hendrickson Prize in piano, Century III Leaders, and Girls' State Governor (Peggy Williams Shipley Memorial Trophy). Virginia's collegiate honors include a Fulbright Scholarship, the John G. Armstrong Scholarship

(2-time recipient), Princeton University's President's Fund Award, and the Class of 1929 Scholarship and Henry Hoyt Scholarship. She has also won the Korean Culture and Arts Foundation Scholarship, the Tom Chan Future Leader Award from the US-Asia Institute, the Simplicity, Inc. Scholarship, Kraft, Inc. Scholarship, and is a Frederick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Volunteer.

Virginia's employment has been with NBC News as deputy operations manager/assistant producer; linguist/translator for the Korean Minister of Communications; a language consultant at Lee International Law Office; supervisor of TOEFL for ETS; book research assistant to a Princeton professor, and staff associate at the US-Asia Institute. From April 1988 through the Summer Olympic Games, Miss Cha worked for NBC News in Seoul, handling everything from interviews to field researching stories for the Nightly News, Today, Sunrise, and NBC Sports. Prior to working at NBC, she spent one and a half years in Korea, field researching modern Korean literature under the auspices of a Fulbright Scholarship.

Miss Cha has had 12 years special training in piano, five years in flute, five years in musical theater with solos, first soprano in an a cappella group with two records and three years of touring experience, and four years of choral and solo singing. Her hobbies are running, biking, swimming, skiing, tennis, aerobic and anaerobic training. Virginia's ambitions include obtaining a master's degree in journalism from Columbia University and becoming a concerned, yet objective, broadcast journalist.

Virginia's parents are small-business entrepreneurs and she has one brother, Dr. Peter Cha.

Miss Cha's sponsor for the Autumn Glory Festival is Gregg's Pharmacy, Oakland.

Autumn Glory 10-K Race To Be Held At Broadford

Plans have been finalized for the annual Autumn Glory Festival 10-Kilometer Race, according to Mike Kozier of the Garrett Sports League.

The course for the event this year has been moved from Center Street and the Oakland-Sang Run Road site to Broadford Park. The 6.2 mile event, which will be on an out-and-back course of flats and gentle rolling hills, will begin at 10 a.m. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m.

Applications for the event are now available at the Garrett County Promotion Council Office (Festival Headquarters) at the courthouse in Oakland or from the Garrett Sports League, P.O. Box 52, Oakland. Persons should send a self-addressed, stamped envelope. The registration fee is $8 until October 7, after which date it will be $10.

Various prizes will be awarded in several age categories, male and female.

Kozier also stated that volunteers are needed to help run the event that day. Persons who wish to volunteer are asked to call 387-7114 after 6 p.m. or to report to the registration desk that morning.

The event is being sponsored by Lohr Distributors, Rob Michael State Farm Insurance Agency, and Central Coca-Cola Bottling, all of Oakland.

Pipers To Pipe During Festival

Garrett County's 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival, which will be held October 12-15, will feature a variety of concerts throughout the weekend, including two bag-pipe concerts of Scottish highland music.

The Garrett Community College Pipes and Drums will perform at 11 a.m. Saturday, October 14, at the intersection of Wilson and Liberty Streets near the Oakland Railroad Station and on Sunday, October 15, at St. John's Episcopal Church on Route 135 in Deer Park during the 10:30 a.m. worship service and outside the church following the services. The band is under the direction of Pipe Major Fred A. Thayer. Admission to these two concerts is free.

For more information or a free festival brochure, persons may contact Festival Headquarters, Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council, Courthouse, Oakland, Md. 21550, telephone (301) 334-1948.

THE PIPERS WILL PIPE and they will also march during the Autumn Glory Festival. Pictured is the Garrett Community College Pipes and Drums unit.

Somerset Man Sentenced To Ten-Year Term

A Somerset, Pa., man was sentenced to 10 years in the Department of Corrections for a charge of robbery with a dangerous and deadly weapon during a Circuit Court trial last Thursday.

Stephen A. Walter, 22, pled guilty to the charge on August 31, when Chief Judge Fred A. Thayer ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Judge Thayer ruled that the 10-year jail term run concurrently with a sentence Walter is serving in Pennsylvania.

Not prosecuted were charges of conspiracy, carrying a weapon openly with intent to injure, and three counts of assault.

The charges stemmed from a September 27 robbery at Grantsville Mart.

Walter was represented by John R. Toston, assistant public defender.

In another case, Beverly A. Beitzel, Mtn. Lake Park, was sentenced to five days in the Garrett County Jail for possession of marijuana.

Beitzel pled guilty to the charge during a September 14 hearing, when Judge Thayer ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Charges of distributing marijuana and conspiracy were not prosecuted.

Beitzel was indicted on May 8, 1989. The charges stemmed from a February 2 incident.

In a separate case, the judge ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Ray Mansfield Replaces Sanguillen As Marshal Of Festival Parade

A change in parade marshals for Saturday's Autumn Glory Grand Feature Parade had to be made at the last minute this week by the Festival Committee after the father of former Pittsburgh Pirate great, Manny Sanguillen, died suddenly Tuesday.

After dozens of telephone calls and considerable hustle by committee members, it was announced this morning that another well-known Pittsburgh athlete will step in and accept the honor.

Ray Mansfield, who was a 14-year veteran for the Pittsburgh Steelers and a holder of two Super Bowl Championship rings, will be the parade marshal, according to Diane Wolfe, executive director of the Festival Committee and Promotion Council.

Mansfield holds the Pittsburgh Steeler team record of playing in 196 consecutive games, having never missed a game in his 14-year career. He was a member of the Super Bowl X and XI championship teams.

Mansfield, who was the 18th player taken in the 1963 draft, was named the Outstanding Blocker in the NFL in 1974. He was a two-time All American Center at the University of

Lake Drawdown Restricts Access At State Park

The recent Deep Creek Lake drawdown has restricted boat launching conditions at the Deep Creek Lake State Park public ramp. According to the lake management office, the lake should reach its maximum projected drawdown of 2452' elevation by October 16. During this time the shallow water conditions at the ramp make launching hazardous for boaters.

The ramp area has been posted to alert boaters to the hazardous conditions. Further information on ramp conditions can be obtained from Deep Creek Lake State Park at (301) 387-5563.

WE WANT YOU! Uncle Sams they are not, however the message is a similar one from the Garrett Community College Foundation Board of Directors and local business persons who have kicked off the fund-raising campaign for the Foundation by issuing a challenge to the community. Already $125,000 has been raised for the Foundation's Endowment Fund, the interest from which will provide extra monies for GCC scholarships and services. The Foundation will begin a phonathon on October 23, when students and community volunteers will telephone local residents to request contributions. Pictured left to right, seated, are Wayne Hamilton, chairman of the GCC Board of Trustees; Christina Sheetz, of McDonald's in Oakland; Don Brenneman, of the Beitzel Corporation; Dave Thomas, of Mettiki Coal Company; and Mike Belmonte, president of the GCC Foundation. Standing, same order, are Bill Grant, of First United National Bank & Trust; Rich Schick, Bausch & Lomb; Milford Beckman, Garrett National Bank; Al Tuomisto, Mettiki Coal Company; and Steve Herman, president of GCC. See story for details of the "challenge."

Local Businesses Issue Challenge To Contribute To GCC Foundation

Six Garrett County companies have joined together to kick-off the Garrett Community College Foundation fund-raising campaign by issuing a challenge to the community. Bausch and Lomb, Beitzel Corporation, First United National Bank and Trust, Garrett National Bank, McDonald's, and the Mettiki Coal Corporation will match every dollar given from the community with one dollar of their own, up to the total amount of the challenge. To date, a total of $125,000 has been raised, and the challenge donors are asking the community to support GCC by contributing an equal sum.

According to Mike Belmonte, Foundation president, stated that the challenge adds to matching monies available through a State matching program. Maryland will also match each dollar given with a dollar in State monies, up to $250,000. This means that every private dollar donated is worth $4.00 to the college, Belmonte said.

Hearing To Rescind Zoning In Friendsville Is Well Attended

Approximately 50 persons turned out for a public hearing that was held Monday night by the Town Council of Friendsville, concerning the plan to rescind the town's current zoning ordinance.

Ralph Burnett, lawyer for the Town of Friendsville, explained that the Town wished to rescind zoning for three reasons: the current zoning ordinance was put in place in the 1970's, so it is outdated and does not take into account the effects of Route 48 running through the center of town; the influx of whitewater enthusiasts; and the fact that spot zoning has occurred throughout the town from commercial development. Burnett explained that the town has been working with the Office of State Planning to adopt a new, comprehensive zoning plan which would go into effect sometime in January, 1990.

"The state planners will take

Man Found In Wrecked Car, Is Listed "Stable"

A Deer Park man remains in "stable" condition at Memorial Hospital, Cumberland, where he was admitted last Thursday after reportedly spending the night in his wrecked vehicle in Potomac State Forest.

Richard Trickett, 69, was injured when his four-wheel drive Chevrolet Blazer ran over an embankment and struck a tree in a remote area off of Schell Road, according to the Department of Natural Resources Police.

Trickett was found in the vehicle by hunters around 1 p.m. He was taken to the hospital by Medevac helicopter. Also responding to the scene were Gorman volunteer firefighters and the Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad. DNR Police are continuing the investigation.

Five persons were treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital yesterday following a two-car crash on Route 219 near the Weber Road.

Maryland State Police at McHenry reported that Sheila Bittinger, 25, Oakland, was northbound on Route 219, while Retha Johnson, 43, Horse Shoe Run, W.Va., was westbound on the Weber Road.

Police said Johnson failed to yield the right of way, causing a collision. She was charged in the incident.

Taken to the hospital by the Southern Rescue Squad besides the two drivers were two passengers in the Bittinger vehicle, Lowell Bittinger, 5, and Kayleigh Bittinger, 4; and one passenger in the Johnson vehicle, Leewna Johnson, 16.

Tpr. J.K. Moore investigated the report.

A Morgantown, W.Va., youth was injured in a motorcycle accident on Hoyer Run Road early Tuesday afternoon.

According to Maryland State Police at McHenry, Bryan L. Kelly, 17, was operating a 1987 Continued on Page A-4

Helmuth Heise, Founder Of Wisp, Named Festival Golden Ambassador

by Sherry Frantz

Helmuth M. "Ace" Heise, founder and primary owner of Wisp Ski Resort, McHenry, last night was named Honorary Golden Ambassador of the 22nd Annual Autumn Glory Festival during the Festival Kick-Off Reception held at the McHenry House, Wisp Resort.

The award was presented to Heise by R.T. Thayer, 1986 recipient of the award and one of the founders of the Autumn Glory Festival, who gave a brief history of Heise's venture since the inception of the commercial ski resort in 1956.

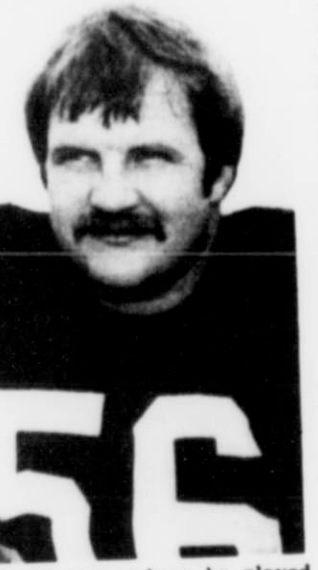

Thayer jokingly commented, "Over the years, Ace has managed to build up a splendid indebtedness."

Upon receiving the 1989 award, Heise stated simply, "All I can say is it's been very interesting."

Heise, according to most Garrett Countians, is, in large part, responsible for the economic development that has taken place here since the mid-1950's when he leased Marsh Mountain in McHenry for the purpose of establishing a commercial ski slope. It is apparent that the Wisp Ski Resort has had a Continued on Page A-4

He is also a successful business man in the insurance industry and was named by Esquire Magazine to its NFL All-Financial Team, which honors athletes who have built outstanding athletic and business careers. He and his business partner, Charles Puskar, have over 100 million dollars of insurance in force.

He is a member of numerous professional, civic, and charitable organizations, including national vice president of the NFL Alumni, president of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, and a member of the board of directors of the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation.

The Grand Feature Parade in Oakland will get underway at 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Orioles Pitcher, Dave Johnson, To Be Firemen's Parade Marshal

Dave Johnson, a pitcher for the Baltimore Orioles, will be a special guest of Garrett County when he serves as parade marshal of the Autumn Glory Festival Firemen's Parade this evening in downtown Oakland. The parade, which will also feature scores of fire-fighting apparatus from several states, as well as various marching units, will get underway at 7 p.m. and be followed by the Oakland VFD's annual Oktoberfest.

Johnson, who just completed his first year in an Oriole uniform, was acquired by Baltimore in a trade with the Houston organization in March of this year.

The 5-11, 180-pound right hander was drafted by Kansas City out of Overlea High School, but chose to attend the Community College of Baltimore and led the team to the Junior College World Series in 1982. He was selected by Kansas City in the fifth round of the January 1981 draft, signed as a free agent by the Pittsburgh Pirates in June 1982, and then signed with Houston as a six-year free agent in December of 1988, before being traded to Baltimore in March.

During the 1988 season, Johnson led the American Association in wins (15), starts (29), complete games (9), and hits (213). His best month was in June when he was 4-1 with a 1.76 ERA in six starts.

During his first season with the Orioles this year, Johnson pitched 89 innings, recorded 26 strike-outs, and gave up 90 hits and 20 walks. His record was 4-7 and he finished with an ERA of 4.23.

Although Johnson's numbers alone for this season aren't particularly impressive, he played a key role in the Orioles come back this year, as they climbed from the bottom of the standings last year to just missing the division crown this season.

On national television on Sept. 20, Johnson tossed seven innings against the Toronto Blue Jays, who went on to win the division, and he allowed only two hits in that contest.

GRANTSVILLE ROTARIANS DONATE TO GCC — At a recent meeting of the Grantsville Rotary Club the members voted to donate funds to two local institutions — the Grantsville Library and Garrett Community College. Support for the library has been an on-going project of the club for many years. The club was instrumental in the library's move into its new location, where Rotarian Charles "Bus" Bender cut the ribbon. To the Garrett Community College Foundation, the club presented a check for $1,000. On hand to accept the check from Terry Dornburg, president of the club, pictured left, was Dr. Steve Herman, president of GCC, pictured second from left. Also present were Chuck Overton and Don J. Newman, Foundation directors. The Grantsville Rotary was among the first local service clubs to contribute to the Foundation.

Lonaconing. The equipment is owned by Tri-Star Mining, Barton.

The investigation is being conducted by Tfc. D.W. Broadwater, who reported that the extent of damages is currently unknown. No suspects have been named.

Grantsville Elementary School reported a breaking and entering theft which occurred between 9:15 p.m. on Sunday and 7 a.m. on Monday.

Police reported that entrance was gained through a rear window which was broken by a rock. The only stolen item reported was $11 in cash. Tpr. G.S. Becker is investigating.

Jacqueline E. Nichol, Grantsville, reported a theft at her

Police said Nichol's purse was taken from the apartment between 11 and 11:15 p.m. It was found a short distance away, but approximately $100 had been stolen.

from the front porch of his residence in September. According to the investigating officer, Deputy R.P. Shaffer, there are no suspects at this time and the investigation is continuing.

Donald James Knapp, Rte. Reynolds Road, reported that a bullet was fired through the wall of his residence sometime between October 1 and 9. The projectile passed through the wall and struck a wood heating stove. The incident is being investigated as an accidental shooting, according to Corporal L.E. Gnegy. Persons with any information concerning this incident are urged to contact the Garrett County Sheriff's Department at 334-1911.

Destruction Of Mining Equipment
Maryland State Police at the McHenry detachment are currently investigating the damages which were made to numerous pieces of heavy mining equipment near Lonaconing between September 27 and 29.

According to reports, someone placed soil in the engine oil crank cases of ten pieces of equipment at the Kootz Mine job site off Route 36 north of Several local thefts and a property destruction incident are currently under the investigation of the Garrett County Sheriff's Department.

John M. Mack, McKeesport, Pa., reported the theft of a $723 stereo from his boat that was docked at Deep Creek Lake.

According to police reports, the theft occurred sometime between September 7 and October 7 behind his lakeside cottage. Corporal L.E. Gnegy reported that the engine of the boat was disabled, apparently to delay discovery of the theft.

There are no suspects at this time and the investigation is continuing.

Corinne Chandler Bell, Oakland, reported the theft of two stereo speakers from the deck of her dwelling at Deep Creek Lake. According to Deputy J.D. Murphy, the speakers, two 9-inch by 6-inch Bose 101 Music Monitor speakers, were stolen sometime

8.47% EFFECTIVE ANNUAL YIELD
8.30% ANNUAL RATE OF SIMPLE INTEREST

Open a First United WINDOW* Certificate of Deposit

First United's "Window" Certificate of Deposit allows you to enjoy an attractive interest rate today, without being concerned about where rates will be in six months!

The "Window" CD has a one-year term, with a one-time chance for you to withdraw part or all of your funds without any early withdrawal penalties. Six months from the date that you purchase your CD, there is a seven-day "window". During this period you may take advantage of this early redemption feature. Best of all, you may open your "Window" CD with a minimum deposit of $5,000. So there's no need to worry about rising interest rates since you'll only be locking in, initially for the first six months.

*The "Window" CD is compounded semi-annually. Early withdrawal penalties will be in effect for any withdrawal made other than during the stated "window" period. The "Window" CD is being offered for a limited time only. The above rate is subject to change without notice.

Oakland Senior Center Moving To Mtn. Lake Park

Since 1976, the Center Street School, Center Street, Oakland has been the "home" for the Oakland Senior Citizens Center. This building will shortly undergo renovation making it necessary for the seniors to move to a temporary location.

Beginning November 1, the Oakland senior citizens will begin meeting in the newly-constructed dining hall on G Street, Mtn. Lake Park, which is owned by the Mountain Lake Holiness Camp Meeting Association. The facility boasts a park-like atmosphere, handicapped accessibility, ample parking, large dining hall with fireplace, and a spacious kitchen.

Senior information and Assistance Coordinator Marie Skipper will also be housed in this facility. Her new hours will TEMPORARY LOCATION ANNOUNCED — The Oakland Senior Citizens' Center will move to a temporary location on November 1, while the current location undergoes renovation. The new location will be on G Street, Mtn. Lake Park, in the newly constructed dining hall. New hours will be on Monday and Wednesday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and on Friday from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Transportation to the new center will be available through Community Action for a $1 round-trip fee. Pictured above, left to right, are members of the Area Agency on Aging: Jane Sickeler, coordinator of Senior Centers; Mary Browning, site manager; Marie Skipper, Senior Information and Assistance; and Lorene Dodge, activities programmer.

be: Monday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.; Wednesday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.; and Friday, 8:30 a.m. to noon.

Because of limited funding for FY '90 and additional expenses, the relocated center will be operating only three days per week (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The seniors will receive their monthly blood pressure screening and share their final meal in the Center Street School on Friday, October 27. No meal will be served Monday, October 30.

According to a spokesman for the Garrett County Area Agency on Aging, the move to Mtn. Lake Park will be completed and the Center will be in full operation by Wednesday, November 1. The 334-3399 number will be the same, so seniors should make their lunch reservations on October 27 or by 9 a.m. on November 1.

Seniors who have previously walked to the "old" Center are asked to call Community Action Transportation by 9 a.m. to receive transportation to the new Center for a fee of $1/round trip.

Any persons wishing to volunteer time or trucks to help implement the move or to donate firewood are asked to contact the Area Agency on Aging, Community Action Committee, 334-9431.

Woman Charged With 1 Felony & 36 Misdemeanors

A Reisterstown woman was arrested Tuesday on 18 charges of theft and 19 charges of passing bad checks, after a total of nine warrants were issued for her arrest.

Annalea Warnick, 26, was picked up Tuesday by the Maryland State Police and subsequently turned over to the Garrett County Sheriff's Department. She was turned over to State Police custody after she was released from authorities in Pennsylvania following her arrest on similar charges there, according to Tfc. R.L. Hersberger, Maryland State Police, McHenry detachment. According to Deputy J.B. Sowers, Garrett County Sheriff's Department, Warnick is charged with one felony theft; the rest of her charges are misdemeanors. According to Sowers, her arrest stemmed from numerous incidents that allegedly took place in Garrett County.

Warnick's arrest on August 24 in Pennsylvania took place after Maryland State Police ascertained her whereabouts and contacted the Pennsylvania State Police with information. She remained incarcerated in Pennsylvania in order to stand trial. Upon Warnick's release Tuesday, she was turned over to Maryland authorities. The Maryland State Police had five warrants for her arrest and she was served four by the Garrett County Sheriff's Department. The suspect's husband, Gary Warnick, was released on bond earlier, following his arrest on similar charges.

Annalea Warnick was released early Wednesday morning after posting $5,000 bond.

Dennis Allen Grove, 37, Westernport, was arrested October 3 for driving while intoxicated (DWI). Grove was apprehended by Deputy J.D. Murphy along Route 135 at Altamont. He was incarcerated and later released on his own recognizance.

Darrel A. Arnold, 25, Corinth, W.Va., was arrested Sunday morning and charged with DWI. He was apprehended by Deputy J.B. Sowers around 1 a.m. along Route 39.

Harry Mark McMurdo, 41, Hudson, Oh., was arrested Friday night and charged with DWI. He was picked up along Route 135 East by Deputy J.D. Murphy.

Floyd James Wilfong,

Thomas, W.Va., was cited for failure to control speed to avoid a collision after his vehicle struck the rear of an Amish buggy Sunday night along Route 219 South. No injuries resulted from the 10:30 p.m. accident, but the buggy was disabled. The investigating officer was Deputy C.P. Nolan.

Fitzwater Furniture Reproductions & Adaptations Of Shaker Antiques

The quest for perfection. In their quest for perfection and simplicity, the Shakers created some of the most celebrated furniture designs in American history. Shaker Country is Lane's tribute to the creativity, originality and spirit that have made Shaker antiques among the most prized of today's collectibles. It is also a celebration of the unique ways in which the shaker style adds depth and dimension to contemporary interior design. On the whole, our Shaker collection reflects the surprisingly strong compatibility of 20th century and Shaker design. Both base their aesthetics on the simple idea that form follows function. As you page through our catalogue, you'll see what we mean. Shaker Country can create an environment of unique harmony and balance when mixed in contemporary settings in today's home.

Keep Opening Doors . . .

The Garrett County Memorial Hospital Foundation has been wrapping up an incredibly successful fund-raising campaign, having collected nearly $1.5 million in donations and pledges from local residents and businesses. Not even the campaign workers had imagined that such an enormous figure could be attained in rural Garrett County; however, the display of generosity and understanding of the importance of the hospital by local citizens was simply overwhelming. We should be extremely proud of our community for such tremendous support for our county's only hospital.

A similar effort is now underway for our county's only college, as the Garrett Community College Foundation has kicked off its campaign to establish a GCC Endowment Fund. Monies generated from the fund will be used for scholarships and for numerous other needed equipment and services at the college that the regular GCC annual budget will not be able to afford.

Good health care is, of course, a primary concern to all of us; however, education should be ranked right up there at the top as well. Garrett Community College provides a wealth of opportunity that was virtually out of reach for many of our local citizens before we had our own college. Attending college has become a reality instead of just a dream for so many local folks who previously did not have the means. There are now over 600 students at GCC, of all ages, and the enrollment figures are climbing impressively every year. Our college has an outstanding administrative staff under Dr. Steve Herman, highly skilled instructors, and a dedicated board of trustees, who want only the best for Garrett County.

We hope the community responds to the GCC fund-raising campaign with the same generosity and enthusiasm that they exhibited for the hospital. An added advantage of donating to the college that was not available in the hospital campaign is that for every dollar contributed, the state and several local businesses will match that dollar with three more, making a one-dollar donation good for four dollars (see front page story for details). That's a pretty good return on one's investment.

Good education, like good health care, is one of the vital keys to our future. Besides education, Garrett Community College also provides numerous other benefits to the community, such as cultural programs, resources, and employment. Let's support our own college and keep opening new doors to the present and future generations of Garrett County residents.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Last week it was announced that Ida Maust of the Accident area was named as Garrett County's Most Beautiful Person for 1989.

I compliment the judges on their choice. I have known Ida for over six years and she, indeed, is a beautiful person.

In the spring of 1983 I took the Hospice Volunteer Training Class. Ida, too, was taking the course. During the next several weeks of training I could see the care, love and devotion she had for people.

After our training I became the director of volunteers and worked even closer with Ida. I have yet to have my first experience of calling her for anything and hearing her say that she didn't have the time. When Ida becomes a volunteer for a patient and his family she gives 110% of herself. The time she spends with them is long and very meaningful to everyone involved.

At this time I'd like to personally say, "Thank you, Ida, for being the beautiful person you are. You have given so much to Garrett County and its citizens. We love you."

Editor's Note: The writer of the following letter to Oakland Mayor Asa McCain requested that it appear in this column.

Dear Mayor McCain:
The Greater Oakland Business Association discussed at its August meeting the issue of free parking for shoppers and visitors during certain high traffic promotional events throughout the year.

During these special events it is not uncommon for shoppers and visitors to spend two to four or more hours walking all over our shopping district. Some customers even ask businesses to hold their purchases until later when they've finished shopping and can come back with their car.

We realize that there are still a few employers/employees that abuse the "on the street" parking privileges and park for many hours at a time w/o regard to its effect on local businesses. We question whether we should penalize all our shoppers and visitors by not allowing free parking at certain promotional events.

We request that the council consider allowing free parking during the following special events:

1. Memorial Day Weekend —

Friday and Saturday.

2. Sidewalk Sale — Friday and Saturday.
3. Autumn Glory Festival — Thursday through Saturday.
4. Christmas Season — Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving, plus the days merchants are open extended hours (in recent years this has been the last two full shopping weeks before Christmas). We would like to advertise "free parking" in our ads for these events and put "free parking" bags over the meters.

Respectfully yours,

Jack Jones
President

P.S. We would like to thank all the employees, downtown residents and employers for leaving street parking to our customers and visitors by parking in the free town lot. We would also like to thank Appalachian Crossroads for volunteer placement of our complimentary bags on each meter.

Note: The Mayor & Town Council have graciously approved GOBA's request for free parking during the above mentioned events.

To the Editor:

Ray Vaughan, executive director of the Mineral County Development Authority, states that a feasibility study was done in Maryland for Deep Creek Lake, and they found that the lake was very crowded.

Based on what they found in the study, they decided to put a boat launch at Jennings Randolph Lake, Vaughan said.

Commissioner Robert Harman added that Maryland is putting the boat launch in to encourage whitewater events on the river. If they do that (build the launch) then whitewatering will be done from the Maryland side of the river instead of the West Virginia side of the river, Harman said. Unless we match that, unless we get our state government to help us, then we're going to be left holding the bag, he said.

Ray Vaughan, coordinator, is the key contact for setting up a meeting between West Virginia and the Maryland Department of Natural Resources to get the put-in point at Barnum started. Outfitters may be able to go in the river in one state and get out in another.

My concern is that West Virginia already has it all. The name of the lake and it is a question how it was changed from Bloomington Lake to Jennings Randolph Lake often comes up. Then there is a hard surfaced road-boat launch-recreation areas along the lake, whereas Maryland got side-tracked with a railroad and dirt roads.

It is time that Maryland taxpayers request that any state or federal funds be used to improve the Maryland side of the lake and river until it can compare with the West Virginia side. Yes, we are the ones holding the bag and have been all the way.

Sincerely,
William L. Reed

tremendously positive impact on the county's growth, not only witnessed by the numbers of tourists patronizing the slopes each year but also by the spawning of new businesses and private residences.

Indeed, according to Thayer, Heise is "father of the four-seasons concept," adding "the spin-offs go on and on." In an article appearing in a recent issue of Glades' Star, Rev. John Grant stated, "Heise envisioned the Marsh Mountain area as being part of a four season year-round recreation section of Deep Creek Lake."

Then owner of Will O' The Wisp cabins and several motels, Heise and several other local businessmen organized the Deep Creek Lake/Garrett County Promotion Council and set out to clear trails for the ski slope which opened for its first season in 1966.

A native of Pittsburgh and graduate of Temple University, Philadelphia, Helmuth Heise is described by his sister, Doris Smith, Deep Creek Lake, as "sincere, fair, patient and strong." According to Smith, Heise built the first motel in Garrett County and soon realized the need for a year-round attraction to the area.

Clearly not a behind-the-desk person, Heise's "hands on" approach to business has earned him the respect and popularity of many who know him. Jerry Geisler, McHenry, Operations Manager at Wisp, offers that Heise is a "working man's man" who prefers a low profile, and adds with a slight bemusement, "Mr. Heise is going to be pretty embarrassed in the lime-light of this most recent award."

Geisler further added that Heise seems to be most proud of the snow-making capabilities at the Wisp Mountain. As a matter of record, manufacturing companies that deal with Wisp have recognized those capabilities as being among the best in the world. In a recent letter, Jim Vanderkelen, Snow Machines, Inc., Midland, Mich., referred to the Wisp as "leaders in the world in snow-making technology."

Vanderkelen continued, "Wisp, Md. has the largest and most energy efficient snow-making system in the world. Others may have more pipeline or more slopes, but Wisp converts the most water at higher temperatures than any other system in the world."

The out-reaching or "ripple effect" of the Wisp Ski Resort has been clearly witnessed over the years in the construction of year-round accommodations, eating establishments, and many other businesses created in the area in the past few decades to accommodate the growing needs of a growing tourist industry.

During the presentation last night, Thayer stated that the Honorary Golden Ambassador award to Heise was a "recognition long deserved," adding that during the first season of operation, Wisp sold 100 lift tickets for a rope tow that was powered by a truck engine. Last year, he said, 139,000 lift tickets were sold.

Heise is president of Will O' the Wisp, Inc., HMM Enterprises, Inc., and Recreational Industries, Inc. He and his wife Evelyn have two sons, Martin and Gary.

ordinance," Burnett said. "There were provisions for special exceptions in the ordinance, but there was more than special exceptions granted; there were whole amendments added, so there are a great deal of problems that have come up."

Burnett then explained that the present ordinance will not be rescinded until the new plan is put into effect and that all the proposed changes will be available for public view before adoption of the new ordinance.

Joe Sessa, president of the Town Council, read a prepared speech concerning the history of the town and the influx of new businesses and increase in tourism throughout the state. He said that the town's fathers granted permits to new businesses in an attempt to promote the town.

Many questions were asked by the townspeople attending the meeting about why the ordinance was being rescinded and what effect this would have on current businesses and homes located in the town, with public comment being overwhelmingly against the proposed rescinding.

"I have lived here for many years, and I have seen a lot of changes made throughout the town. I don't think that it is necessary to rescind the ordinance. I think that the Town fathers should repair the mistakes that were made by previous councils rather than just go through and wipe the slate clean," said one town resident.

Burnett responded that the town just couldn't go back and order existing businesses to cease operations.

However, the Town Council did order one citizen to cease and desist from his business of building kayaks, and that citizen, Jesse Whittemore, has revealed that even members of the Council are in violation of the same ordinance. He believes that it was his action that ultimately led the Council to its present wish to rescind the zoning ordinance. Such an action would be the first time in the history of Maryland that a town completely withdrew all

Dr. Gallwell's Strange Burden

by Craig Speicher

Readers Note: The following parody imitates a televangelist begging money by mail. Any resemblance to an actual evangelist earning $125,000 annually is purely intentional.

Dear Mr. Computer Listing,

Enclosed is a Personal Holy Debt Retirement Certificate. In brief, I want you to return it with all your assets. Then, next month I will burn it. As it disappears in smoke, so will the heavy BURDEN on my heart vanish . . . for another month.

Mr. Listing, I am 55, and if God suddenly called me home to glory — assuming he calls me to glory — I fear this ministry would collapse. Let me share a most unusual spiritual experience I had recently.

I was driving alone atop Libertarian Mountain — the home of Libertarian University. Looking down, I saw the students and bank. And in that EXACT moment — 13 seconds past 12:48 p.m., or perhaps 8:32 a.m. — the sun became dark and a BURDEN I have carried so long became unbearable. (A vision revealed I should die!)

If God suddenly called me — by AT&T — to come home, who would warn the students that the love of money is the root of all evil? Or remind them of the rich man in Hades? Or teach them that they cannot serve both God and mammon?

Twenty years ago, we founders of Libertarian dreamed about a distinctly religious school, emphasizing huckstering for the Lord.

Could it happen? Absolutely! Through many miracles whereby supporters donated houses, land and spouses, we acquired Libertarian Campus.

Because we did not reject anyone, so many students flocked to Libertarian that we now serve bird feed daily. We could have told the students, "No, we do not have room for you. Please go away. Shoo! Shoo!"

But instead, we felt led to siphon your retirement account because Almighty God himself was broke. But as things now stand, it could take 30 years to settle our debts — before Libertarian University is liberated. Verily, verily, I feel a holy God-given responsibility for this mess I've created.

I will not sit by growing richer and fatter everyday and allow Christian young people, who have a vision to turn this nation back to God but haven't had much luck yet, be forced to attend . . . A SECULAR UNIVERSITY! GOD FORBID! GOD HAVE MERCY! GOD BLESS MY POCKETS!

And I just know, because of this BURDEN in my soul, that God wants ME to take a giant step of faith with YOUR money. That way, my $25,000 raise — like my $125,000 annual salary and sheepskin coat collection — is safe.

That's why I'm praying for another miracle! There's one born every minute! And I'm sending you a Personal Holy Debt Retirement Certificate printed on recycled scrap paper bearing my rubber-stamped signature. Do I love you or what!

I'm asking that you sign the certificate (the miracle won't work otherwise). Then, return it to me with a check for ONLY $999.95 payable to Old Time Hustle Hour.

Then, next month, in a "note-burning celebration" my choir will sing "The Praises of Raises" as we burn millions of certificates generated by our Massive Monthly Mailings for Moolah.

The certificates will disappear in smoke — assuring your place in Heaven. YOU can eliminate MY debts. YOU can help free ME of this terrible BURDEN the Lord stuck on me. Yes, YOU, Mr. . . . uh . . . Say, have we met?

Please send the money now before the mailman gets away. You could be dead tomorrow and it would be hard to lick the stamp.

OH! OH! This BURDEN! My soul aches with the pleasures . . . uh . . . PRESSURES . . . of making over a tenth of a million dollars annually.

I may live to be 500 years old, but if I go to my gloriously rich eternal reward in a 24 carat box and leave Libertarian dancing in bankruptcy court, somehow I will feel my divine mission on earth has failed.

I must — eternally hangs in the balance! — have your support! After all, who else would buy such unique salvation?

Sincerely (kind of),
Dr. "Histronics" Gallwell

P.S. I feel a strange and most unusual BURDEN this month. Heavier than last month's BURDEN. Even heavier than THE BURDEN OF '83. So please send me some money. Please, please, please . . .

The Mind Wanders

by Sherry Frantz

I don't talk sports, banking, cleaning tips, farming or real estate, and I offer wisdom on the subjects of education, politics, religion and economics only in the abstract.

So, what can I informatively entertain Garrett Countians with that will also provide this writer with some satisfaction?

I have very definite thoughts (not to mention semi-intelligent ramblings) concerning the mature woman, parenting, marriage, the single life, men, the challenge that Garrett County presents to all who permanently reside here . . . wait, that might work! O.K., we've got a topic for the first installment of The Mind Wanders.

Ah, Garrett County! Subject of wonderment as well as ridicule by outsiders (and insiders). No problem with the source of wonderment. It's fairly clear to anyone here with a door or a window that the county's natural beauty is a source of continual pleasure. Hopefully, we don't forget for a moment that we and our children enjoy clean, fresh air, plenty of space, and are fortunate to be part of a community with a very low crime rate.

But most of us also realize that we are ridiculed and denigrated — from time to time by some, and very frequently by others. I, for one, have defended (much too often) my choice to remain in Garrett County all these years.

I know. Sounds like a personal problem. Yeah, well, I guess I'll take the rap for that, but, I'm grown up now and I think I can change my reaction somewhat and, heretofore, straightforwardly offer reasons — not excuses — for living in Garrett County.

And here is what I'll say: I have roots here. (Not an insignificant factor.) I can breathe here, and I can walk — at my own pace — freely here. I love the city, and can get there without much trouble, but I don't want to live there. I've done that.

Every place on earth presents specific challenges indigenous to that area. It's simply a matter of trade-offs. I choose the challenge of a sparsely populated, unsophisticated, unassuming, sometimes too quiet, sometimes too slow, sometimes too isolated place.

I take the challenge. And I accept the accompanying pitfalls, which, believe me, are bountiful for a now-single woman with few financial resources.

I'll keep shoveling the snow and hauling in the wood and keeping myself at the mercy of auto mechanics who can clearly spot me a mile away.

I'll keep pretending that I don't notice that it's rained for 90 days straight, and that I can vaguely remember a spring-time that is supposed to start a warming trend and send forth buds and leaves.

I'll take the challenge because the simplest life is often the hardest life, because I can find both discomfort and comfort in solitude, and because the rewards here are sometimes as rich as the Garrett County earth.

I'll do it because I need the lush, green foliage of the summertime, the crisp air and sparkling snow of the wintertime, the yellow, gold, and red leaves of autumn, and . . . could someone help me with a springtime image?

zoning regulations. The controversy was the subject of an article in the Monday "Baltimore Sun."

Whittemore was ordered to cease and desist from building kayaks in March of 1989 by the Town Council because his business, which he operated since 1984, was located in an area designated as residential. He maintains, however, that the Town Council was retaliating against him because his landlord, Dr. Donald Pepper, is fighting a proposed laundromat and car wash adjacent to his property.

Terry Spear, a county roads administrator, chief of the town's volunteer fire company, and a member of the Town Council, obtained approval for the proposed laundromat/car wash in March 1988, which would be built across the street from Dr. Pepper's second home in an area also designated residential.

Dr. Pepper took the case to Garrett County Circuit Court, where Judge Fred Thayer denied the town's rezoning of the property. Spear obtained approval from the Town Council again, a week after he, his mother and his uncle were sworn in as new council members in March, 1989, although they abstained from voting on the new request.

Dr. Pepper again appealed in Circuit Court and a hearing is currently scheduled for October 20. Whittemore received the order to cease and desist with his business the day before Dr. Pepper filed his appeal, which was when "laundry wars," as Whittemore termed the drama, began to unfold.

Whittemore, who would face $100 a day fines if he continued with his business after the 30-day grace period, and Dr. Pepper photocopied town records and wrote a list of town council members' alleged zoning violations: Joe Sessa was illegally building a motel in a conservation district; Sessa and Alice Spear, Terry's mother and council member, both owned rental apartment in areas not zoned for them. Whittemore alleged.

Whittemore received two letters permitting him to resume his business and indicating that the matter would be resolved once the zoning ordinance was corrected, but Whittemore, on the advice of his lawyer, has not gone back to work, stating that the letters do not give him a firm guarantee that he will not have his business interrupted again.

Then last month, the Town Council, with Sessa and the Spears abstaining, set Monday's hearing to take public comment on the proposal to rescind the zoning.

Mayor Spencer R. Schlosnagle said that the Town Council admits they are in violation, but so are numerous others. "We planned on doing this (repealing the ordinance) long before the allegations were brought up," he said. "We would have to go through the whole town, correcting violations, and that would be monotonous."

Toward the end of the meeting, Burnett stated that a vote to start the process to rescind the zoning will be taken near the end of the month.

Nelson pointed out to the Town Council that the resolution (to repeal zoning) is irrelevant until the planning commission presents the new ordinance.

A public comment period is now in effect for any citizen wishing to make comments or submit letters regarding the issue and will be until the Town Council moves to vote on the new resolution.

Senior Citizens' Menus

The Area Agency on Aging/Garrett County Community Action Committee announces the Senior Nutrition Program menus for the week of October 16-20 as follows:

October 16 — Cole slaw, ham, maple-candied sweet potatoes, green beans, corn bread, and baked apple.

October 17 — Waldorf salad, liver and onions, whipped potatoes, broccoli, white bread, and coconut cream pie.

October 18 — Cran-apple juice, tossed salad with green pepper and carrots, lasagna with beef tomato sauce, garlic bread, and pound cake.

October 19 — Tomato juice, oven fried chicken, scalloped potatoes, peas, roll, and fruit cocktail with orange sherbet.

October 20 — Apple juice, sweet potato salad, homemade vegetable beef soup, cheese-filled bread, and raspberry sherbet.

Milk, coffee, and tea are served with all meals.

"Eating Together" sites that operate five days per week will be following the menu as is. Those that operate only two or three days per week have the option of choosing menus within the same week.

State Scholarship Winners Named; Two Are Local

The winners and semifinalists in the 1990 Maryland Distinguished Scholarship Program were announced this week by the Maryland High Education Commission and the list includes two finalists, two semifinalists, and six honorable mention selections from Garrett County. The students will be honored by Governor William Donald Schaefer, the Commission, and college and university presidents during Distinguished Scholars Recognition Day at Loyola College this Saturday, Oct. 14.

The two finalists named from Garrett County in the high achievement category are Sanjeev Magoon, a student at Southern High School, and Tarin J. Towers, of Northern High School. Local semifinalists named were Angelique Resh, Northern, and Allen G. Reams, of Southern. Receiving honorable mention were Pamela J. and Tamara J. Brennenman, and Lori L. Minick, of Northern High School, and Deborah A. Blamble, Jenny L. Friend, and Kendra L. Wagner, of Southern.

Students so honored in the high achievement category were selected based upon their outstanding academic performance and Scholastic Aptitude Test scores. The Distinguished Scholars Program is the state's largest scholarship program for students with exceptional academic or artistic ability. High school seniors selected as finalists in the Distinguished Scholars Program are offered an annual scholarship of $3,000 to attend a Maryland college or university.

Stoney Lonesome Boys Will Play At Banjo And Fiddle Championships

The Stoney Lonesome Boys, who made their debut in the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival production of "Foxfire" last summer, will play "foot-stomping" Bluegrass music at the "Official" Maryland State 5-String Banjo Championship and the Maryland State Fiddle Championship on Saturday, October 14. These local musicians will start playing shortly after the doors open at Southern High School Gymnasium at 6 p.m. and will play for the two intermissions during which final judging takes place for the championships.

Keith Roberts, who plays guitar with the Stoney Lonesome Boys, will be the master of ceremonies for the evening. He'll be joined by accomplished musicians Rob Smith, also on guitar, Mark Ashby on bass, Steve Byrd on fiddle, and Fred Crozier on mandolin. Their music will feature original songs, such as "Appalachian Love Song," "Papa's Bones," and "Garrett County Time," from Keith and Rob's album, "Buffalo Run."

Winners of the two championships held that night will reappear for the customary jam session at the end of the evening. These top competitors come from a five-state area. The fiddle contestants will be judged in two categories.

Tickets for this popular event are available from the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council Office and at the door. Admission is $6.00 for adults and $3.00 for children under 12 years old. There is limited seating in the gymnasium, so people planning to attend are urged to plan accordingly. For more information, persons should contact the Promotion Council Office at 334-1948.

matching grant and the challenge from the Garrett County businesses, all monies raised must go into an Endowment Fund for the college. The principal in the Endowment Fund can never be spent. Only interest and investment income can be expended annually. As a result each gift to the Endowment Fund is a gift that will support GCC in perpetuity, Belmonte explained.

The GCC Foundation is planning a phonathon, scheduled to start October 23. Student and community volunteers will be telephoning community residents to ask for contributions. Donations to the GCC Foundation are tax deductible.

Belmonte said that college officials hope the community will respond to the challenge since the college wants to take maximum advantage of the matching monies available through the challenge donors and the State. Interest income from the Endowment Fund is to be used for scholarships, for enhancing the quality of education GCC is able to provide, and for improving GCC's services to its community.

The GCC Foundation also hopes that many community people will support GCC by volunteering to help on the Phonathon. Interested parties are asked to telephone Susan Stern at 387-6666.

Former Mayor Of Accident Dies Saturday

Robert H. Alexander, 90, Accident, died Saturday, October 7, 1989, at Garrett County Memorial Hospital, Oakland.

Born December 10, 1898, in Accident, he was the son of the late Andrew J. and Susan (Beeghly) Alexander.

Mr. Alexander was a superintendent of roads with the Maryland State Highway Administration for 47 years, and was a member of the Bear Creek Church of the Brethren and the Women of the World Camp 41, Grantsville. He served as mayor of Accident for three terms.

He is survived by his wife, Sara (Frickey) Alexander; one son, Robert L. Alexander, Farmington, Pa.; three daughters, Mrs. Doris A. Baird, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Mary Ann Peterson, Woodbridge, Va.; and Mrs. Shirley E. Sisler, Garretttsville, Ohio; four brothers, Earl Alexander and Lloyd Alexander, both of Accident; William Alexander, Camino, Calif.; and Fred Alexander, Hagerstown; one sister, Mrs. Nelle Stemmer, Baltimore; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Friends were received at the Newman Funeral Home, Grantsville. A service was conducted Wednesday at the Bear Creek Church of the Brethren by the Rev. William C. Shimer and James D. Alexander. Interment was in the parish cemetery.

The family requests that memorials take the form of contributions to the American Heart Association.

MABEL L. KAHL

Mrs. Mabel Leighton Kahl, 93, Oakland, died Tuesday, October 10, 1989, at the Goodwill Mennonite Home, Grantsville.

Born July 27, 1896, in Oakland, she was the daughter of the late John M. and Annie (Leighton) Falkenstein.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Karl F. Kahl, in 1971.

Mrs. Kahl was a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church and the Lutheran Church Women.

compared to $1.88 per share for the first nine months of 1988. Year-to-date average return on assets and equity were 1.46 percent and 17.05 percent, respectively.

The market value of the Corporation's common stock was $33.00 per share as of September 30, 1989. This represents a 21.10 percent increase over the asked price one year ago.

As of September 30, 1989, the Corporation reported assets of $345 million and capital resources of $30 million or $17.74 per share. First United has 1,783 shareholders and 1,681,712 shares outstanding.

First United Reports Third Quarter Figures

"I'm please to announce that First United Corporation's third quarter 1989 earnings were $1.2 million, or 9.23 percent over the same period for 1988. A stable economy and continued strong loan demand have been contributing factors to the earnings increase," stated Richard G. Stanton, president and chief executive officer of First United Corporation, a multi-bank holding company headquartered in Oakland.

Earnings per share of common stock for the third quarter rose to $.72 per share versus last year's $.66 per share. (The earnings per share have been restated to reflect the seven percent stock dividend paid on September 5, 1989.) Year-to-date earnings increased 16.25 percent to $3.6 million, or $2.17 per share.

Authentic, Turn-of-the-Century Nostalgic Design Crafted in Solid Oak and Knotty Oak Veneers in a Rich, Clear Brown Oiled Oak Finish — Bright Brass Hardware with Genuine "Oatmeal" Porcelain Ball

A distinctive profile . . . authentic turn-of-the-century detailing the warmth and durability of oak . . . all of these combine to make "Recollections" — a bedroom group that captures the sturdy charm of handcrafted American oak furniture. Beds, Mirrors, and gallery rails are accented with authentic "spool and bobbin" turnings. The rich brown oiled oak finish is complemented with genuine porcelain pulls in an "oven fired" oatmeal color. The details of the case pieces — the sturdy carved pilasters, and routed drawer fronts and base rails — were inspired by an authentic oak antique.

"Recollections" is more than a nostalgic trip to the past — it is a highly functional, unisex coordinated bedroom group with the versatility to meet the demands of an active lifestyle. A variety of beds, mirrors, and storage pieces can combine to provide a play/study area for a young person or a charming master bedroom. "Recollections" brings the warmth and beauty of the past to the practical needs of today.

Goldstein Gives Advice To PTAs On Sales Tax

It's that time of year when school children are going door-to-door selling merchandise as part of their school's Parent-Teacher Association fundraising efforts and moms and dads are planning PTA fundraising dinners.

"We're getting calls from PTA's asking how the Maryland sales tax applies to their activities," said State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein. "There has been a change in state law that affects some purchases made by PTA's, but these organizations need to know how the sales tax applies to both items they buy and items they sell."

Goldstein noted that, under a new law that took effect July 1, 1989, merchandise purchased by PTA's and donated to the school is exempt from the Maryland sales tax. The PTA may use the school's tax exemption certificate to make these purchases.

The sales tax does apply, however, to merchandise sold by school children or others to benefit the school, just like sales by all other non-profit groups, other than religious organizations.

PTA's should also be aware that sales of food items or fundraising dinners held on school property are exempt from the sales tax, as long as the funds are used for education-related purposes. Fundraising dinners held off school property are not exempt from the sales tax, however.

PTA's involved in fundraising that requires them to collect the Maryland sales tax need an appropriate sales tax license. PTA's that conduct only occasional sales can get a temporary sales tax license by calling 225-1540 in Baltimore, or 1-800-492-1751 from elsewhere in Maryland. Those PTA's with more frequent sales should get a permanent sales tax license by calling 225-1313 in Baltimore, or 1-800-492-1751 from elsewhere in Maryland.

Canan, had flown to Owasso to visit his brother and sister-in-law for a short weekend and to assist with the driving their mother home to Oakland.

Bessie Canan was a Thursday afternoon visitor of her aunt, Olive White, who resides with her daughter and husband, Ralph Gatto, Eggon, W.Va.

Milton and Dawn Canan, Accident, were Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of his mother, Bessie Canan, Sunnyside Road.

Clarissa, Autumn, David, Scott and Jarrod Canan took a guided tour of the Sunnyside Kennels with the owner, Larry Canan, who explained the various breeds of dogs.

Conley and Leora Lee of Englewood, Ohio, were Friday afternoon visitors of their aunt, Bessie Canan. They were spending the weekend with Mr. Lee's mother, Mrs. Nelle Lee, in Kingwood, W.Va., who accompanied them home to Englewood for an extended visit. Conley and Leora also visited with some cousins, Ralph and Barbara Lee, Oakland, while they were in this area.

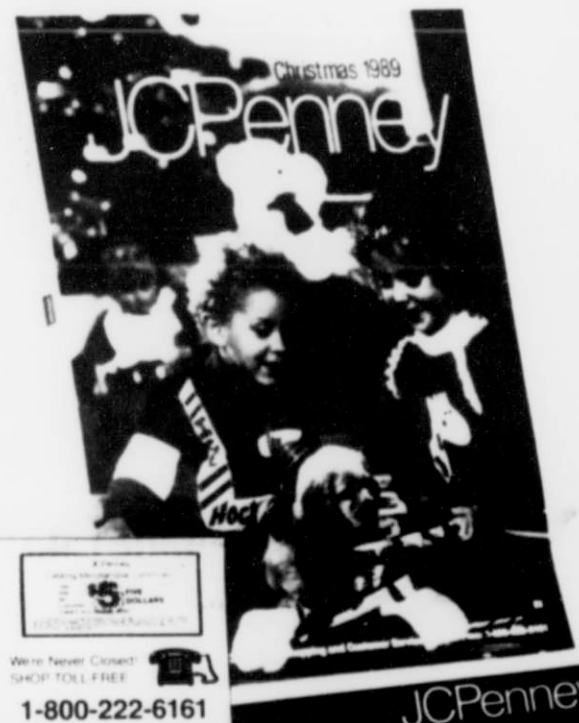

On Saturday evening a family get-together was held in the home of Gene and Daisy Matthews for a birthday dinner with Gene being the guest of honor.

AURORA-EGILON NEWS

CRAFT AND BAKE SALE
The annual Craft and Bake sale will be held at the Farmer's Wildlife Park, Horse Shoe Run, on October 21. The sale will begin at 10 a.m. and will continue until 3:30 p.m. It is sponsored by the Farm Women's Circle.

AURORA SMORGASBORD
A smorgasbord will be held at the Aurora United Methodist Memorial Building on October 14, from 4:30 until 7 p.m. Donations for the meal will be $5.00 for adults, $2.00 for children. It is sponsored by the Loyalty S.S. Class.

BUCKWHEAT DINNER
Buckwheat cakes and sausage will be featured in a dinner at the Maple Spring Church on Route 24 south of Eglon, October 21. Serving will begin at 5 p.m. and donations will be $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for children.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
Union Ambulance Association is in great need of volunteers for EMT positions. They want to have a series of training classes beginning in January and those interested in giving of their time for this training and service are asked to call Delores Stemple at 735-5187.

MT. LIONS ACTIVITIES
On September 21 the Mt. Lions Club met at the St. John's Lutheran Church, Red House, for dinner and then adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rogers Fike in Mt. Lake Park where they saw his animal trophies and viewed scenes of his hunting trips. The October 5 meeting of the Mountain Lions Club was held at Mt. Grove Fire Hall with Dr. Margaret Kaiser of Oakland present to speak about diabetes and then to do blood screening for those who wished it. Both meetings were open to women and there were approximately 50 present at the latter meeting. Those who wish to join the club should contact one of the members.

"WOMEN'S HEALTH" STUDY

A luncheon composed of microwave-prepared dishes at noon began the October 3 meeting of the Eglon Extension Homemakers in the Eglon Memorial Building. Hostess for the day, Ruth Teets, provided rolls and beverage for the luncheon.

The regular meeting was called to order by president Linda Lewis. A study of Women's Health was presented by Jean Winters who told of new treatments for old problems plus many new problems which have taken over. She stressed some of the diseases more prevalent among women than men.

Opening devotions were centered on the theme "God's

West Virginia

News from Preston, Tucker, Grant and Mineral Counties.

Love and Life" and were presented by Ruth Teets and Jean Winters.

The club will be serving the Mountain Lions on December 7 and June 7. County dues, along with the various monies for funds, have been paid. A donation was made to the 4-H Foundation by the purchase of two tickets for each member in the meat raffle. The Family Community Leadership meeting is to be held November 8 at Aurora and each member of the Eglon club is asked to take finger foods.

The meeting concluded with recreation and a new product report. The special feature, a notebook containing health letters and information provided by their insurance company plus pictures of the hostess's tuberosus begonias and a double rainbow, were passed around for viewing.

Attending were Mina Layman, Rebecca Teets, Avenell Parsons, Sandra Hauser, Mary Rembold and Craig, Mildred Wilt, Lillian Knotts, Lettie Bonner, plus the above named and Sara Lewis. The next meeting will be November 7 at the regular hour (1 p.m.).

METHODIST WOMEN MEET

The Aurora United Methodist Women met Thursday afternoon, October 5, at the home of Betty Fint where they viewed the film, "Giving: A Gift of God's Love." Adding to the program was a skit with all participating called "What's In It For Me?"

Conducting the business session was president Alma Snyder. Letters from the adopted child of Compassion and from House of Carpenter were read by Doris Adams. It was decided to make a contribution to House of Carpenter and to increase the pledge to the Missions.

Mrs. Snyder reported on the September 12 birthday party at Hopemont and that 1,194 gallons of apple butter had been made at Burlington, where several from the local church had helped. The Burlington Booth Festival will be October 11 at the Aurora U.M. Memorial Building for those in the Mt. Top area to contribute to the needs of the Burlington Home and the children there. The local women are contributing $50 and a comforter as a group.

They are also now meeting on Wednesdays to quilt and will do quilting for others.

A menu was made for serving the Milk Marketing, Inc. local dinner on November 2. Officers for 1990 will be Alma Snyder, president; Betty Fint, vice president; Rennie Conrad, secretary; and Doris Adams, treasurer. The nominating committee for 1990 includes Rennie Conrad, Betty Fint and Opal Myers.

The next meeting will be November 2 at the Memorial Building at 4:30 p.m.

BLAND DEATH

Mrs. Elva Bland, 94, died Sunday, October 8, in an Easton, Md., nursing home where she had been a resident for the past year. She was born August 6, 1896, at Eglon, a daughter of the late George B. and Jane Fike Hamstead.

She was married to Elza Bland who preceded her in death in 1950. Cousins are the only survivors.

Mrs. Bland was for many years a telephone operator in Eglon, held the position of bookkeeper and office manager for Bland Lumber Company, was a member of the Maple Spring Church of the Brethren and a member of the Eglon Extension Homemakers. She was also active with the Eglon Ladies Aid. She had left Eglon six years ago to make her home with her cousin, Vester and Elizabeth Fike, in Easton.

Lodge To Host Buckwheat Event

Brown Lodge No. 32, Knights of Pythias, will host the Second Knights Pythian Buckwheat Meeting at 6 p.m. in the Castle Hall at 200 West Main Street, for fellow Knights members from Charleston, Keyser, Piedmont, Oakland, and Kingwood on October 14.

The Buckwheat Dinner will be prepared by the members of Vesta Temple, Pythian Sisters.

Preston County Historical Group Holds Meeting

The Preston County Historical Society fall meeting was held Saturday, at the Brandonville United Methodist Church.

A scale model of the home of Mrs. Faye Wolfe was on display in the church sanctuary beginning at 10 a.m.

A turkey dinner was served by the women of the church at noon.

President "Bud" White presided over the program and business meeting after the dinner.

Mrs. Faye Wolfe talked about her "dream house" on display. She and her family have lived in the house for 27 years. Master craftsmen, Zar Kelly and Scott Pinkney, constructed the shell of 4-inch plywood. Mrs. Wolfe assisted in the wiring of the model and the plumbing is also complete. She did the brick work, roofing, made the furniture, and upholstered some of it. The completed structure weighs over 100 pounds, and has one removable section — the only outside structural changes made by the Wolfes — that when removed is the original house.

Mrs. Wolfe stated that historians say the house was built by Dan Mosser in 1873. The farm was the largest farm in the Clifton area and once sold for $1,000. The Wolfes acquired it 29 years ago.

President White conducted the business session. Historian Janice Sisler reported many inquiries daily and great interest in Preston County, with many recent books and publications on the market. A surviving member of the Brain Family massacre was Rachel Brain Michael, whose grave marker was located in the Brandonville Cemetery.

Curator Charles Thomas' report was given by the president, Mary DeBerry, on behalf of WNPB TV, presented the costumes used in the filming of "The Forks of Cheat" to the society, and Mr. Thomas accepted them for the society. They will soon be on display in the society room. Numerous books were received from the Hattie Smith Estate. Summers McCrum, Jr., reported that an end section of the covered bridge that burned on Route 50 had been given by Robert Weltman of Rowlesburg. Zar Kelly presented a gavel he had made to the organization, and many county pictures and a Bible purchased at the old Hagan's Store were given by Clyde Cale.

investigation for Charles L. Guthrie, Mtn. Lake Park, after he pled guilty to distribution of marijuana.

Not prosecuted were charges of conspiracy, two counts of possession of marijuana, and a second count of distribution of marijuana.

Guthrie was indicted on May 8, 1989, as a result of a February 1 incident.

Judge Thayer also ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Steven R. Steyer, 34, Deer Park, in two separate cases with related charges.

In the first case, Steyer pled guilty to two counts of assault and battery. In the second case, he entered a guilty plea for a misdemeanor assault charge.

Several charges in the second case were not prosecuted, including two counts of assault with intent to murder, two counts of assault, and a charge of carrying a dangerous and deadly weapon openly.

The charge in both cases stemmed from a March 15, 1989, incident in Deer Park. According to court records, Steyer threatened Edward and Jenette Steyer with a shot gun.

Steyer's attorney is Robert C. Hesson.

In a joint trial, Judge Thayer ordered pre-sentence investigations for Junior L. Guthrie and Glenda F. Guthrie, both of Oakland. Junior Guthrie pled guilty to possession with intent to distribute marijuana, while Glenda Guthrie pled guilty to possession of marijuana. Bail was continued for the couple.

The Guthries were indicted on May 8, 1989, following a police investigation. Not prosecuted against Junior Guthrie were charges of possession of marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia, and a common nuisance charge. Not prosecuted against Glenda Guthrie were charges of possession with intent to distribute marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia, and a common nuisance charge.

Richard W. Winelander is the couple's attorney.

McKenzie Scores Late As Huskies Top Eagles, 8-0

Despite a steady downpour of rain throughout the game, Darren McKenzie, the area's leading rusher, racked up an additional 154 yards last Friday evening in Terra Alta to lead the Northern Huskies to an 8-0 victory over the much-improved East Preston Eagles. McKenzie recorded for nearly 90 percent of his team's offensive yardage and scored all of the points.

The win improved the Huskies' record to 3-2 and broke a two-game losing streak, while the Eagles dropped to 4-3 on the season.

The defensive units of both teams were aided by the muddy conditions, as Northern recorded only 186 yards in total offense and East Preston finished with 151 yards. There were also nine fumbles and three interceptions in the game.

The contest remained scoreless until the 2:45 mark of the fourth period when McKenzie scored a touchdown on a one-yard dive and then ran for the two-point conversion.

In just five games, McKenzie has amassed 984 yards for an average of just under 200 yards per contest.

Johnny Joe Friend spearheaded the Northern defense, as he was credited with 12 tackles. Lee Holloway also finished with an impressive defensive effort.

"East Preston played very well, which is a credit to their program," Northern Coach Tom Vent said this week. "Fortunately our defense played much better this week. We're just happy to be 3-2 right now."

Staying in the win column this week will require an outstanding effort by the Huskies as they travel to Frankfort High School Friday night to take on the 5-1 Falcons.

"They are the second best team on our schedule," Vent said, noting that the Southern Rams remain the biggest challenge for the Huskies. "They just have an excellent team. They are not a real big team, but they have outstanding speed."

The Falcons' wing-T offense is led by their quarterback, junior Chris Whiteman (6-3, 180), who was seven for 12 in passing last week against Beall; their halfback sophomore Bobby Shanholz (5-8, 156), who recorded just under 100 yards last week; receivers Chris Eckard, a 6-2, 165-pound wingback, and T.J. Lynch, a junior tight end (6-3, 186); and senior tackles Jimmy Minnigh (5-10, 217) and Lee Dent (5-11, 190).

Vent said he was a little concerned this week with what appeared to be an attitude of "complacency" among his players, which he said can be fatal to a team.

"I feel like the kids are letting their intensity slip a little and we certainly can't afford that this week," he said. "We were in this same spot last year and things really went down hill. Of course, it's our job (the coaching staff's) to see that that doesn't happen."

Vent said that it is sometimes suggested that the Huskies drop teams like Frankfort, who consistently are able to field good, large teams. But Vent said that he would never do that.

"Dropping the tough teams just isn't my philosophy," he said. "I have said before, you have to play the good teams in order to bring your program up to a similar level. And I know that our team hasn't played its best football yet this season, not even in the Beall game."

Vent also gave considerable praise to his staff for their work so far this season. "Roy DeVore, Jon Houser, Jason Rush, and Phil Carr are just doing a super job for us," he said. "They have really put in a lot of time and effort."

The Huskies are generally healthy for Friday's match-up, although senior tackle Brian Friend is nursing a knee injury and is listed as questionable.

"We are still looking for consistency in our play," Vent said. "If we can achieve that this week, we have a good shot at winning the game."

Three juniors have been among the Falcons' defensive standouts, including corner back Shawn McGinn (6-1, 155), who recorded 11 tackles and two sacks last week against Beall; linebacker Matt Wrenn (5-11, 170); and defensive end Aaron Moreland (5-10, 160).

"I know we can play with this team," Vent said, "and our kids have to believe that. If they play like they did against Beall then we will be right in there. Frankfort is an excellent team, but we have to go in with the idea that we can win the game."

Bitteringer broke loose for a 70-yard touchdown run in the third period to give Northern a 14-6 advantage.

A two-yard scoring pass to Danny May made it 14-12, but Fort Hill's attempt for two again failed.

Dever Paces Rams Past Trojans For 18-8 Victory

An outstanding individual effort by tailback Mike Dever, coupled with a strong team effort by the Southern High School defensive unit, highlighted an 18-8 Highland Football Conference victory by the Rams over visiting Hampshire last Friday night.

It was the 11th straight win over the Trojans by the Rams, a win that boosted their record to 4-1, while the Trojans fell to 4-2.

Dever, who was called upon by Coach Tom Woods to take up the slack for injured tailback Billy Welch and quarterback Marshall Pike, carried the ball 38 times and recorded 188 yards through the rain and thick mud on the Southern field. He also scored a touchdown, a two-point DOING IT ALL for the Southern Rams last Friday night against the Hampshire Trojans was tailback Mike Dever, who ran for 188 yards through the mud, scored a touchdown, a two-point conversion, and, on defense, sacked the Hampshire quarterback for a safety. The Rams won the game, 18-8, to up their record to 4-1. They will travel to Lonaconing this Friday to take on Valley.

Youth League Playoffs To Begin Sunday Afternoon

The Mt. Top Youth Football League playoffs will begin this Sunday afternoon at the Southern High School field.

The 1:30 contest will pit the Terra Alta Dolphins against the Parsons Vikings in a West Virginia match-up and the 3 p.m. contest will be between the Northern Steelers and the Oakland Raiders.

The Steelers, defending league champions, finished the regular season undefeated (6-0), while the Raiders ended with a 5-1 mark.

conversion, and sacked the Hampshire quarterback in the end zone for a safety.

The Southern defense, which limited Hampshire to 103 yards in total offense, allowed the Trojans to march down the field in the first quarter, but Southern's Mike Fulmer put an abrupt stop to the drive by picking off Monty Edwards' pass at the Southern 15-yard line. It was from that point that Ram quarterback Tommy Ritchey engineered an 85-yard scoring drive which culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Dever with just over nine minutes left in the first half. Dever carried the ball 13 times for 70 yards in the 18-play drive.

Ritchey's pass to Mike Freyman for the conversion gave the Rams an 8-0 halftime lead.

Dever opened the second half by returning the kickoff 26 yards to Southern's 41. Several plays later, on a fourth and three at the Hampshire 37, Ritchey faked to Dever and then carried the ball himself on the option all the way for a touchdown. Dever's two-point conversion run made it 16-0 with 7:19 remaining in the third period.

Hampshire came back with a 58-yard drive, featuring a 20-yard pass play from Craig Richmond to John Muth for a first down at the Southern five-yard line. The ball was tipped by a Southern defender, but fell right into Muth's hands. Two plays later Rick Keiter scored on a three-yard run with 2:10 remaining in the third quarter. Ronnie Cheves ran for the conversion to make it 16-8.

Most of the fourth quarter was exhausted by the Rams on a 17-play drive that ended on the Hampshire five-yard line, where they turned the ball over on downs.

The Southern defense held them right there for three downs and, on the fourth down play, Dever and John Stern sacked Edwards in the end zone for the safety. On the third down play of the series Stern also blocked an Edwards' pass.

Southern Coach Tom Woods noted the offensive performance of Dever, which resulted in Dever's being named the area's Player of the Week by the Cumberland Times-News.

"With Billy Welch out of the game, Mike knew we had to have a good effort from him, and he had a true 'Southern tailback night'," Woods said.

Defensively, Woods was particularly pleased with the efforts of Stern, Jamie Ashby, Shawn Ryan, and B.J. Shaffer. "B.J. really dictated the play of our line," he said.

Woods said he was most pleased by the play of his offensive line. "We executed much better this week, especially considering the conditions, and we played with a lot more hustle," he said. "We also noticed a step up in our level of intensity."

Woods also admitted that the wet conditions were in the Rams' favor. "Hampshire depends heavily on their speed while we tend to just drive the ball at you," he said. "Obviously, the muddy conditions took away some of their speed and didn't allow them to do some of the things they do best."

The Rams paid still another price in the form of an injury to a key player, however, as big senior tackle Kevin Green (6-0, 281) was forced out of the game in the first half with a separated shoulder. He is expected to be out of the line-up for two weeks.

Also continuing to be sidelined this week are Welch, who has a broken ankle, and Pike, who has a broken hand. Both are expected to be out at least two more weeks.

The Rams will seek win number five this Friday night in Lonaconing at the expense of a young Valley team that is currently 1-4, however is coming off an upset win over Moorefield last week.

The Black Knights are under new head coach Randy Stewart, a former Allegany Camper, who has totally reorganized the Valley program using Allegany offensive and defensive approach.

Their wing-T offense is led by senior fullback Jay Marley (5-11, 195); senior tailback Keith Phillips (6-0, 190); junior quarterback Todd Zais (5-11, 165); and junior guard Tommy Kerling (6-1, 165). Jarod Zais, brother of Todd, (6-2, 165) is also a key performer at the tight end spot.

The ground game centers around Marley, who is used extensively in off-tackle and trap formations.

"The key for us will be to try to stop their fullback," Woods said, "and hopefully force them into more of a perimeter game."

Defensively, the Knights are being led by junior tackle John Lough (6-2, 236), senior tackle Josh Browning (6-2, 215); and Marley and Kerling at linebacker. They utilize primarily 5-2 and 6-2 formations.

TWO GARRETT COUNTY SENIORS WILL participate in the 10th Annual Maryland Senior Olympics to be held October 12-14 at Towson State University. A record figure of more than 1,100 Maryland residents, ages 55 and older, have registered for the games, which are sponsored by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Maryland in cooperation with the Maryland Office on Aging, and is the largest senior athletic event in the state. A ceremonial Torch Run will open the 1989 Maryland Senior Olympics on October 12 at 9:30 a.m., beginning at the State House in Annapolis and ending 36 miles later when the Olympic cauldron is ignited at Towson State University. Mary Sutcliffe and Earl Wentz will vie for gold, silver and bronze medals in athletic events ranging from swimming to track and field. Above, Sutcliffe, left, poses with Lisa Stark, representative of the Wisp Resort Hotel, which is sponsoring Sutcliffe in the upcoming event.

A&A Team Tops Choppers, 3-1. For Second Win

Steve Prosser and Mike Hoffditz combined for all three goals as the A&A Realty/Deep Creek Soccer Club got back in the win column with a 3-1 win over The Choppers of Cumberland in The Western Maryland Adult Soccer League. A&A lit up the scoreboard 12 minutes into the game as Steve Prosser set up Mike Hoffditz with a cross just outside the penalty box and Hoffditz drilled in the shot from 22 yards. A&A made it 2-0 in the second quarter as Hoffditz' pass to a streaking Prosser six yards in front of the goal was finished into the back of the net with five minutes left in the half.

The Deep Creek Club jumped to a three goal lead six minutes into the second half as Hoffditz and Prosser again teamed up for the score. This time Hoffditz raced down the right side of the field into the corner. His cross was perfectly placed to Prosser who had a step on his defender 10 yards from the goal. Prosser connected with the pass to put the ball in the upper corner.

The Choppers came back a minute later as they took the kickoff and moved down to score on a shot from 17 yards away. A&A's defense was put to the test in the last 15 minutes of play as they were forced to play a man down after Hoffditz was ejected from the game for arguing a non-call by the referees in the physical contest. The Deep Creek Club held off numerous scoring opportunities by The Choppers. Goalkeeper John Steele had 10 saves to keep them at bay.

A&A's next match will be this Sunday when they face Barreilleville ODC, at 1 p.m. at Mt. Savage High School. The Deep Creek Club still has an outside chance of hosting a first-round playoff game in November, but needs to win their last two games of the season to stay in the running.

Raiders Blank Rams, 18-0, In Mt. Top Action

The Oakland Raiders rebounded for their fifth win of the season in Mt. Top Youth Football League action Sunday by blanking the Thomas-Davis Rams, 18-0, on the Southern High School field. The win gave the Raiders a 5-1 final record in regular season play and they will attempt to avenge their only defeat of the year this Sunday when they meet the undefeated Northern Steelers in a playoff game, tentatively set for 3 p.m. at Southern.

Josh Woods and Mark Elliott spearheaded the Raiders' offense, recording 91 and 89 yards, respectively. Elliott scored the first touchdown on a 64-yard run in the first quarter and Woods added the other two six-pointers of the game, both in the third quarter on runs of 20 and 15 yards.

Coach Dave Martin was pleased with his team's overall effort, adding that muddy conditions made it extremely difficult for both teams. The Raiders attempted to kick for the conversion points on all three touchdowns, but the kicks failed, partially because of the wet conditions.

Pete Strawser added 23 yards to the Raiders' total and Brandon Ross finished with eight.

Martin said all of his players are healthy and "looking forward" to meeting the Steelers again this Sunday.

Mountain Bike Race Scheduled At Wisp Resort

Area bikers are invited to enjoy the beauty of Garrett County's fall foliage while cruising the hills at the Wisp Ski Resort, McHenry, during the Wisp Fall Spectacular Mountain Bike Race on Sunday, October 22. The multi-lap course includes challenging climbs, single track downhill, backwoods pathways and rolling hills following the ski trails at Wisp.

The course will be marked and open for practice rides on Saturday, October 21, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., with pre-registration held during that time. Sunday's activities begin with registration from 9 a.m. to 10:45 a.m., and the race will start at staggered intervals beginning at 11 a.m., followed by the awards ceremony and a cook-out from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The entry fee for this race is $22.00, which includes a T-shirt. Continued on Page A-14

Golf Tournament Raises $2,340 For Rick Nice

The Rick Nice Benefit Golf Tournament, a four-man team scramble event, was held Saturday afternoon at the Oakland Country Club and raised $2,340 for the Rick Nice Trust Fund. Twenty-one teams participated in the event, despite inclement weather.

Rick Nice, Mtn. Lake Park, is a student at Southern High School who is battling a serious illness.

The proceeds from the tournament, raised through entry fees, donations, and fund-raising projects conducted by the Oakland Country Club Ladies Golf Association, will be placed in a trust fund established at the Garrett National Bank.

Winning the tournament was a team representing Garrett National Bank, composed of members of the Southern High School golf team, including Andy Helbig, Scott Meyers, Scott Giotfelty, and Chase Burnett. Placing second was the team of Randy Davidson, Jeremy Lewis, Brian Boal, and Chris Lambert, also Southern High players, representing Davidson's Army-Navy.

Finishing third was Metro Tire, a team composed of Bill

BENEFIT GOLF TOURNAMENT — The Rick Nice Benefit Golf Tournament, held last weekend at the Oakland Country Club, drew a field of over 80 golfers, despite inclement weather, and the event raised over $2,000 for the Rick Nice Trust Fund. Rick is a student at Southern High School who is currently battling a serious illness. Above are the first, second, and third place teams, which include, Randy Davidson, Scott Meyers, Chase Burnett, Andy Helbig, Scott Giotfelty, Jeremy Lewis, Chris Lambert, Brian Boal, Bill Kelley, Danny Helmick, Bob Paugh, and Ted Raynovich. Below, pictured with Lindsey Gonder, tournament chairman, is Rick Nice, his parents, Richard and Sandy, and his younger brother, Chad.

Kelley, Bob Paugh, Ted Raynovich, and Danny Helmick.

"It was a heartwarming experience to witness the degree of individual and community support for a young man and family who have maintained a totally positive attitude during a physically and emotionally trying experience," stated Lindsey Gonder, coordinator of the tournament. "I am sure that all involved in the event will keep Rick and his family in their thoughts and prayers."

Other team sponsors were: Elks Lodge 2481, Bausch & Lomb, WMSG-WXIE Radio, Browning's Foodland, Oakview Motors, Oakland Rotary Club, Proctor Kildow Post 71, American Legion, First United National Bank & Trust, Keystone Paving, Kitzmiller-Bray, and Tom Gowans. Individual donors included: Ernie Shotwell, Joe and Grace Lechman, Team One, Clarence Avery, and Jake Ellifritz.

Gonder expressed his gratitude to the sponsors and donors, as well as to Oakland Club pro Jim Kreyenbuhl, who donated the prizes: Dick Shaffer, who provided the meal and refreshments at cost; and to all who participated in the tournament.

"A special thanks is due the Ladies Golf Association that assisted with the tournament and raised over $1,000 through various fund-raising activities," Gonder concluded.

Kawasaki 650 and was traveling north. He reportedly lost control of the motorcycle, ran off the right side of the road, and struck a utility pole.

Kelly was taken to Garrett County Memorial Hospital by the Southern Rescue Squad, where a spokesman reported that he was admitted, but has since been discharged.

The mishap was investigated by Tfc. D.G. Riggelman. A single-vehicle accident occurred Sunday night on Route 42.

Police reported that Joy M. Nazelrod, 18, Accident, was driving a pizza delivery truck, and was following another vehicle. As the truck entered a curve, the first vehicle slowed down. Nazelrod applied the brakes, and her truck skidded on the wet roadway. The vehicle slid off the right side into a small ditch, then crossed the road and came to rest against a guardrail. Police reported that Nazelrod finished her delivery, then returned to her place of business. A relative later took her to Garrett Memorial, where she was reportedly treated and released.

The incident was investigated by Tfc. G.R. Chaney.

Police investigated a single-vehicle accident Monday morning on Route 495.

According to reports, Bernadine F. Friend, 61, Friendsville, was operating a 1985 Chevrolet Impala. She was traveling north at the intersection of Route 48 and Route 495 when her car skidded on ice on the bridge and struck a guardrail with the front end.

Friend was taken to Garrett Memorial in a private vehicle, where a spokesman reported that she was treated and released.

Tpr. G.S. Becker investigated the incident.

A two-vehicle accident occurred Sunday morning on U.S. Route 219.

Police said William S. Buron, 19, Friendsville, was traveling east on Route 40 Alternate in a 1989 Chevrolet Cavalier. Regina H. Knepper, 66, Richmond, Va., was traveling south on Route 219 in a 1983 Dodge Aries.

Buron reportedly failed to stop at a red traffic signal. Knepper's vehicle struck Buron's in the left side, then continued on and struck a telephone pole. Walter H. Knepper, 69, also of Richmond, was passenger in Knepper's car.

Police reported that injured persons were taken to Memorial Hospital, Cumberland, by the Northern Rescue Squad. A spokesman reported that no one remains hospitalized.

Tpr. G.S. Becker investigated the incident, charging Buron with failing to stop at a red traffic signal.

Laker Women Split A Pair In Volleyball

The Garrett Community College women's volleyball team split a pair of matches over the weekend, losing to Essex Community College on Friday, 15-11, 15-8, and 15-10, and then rebounding for a win over Cecil CC on Saturday, 15-1, 15-0, and 15-8.

Amy Fisher paced the Lakers in the match against Essex by recording 17 service points. She and teammates Cheryl Wilt, Edie Shepherd, and Heather James were perfect at the service line against Cecil.

The results left the Lakers with an 11-3 record. They were to have played Catonsville CC on Tuesday, however results of that match were unavailable.

Fall Harvest Of Pumpkins

MAPLE-PUMPKIN BREAD

- 1½ cups whole wheat flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ cup wheat bran
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup plain lowfat yogurt (or skim milk)
- ½ cup maple syrup
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1 cup mashed cooked pumpkin

Sift the flour, baking powder and cinnamon into a large bowl. Stir in the bran and any bran remaining in the sifter. Mix the remaining ingredients in a medium bowl, and then quickly add them to the dry ingredients, stirring until just blended. Spoon the mixture into a lightly oiled 5"x9" loaf pan, and bake at 350 degrees for about 50-60 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted in middle comes out clean. If you want a stronger maple flavor, add ½ teaspoon of maple extract to the batter.

HARVEST HOME COFFEECAKE

- 1 cup butter
- 2 cups sugar
- 4 eggs
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 cup pumpkin
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 3 cups flour
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon salt

Cream butter and sugar in large mixer bowl until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Beat in sour cream, pumpkin, and vanilla. Beat in remaining ingredients, except Streusel. Spoon half of batter into greased 9-inch tube pan. Sprinkle with half the Streusel. Repeat layers. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 60 to 70 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes, remove from pan.

Streusel:

Cut 3 tablespoons butter into 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar and 2 teaspoons cinnamon. Stir in 1 cup chopped nuts.

PRALINE TOPPING

- 1 baked 9-inch pumpkin pie
- 1 cup pecan halves
- ½ cup packed light brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons half and half
- 2 teaspoons butter
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract
- ¼ teaspoon orange zest, finely chopped
- 1 egg white, stiffly beaten

Place pecans in medium bowl, butter cookie sheet, set aside. In small saucepan, combine sugar and half and half. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring frequently. Add butter, continue to boil, stirring constantly, until temperature reaches 250°F. on candy thermometer (hard ball stage). Remove from heat, stir in vanilla and orange zest. Immediately pour hot mixture over pecans, tossing with two forks, to coat nuts. Quickly spread on cookie sheet, pulling apart to separate. When completely cool, chop candied nuts into small pieces. Stir into beaten egg white. Spoon nut mixture over pumpkin pie. Bake in preheated 350°F. oven for 10 to 15 minutes or until golden. Cool. Topping for 1 9-inch pie.

ORANGE CLOUD TOPPING

- 1 baked 9-inch pumpkin pie, cooled
- 1½ cups (7-ounce jar) marshmallow creme
- 2 tablespoons thawed orange juice concentrate
- 2 teaspoons orange zest, finely chopped
- 3 egg whites, room temperature
- 1 teaspoon cornstarch
- 1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 3 tablespoons sugar
- Orange zest (optional)

In medium bowl, combine marshmallow creme, orange juice concentrate and orange zest, set aside. In small mixer bowl, combine egg whites, cornstarch and cream of tartar, beat until thick and foamy. Beat in three tablespoons sugar, one tablespoon at a time, until meringue is stiff and shiny. Fold half of meringue into marshmallow mixture, blend well. Fold in remaining meringue, blend gently. Spread over cooled pie, sealing to edge of crust. Bake in preheated 350°F. oven for 12 to 15 minutes or until golden. Garnish with additional orange zest, if desired. Allow to cool 15 minutes before serving. Pie cuts easily with moistened knife.

PUMPKIN BRAN MUFFINS

- 1¼ cups flour
- ¾ cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- ¼ teaspoon ground cloves
- 1 cup bran cereal (not flaked)
- ½ cup undiluted evaporated milk
- 1 cup canned pumpkin
- ½ cup salad oil
- 1 slightly beaten egg
- ½ cup raisins

Combine flour, sugar, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, and cloves in large bowl. Combine cereal and milk in small bowl. Allow to set 10 minutes or until milk is absorbed. Combine cereal, pumpkin, oil, egg, and raisins. Add to flour mixture. Stir just until flour is moistened. Do not over mix. Spoon into paper-lined muffin tins, filling to top. Sprinkle top of muffins with 1 teaspoon cinnamon sugar. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 25 to 30 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Makes 9 muffins.

APPLE PUMPKIN TOPPING

- 2½ cups (21-ounce can) apple pie filling
- 1 cup pumpkin
- 1 cup water
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1½ teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
- 2 tablespoons butter

Combine all ingredients in medium saucepan. Heat until butter melts. Serve warm over ice cream. Makes 1 quart.

PUMPKIN BANANA NUT BREAD

- 1 cup pumpkin
- ½ cup (1 medium) ripe banana, mashed
- 1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- ½ cup oil
- 2 eggs
- 2¼ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon ginger
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1½ cups chopped nuts

Combine pumpkin, banana, sugar and oil in large mixer bowl, beat well. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Beat in remaining ingredients, except nuts. Stir in nuts. Pour into greased 9x5x3-inch baking dish. Bake in slow oven (325°F.) about 1 hour or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 5 minutes. Remove from dish. Decorate with glaze, if desired. Makes 1 loaf.

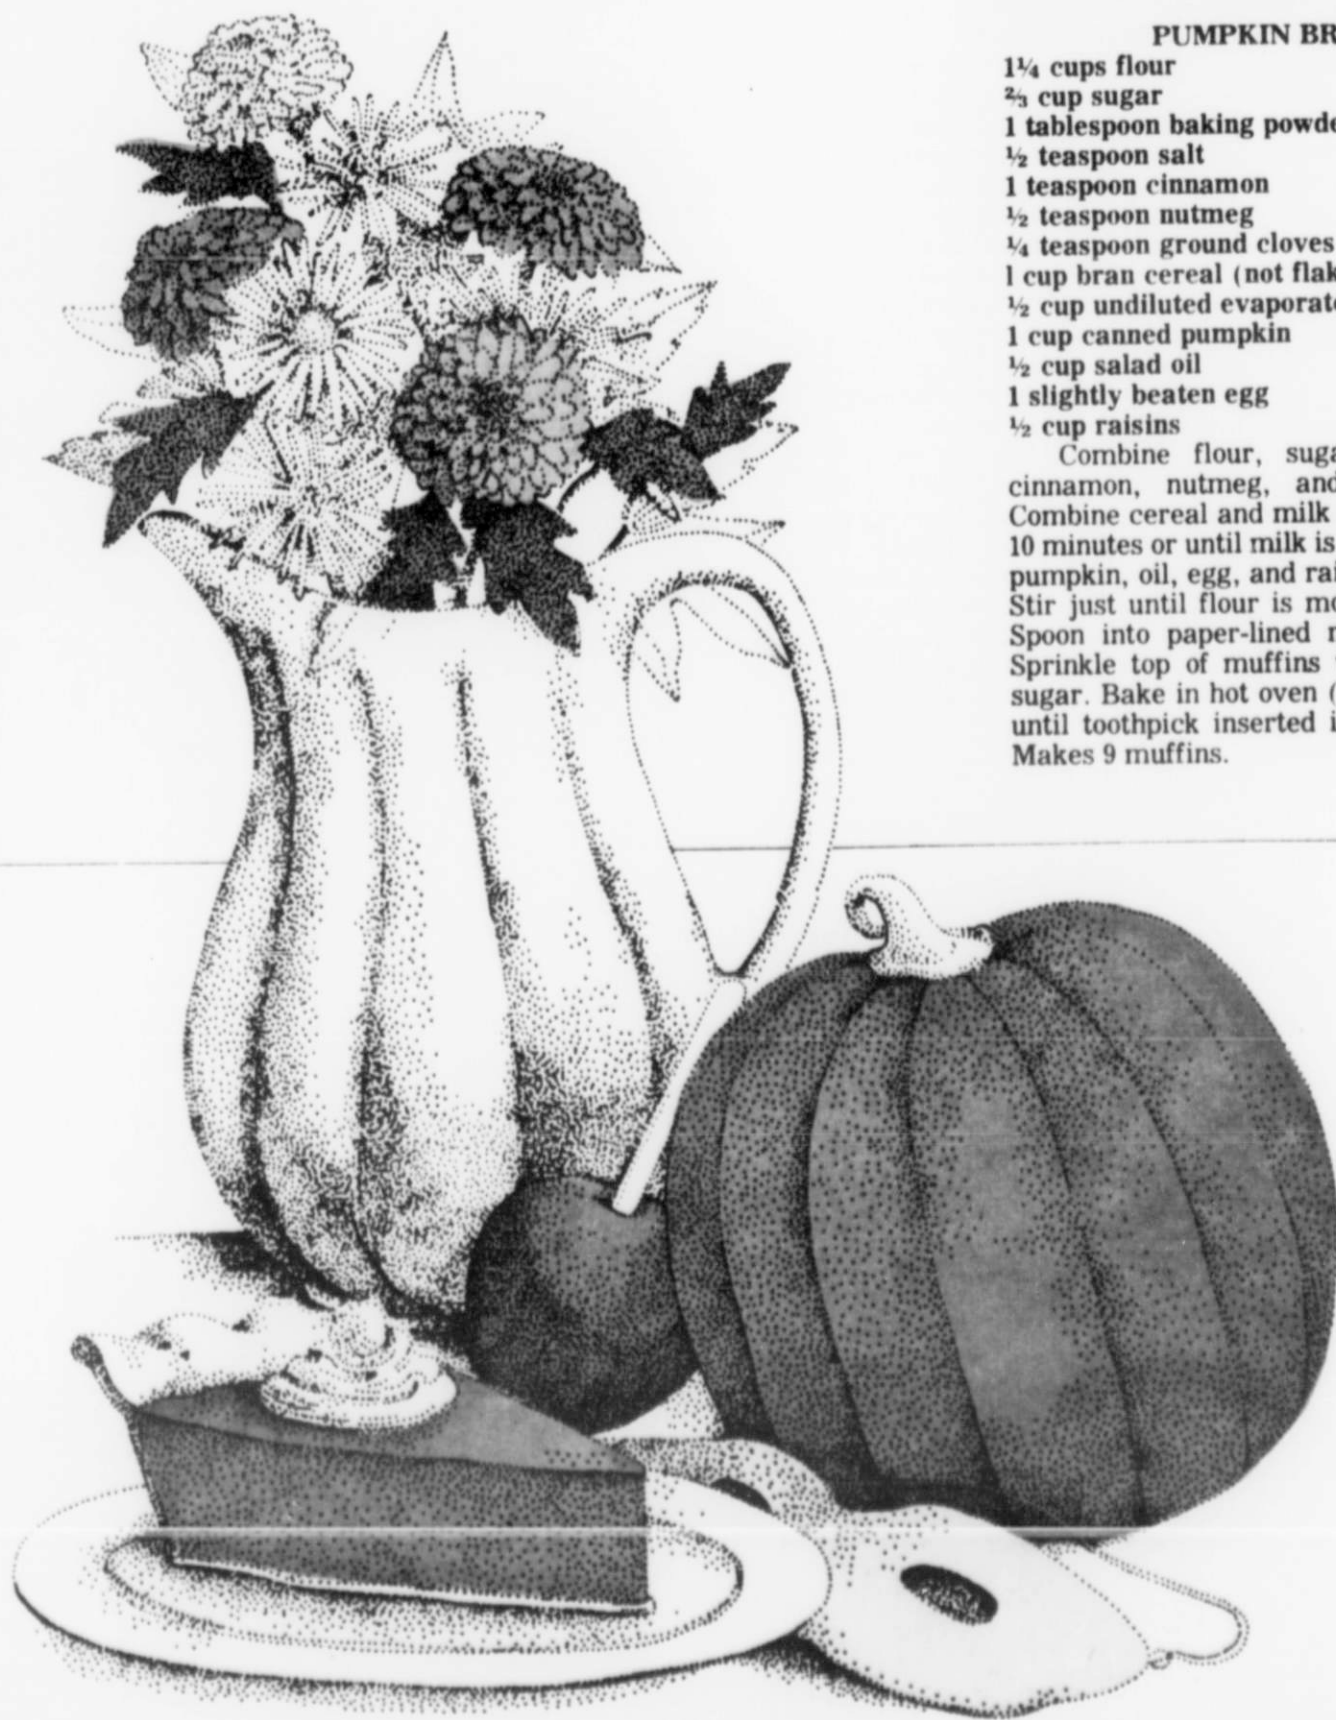

Glaze:

Blend together until smooth 2 cups powdered sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 tablespoon melted butter, and 3 tablespoons milk. Dispense with plastic squeeze-type condiment bottle or drizzle from a spoon or ladle.

YEAST PUMPKIN BREAD

- 2 envelopes active dry yeast
- ½ cup warm water
- ½ teaspoon sugar
- 3½ cups plus 1 tablespoon flour
- ½ teaspoon ginger
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- ¼ teaspoon cloves
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup cooked, mashed pumpkin (fresh or canned)
- 3 tablespoons butter, melted
- ½ cup dark brown sugar, firmly packed
- ¾ cup milk

Dissolve yeast in warm water and stir in ½ teaspoon sugar and 1 tablespoon flour. Let stand until bubbly. Combine 3½ cups flour, spices, and salt, and mix together pumpkin, butter, brown sugar and milk. Add pumpkin mixture and yeast mixture alternately to flour and spices, adding more flour to make a kneadable dough. Knead until smooth and elastic. Cover and let rise until doubled, about 1 hour. Punch down dough and knead again. On lightly floured surface shape dough into a loaf or flatten into a rectangle and roll up and place in a greased loaf pan. Allow to rise in a warm place until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes. Bake in a preheated oven at 325°F for 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from pan and cool on a wire rack.

Halloween fun with spooky spider cookies

With their long licorice legs, gum drop spiders creep across webs of frosting spun atop pumpkin cookies for a Halloween treat that's home-baked and wholesome.

Scary Spider Cookies are anything but frightening. Before the kids turn themselves into ghostly ghouls and goblins, they will have just as much fun in the kitchen making the candy spiders and spinning the frosting webs as they do trick or treating.

The cookie recipe won't spook the cook either. The spiced dough is made several hours ahead of rolling and baking. While the dough is firming up in the refrigerator and the kids are devising their candy long-legs, you can relax.

The frosting is so easy, the kids can make that, too. For less of a mess, let them weave their webs by piping the frosting out of a small-tipped plastic squeeze bottle or a heavy duty plastic bag with one bottom corner cut off.

It's a treat to know that pumpkin not only adds a golden glow to these whimsically eerie cookies, but it is a good source of vitamin A as well.

For a nutritious Halloween snack, offer trick or treaters glasses of milk to go along with the cookies and their not-so-spooky spiders.

SCARY SPIDER COOKIES

(Makes about 2 dozen cookies)

- 3½ cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tablespoons pumpkin pie spice
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup butter, softened
- 1 cup packed dark brown sugar
- ¼ cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 cup LIBBY'S Solid Pack Pumpkin

Frosting

- 24 large gum drops
- 24 pieces thin licorice whip candy, 12-inches long

SPOOKY SPIDER COOKIES are a fun, tasty Halloween treat.

In medium bowl, combine flour, pumpkin pie spice, and baking soda, set aside. In large mixer bowl, cream butter and sugars until fluffy. Add egg and pumpkin, beat until light and creamy. Gradually add dry ingredients, blend well.

Cover and chill dough for several hours. Divide into 6 portions. On generously floured board, roll out one portion of dough, ¼-inch thick (keep remaining dough chilled). Cut out creative shapes free-hand, or use round cardboard form 4 to 5 inches in diameter, or cookie cutter. If desired, cut off edges of cookie dough rounds at angles to create web base.

Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in preheated 350°F. oven for 8 to 10 minutes, or until lightly browned.

Cool. Repeat with remaining dough. Frosting: Blend 2 cups sifted powdered sugar, 1 tablespoon light corn syrup, and 1 tablespoon water, mix until smooth. Add food coloring as desired.

To decorate: Create thin web lines by piping frosting onto cookie using fine pastry tip. Make spider by using large gum drop for body, cut thin licorice whip candy into 2-inch lengths for legs. Pierce gum drop at points where spider legs attach; insert licorice legs. For eyes, use pastry tip to make two frosting dots on top of gum drop. Place one spider on top of each cookie.

*Frosting may also be applied using plastic squeeze bottle with small tip or sandwich-size plastic freezer bag with bottom corner of bag cut off.

Kitten Up A Tree

Puffy has a problem. She's much better at climbing trees than she is at getting down again. Usually, someone has to get a ladder and bring poor Puffy back to earth.

People share Puffy's problem. Their fears are forever driving them to do what they can't undo. They run away from reality only to wish they hadn't. We have even coined the idiom "up a tree" to denote the dilemma of a situation from which we cannot free ourselves.

With people, it takes more than a ladder to solve the problem. Through the centuries we have found Faith an answer to fear. Our churches cultivate courageous Christians. For with confidence in God comes confidence in ourselves.

The person who knows they are never alone doesn't run away.

Small Business Center To Host Four Seminars

The Western Maryland Small Business Development Center will sponsor four seminars in October, three of which are free to small business owners and potential entrepreneurs.

A seminar about financing small businesses will be held at 6:30 p.m. on three dates: Tuesday, October 17, at Frederick Community College; Monday, October 23, at Hagerstown Junior College; and Wednesday, October 25, at Crossroads Venture Center in Cumberland.

Topics at these seminars include: venture capital financing for small businesses, improving the chances of obtaining financing, managing cash and working capital, and an overview of the state's public financing programs. No fees or registration is necessary. Persons may call the continuing education office of Allegany, Carroll, Frederick or Garrett Community Colleges or Hagerstown Junior College for more information, or call the Western Maryland Small Business Development Center at 301-790-6179.

"Exploring Small Business Opportunities in Rural Western Maryland" will be presented by the center Friday, October 20, at the Holiday Inn in Grantsville. Registration is $10 which includes a continental breakfast and lunch. Speakers will focus on generating new business ideas, new possibilities for Western Maryland and opportunities in tourism. For more information, persons should call Garrett Community College's continuing education office at 301-387-6666.

The Western Maryland Small Business Development Center is a partnership of the Maryland Department of Economic and Employment Development, the U.S. Small Business Administration, and Western Maryland Community College Consortium, including five colleges and Potomac Edison.

Commission On Human Relations Rep Will Visit

The Maryland Commission on Human Relations will have a representative in Oakland on October 19 from noon until 3 p.m., or by appointment. Daphne A. Hersher will be available to take complaints of discrimination at the Ruth Enlow Library of Garrett County, 6 North Second Street, Oakland.

Anyone having questions concerning discrimination in employment, housing, or public accommodation is urged to stop by the library. For additional information, persons may call 301-791-4011.

Speakers Named For Hospice's Annual Inservice

Hospice of Garrett County, Inc., will be presenting the Second Annual Hospice Educational Inservice on Friday, October 20, at Garrett Community College, according to Cathy Chapman, R.N., director of nursing for Hospice. The class "Family Dynamics" will be held from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. with registration beginning at 8:30 a.m. Presenters will be Katharine Boucher, L.C.S.W., and Melissa Stevens, L.C.S.W., from Chesapeake Comprehensive Counseling Center in Annapolis.

Ms. Boucher holds an undergraduate degree in clinical social work. She is psychotherapist in marriage and family counseling as well as faculty member of the Loyola College graduate program in pastoral care. She serves in an advisory capacity for both Arundel Hospice and Anne Arundel General Hospital Hospice, as well as a consultant to many school, business, and health organizations in the suburban Annapolis and Baltimore areas.

Ms. Stevens is also a psychotherapist with Chesapeake Comprehensive Counseling Center. She holds a master's degree in clinical social work. Her area of expertise is with children, adolescents, and their families. She also serves as a consulting social worker for the Arundel Hospice in Severna Park.

"We are very excited about this workshop," state Ms. Chapman. "Family relationships and systems are units that we all deal with daily both on a personal as well as a professional level. This class will help us understand the basic family structure and how this unit changes with stress, changes in relationships and with progression of the life cycle."

For further information or to register for this class, persons may call the Hospice office at 334-8111 or 895-3111 or the Continuing Education of Garrett Community College, 387-6666, ext. 169. Cost of the class will be $15, which includes lunch.

Catastrophic Coverage Act Is Repealed

U.S. Representative Beverly Byron voted for the repeal of the Medicare Catastrophic Coverage Act approved last year and signed into law by President Ronald Reagan. In a bipartisan effort, the measure adopting the repeal was passed 360 to 66 Wednesday.

"After visiting over 72 towns and spending countless hours interacting with my district's constituents in August during District Tour, I became acutely aware the Catastrophic Coverage was too expensive and the people living in my district did not want it," Rep. Byron says.

"It is time to return to the drawing board and create a proper program that ensures the elderly in the United States are taken care of, but does not unfairly burden our country's seniors," Byron said. "Catastrophic healthcare is far too important to be thrown together without proper insight from those who will be using it. I feel confident we can do better next time," Rep. Byron says.

Since its enactment, a number of serious program shortfalls have been discovered, mostly in the way of escalating costs. Last year,

Congress was notified the Catastrophic program would cost $32 billion while this year's estimates have grown to more than $48.2 billion. The Congressional Budget Office reports this year's revenues will total $42 billion — a $6.2 billion shortfall. The amendment repeals the entire Medicare Catastrophic Act except for the Medicaid buy-in and spousal impoverishment provisions. The amendment also provides strong protection for beneficiaries receiving benefits and insures strong rules that senior citizens are not left without health insurance. "I feel upbeat Congress will create legislation that will form a safety net under our nation's elderly, but at the same time, not unfairly burden them," Rep. Byron said.

Scholarships Awarded At GCC

Linda Kay Oester

Two scholarships have recently been awarded to Garrett Community College students, according to Cissy VanSickle, financial aid officer. The Maryland Distinguished

Tracy Lynn Shank

Scholar Award has been given to Linda Kay Oester, daughter of Robert and Aquilla Oester, Grantsville. A graduate of Northern High School, Linda is majoring in business administration with an accounting emphasis and hopes to become a certified public accountant.

She is vice president of Phi Theta Kappa honor society and organist for the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Sunday School.

The Oakland Rotary Scholarship has been awarded to Tracy Lynn Shank, daughter of Robert Shank, Oakland. She is majoring in wildlife management at GCC and plans to transfer to Frostburg State University in her junior year.

Diabetes Group To Meet Monday

The next meeting of the Garrett County Diabetes Association will be held Monday, October 16, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Oakland. The speaker will be Emma Odin, territorial representative of Miles Diagnostics (formerly Ames Pharmaceuticals). Blood sugar testing will also be available at the meeting. The public is invited to attend.

Revival Services Slated Oct. 15-20 At Bear Creek

The Bear Creek Church of the Brethren in Accident will be holding revival services beginning Sunday evening, October 15, and concluding Friday, October 20. Bro. Sylvus Flora, West Marva District Executive, will be the guest minister on Sunday evening with Bro. Don Matthews, pastor of the Oak Grove Church, the guest minister for the remainder of the week.

Each service will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will include special music and a message for the children. Those scheduled to sing are: Sunday — a group from Accident consisting of Kandi and Leslie Buckel, Lea Stanton and Michelle Geis; Monday — Becky Mason and Debbie Weeks; Tuesday — Dave Martin of Oakland; Wednesday — a quartet from the Westernport Church of the Brethren; Thursday — Oak Grove Church of the Brethren; and Friday — Fran Bolyard of Oakland. Pastor William Shimer invites everyone to attend.

Shadow Puppeteer To Give Program At Frostburg State

The Maryland Author Series presents author David Wisniewski, a shadow puppeteer and illustrator, who will give a presentation of his work at Frostburg State University, Thursday, October 19, in the FSU Lane Center, Room 201. The presentation is sponsored by the Library and the Department of Education.

Wisniewski attended Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Clown College, after which he toured with the circus for three years. He also majored in drama at the University of Maryland for one semester.

In 1980, Wisniewski and his wife, Donna, formed Clarion Shadow Theatre using cut-out paper figures as a medium.

Wisniewski published his first book, The Warrior and the Wise Man, which is illustrated completely in cut paper, an art form he taught himself.

The presentation is free and open to the public. For more information, persons may call 689-4151.

Sam Butler New Food Service Manager At GCC

A culinary artist with broad experience has taken over the food service at Garrett Community College. Sam Butler, who has won awards in national culinary competition, has been named food service manager at the college. In addition to providing the meals in the college cafeteria, he will instruct courses in the new Resort Management program.

Butler, who grew up in a U.S. Army family and lived in Germany, Japan, Puerto Rico, and Texas, claims to have inherited his interest in cooking from his mother and grandmother who were good cooks. "Even now, when I get stuck on some basic recipe, I still call my grandmother," he says. "Many of my recipes derive from her."

After completing his A.A. degree in business administration at Brazosport Community College in Texas, where he worked nights as a caterer, Butler began serving apprenticeships and taking specialized courses in food preparation. He worked as regional manager for Pizza Hut, covering Hagerstown, Frederick, and Cumberland, and served as chef and general manager of the Holiday Inn restaurant in Grantsville for 4½ years. Twice he has won bronze medals in national culinary competition, in Chicago and in Washington.

He served an apprenticeship under executive chef Andy Iannochione at Bedford Springs Hotel and received certification in soups and sauces. At the Au Petit Paris Restaurant in Frostburg he became soup chef and then tableside waiter. Last year he opened the catering division of McIntyre's 7 Day Market and Maria's in the Cumberland Mall, and he has been guest chef at L'Osteria. In addition, he has written training programs and conducted seminars for various restaurants.

Butler says he is excited about the educational opportunities for students in the Resort Management program at Garrett Community College. "Having come through the system, I have a better idea of what students need to know," he says. "I already have many ideas about practical things that can apply to particular restaurant situations. The restaurant-hotel industry is changing so rapidly it is necessary to stay on the 'cutting edge' to be in competition."

Annual Mellinger Reunion Held

The 26th Annual Mellinger Reunion was held recently at the farm of John F. Mellinger Jr. near Swanton. Approximately 200 friends and relatives gathered to celebrate. These were the descendants of the late Peter Franklin and Annie Amelia (Nolte) Mellinger.

John F. Mellinger Sr., now patriarch of the Mellinger family recently celebrated his 88th birthday.

John and Vanda (Glotfelty) Mellinger were married January 7, 1922, and have eight living children, 26 grandchildren, 43 great-grandchildren and 14 great-great-grandchildren, of which the greater majority attended. Family members gathered to set up the pavilion and games, and also had a corn roast and dance. Music was provided by D.J.'s Tom Tressler and John Wolfe.

The following day there was a skeet shoot, followed by lunch. The afternoon was spent playing horseshoes, volleyball, and other games.

Prizes were won by Grace Groves, oldest lady (94 years); John Mellinger Sr., oldest man (88 years); and Mary Beachy, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., greatest distance traveled.

FACTORS AFFECTING SCHOOL WORK

During the middle school and high school years, adolescents develop new pattern of social behavior and social relationships that absorb a great deal of their energy and attention. At this same time, they need to master knowledge that is often considered foreign and not of their interest.

This often makes academic achievement difficult for the serious student and often impossible for the less serious. Young people have a powerful need to develop and express competence. When they achieve understandings or master a skill successfully, they will continue to make personal investments to learn more.

Extrinsic rewards may be high grades, admission to higher education, social approval, increased income, etc. Only when students perceive that academic achievements will lead to rewards they value and believe and that their own work will result in academic achievement, will they be motivated.

Young people may withdraw from or invest in learning depending upon how interesting they find the materials, regardless of its connection to extrinsic rewards. What a student may find interesting often depends not simply upon the subject or topics themselves, but upon the way the topics are presented.

Learning involves risk-taking. Teachers and peers must be there to give support for working hard. Fear of failure or in a competitive situation can divert a student from academic competence to other activities that are psychologically more comfortable. Students' moral worth and dignity must not be tied to academic achievement only.

Students must have some influence on the conception, execution and evaluation of the work they are involved in. There must be opportunity to construct and produce knowledge in the students own words.

Learning is enhanced when there are opportunities for youth to be with adults. Youth will not invest in learning if they cannot see the value. All young people are entitled to the respect and care of peers, staff and faculty.

Competitive activities for some youth instill a fear of failure which may cause them to leave the educational program. Cooperative learning among peers can offer social support to counteract the alienating aspects of competitive learning.

World Series action hits the mound

ABC brings in top announcers

By Jeff Thompson

World Series action heats up on ABC as that network brings out its critically acclaimed announcing team of Al Michaels, Tim McCarver and Jim Palmer for games throughout the week.

Game 2 of the series is set for Sunday, Oct. 15, with games 3 and 4 slated for Tuesday and Wednesday. If necessary game 5 will be Thursday, game 6 Saturday and game 7 Sunday, Oct. 22.

As they have done Thursday nights all season, Michaels, McCarver and Palmer will describe all the action for this, the 86th World Series. They bring with them a combined 34 years of experience announcing Major League Baseball.

An all-around sports enthusiast, Michaels was born in Brooklyn 41 years ago where he grew up as a Dodgers fan. When the Dodgers left New York, coincidentally Al's family did too, and settled in Los Angeles.

A baseball and football player at L.A.'s Hamilton High School, Michaels decided before college that he would like to remain in sports as a broadcaster.

He began broadcasting games of the Hawaii Islanders in the Pacific Coast League in 1968, and also called the football and basketball play-by-play for the University of Hawaii Rainbows.

His career calling minor league baseball didn't last long. Michaels moved to Cincinnati in 1971, becoming the Reds' number one broadcaster at the age of 26. He has announced baseball for ABC since the network picked up coverage again in 1976.

Palmer's Major League Baseball commentating began with the 1980 American League Championship Series. Having begun his first full season as an ABC Sports commentator in 1984, he is acclaimed by viewers and critics for being bright, opinionated and articulate, and having a sense of humor and a tenacious memory for the details of the game.

"One time about 15 of us were discussing an old game," said Brooks Robinson. "Everyone said it was this way. Palmer said it was another. We checked the scorebook, and he was right. Jim never forgets."

Palmer celebrates a birthday this week. He was born in New York City on Oct. 15, 1945. When he was 9, his family moved to California and shortly thereafter to Arizona. At Scottsdale High School, he achieved All-State status in football, basketball and baseball.

McCarver began calling New York Mets baseball in 1982 for WWOR-TV and The Sports Channel, and joined ABC as a Major League Baseball announcer in 1984. He also celebrates a birthday during the World Series. Born Oct. 16, 1941, James Timothy McCarver signed with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1959 fresh out of high school. He became the only catcher in major league history whose career spanned four decades.

Dear Candace: I agree with all the people who wrote in about As the World Turns. I need new writers badly. I stopped watching it because it had the same thing over and over.

On The Young and the Restless it seems the whole show revolves around Cricket. They are giving her too much exposure. It makes me want to turn it off. So glad to get it off my mind. —R.F., Glendale, Ill.

I want to hear from you! If you have a favorite soap scenario you would like to sound off about, or a question about the soaps, write to Candace Havens, Soap Talk, P.O. Box 17748, Fort Worth, TX 76102-0748.

Blue-collar family uses humor to deal with WWII hardships

By Sheila Odak

A working-class European family trying to cope with life during World War II is the story behind Masterpiece Theatre's presentation of "And a Nightingale Sang," which opens the show's new season on Sunday, Oct. 15.

Adapted from C.P. Taylor's play, this comedy-drama tells the story of the Stotts, a decidedly eccentric family trying to go about their own lives while at the same time dealing with Hitler's threat.

The household is headed by Mam (Joan Plowright), who tries to find comfort in her religion, as her daughters try to find the joys of love. Helen (Joyce Logan) is the spinster, older daughter, who is convinced she is unlovable, until she meets Norman (Tom Watt), a British soldier. They embark on a love affair that they both know is doomed.

Joyce (Pippa Hinchley) is the younger sister who is having a fine time flirting with every man in sight, while still trying to be faithful to her put-upon husband, Eric (Stephen Tompkinson).

Last, but not least, is Grand-Dad (Des Young), whose chief problem in life seems to be his new and unhousebroken kitten.

Through all the chaos of the war, this family manages to look beyond the hardships and find their own brand of good humor in everyday occurrences.

Distefano makes his mark in more ways than one

By Jeff Thompson

It's not often that an athlete both sets his place in history and suffers the most embarrassing moment all in one season. But just ask the Pittsburgh Pirates' Benny Distefano and he'll tell you it can happen.

Distefano had the distinction of becoming a baseball rarity and a nationally televised oddity all in one season.

He became a baseball rarity on May 14 when his team went up against Atlanta. His feat: Distefano became just the sixth lefthanded catcher in the majors since the turn of the century and the first since Mike Squires of the White Sox in 1980.

The left-handed catcher entered the game in the ninth inning and recorded a putout on a strikeout. "I'll do anything to get a chance to play," Distefano said.

Now, as for becoming a nationally televised oddity, Distefano was the victim of a clubhouse prank in yet another game against Atlanta, this time on Aug. 20.

Teammates placed a dollop of shaving cream on Distefano's cap, and twice TV cameras focused on him in the dugout. In the fifth inning, he warmed up the pitcher, still not realizing the shaving cream was on his head.

Eventually, however, he found out.

"From now on when they ask my most embarrassing moment," he said, "that will be it."

Stormy Pulitzer marriage focus of NBC movie

Chynna Phillips, Perry King star

By Sheila Odak

Roxanne and Herbert Pulitzer seemed to have the perfect marriage. They were in love, wealthy and the darlings of Palm Beach society. Everything came crashing down, however, when Roxanne became seduced by the excesses of the rich and Herbert became increasingly jealous and possessive of her. What resulted was one of the most scandalous divorce and custody battles of the century. Their story is told when NBC presents Roxanne: The Prize Pulitzer, Monday, Oct. 16. Chynna Phillips, Perry King and Courtney Cox star.

This film is based solely on Roxanne Pulitzer's best-selling novel of the same name, and therefore only tells the story from her point of view. "Well, the Herbert that I know is completely Roxanne's description of him," stated King, who portrays him. "I felt that I was making her story, so I didn't want to know anything about what the real man was. I wanted to try to bring to life the Herbert that she knows."

In addition to playing a demanding character, King faced the difficult task of trying to convey to the audience what had turned this marriage from a fairy tale into a nightmare. "Things changed. They started out one way and things began to change. What was happening was she was a young woman when they met, and she had to grow up. She had some type of independent spirit and she began to want personal freedom and not to be completely under his thumb."

Even though the media was saturated with the story at the time of the divorce, King feels that this film will let people see a different side of the story.

Adam Rich, Dick Van Patten and Willie Aames reunite for brother David's (Grant Goodeve) second wedding on Eight Is Enough, Sunday on NBC.

Bradford's gather again for 'Eight Is Enough Wedding'

Reunion not all cut and dried

By Mary Ann Townsend

Dick Van Patten gets to blend the best of both his families when his real-life wife and middle son join him for an Eight Is Enough Wedding, Sunday, Oct. 15, on NBC.

Pat Van Patten, the actor's wife of 35 years, plays a future in-law, the mother of David Bradford (Grant Goodeve), Tom Bradford's oldest son.

Also meshing his real-life family with his screen family will be Jimmy Van Patten, who will play daughter Susan's (Susan Richardson) husband, Merle "The Pearl."

His screen family—with two exceptions—is returning in tact. Betty Buckley, who played his wife, and Brian Patrick Clarke, who played the son-in-law his real-life son is playing, are not reprising their roles because of contract negotiations.

Filling in as his wife is Sandy Faison (The Days and Nights of Molly Dodd).

"They all fit right in," Van Patten said. "In fact, after about two days of shooting with Sandy Faison, it's funny, but you feel like you've been shooting with her the whole time. She was very good."

Van Patten said he believes this show is a little more down to earth than the series and the 1987 reunion were.

"It's not too saccharin or too sweet, it's not that goody goody. There's a little more meat to it," he said, citing David's confusion over who he should marry, his ex-wife or his new girlfriend, as an example. "They sort of lead you down the primrose path. You think he's going to remarry the girl that he divorced, and it keeps you guessing."

HOROSCOPE

Oct. 14-Oct. 20

By C.C. Clark

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22)

Romance is in the air for you. If you were thinking about purchasing a large, or expensive item, it would be better to wait until the end of the month.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21)

It is necessary for you to keep a watchful eye out for undermining co-workers. A loved one needs your assurances that everything is going to be OK.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21)

You will need your wits about you in order to complete the task at hand. Your boss and others will be looking at how well you perform under pressure.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19)

New clothes are needed to fit the new you, be confident in your choices. This is a wonderful time for you. You will make an endearing commitment to a loved one.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18)

A new relationship experiences a rocky period when one of you doesn't understand the needs of the other. Things will smooth over by the week's end.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20)

That friend you helped last week will return the favor tenfold this week. Take their advice and use your brain when dealing with your boss.

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)

It is quite possible that a long-standing problem will be cleared up this week. A loved one could be planning a special rendezvous for the two of you.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)

This is a great time for you to go on vacation. Family members will be surprised by something you do spontaneously, but will approve of the act.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)

A child would benefit greatly from your kindness. Even though you may feel tired this week, take the time to show loved ones that you care; they need special attention.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)

Your friends will be your saving grace. Listen to their advice, then formulate your own opinions. A night out on the town could do your spirit wonders.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

You will feel more comfortable with the job at hand. Your boss will probably be a little more lenient with you if you explain why things are taking so long.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22)

Your work place will need your immediate attention this week. Your excellent performance record will prove that you are the one to take on a new task.

Teachers Advise Governor Schaefer On State Education System Reforms

In a report to Governor William Donald Schaefer, the Maryland State Teachers Association/NEA, has called for basic reforms in the state's public education system.

High on the list is a proposal to "put teachers in charge of the schools" so that faculties, not bureaucrats, are responsible for raising student performance.

The association had sent out surveys to 50,000 teachers and parents asking them to rate proposals for improving schools taken from the recent Sondheim commission and other sources. The association undertook the effort at the request of the governor to respond within 30 days to his commission's recommendations.

MSTA President Jane R. Stern said teachers want more individual attention paid to each student, and that means "more teachers dealing with fewer students." Teachers also want more time to "collaborate as a group in managing the school's academic program."

"Parents are essential in raising student achievement by providing a home life that reinforces the school's goals. Being a student in today's competitive world is a full-time job," the MSTA president declared.

The purpose of the report is to generate "dialogue between teachers and public officials towards improving school performance," said Stern. "Teachers are more frustrated than politicians and parents with the state of our schools. We are the ones who live with problems day in and day out. Teachers want results more than anyone."

Next on the agenda is the association's Instruction and Professional Development conference October 14 at the Towson Sheraton Conference Center, which explores restructuring of local school management.

"Collective bargaining between local teacher associations and school boards should set the framework for individual faculties that wish to develop new ways of managing their school," said Stern. "We don't want more top-down remedies for our schools and faculties."

The association will conduct its 122nd annual convention in Ocean City November 2-4 and will debate the issues of school reform.

On November 15, the association will offer further testimony to the State Board of Education in response to the Sondheim Commission's report.

The following were included among the proposals favored by teachers on the list of 68 suggestions:

—Tighten homework policies adopted by teachers at all grade levels.

—Extend compulsory school attendance to age 18.

—Forbid by law the changing of a teacher's grade.

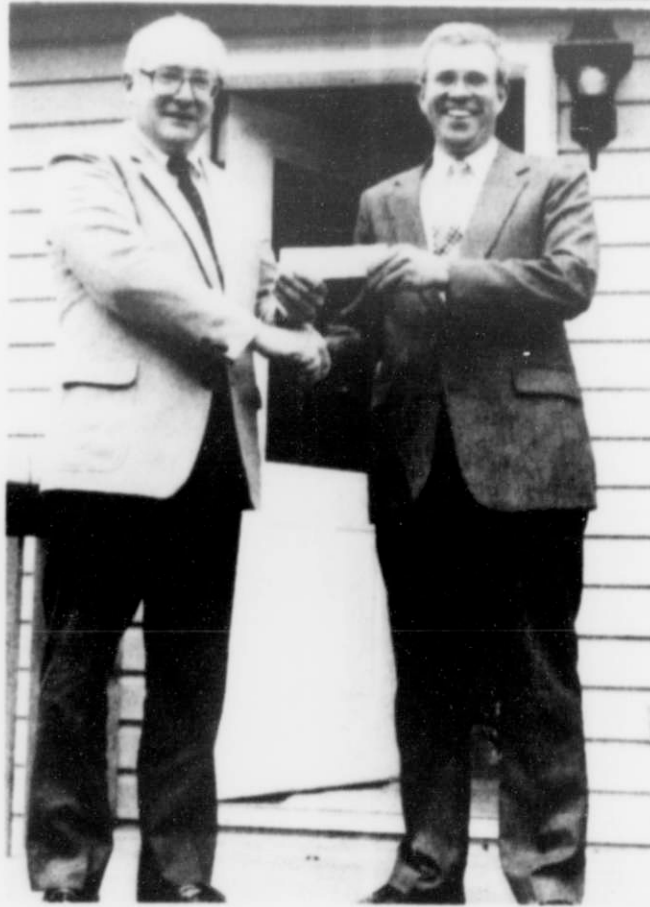

—Fund state scholarships that promise college tuition, lodging and board to each impoverished middle and high school student who graduates with good grades in a rigorous academic program.

—Increase staffing of psychologists, counselors, social workers, librarians, nurses and therapists to meet the needs of students.

—Insist on firm and fair discipline codes at all schools, developed by faculty in consultation with parents, students and administration.

—Permit faculties to offer cross-disciplinary seminar courses to encourage independent and cooperative study.

—Provide summer school for

MCDONALD'S SUPPORTS HABITAT — Craig Wengerd, right, treasurer of the Garrett County Chapter of Habitat for Humanity, recently accepted a donation from Al Boxley III, owner/operator of the McDonald's in Oakland. McDonald's and the Garrett County Arts Council sponsored an Elizabethan dinner at the Wisp Resort in McHenry for the benefit of Habitat for Humanity in conjunction with the performance of "Macbeth" by the University of Maryland Baltimore County touring troupe, "Shakespeare On Wheels." Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization which strives to provide affordable and decent housing for low-income persons.

all applicants both for remediation and enrichment.

—Raise college entrance standards based on the grade-12 outcomes of the College Board Basic Competencies and Subjects, and adopt a uniform lower-division core curriculum to promote transfer from 2-year to 4-year institutions.

—Raise high school graduation standards by requiring more math, science, English, social studies and the arts.

—Raise state funding of schools to 50 percent from the current average 22 percent.

—Reduce class size to 15 in primary grades.

—Upgrade textbooks for more rigorous and accurate treatment of subject matter.

—Relieve teachers of clerical and security chores by hiring more secretaries and support staff.

—Require daily follow-up of absent students and provide clear incentives for attendance and sanctions for absenteeism and tardiness.

—Establish a professional standards board with a majority of teachers and teacher educators to set standards for certification and professional practice.

—Expand community treatment of teachers, negotiated in the past 20 years but recently voided by the State Board of Education.

—Restructure vocational education to stress in-school academic preparation with concurrent enrollment in apprentice programs at local industries/businesses.

—Send teachers to their professional subject-area conferences.

—Upgrade standards for entering and graduating from teacher education programs.

Parents Invited To School Lunch

The Garrett County Board of Education, Food Service Department, will be observing the National School Lunch Week, October 16-20. The theme, "School Lunch: What A Way To Grow," is an opportunity to focus students' and their parents' attention on the relationship between nutrition, health, and fitness.

Parents who have youngsters attending school in Garrett County are invited to have lunch with their child/ren any day during this National School Lunch Week. The Food Service Department requests that, if at all possible, parents intending to participate to notify the school office of the day they plan to visit.

Brown Promoted To Manager At McDonald's

Timothy Brown has been promoted to store manager at McDonald's in Oakland, according to an announcement by Al Boxley, owner/operator and president of APB III Enterprises. Brown, who has been with McDonald's for the past two and a half years, was promoted from first assistant manager at the McDonald's in LaVale.

He is a graduate of Allegany High School and received an associate of arts degree in business administration from Allegany Community College. He has successfully completed courses in basic operations, intermediate operations and applied equipment at Hamburger College in Fairfax, Va.

Brown is a member of the Cresaptown Fire Department and Saint Ambrose Church in Cresaptown. He and his wife are the parents of two children, Shannon and Michael.

The McDonald's of Oakland opened in December, 1988. Located on the corner of Third and Pennington, the store employs over 75 persons.

Ziegler To Speak To Christian Women's Group

The Oakland Area Christian Women's Club will meet Wednesday, October 18, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at Will O' the Wisp, Deep Creek Lake.

Featured speaker and soloist will be Jon Ziegler, of Mtn. Lake Park. A native of Elysburg, Pa., Ziegler is a graduate of Messiah College with a degree in business administration. In 1980 he moved to Garrett County and began working with Mountain Top Youth For Christ. He is married and has three children.

Another guest will be Jenni Mandrovsky, who moved to Garrett County in 1976 and became involved in Meals on Wheels. This organization uses volunteer help to bring meals to home-bound people. She will show how persons can become involved in the program as volunteers.

For free nursery or more information, persons may call Debi Murphy at 334-6550 before October 15. Cost of the luncheon is $5.50. Reservations must be honored.

I miss you in the morning, Steve, when all the world is new.
I know the day can bring no joy, because it brings not you!
I miss you in the evening, Steve, when the daylight fades away.
I miss the sheltering arms of you, to rest me from the day.
I try to think I see you yet, there where the firelight gleams.
Tired at last, I fall asleep, and still I miss you in my dreams!
The world is full of folks, tis true, but there was only one of you!

I miss you!

Forestry Board Has Program On Wooden Bridges

The Garrett County Forestry Board held a dinner meeting at Cornish Manor Restaurant on October 3. Jack Perdue, utilization forester with the Maryland Forest, Park and Wildlife Service, presented a program to the Board members on the use of wooden bridges instead of concrete and steel structures.

Garrett County has been selected as one county in Maryland where timber bridges will be used. Two wooden bridges will be constructed in the Buffalo Run area, northwest of Friendsville, in cooperation with the U.S. Forest Service. Perdue said if these bridges and other bridges like them prove to be successful, there could be a new market for some of the low grade lumber currently being produced. It is estimated that forty-two percent of the bridges in the United States need to be replaced. Approximately 80-85 percent of these bridges are 20-40 feet long, and could be replaced using wooden bridges. The average concrete and steel bridge has a life expectancy of 20-30 years, while wooden bridges are expected to last 50 years or more.

The Forest, Park & Wildlife Service is working on several other utilization projects also. Efforts are being made to promote new markets for the hardwood lumber industry. A new brochure entitled "Maryland's Hardwoods — Opportunity For Profit," has been sent to a variety of businesses, encouraging them to consider locating in Maryland.

The Garrett County Forestry Board has agreed to host the 1990 Forestry Board Conservation Workshop next summer. The program is scheduled for August 12-19, 1990.

John Forman gave the Board members an update on the Maryland Forests Association's activities in the county. A Forestry/Logger's Field Day is going to be sponsored by the Maryland Forests Association June 15-16, 1990, at the Garrett County Fairgrounds in McHenry. This field day will be designed to provide information and education to the general public, landowners, and loggers on natural resources, Forman said.

The fall meeting of the Maryland Association of Forestry Boards is going to be held at the Inner Harbor in Baltimore, October 27-28. The Association will be touring the Harbor facilities utilized in the export of Maryland's forest products.

WVU Symphony To Give Memorial Concert Oct. 19

Lawrence Christianson will conduct the West Virginia University Symphony Orchestra in a memorial concert for Richard E. Duncan October 19 at 8:15 p.m. in the Creative Arts Center Concert Theater.

Duncan, former Dean of the WVU School of Music founding Dean of the Creative Arts Center (now the College of Creative Arts), was an orchestral conductor and violinist.

"He played a decisive role in the development of WVU's orchestra and opera programs," said C.B. Wilson, current Chair of the Division of Music. "This concert will feature important music from both genres, including one of the Dean's favorites: 'Adagio for Strings' by Samuel Barber."

Wilson also announced that "outstanding tenor" Augusto Pagliarunga will be featured vocalist. A WVU professor and artist-in-residence, Pagliarunga is active in opera throughout the U.S., Europe and the Orient.

The concert program also will feature Weber's overture to the opera "Der Freischütz," Richard Strauss' virtuosic tone poem "Til Eulenspiegels courses in basic operations, piegels' Merry Pranks," and orchestral and vocal selections from operas by Verdi and Wagner.

Though the concert is free and open to the public, contributions to the music scholarship fund may be made in Duncan's memory.

Checks should be made payable to "WVU Foundation, Inc." with the memo line "Duncan Memorial Concert." Send them to C.B. Wilson, Division of Music Chair, WVU Creative Arts Center, Morgantown, WV 26506-6111.

HONORED FOR SERVICE — In appreciation for nearly 15 years of service as a clerk for the town of Oakland, the Mayor and Town Council, along with town employees, presented a plaque to Nancy L. Wagner, who has resigned from that position, effective Sept. 29. Mrs. Wagner was hired by the town in May of 1975.

Aglow Fellowship To Meet Wednesday

The Cumberland Chapter of Women's Aglow Fellowship will meet Wednesday, October 18, at 9:30 a.m. at the Holiday Inn, Cumberland, for the monthly meeting.

Fellowship will begin at 9:30 a.m. with coffee and donuts and the meeting will begin at 10 a.m.

Pamela Smith, from Paramount, will be the speaker. She has served on the Hagerstown Aglow Board as well as the Western Maryland Area Board.

All ladies in the area are welcome to attend. Child care can be provided but interested persons must call 895-5041.

Local Developers Want To Promote Regional Events

The developers of the Laurel Brook condominium project near Deep Creek Lake have announced efforts to promote the region's tourist attractions, and have called upon similar developers and all private sector interests to join in.

"For years, the various areas contiguous to Deep Creek Lake have attempted to promote isolated events and individual counties," said Gary Smoot, president of Laurel Brook Developers, Inc. "All have a done a great job. But now, we think the private sector should join together to reinforce those efforts to strengthen tourist interest in the entire region."

Smoot indicated that his firm has begun efforts to collect materials for inclusion in a direct mail and point-of-interest package that will be made available to people curious about the area. Additional concepts, though as yet unconfirmed, are in the works, he said.

Smoot said he and Laurel

Brook principals John Anderson and Larry Shaffer conceived of the idea as visitors to their development began asking about possible day trips in the area. "People want to relax in different ways," Smoot said,

"and those who visit this region seem to perceive it as an alternative to the more hectic resort areas along the East Coast. But they also tend to see the area as two dimensional — water sports in the summer, snow sports in the winter. The fact is, this region is rich in activities that few others can rival. We just need to get the word out about them to more people in the cities."

He stressed the region's plethora fairs, festivals, craft shows, flea markets, auctions, cultural events, historical sites and other tourist-oriented activities that sets it apart from other areas. "And so many of these wonderful ventures are going on now in the autumn," he said, "that I wish we had our program in place right now. Just like other regions."

Businesses in Florida's Orlando area are a typical example, he said. Though Disney World is the major attraction, outlying areas as far away as Daytona Beach and the Kennedy Space Center join in to promote the region's interests.

Smoot, himself a Baltimore native who moved to Garrett County 12 years ago in search of a more relaxed lifestyle, said, "What brought me and others like me to this region was the promise of peace and quiet and the right to be close to my family without so many demands for my time. There's a rhythm here that allows you to get things done, but at a pace that helps you to live longer."

With this in mind, Smoot said he believes an advertising program designed around a theme of promoting the region as offering "a gentle adventure" may help interest potential visitors.

He issued a call for input from business interests in all counties in the region, including Preston and Tucker Counties, W.Va., Somerset County, Pa., and neighboring Allegany County.

Though Smoot said he intends to visit several tourist spots and businesses in the area in order to explain the idea and to enlist aid, he also invited interested persons to contact him at the Laurel Brook development, located one quarter mile south of Deep Creek Lake on Rt. 219, across the road from Wayne's Waters and Wells, or write to him in care of Laurel Brook Developers, Inc., P.O. Box 217, McHenry, MD, 21541. Phone (301) 387-5395.

"Other regions promote themselves on a regular basis," Smoot said. "So should we."

The geographic center of the North American continent is in Pierce County, North Dakota, six miles west of Balta.

Grantsville Lions, Town Begin Drive For Decorations

The Grantsville Lions Club and the Town of Grantsville are starting a drive to purchase new Christmas decorations for the Town of Grantsville this year.

Last year the Grantsville Civic Association gave the Lions Club decorations which had been used in the past. The Lions refurbished the old decorations and installed them along Main Street.

Businesses or individuals who would like to donate to the fund should send their donations to: Grantsville Lions Club, P.O. Box 450, Grantsville, MD 21536. Further information can be obtained from any Lions Club member or by calling 895-5177. Businesses or individuals can purchase a decoration at a cost of $350.00 each or donate any amount toward a decoration. A total of 14 decorations has been chosen by the decorations committee for installation this year.

Individuals and businesses in the surrounding community are also encouraged to support the drive. The decorations will be installed before Thanksgiving and lighted soon after that holiday.

First United National Bank and Trust kicked off the campaign by donating funds for the first decoration.

LIONS CALENDARS

The Grantsville Lions Club is presently raising funds for sight, diabetes, and other beneficial projects through sales of a calendar. The calendars are available from any Lions member or at H&H Hardware, Beachy's Pharmacy, Grantsville Liquors, G&P Chevron, or Billy Bender Chevrolet.

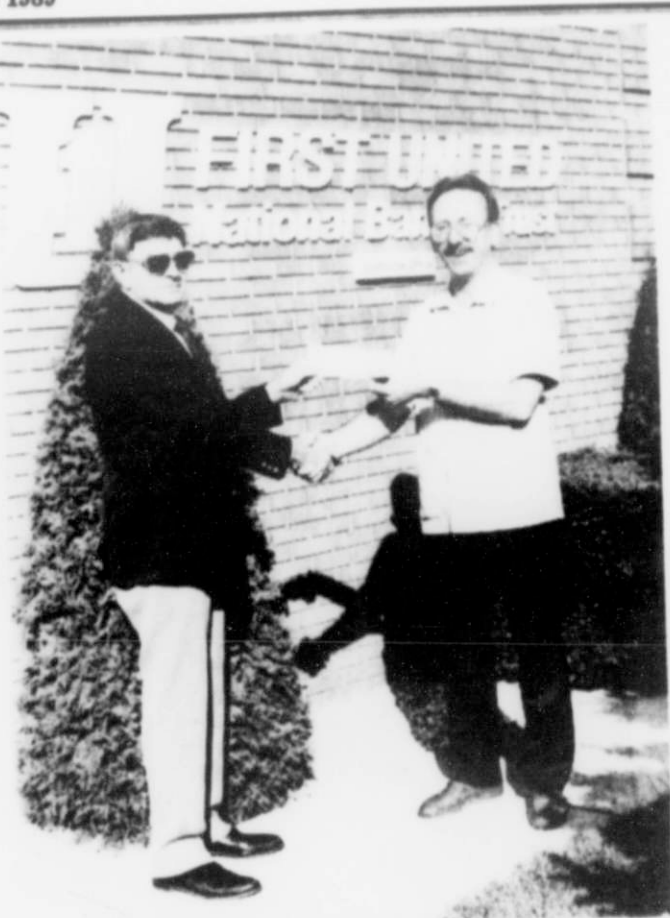

The calendars began July 1 and will end June 30, 1990.

State Community College Enrollment At All-Time High

Enrollment at Maryland's community colleges increased to 107,427 this fall, up four percent from the same time last year, according to the State Board for Community Colleges. This is the highest enrollment ever achieved by the State's 17 community colleges. The previous high was 104,561 in fall 1983.

The number of full-time credit students enrolled this fall is 28,692, up seven percent from last year. Part-time credit enrollment increased three percent to 78,735. This is the second year in a row that enrollment growth by full-time students has outpaced growth by part-time students.

Fifteen of the 17 colleges reported enrollment increases for full-time students. Eleven of the colleges had increases of nine percent or better. Catonsville Community College, including its Carroll County branch campus (17 percent), Howard Community College (15 percent), Charles County Community College (15 percent), Hagerstown Junior College (15 percent), and Garrett Community College (14 percent) reported the largest increases in full-time students.

Several of the smaller colleges had increases of over 20 percent in their part-time students. Allegany Community College in Cumberland (23 percent), Hagerstown Junior College (22 percent), and Worcester Tech in Salisbury (23 percent) had the largest increases in part-time students.

Community colleges now enroll three out of every four freshmen and sophomores studying at a Maryland public college or university, the Board reported. The types of students involved in this year's enrollment increases and their reasons for attending will be examined closely as more detailed enrollment data becomes available. At this point, it appears that convenient locations, quality instruction and programs, and increased scheduling of classes in the evenings and weekends are attracting more of both the recent high school graduates and the older student populations, according to the Board.

The 17 Maryland community colleges range from large, multicampus colleges in Washington suburbs and the Baltimore metropolitan area to smaller colleges in Western Maryland and the Eastern Shore. All the community colleges are comprehensive institutions offering transfer and occupational credit programs as well as noncredit training courses. Transfer programs provide the first two years of a bachelor's degree program and prepare the student for transfer to a four-year college. Occupational programs are designed to prepare for immediate entry into careers such as nursing and data processing.

DeWitt Published In American Poetry Anthology

Linda DeWitt, Mt. Lake Park, has recently published in the American Poetry Anthology, a collection of poems compiled by the American Poetry Association.

The poems are entitled "On My Behalf," "Perfection of Rejection," "My Son," and "Anger." The main subject matter of the poems is emotions and the loss of her son.

The American Poetry Association sponsors contests that are open to the public and publishes poems in hardback volumes.

DeWitt has been writing for 12 years on a variety of subjects. Poets interested in publication may send up to six poems, on any subject or theme, with no more than 20 lines in each poem, with the poet's name and address on each page, to the American Poetry Association, Dept. CT-69, P.O. Box 1803, Santa Cruz, CA. 95061.

All poems selected for publication are also entered in the American Poetry Association's Poetry Contest, which awards over $11,000 in prizes to 152 winners.

The following is one of Mrs. DeWitt's four poems published in the anthology:

ON MY BEHALF

The world seems to lash out at me,
When only kindness I am showing.
A helping hand I give,
How could it be misunderstood?

It doesn't make sense,
And only hurts me inside.
What's the use to do right,
But — Stop! Think!

How can I treat others this way?
I know how it harms;
I refuse to dish it out!
Won't someone come to my defense?

I have shared so many cares,
Listened to others' problems.
Won't someone please —
Be as concerned with me?
Linda DeWitt

Mature Driving Course Slated November 1, 2

A classroom driver retraining program designed to help older persons improve their driving skills entitled 55 Alive/Mature Driving will be held at the Oakland Fire Hall on November 1 and 2 from 10 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. each day.

Sponsored and developed by the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), the program is the first comprehensive driver retraining course geared to the specific needs of older motorists.

The course covers the effects of aging and medications on driving, basic driving rules, license renewal, local traffic hazards, adverse road conditions, energy saving and accident prevention measures.

An AARP spokesman said, "Research shows that older drivers are involved in more accidents than their middle-aged counterparts when the record is based on actual miles driven. The physical changes of aging create difficulties for many older drivers when yielding the right-of-way, backing, turning, changing lanes and entering and leaving expressways.

"However, research also indicates that older persons can improve their driving abilities through additional training, attention, and practice, enabling them to maintain their driving licenses longer while driving safer. This is the ultimate goal of 55 Alive/Mature Driving."

Anyone 55 years of age or older is eligible to participate in the program, and may even qualify to become an instructor. The course fee is $7. To register, a check or money order made payable to AARP should be sent to Betty Moranville, 606 Greene Street, Cumberland 21502.

Speaker Slated At Nazarene Church

Dr. Alvin Friend will be the guest speaker at the Oakland Church of the Nazarene on Eighth Street on Sunday, October 22, at 10:45 a.m. The public is invited to attend.

FSU THEATRE PRESENTS "RECKLESS" — The Craig Lucas comedy "Reckless" will open this evening, October 12, with an 8:15 p.m. curtain time in Pullen Auditorium on the Frostburg State University campus. The comic nightmare runs through Saturday, October 14, with performances beginning at 8:15 p.m. each evening. Beth Emerson, as Rachel, and Christopher Woodward, as Lloyd, are pictured above as they rehearse a critical scene. For reservations or information, persons may contact the University Theatre at (301) 489-4145, Monday-Friday, between 1-4:30 p.m. Season tickets, which include all four 1989-1990 University Theatre shows, are still available through the first production and can be obtained by calling the University Theatre.

BITTINGER-GLADES

CHURCH NEWS

A special offering for the victims of Hurricane Hugo will be held this Sunday, October 15. Gifts to this fund may be placed in the offering plate. The amount should be designated on the envelope.

St. John's will have a congregational dinner on Sunday, October 22, at 5 p.m. Each one is to bring a covered dish and their own utensils.

Emmanuel's Women of the ELCA will meet Friday, October 13, at 7:30 p.m. The program will be led by Fern Beachy and Martha Glatfelter, and the topic is "Celebrating Women of Faith."

Adult Bible Study Class will meet this evening, October 12, at 7 p.m., at Emmanuel. Lectors for Sunday's service were Katie Keirstead, St. John's; Rita Knox, Emmanuel; and Floyd Baker, Zion.

An adult baptismal service was held at the Glade Menonite Church for Celeste Brennenman, wife of William Brennenman, on Sunday.

ZION'S WOMEN MEET — Zion's Women of the ELCA held their monthly meeting at the church on October 4. Pastor Louise Knotts, Mary Hentschel, and four members attended.

Leota Baker led a discussion of the topic, "Lutheran Identity." The principal endeavors were to consider what it means to be a Lutheran, and to see that the Bible, the Hymnbook, and the Catechism have always been at the center of Lutheran identity.

Judy Stanton presided over the business meeting.

Thank-you letters were received from Our Savior Lutheran Church on the Rocky Boy Indian Reservation in Montana, and the Lutheran Home in Kane, Pa., for packages sent to them recently. A letter of acknowledgement was received from the Women of the ELCA Churchwide in Chicago for the memorial offerings sent in September.

A gift offering was received from Miss Esther Schmidt in memory of Minnie E. Baker and forwarded to Women of the ELCA for Specific Ministries.

The quarterly offering was sent to the American Bible Society for the Bible-A-Month ministry.

A congregational questionnaire was completed and sent to Women of the ELCA in Chicago. Pastor Knotts encouraged all to respond to the "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF project being conducted by the parish youth group on October 27.

The next meeting is scheduled for November 7. The annual ingathering of the "Thank Offering" will be observed at this meeting.

50TH ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Alton Miller, Springs, Pa., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, in the Grantsville Fire Hall. Many attended from this area, including Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brennenman, Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Maust, Julie Bender, Faith, Angie and Maria Brennenman, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beitzel.

Visitors of Miriam and Amelia Brennenman over the weekend were Lois Brennenman, Traverse City, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Headings, West Liberty, Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Horst, Maughansville. All of these attended the wedding anniversary.

SUDDEN DEATH — Eugene Brennenman, Warsaw, Ohio, died suddenly last week. Attending his funeral in Warsaw were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nesline, Miriam Brennenman, Dorothy Teets, Helen Englar, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beitzel and Dale Glatfelter. His funeral was held on Thursday. He was 59 years of age.

BREAKS HIP

Mrs. Mary (Raymond) Detrick fell and broke her hip in Beallville, Pa. She is in the hospital in Washington, Pa., and is recovering well. She was originally from this area.

ATTENDS WEDDING

Kenneth and Harriet Buckel attended the wedding of Keith Harmon and Yolanda Forno in the St. Joan of Arc Chapel at Farmington, Pa. A reception was held on Saturday afternoon in the Hopwood Social Hall.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Many in the Bittering area assisted with the Springs Folk Festival on Friday and Saturday. Martha Glatfelter, who had charge of the kitchen adjoining the main dining room, announced that on Friday they served more than 500 dinners, and on Saturday they served more than 600 dinners. There was a cafeteria with dinners available, and they reported serving more than 800 on Saturday. Omar Maust, head of the foods department, announced that the new countertops were a gift of Casselman Lumber Company and were installed by Mr. Maust. This was the 32nd year of the Folk Festival.

Mrs. Lucretia Stanton was the guest of her son, Sam Stanton, on Sunday for dinner at the Hill Top Restaurant. All the members of his family and Fern Beachy had Sunday dinner there also.

Mary and Russell Brennenman, Doris and Mrs. Louis Detrick at 84, Pa., on Sunday.

Dorothy Glatfelter, Greenbelt, visited her mother, Cora Glatfelter, last week. On Sunday she and her mother attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Browning in Deer Park. The dinner was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Browning's son, Mike. On Saturday evening, David, Mary and Grace Glatfelter visited at the home of Cora Glatfelter.

First United Declares Third Quarter Dividend

Richard G. Stanton, president of First United Corporation, announced the declaration of a quarterly cash dividend by the Board of Directors at its meeting of October 4, 1989. The ex-dividend date will be October 9, 1989. A dividend of $.42 per share will be paid on November 1, 1989, to shareholders of record as of October 13, 1989. "I'm pleased to announce this upcoming quarterly cash dividend. Our dividend policy supports our main objective of enhancing shareholder value. It is made possible through strategies designed to provide good earnings and growth on a consistent basis. I thank all our shareholders, customers and employees for their continuing support of First United Corporation," stated Stanton. First United began paying quarterly cash dividends this year. On May 1, 1989, a cash dividend of $.32 per share was paid to shareholders. Another dividend of $.35 per share was paid to shareholders on August 1, 1989. These dividends per share have been restated to reflect the seven percent stock dividend paid on September 5, 1989. First United Corporation declared total cash dividends of $.94 per share in 1988, declared in two semi-annual dividends. The dividend declared on June

2, 1988, was $.38 per share, and the November 16, 1988 declaration was for $.56 per share. (These dividends per share also have been restated to reflect the seven percent stock dividend). First United Corporation is a multi-bank holding company headquartered in Oakland. The Corporation's banking subsidiaries include First United National Bank & Trust and The First National Bank of Piedmont. The Corporation's assets currently total $345 million, with deposits of $311 million.

Local Attorney Passes Florida Bar Examination

Local attorney, Paul C. Sullivan, has recently received notification that he has passed the Florida bar examination and will be admitted to the practice of law in Florida. During the summer of this year, he successfully completed two days of examinations related to the law followed generally by all states and Florida law specifically.

Sullivan has practiced many years in local areas of Maryland and West Virginia. He has handled cases in Florida and other states along the east coast. He plans to more actively engage in the practice of law in Florida, primarily in the area of Miami, where he has fellow attorney contacts. In addition to being admitted in Maryland and West Virginia, he is also a member of the District of Columbia bar.

He resides near Frostburg with his wife, Dr. Patricia Ann Santoro, who is employed at Frostburg State University as an associate professor in the Psychology Department. They have one child, Colleen Janette, who attends St. Michael's Elementary School.

Sullivan has noted that he does not plan at this time to move or relocate his business to Florida. He has taken the Florida bar examination solely to permit him to handle cases in Florida. He is already scheduled to take the Pennsylvania bar examination in February 1990 for similar reasons.

He is now the managing partner of Sullivan & Sullivan, P.A., which has offices in Cumberland and Swanton with a new office opening in Westernport at the end of this year. His practice is limited solely to personal injury litigation and workers' compensation claims. He started the practice of law in 1977 in partnership with his father, John C. Sullivan, who is now retired.

NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK — The Garrett County Commissioners recently signed a proclamation for National Business Women's Week for October 15-21. The proclamation states, in part, that "Major goals of business and professional women are to help create better conditions for business women through the study of social, educational, economical and political problems: to help them be of greater service to their community: To further friendship with women throughout the world." Pictured above, front row, left to right, are Garrett County Commissioners Ernest J. Gregg Jr., Elwood Groves II and John D. Braskey. Second row, same order, are: Bea Crocco, Garrett County Business and Professional Women (BPW) and co-chair of National Business Women's Week; Peggy Jamison, Garrett County BPW; Linda Buckel, vice president of Grantsville area BPW; and Juanita Beachy, past-president of Grantsville area BPW.

Sullivan graduated from Washington College, Chestertown, in 1974, with honors, and received his law degree from the University of Baltimore School of Law in 1977.

In addition to being a member of the Allegany, Garrett and Mineral County Bar Associations, the Maryland and West Virginia State Bar Associations, Sullivan was admitted to the United States District Courts for the District of Maryland and the Southern District of West Virginia, the United States Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit, and the United States Tax Court. He is a member of numerous civic and professional associations, including the American Trial Lawyers Association and Maryland Trial Lawyers Association.

Open House At Salem Home Is Attended By 200

Approximately 200 people attended the 11th annual Open House at the Maryland Salem Children's Trust on Lower New Germany Road Sunday, October 8.

Those in attendance were treated to musical presentations by the 20 resident children on recorder, on xylophone, or vocally. Selected children demonstrated such horsemanship skills as western and English riding in the new 80-by-200-foot riding ring completed in August. The Open House culminated in visitation and tours of each resident house, with the children serving as tour guides.

Executive director Louise Sutermeister and Board chairman Ralph Burnett welcomed those in attendance and expressed pleasure at the turnout and support of the work at Salem. Visitors were able to interact with members of the professional staff as refreshments were served in the administration building.

The Maryland Salem Children's Trust was founded in 1978 to create a therapeutic environment for homeless and needy children. Initially founded in Germany following World War II, the program is dedicated to preserving Christian and family values in assisting children in need. Horseback riding, music, and psychotherapy are major elements of the program designed to equip children unable to be with their parents to have a supportive home environment and to function effectively.

Deena R. Durr Becomes Bride Of Michael Summerfield August 6

Deena Renee Durr became the bride of Michael Summerfield in an August 6 ceremony at Rosedale Faith Chapel near Oakland. The Rev. Ralph Jacks officiated the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Pearl Hazel Schmidt, Mtn. Lake Park, and the late Ernest W. Schmidt. The groom is the son of Doris Jean Summerfield, Wheeling, W.Va., and Ray Summerfield, Jeanette, Pa.

The music was provided by Leigh Knotts, friend of the bride, Kristiann Wilt sang, "I Can't Help Falling in Love With You," while the couple lit the unity candle.

Given in marriage and escorted to the altar by her brother, Harold Schmidt, Swanton, the bride wore a teal-length gown of rose silk with Chantilly lace over skirts accented with rosebud puff sleeves and fitted bodice. The bride carried a mound bouquet of burgundy and white silk roses accented with pink carnations. All bouquets and headpieces were made by the bride and Ramona Kitzmiller, friend of the bride.

Maid of honor was Erica Durr, daughter of the bride, flowergirl was Nikki Summerfield, daughter of the groom.

Best man was Chad Durr, son of the bride, Ring bearer was Sean Summerfield, son of the groom. Ushers were Steve Schmidt, Frederick, nephew of the bride, and Clarence Mellinger Jr., Reston, Va., brother-in-law of the bride.

Registering guests and distributing bird seed packets was Diana Mellinger, sister of the bride. Photography was by Judy Wilt.

A buffet reception followed at the Oakland Fire Hall with catering by Yvonne Morris. The three-tier waterfall cake was made by Marsha Kitzmiller and served by Ramona Kitzmiller and Donna Ward, sister of the bride.

Music for the evening was provided by Dave Corbell, Accident. Guests at the wedding included family and friends from Maryland, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Alabama, Maine, and South Carolina.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Virginia Beach and Colonial Williamsburg, Va. They now reside in Mtn. Lake Park.

Rebecca Meyers, Joseph Pyles United During May Double-Ring Ceremony

Rebecca Lynn Meyers and Joseph W. Pyles were united in marriage on May 6, 1989. The double-ring ceremony took place at the Crellin United Brethren Church with the Rev. Donald Matthews officiating.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, Dennis and Barbara Meyers, the bride chose a gown of feather-gloss satin. It featured a hand-beaded portrait neckline, a shirred basque bodice, and elbow-length sleeves. The skirt flowed to a semi-cathedral train beneath a lace hemline. The bride also wore a hat with a matching lace pouf and bridal illusion.

Rose Watts, friend of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Kellie Friend, sister of the bride; Bridgett Pyles, sister of the groom; and Lanita Tinney, cousin of the bride. Ryan Friend, the bride's niece, was the flower girl.

Brian Friend, friend of the groom, was the best man. Ushers were Kiley Royce and Bryan Watts, both friends of the groom; and Bryan Friend, brother-in-law of the bride.

Robin Tichnell, friend of the bride, was the vocalist, while Annette Strawser, also friend of the bride, was the organist. Selections included "The Rose" and "Forever You and Me".

The wedding band given to the bride by the groom belonged to his great-grandmother, the late Estella Elliott.

A reception immediately followed the wedding at the Oakland Fire Hall. The three-tier cake and all of the wedding flowers were made by JoAnn Giotfelty. Catering was provided by Chimney Corner, while The Riggins Brothers provided entertainment.

A rehearsal dinner was prepared and held at the home of the groom's parents, Bill and Becky Pyles.

Following their honeymoon trip, the couple took up residence in Terra Alta, W.Va.

Kitzmiller-Harmon Wedding Scheduled

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kitzmiller, Swanton, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Barbara Lynn Kitzmiller, to Joseph Andrew Harmon, son of John Harmon and Wanda Harmon, Terra Alta, W.Va.

An open church wedding will be held Saturday, October 21, at 2 p.m. at the Full Gospel Church, Blaine, W.Va. A reception will follow in the church fellowship hall.

All relatives and friends are invited to attend.

AVAILABILITY OF ASBESTOS MANAGEMENT PLANS AND NOTIFICATION OF ASBESTOS RESPONSE ACTIONS

In October 1986, the U. S. Congress enacted the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act (AHERA). Under this law, comprehensive regulations were developed to address asbestos problems in public and private elementary and secondary schools. These regulations require most schools to inspect for friable and nonfriable asbestos, develop asbestos management plans that address asbestos hazards in school buildings and implement response actions in a timely manner.

These regulations assign schools many new responsibilities. Our program for fulfilling these responsibilities is outlined in our asbestos management plans. These plans contain information on our inspections, reinspections, response actions and post-response activities, including periodic reinspections and surveillance activities that are planned or are in progress.

You can review these plans at our administrative office, Garrett County Board of Education, 40 South Fourth Street, Oakland, Maryland, during normal business hours. Each school will have their individual plans available for review within five (5) working days of receiving a request for inspection.

The following response actions were conducted during the past year:

An asbestos removal project was conducted at Bloomington Elementary School from August 1, 1989, to August 8, 1989. Asbestos containing pipe insulation was removed from the crawl space pipe tunnels, above ceiling tiles and in the boiler room. Riteway Services, Inc., Cumberland, Maryland, was contracted to conduct the removal.

An asbestos removal project was conducted at Dennett Road Elementary School from August 21, 1989, to August 23, 1989. Asbestos containing pipe insulation was removed from two closets in between bathrooms on the main hallway. Riteway Services, Inc., Cumberland, Maryland, was contracted to conduct the removal.

An asbestos removal project was conducted at Kitzmiller Elementary School from July 24, 1989, to August 1, 1989. Asbestos containing pipe insulation was removed from the crawl space pipe tunnels and the multipurpose room. In addition, the boiler gasket in the boiler room was removed. Riteway Services, Inc., Cumberland, Maryland, was contracted to conduct the removal.

An asbestos removal project was conducted at Red House Elementary School from August 24, 1989, to August 25, 1989. Asbestos containing pipe insulation was removed from the boiler room. Riteway Services, Inc., Cumberland, Maryland, was contracted to conduct the removal.

An asbestos removal project was conducted at Southern High School from August 3, 1989, to August 25, 1989. Asbestos containing pipe insulation was removed from the crawl space pipe tunnels, the boys' locker room and the bathrooms in the gymnasium lobby. In addition, asbestos containing plaster was removed from the special education classroom. Riteway Services, Inc., Baltimore, Maryland, and Brico Environmental, Inc., Baltimore, Maryland, were contracted to conduct the removal.

An asbestos removal project was conducted at Route 40 Elementary School from August 25, 1989, to August 26, 1989. Asbestos containing hot water jacket was removed from the boiler room and pipe insulation was removed from the crawl space pipe tunnels. Brico Environmental, Inc., Baltimore, Maryland, was contracted to conduct the removal.

Throughout the course of these removal projects, industrial hygienists from Briggs Associates, Inc., Columbia, Maryland, monitored the projects to ensure compliance with all Federal and State regulations.

If you have any questions about reviewing our management plans or response actions, please contact Mr. George Brady at (301) 334-8906. 33-21

Yommer-Silbaugh Couple Wed In Double Ring Ceremony July 29

Julie Ann Yommer and Roger Lee Silbaugh were united in marriage on July 29 in a double-ring ceremony at the Jennings Church of God with the Rev. George Plants officiating. The bride is the daughter of Blair and Shirley Yommer, Grantsville. The groom is the son of Luetta Silbaugh and the late Harvey Ford Silbaugh, Confluence, Pa.

sleeves of satin and English net were topped with lace. A full skirt flowing from a basque waist accented with cut-out Milano lace swept to a semi-cathedral train hemmed with scalloped Milano lace.

A tiara of matching lace and pearls adorned with pearl loops and scalloped edged finger-tip bridal illusion featuring appliques of lace was worn.

The bride carried a bouquet of blue and white roses mixed with baby's breath and lace. All bouquets, corsages and boutonnières were made by Debbie Frazee, sister of the groom.

Maid of honor was Tracie Yommer, sister of the bride; bridesmaids were Laura McKenzie; and Michelle Sines, niece of the groom.

The groom and ring bearer were attired in a white long-tail tuxedo with a white bow tie and cummerbund.

Best man was Jim Silbaugh, brother of the groom. Ushers were Randy Sarver, cousin of the groom, and Tony Yommer, brother of the bride. Jeffrey Yommer, brother of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The couple presented their mothers with long stemmed red roses accented with baby's breath during the ceremony.

Brenda Yommer, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Beverly Yommer, cousin of the bride, distributed rice packets.

Ray Guthrie, Grantsville, provided music.

The reception was held at the Grantsville Fire Hall and was catered by Shelby Gable, Cresaptown.

The wedding cake was a sheet cake with a fountain in the middle, with three tiers of cake on each side and steps coming down to heart-shaped cakes on both sides, with the bride and grooms name. The top was adorned with a porcelain bride and groom with aqua netting in the back.

The cake was cut and served by Patty Durst, aunt of the bride, and Debbie Frazee. Music was provided by Frankie Durst.

Kimberly Nicholas Becomes Bride Of Alan Sweitzer September 16

Local DAR Group
Dines, Tours With Addison Chapter

The Youghiogheny Glades Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, traveled to Addison, Pa., Thursday, September 21, for a joint meeting with the Great Crossings Chapter of that area.

Soon after the group arrived in Addison, the Great Crossings regent, Lois Lemley, and other members conducted a tour of the old Petersburg Toll House, which played a significant part in the history of the development of the Old National Road. The toll house is now furnished with antiques. The hand knitted lace bedspread covering the rope-strung bed, a handmade Christening dress, a colorful patchwork quilt embroidered with a variety of stitches, stone jars decorated in blue and a cupboard filled with plates and glassware, were among the items that graced the interior of the house.

The 18 ladies from Oakland and the 21 from Addison shared a luncheon at one of the local churches. Lois Lemley greeted the visitors and Lillian Reckner, acting regent for Youghiogheny Chapter, responded briefly. Martha Bartlett presented an overview of the history of the Old National Road as she led a trek beginning at Clarysville, through the Shades of Death, Piney Grove, Tomlinson's Tavern, to Negro Mountain, to the Petersburg Toll House, to Jockey Hollow, the Rush House, where Jenny Lind once spent the night, past Fort Necessity, the watering trough on Summit Mountain, and into Hopwood, where the trek ended.

Grace Corristan, a 95-year-old member of the Addison Chapter, said she remembered well that she paid toll at Petersburg House when she was 12 years old.

Those members attending the affair from Youghiogheny Glades Chapter were: Lillian Reckner, Mary Jones, Clara Belle Briner, Kathryn Helbig, Berylaine Stanton, Delores Hayden, Nancy Kight, Mary Jane DeWitt, Ruth Porter, Molly Zeller, June Thomas, Grayce Quinet, Norma Hesen, Janice Hutchinson, Mary Kovach, Sarah Gonder, Juanita Browning, Martha Kahl and Charleen E. Thomas.

The next meeting will be October 16, 7:30 p.m., at St. Paul's Methodist Church, Oakland. Speaker will be Mrs. Mary Strauss concerning the Accident home of Lt. James Drane, Revolutionary War Soldier.

Beef Management Information

Chute Cows This Fall: Cows are too valuable to "shoot," but they are not too valuable to "chute." Each fall, producers are tempted to keep unproductive cows because their calves are valuable. There is even a temptation to keep a young open cow because she has produced well for us in the past or because she has a promising future. Remember, if we keep an open cow, it will be 24 months before we wean the next calf from her. It would take voodoo economics to make this one profitable — cull her! Every cow in Maryland should go down the chute this fall and be pregnancy checked by a competent veterinarian or technician. Any open cow should be culled. Each cow should be checked for soundness and any cow with long grown out or unsound feet or legs, unsound udders, or unsound mouths should be culled. While cows are going through the chute is the time to treat them with a systemic for grubs and lice. Remember, animals should be treated by November 1. Several good pour-on's are available, or Ivermectin can be used for internal and external parasites which includes grubs and lice. It is a very good time to identify cows that do not have an ear tag or brand. It is a good opportunity to check the age on cows you are unsure about. The incisors tell the story on young cows. If we remember that as a two year old they have two permanent incisors. As a three year old, four; as a four year old, six; and as a five year old, eight. Past that point, experience will tell us how old cows are by dental inspection. Generally, teeth do not show excessive wear until cows are 10 or 11 years old. When cows begin to lose their teeth, they are generally 12 years old or more.

New Dewormer Introduced — Norden Laboratories has recently introduced a new deworming product for cattle called Valbazen in the U.S. The dewormer contains as its active ingredient the drug albendazole. This drug has been widely used throughout the world; estimates are that over one billion doses have been administered to livestock.

The drug will be available in the U.S. as a drench which can be given with any of the drench devices already available. This includes the drench hook which many producers have found useful. The 11.4% suspension will be administered at the rate of q ml per 25 pounds of body weight.

Albendazole is classified as a broad spectrum dewormer. It is effective against all of the major internal parasites of economic significance in cattle. This includes the stomach worms, the intestinal worms and the lung worms. It is also effective against liver flukes and tapeworms but liver flukes do not commonly occur and tape worms are not thought to exert much economic influence.

An important additional aspect of albendazole is that it kills the inhibited fourth stage larvae of Ostertagia. The inhibition phenomenon has come to be recognized as an important part of the worm picture. Inhibition is a mechanism used by worms to help them survive environmental conditions. Before winter in northern climates and dry, hot summers in southern climates worm larvae that are consumed by cattle undergo a change. This change allows them to go into a hibernation-like state in the stomach glands instead of developing into adults. When the severe weather conditions are about to end the development of the worm resumes. The resumption of development may occur in large numbers of worms at once resulting in damage to the stomach and economic losses.

Albendazole joins ivermectin and fenbendazole (administered at twice the normal dosage) as approved products to destroy inhibited larvae. In many cases albendazole may be the most economical product to accomplish this. As with other types of internal parasitism young cattle are much more likely to be affected at an economically significant level than mature animals.

If albendazole is being utilized to control inhibited larvae timing of administration and grazing management following administration should be carefully considered to get the maximum benefit from the deworming. Inhibition is known to occur in the late fall. Treatment should thereafter occur after all grazing has stopped in early winter or calves should be treated and moved to pastures where recontamination will not occur. Aftermath hay fields and new crop fields (rye fields for example) would be examples of safe pastures.

USDA Reports No Problems with Hormone Use — Since 1978, the USDA has regularly sampled meat for residues of anabolic agents such as hormones found in growth promoting implants. The Food Safety and Inspection Service operates the National Residue Program which continually monitors samples of meat and poultry for unacceptable residues of pesticides, animal drugs or other contaminants. A recent report states, "The testing program has not revealed any problem with hormone use in U.S. cattle." The scientists conclude that meat from animals correctly treated with anabolic agents (implants) is safe for human consumption.

Ralgro Now Has Zero-day Withdrawal — Like other growth promoting implants, Ralgro has now been approved for zero-day withdrawal by FDA. Ralgro promotes increased weight gain and feed efficiency in growing cattle by stimulating the pituitary gland to produce increased amounts of somatotropin, the animal's own natural growth hormone. Ralgro is cleared for use in both steers and heifers and is much less estrogenic than estradiol thereby reducing the potential for side effects such as bulging. Ralgro is not approved for use in cattle kept or breeding.

No longer will producers need to be concerned with observing a 65 day withdrawal period before slaughter of animals implanted with Ralgro.

This clearance plus the report in the preceding article documents the safety of growth-promoting implants in beef production and should give producers the confidence needed to continue to take advantage of one of the most cost effective management practices available to all phases of growing and finishing beef cattle production.

Sally Schwing Speaks To Alpha Alpha Members

Sally Schwing, author of Do You Think It Snows In Heaven?, was guest speaker at a dinner meeting of Alpha Alpha Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. The meeting was held at Will 'O The Wisp with President Barbara Flinn presiding.

Lucile Sines and Lillian Reckner began the evening with group singing.

It was announced that Erin Sines, Friendsville, and Christine Lumpkin, Oakland, received the Gifted and Talented Summer Workshop scholarships. Norma Broadwater, Southern High School graduate, received the chapter's Recruitment Grant. Norma will be attending Frostburg State University and plans to major in elementary education.

Rosanne Sherwood presented a brief presentation on "What is a Leader?"

Joan Crawford, Personal Growth and Services committee member, introduced Sally Schwing. Mrs. Schwing shared with members how her book about her son, Christopher, was written. She recounted how she took a creative writing class at Garrett Community College and the process she used to write the book. She explained the procedures and problems of getting the book published and about copyright laws. Mrs. Schwing indicated she already has some ideas for another book.

Rosanne Sherwood presented Barbara Flinn with the rose of retirement. Mrs. Flinn, resource teacher for the Board of Education, retired in June.

The location for the meeting scheduled for November 18 was changed from Silver Tree to

Will 'O The Wisp. A brunch will be served at 10:30 a.m., and will be followed by the annual Christmas auction. The auction is held to raise money for scholarships for local students.

FSU To Present Children's Play

Roundabout Theatre of Frostburg State University will present "Little Red And The Hood," a unique children's play written and directed by Jenna Gallion, on Saturday and Sunday, October 21-22. Curtain time is 2 p.m. in the Studio Theatre in Compton Hall. The play is under the supervision of Linda G. McCullough, assistant professor in FSU Department of Communication and Theatre Arts.

"Little Red And The Hood" is a contemporary version of "Little Red Riding Hood," set to blues and jazz music with colorful costuming and set. Red, ignoring her mother's warning to stay on "the path to Grandmother's house," wanders off with B.B. Wolf who leaves her stranded in the woods and then stalks her as she tries to find her way to Grandma's. Red's adventure leads her to meet many new friends: Bamba Possum, Funky Birds, the Frogs, the insect patrol, and the Woodcutter.

Cast members in the play include Doug Cathro, Dave Farrbank, Greg Gerhard, Cindy Gerhard, Greg Holschneider, Paul Straka, and Katy Rabel. The play will tour for six days to area elementary schools.

The two performances at FSU are $1 admission for children of all ages. For more information, persons may contact the Department of Communication and Theatre Arts at 689-4145.

Grantsville BPW Join Observance Of Special Week

The Grantsville Chapter of Business and Professional Women have joined with other chapters across the nation in celebrating National Business Women's Week, October 9-14.

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club of the United States established National Business Women's Week to honor the achievements of working women. For 60 years, special activities have been sponsored by the Federation and its local organizations to honor the working woman.

The Grantsville Area Chapter of Business and Professional Women will observe National Business Women's Week October 16 with a program at Holiday Inn, Grantsville. A Woman of the Year, selected from the club, and an Employer of the Year will be honored.

The Garrett County Commissioners also honored all business and professional women with the presentation of a proclamation which they signed at their regular business meeting on October 10.

BPW is opened to all working women. Further information on becoming a BPW member can be obtained from Ruth DiPaolo, 245-4198.

Local Republican Women Hear President Bush

Leona Beckman, Patricia White, and Brenda Butcher, members of the Southern Republican Women's Club, joined over 2,000 Republican women to hear President George Bush address the National Federation of Republican Women during the Federation's 25th Biennial Convention in Baltimore this past weekend.

President Bush congratulated the women on their convention and their "vision" for the Republican Party's future.

"Meeting the Challenges of the 90's" was the convention theme. During the three-day meeting, the women attended a variety of workshops designed to provide the necessary training for candidates, GOP leaders, and political volunteers.

During the convention the NFRW introduced a new program entitled, Project '90, a grassroots candidate recruitment program to identify qualified women candidates for elective offices throughout the country.

Some of the speakers for the convention other than President Bush were: Secretary of Labor Elizabeth Dole, Secretary of Commerce Robert Mosbacher, U.S. Rep. Helen Bentley, U.S. Rep. Connie Morella, Republican National Committee Chairman Lee Atwater, Ambassador Jeanne Kirkpatrick, and Jeanie Austin, National Committee Co-Chairman.

Beckman, White and Butcher served as sergeants at arms and hostesses in the Maryland Hospitality Room. Mrs. Beckman, president of the Southern Republican Women's Club, served as a delegate and Mrs. White, secretary of the club, served as an alternate delegate. Garrett County's maple sugar candy was in the Maryland hospitality bag that was given to each woman attending the convention.

The beaver is one of the larger members of the rodent species.

Cub Scout Pack Activities Noted

Cub Scout Pack 70 has announced its schedule of upcoming events, including participation in the Autumn Glory Parade and the collection of items for the residents of South Carolina hit by Hurricane Hugo.

The club will sell balloons during the Firemen's Parade held this evening. The float for the Autumn Glory Parade will be worked on Friday, October 13, starting at 11 a.m. at Jerry's Office in the Big T Plaza.

Any boy wishing to ride on the float should be at the parade route by 11 a.m. Saturday, October 14, with a parent to stay with until the parade begins. Those boys wishing to walk in the parade should be at the parade route by noon. For more information, call the pack leader, as special car-pools must be arranged as roads will be closed to the public.

Pack 70 will bike the C&O Canal, beginning at Cumberland and going to Paw Paw, W.Va., on the weekend of October 28 and 29. The club will leave from Broadford School on Saturday, October 28, at 6:45 a.m. and camp overnight, weather permitting, and be picked up at the Paw Paw tunnel on Sunday. Boys should have an adult to ride with and bikes should be inspected. A bike inspection will be held Tuesday October 24, at the Broadford School from 5 to 6 p.m.

Those wishing to donate flashlights, blankets, towels, toiletries, baby food and diapers and other household items to the residents of South Carolina, who were hit by Hurricane Hugo, should bring the items to the next pack meeting on October 23.

The next pack meeting will be held Monday, October 23 at the Broadford school, starting at 7 p.m.

For more information on these activities, call pack leaders or Roberta Manning at 334-4760.

Doug Ellis Is SHA Employee Of The Week

Douglas C. Ellis is being recognized as Garrett County's Maryland State Highway Administration's Employee of the Week through the SHA Employee Recognition Program.

Ellis, of Oakland, was hired by the SHA as a laborer in May 1969. He currently works out of the Keyser's Ridge maintenance shop as a supply officer III. He is responsible for ordering all material, supplies, and parts for the Garrett County shops. In the winter months, he works extra hours with two other SHA employees manning the radio and dispatching trucks. He is a member of the Garrett County Quality Circle for which he has served as recorder.

"Doug had the honor of being chosen Employee of the Year in 1985 for the state of Maryland," an SHA employee said. "He is probably one of the few employees who knows the complete working system within the SHA. His dedication to his job and his desire to excel has made him one of our most valuable employees."

Ellis is the father of three children, Tracie, Leslie, and Melanie. Leslie is enrolled at UMBC as a senior and Tracie and Melanie attend Southern High School.

Ellis enjoys working outside in the summer and being involved with athletics. He is an umpire for Little League Baseball and is an active member of the Southern Garrett Athletic Association, for which he has served as vice president and is currently chairman of membership.

Senior Pageant Scheduled In Ellicott City

The 1990 Seventh Annual Ms. Senior Maryland Pageant will be held November 7 and 8 at the Turf Valley Hotel in Ellicott City.

"The pageant honors senior ladies age 60 or over, the age of elegance," said Senior America of Maryland, Inc., President Jim Borden.

A panel of judges will select the most outstanding senior lady from among those participating to represent the state of Maryland at the National Ms. Senior America Pageant.

Applications are now being accepted. Applicants must be: age 60 or over; a U.S. citizen and resident of Maryland; and sponsored by an individual or organization.

Applications may be obtained from the local senior center or by writing: SAM, Inc.; 1831 Knoll Drive; Oxon Hill, Md 20745.

For those interested in attending the pageant, a bus will be leaving Accident on Tuesday, November 7. For more information, interested persons may call the Flowery Vale Senior Center at 826-8824.

Sierra Club Meeting Slated In Frostburg

The Western Maryland Group of the Sierra Club will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, October 16, at St. John Episcopal Church, 56 Broadway, Frostburg. The business meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. with a program presented by Dan Boone of the Maryland Natural Heritage Program to follow. Refreshments will be served.

The meeting will be held at the back of the church and entrance is via the red door on Stoyer Street. Guests are welcome.

THE GREAT AMERICAN YARD SALE, hosted recently by A&A Realty/Better Homes and Gardens, was a success with approximately $800 raised. Half the proceeds will go to the National Chapter for the Homeless and the other half to the local Habitat for Humanity. Above, some of the many people attending the yard sale browse for bargains.

Bus Inspections Slated Oct. 17-20

Bus inspections for all Garrett County school buses have been scheduled for October 17-20 at three county schools, according to Michael G. Sines, supervisor of transportation for the Garrett County Board of Education.

Buses will be inspected at Northern High School on Tuesday, Oct. 17, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.; at Southern High School on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 18 and 19, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.; and at Grantsville Elementary School on Friday, Oct. 20, from 8:30 to 10 a.m.

Each bus has been assigned to a specific location.

Sines stated that all owners/drivers should carefully check their buses prior to the inspection, noting that license plates will be suspended on those buses found to have major problems with tires, king pins, steering, and the exhaust system. Drivers should also have first aid and emergency equipment clean and on display on the front seat behind the driver's seat.

4-H CLUB NEWS

MONTE VISTA
by Jennifer Barnard

The Monte Vista 4-H meeting was held October 5 with 12 members present. One new member, Jennifer Friend, and one guest, David McMannis, also attended.

The club discussed Autumn Glory and the food booth. On Monday, October 9, the club met at Marvin's Men's Wear to put bows on the town parking meters. We will meet at the Extension Office on Friday, October 13, at 3:30 p.m. to make cinnamon rolls. Members are also to be at the Extension Office Saturday, October 14, at noon to help in the food booth. Each family is to bring a pan of wrapped fudge to sell.

Demonstrations were given by Tammy Eisentrout, Bernice Steuber, Wendy Miller and Melanie Miller. Baby beef raffle tickets are due at the Extension Office by Friday, October 13.

The next meeting will be held on November 3. Members are to bring record books for a workshop on their completion.

CRIME SOLVERS

The Garrett County Crime Solvers case of the week is the request for information about a breaking and entering theft which occurred September 9, 1989, at the Bittinger residence in Grantsville.

Taken in the incident was a large amount of fifty-cent pieces, jewelry and several other items totaling $7,600. A late 60's or early model 70's gray Chevrolet car was seen in the area.

All leads in this case have been exhausted, and Crime Solvers is seeking the public's help. Anyone with information on this or any other unsolved crime is asked to call Crime Solvers at 334-1975.

The caller may remain anonymous, and need not testify in court. If a tip leads to an arrest, the caller is eligible for a reward of up to $1000.

Aurora-Egdon

Services were held Tuesday, October 10, at the Maple Spring Church of the Brethren with the Rev. Earl McCombs officiating. Interment followed in the Egdon Cemetery. Hinkle Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MILLER DEATH

The body of Milton R. Miller of Oakland was brought Friday, October 6, to Egdon for interment in the Maple Spring Cemetery. He was the son of Robert D. Miller of Binghamton, N.Y., and the late Evelyn (Lee) Miller and was born in Garrett County, August 14, 1941. He was a grandson of Hurley and Minnie (Arnold) Miller and of Grover and Alma (Fike) Lee.

Mr. Miller is survived by his father, two sons, Daniel of Endicott, N.Y., and James of Deep Creek Lake; a daughter, Debbie Cook, of Willoughby, Ohio; two sisters, Alma Burns and Jean Holland, Oakland; two half-sisters and three half-brothers, all in Ohio; and four grandchildren.

LEWIS-NORWICH

Mary Ellen Lewis and Richard Lee Norwich will be united in marriage at St. John's Lutheran Church, Red House, in an open church ceremony on October 14 at 6:30 p.m. in the evening. They invite their friends and relatives to attend.

Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Winters, Egdon, and employed as an x-ray technician at Garrett County Memorial Hospital. Richard is the son of Peggy Norwich of Red House and Kenneth Norwich of Chicago and is employed as a carpenter.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

A birthday party was held Saturday, October 7, at the home of Bruce and Mary Rembold, Egdon, for their son, Craig, on his 5th birthday. Other family members attending were his brother, Shawn; his grandparents, Ron and Avenell Parsons of Egdon and Bob and Eileen Rembold of Pittsburgh; his aunt and uncle and their families, Gary and Frances Roth, Chris, Jason and Lauren and Bill, Sandra, Wade and Beth Hauser, all Aurora. The birthday cake served as an angel food "cave" cake with animals.

PERSONAL MENTION

Josephine Stanton of Aurora has moved to the Cortland Apartments at Thomas.

Edith Wotring of Mt. Top was admitted Friday to Preston Memorial Hospital in Kingwood. Stacy Fint returned Wednesday to her home at Aurora to continue recuperation from recent surgery in Pittsburgh.

Myrtle Forman of Amboy expected to be able to return to her home by the end of the week. She has been a surgical patient in Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

Jim Adams is a patient in the Clarksburg VA Hospital where he is expected to undergo surgery. He is a resident of Mt. Top.

Lawrence and Peggy Donham visited last week with his sister and brother-in-law, Alma and Jackie Snyder, at Brookside and with other relatives. They returned Saturday to their home in Stewartstown, Pa.

Visiting recently with Eva Wotring at Aurora have been her children, Jerry and Mary Lou Wotring of Lambertville, Mich., and their son, Ted Wotring, of Minnesota. Also visiting was Betty Bailey of Casa Grande, Ariz.

Weekend visitors with Herb and Jean Starr, Stemple Ridge, were Harold Harsh and Margaret Dawson, Linda Ayers and Dan Liston, Farmington, Pa., Dale Harsh of Uniontown, Ohio, and his friend, Norman Hatley, of Akron, and Richard Harsh, also Akron.

Jean Skipper and her daughter, Carla, of Kingwood, were Sunday visitors at Egdon with the former's father and stepmother, Ron and Avenell Parsons.

Monday afternoon visitors in Egdon with Ron and Avenell Parsons were Doyle and Helen Roth of Walton Hills, Ohio, who were enroute home from a visit with her sister.

Word was received here that Leroy Roth, son of Darrell and Marie Roth of Morgantown, recently suffered a stroke and as yet remains a patient in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Teets of Silver Lake were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Winters of Kingwood on a Thursday to Sunday trip to Pennsylvania during which they visited Katherine Christian Searfoss in Bethlehem, the Getz at Albrightville and friends at Lake Harmony.

Pam Garrett of Egdon underwent Tuesday surgery at Garrett County Memorial Hospital. She was expected to return to her home that day.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given pursuant to Section 1102A of the Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Oakland and State law that the Board of Zoning Adjustments of the Town of Oakland shall hold a public hearing on the adoption of an amendment to its Zoning Ordinance, providing for the adoption of revised and modified zoning regulations for the Town of Oakland.

The public hearing shall be held at the Oakland Town Hall, 109 South Third Street on

Monday, October 23, 1989

The hearing shall be concerned with the proposal by the Mayor and Town Council for the repeal of the current zoning regulations, and the adoption of new regulations. These regulations deal with all aspects of the use of land within the corporate limits of the Town of Oakland, provide rules and regulations for special exceptions, and provide for the modification of the regulations, and provide procedures, guidelines and criteria for the same.

The regulations provide definitions, a table of uses for zoning within the Town of Oakland, regulation of off street parking and signs, establish zoning districts, and define the boundary interpretations, set forth dimensional requirements, setback requirements, minimum lot sizes, and design standards. The regulations also provide for the administration of the zoning duties and powers of the Town of Oakland, establish and define the Board of Appeals, and set forth its power and authority, and provide for such other rules and regulations as are needed for the orderly establishment and administration of the Town's zoning authority.

Copies of the proposed Zoning Ordinance are available at Town Hall. At the meeting, all parties in interest as well as the general public shall have an opportunity to ask questions and make comments to the Town Council.

PUBLIC NOTICES

STANDING TIMBER FOR SALE

The Maryland Forest, Park and Wildlife Service is offering for sale the following timber on 14 acres of Compartment 45 of Savage River State Forest. Said timber is estimated to cut 136,761 Bd. Ft. of sawtimber according to the International Standard Rule, and 174 cords of pulpwood, more or less. All trees 11" DBH and larger with at least one 16' log to an 8" DBH with less than 50% defect were tallied as saw timber. Timber is located along the east side of Westernport Road approximately 1/4 mile east of the Pine Swamp Road intersection. Timber is offered for sale subject to the following conditions:

1. Timber will be shown at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, October 16, 1989. Anyone interested in seeing this timber may meet at the Southern States Feed Store on the Accident/Billing Road at the above date and time.

2. Contract/Bid forms will be available at the showing or from the Savage River State Forest Headquarters, Route 2, Box 63 A, Grantsville, MD 21536 or phone 301 895 5759.

3. A Security Bond in the amount of $2,000 must be posted upon submission of the bid to the Maryland Forest, Park and Wildlife Service.

4. The Operator must be a registered Forest Products Operator in Maryland for 1989 to be awarded successful bid.

5. A Performance Bond in the amount of $2,000 must be posted upon acceptance of the Contract by the State of Maryland. The Security Bond may be applied to cover the Performance Bond.

6. All timber volumes noted in this offering are estimates. Parties bidding on this timber should determine such volumes to their own satisfaction. No adjustments on the basis of volumes will be made with Buyers.

7. Bidder may pay 50% of Bid Price on acceptance of Contract, with the remaining 50% payable within 90 calendar days from bid acceptance. If the Buyer selects this option, the delayed payment must be covered by a payment surety bond in a form acceptable to the State.

8. Bids will be received up until 1:00 p.m. on Monday, October 30, 1989.

SOMEWHERE, behind and under all of these people, is downtown Oakland. Although there have been many guesses as to just how many people were in Oakland for the Autumn Glory Grand Festival Parade on Saturday, all agree that it was the largest crowd ever to attend any event in Oakland. The sunny, warm conditions for all three days of the festival also no doubt set a record for best weather conditions in the 22-year history of the festival. Members of the Festival Committee have been giving thanks the past few days that current weather conditions were not present last weekend, as snow is forecast for the Mountaintop for tomorrow. Photo by Craig Phillips.

Board Of Education Meets Thursday, Faces Numerous Agenda Items

Garrett County Board of Education members faced a lengthy agenda during their regular monthly meeting last Thursday, including numerous reports and informational items.

School-Business Partnerships
Board members further discussed the concept of school-business partnerships, which was initially brought up during an earlier meeting. The purpose of the program is to link the business community to the schools in a positive way, with each benefiting from the other.

Garrett County Superintendent of Schools Dr. Jerome Ryscavage noted that he spoke informally with the members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Oakland Business Association, and has also planned a luncheon meeting with them. Ryscavage noted that he would prefer that these groups serve as initiators in this concept.

Ryscavage noted that he attended a conference on the topic last year, where he received information from programs used in other counties. He noted that the approach in Garrett County would be scaled down, but he would like to see if the business community would be receptive.

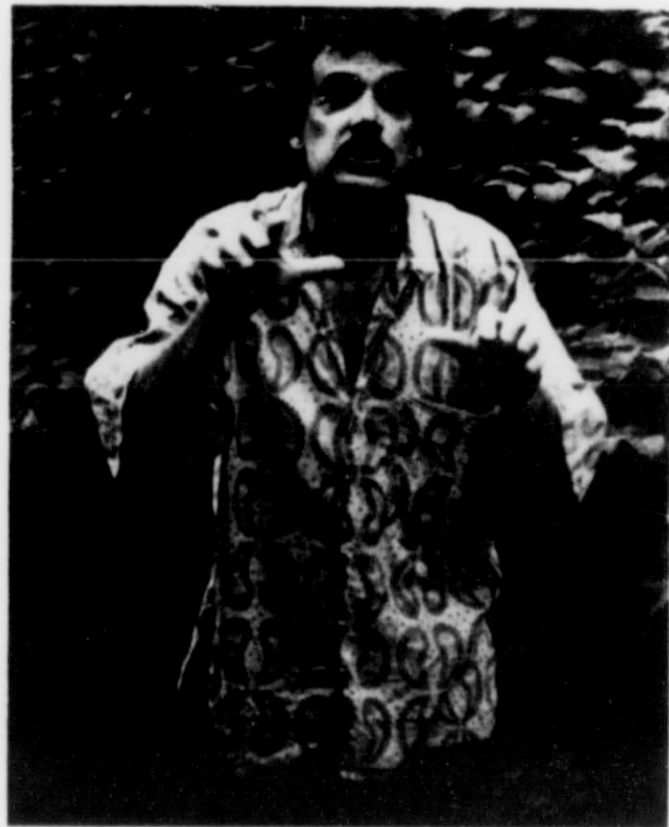

The concept could involve the businesses sharing their facilities with the students, or adding additional support through other resources such as scholarships and cultural activities. Ryscavage said, "But we are much more interested in developing a relationship with the business community so we can share with each other."

Food Service Committee
The board discussed the food service advisory committee and submitted a list of names for Dr. Ryscavage to contact about serving on the committee. The committee will then meet to go over the policy and elect a chairman before conducting business.

Jon Spelman To Spin Halloween Tales For All Ages At GCC

A storyteller with a rare capacity to enchant audiences of all ages, Jon Spelman, will appear in the Garrett County Community College auditorium on Wednesday, October 25, at 7:30 p.m. with a special Halloween program of ghost stories and tales of mystery and suspense. The program is being sponsored by the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival as part of its Humanities and Arts series.

Spelman, who now lives in Washington, D.C., has had a varied career as entertainer, having been an actor, director, and teacher of acting with the Asolo State Theatre in Florida before he turned to a full-time career as storyteller and solo performer in 1980.

Garrett County Fifth Graders To Attend College For A Week

A college experience will become a reality for fifth grade students in Garrett County on October 30 when the Early Intervention Program begins.

This program, made possible through a grant from RESA, will involve busing all local fifth graders, one class each week, to the Garrett Community College campus where they will be taught by their regular teachers and by college faculty members.

Dean Lillian Mitchell worked with Al Coviello of the Garrett County Board of Education to write the proposal for the Early Intervention Program which was subsequently approved by RESA and designated as a model for other such programs in the state.

In addition to the regular fifth grade work, students will have many new and creative educational experiences while they are "in college." A total of 10 different activities are being developed and will be taught by members of the college faculty and staff. Each fifth grader will have the opportunity to participate in all 10 activities.

Activities and instructors already planned include: a simulated archeological dig, Beth Hurley; an introduction to engineering and technology by building a support system for a weight, Jim Allen; physical fitness with body movement and control, Tony Artice; river safety and science with a model river, Mike Logsdon; "hands-on" biology and nature study, Kevin Dodge; library treasure hunt, Dana Shimmock; and Orff participation musical activity, George McDowell. Other activities will involve art, creative dramatics, and rock-and-roll music.

GLAF Receives Md. Humanities Council Grant

A grant of $3,935 has been awarded by the Maryland Humanities Council to the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival for a series of seven public programs titled "America: Cultural Roots and Offshoots."

The series began with the lecture-demonstration in September by Philip Faini of West Virginia University who spoke on "Origins and Role of African Musical Instruments."

The next event is scheduled for November 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Garrett Community College when Beth Hurley will present a program titled "Archeological and His-

Lewisburg, Pa., Men Charged On Drugs, Weapons

Two Lewisburg, Pa., men and a youth were arrested Tuesday night on drug and weapons charges following a routine traffic stop near Friendsville, according to the Garrett County Sheriff's Department.

Lance Allen Muffley, 24, and John David Arlington, 20, were both charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance (CDS), after suspected marijuana, opium and LSD were confiscated during a search at a U.S. Route 40 rest area.

In addition to drug charges, Muffley faces charges of concealing a deadly weapon and various traffic violations. According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, a search of the vehicle revealed a homemade ax-handle billy club and a machete.

The 16-year-old juvenile was taken into police custody and transported to a youth holdover facility in Cumberland. He was released Wednesday into his parents' custody after they posted 10 percent of $1,000 bond.

The arrests took place after Deputy C.P. Nolan stopped the vehicle for allegedly speeding and driving with an inoperable tail light.

Muffley and Arlington are currently being housed in the Garrett County Jail in lieu of $10,000, ten percent cash, bond.

City Officials In Frostburg; To Hear Braskey

Approximately 200 city and town officials from all over Maryland are gathering in Frostburg today to develop the Maryland Municipal League's 1990 legislative program.

The meeting, which will continue through Saturday, will include an address by Garrett County Commissioner John Braskey on Friday.

The mayors, council members, town managers, police chiefs and other municipal officials will select a maximum of four legislative priorities for introduction during the 1990 Session of the Maryland General Assembly on behalf of Maryland's 155 city and town governments. The legislative issues being recommended by the League's 25-member Legislative Committee to the general membership include:

"Increased levels of state police aid funding to help cities and towns cope with the drug problem. Municipalities are on the front lines in the war against drugs and drug-related crime, but unfortunately do not have the resources to adequately deal with the problem. State aid for municipal police services has been virtually flat over the last decade."

"Legislation that would re-establish procedures for communities to incorporate as municipal corporations. A federal court threw out Maryland's incorporation law this past summer because a portion of it was deemed to be unconstitutional, so revised procedures will probably be

SHA Outlines Plans For Expansion Of Route 219 At Deep Creek Lake

Representatives from the State Highway Administration (SHA) presented the findings of their Project Planning Team's study of U.S. Route 219 at the October 11 meeting of the Garrett County Planning Commission.

The team was initiated in response to concerns raised by Garrett County officials regarding existing traffic problems on U.S. Route 219 South, particularly at Deep Creek Lake. The SHA reviewed the corridor that lies between Sand Flat Rd. and the Deep Creek Lake bridge and made the following recommendations.

The recommended short-term solution to the perceived traffic hazards is the expansion of the corridor that runs from the Deep Creek Lake bridge to Glendale Road, which is currently composed of two 12-foot lanes and two 10-foot shoulders. The expansion would provide for three 12-foot lanes and two 6- or 10-foot shoulders.

According to James Wynn, State Highway Administration, this plan would utilize the existing roadway, with minor vertical and horizontal adjustments. The new third lane, a center left-turn lane, would allow for smoother flow of the through traffic while creating fewer hazards for those drivers turning off of the road.

The cost of this recommended short-term solution would be roughly $7.4 million. Since U.S. Route 219 is a State highway, the project would be funded by the State.

Improvements are slated for the next one to two years, with construction starting as early as next spring.

The Project Planning Team found the current average daily traffic (ADT) on the corridor that extends from the Deep Creek Lake bridge to Sand Flat Road to range from 5,300 to 7,300. The study projects that in the year 2015 the ADT will range from 7,500 to 10,000. The Team considered three long-term alternative roadway improvements.

They studied the costs and environmental impacts of construction of a three-, four- and five-lane highway.

The Team recommended the eventual construction of a five-lane highway where this current two-lane corridor exists. According to Wynn, a five lane highway would yield the added safety of a center turn lane and allow for greater capacity with two through lanes for each direction. The recommendation included modification to four lanes in tight areas.

The State Highway Administration will take this recommendation into consideration, initiating a project planning study to look at possibilities of obtaining rights-of-way for up to a five-lane highway.

Grantsville Man Loses Life In Pa. Multi-Car Crash

A Grantsville man died Sunday in a multi-car accident on Interstate 81 in Ryan Township near Schuylkill, Pa.

Raymond Jonas Tice, 66, died as a result of the crash. It was reported that thick fog was present at the time of the accident.

Tice was returning from a meeting of the Mennonite Disaster Service of Western Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia in Crogan, N.Y. He was en route to a celebration for his 45th wedding anniversary, which was on that date.

Born December 7, 1922, in Meyersdale, Pa., he was the son of the late Jonas and Savilla (Yoder) Tice.

Mr. Tice was a veal farmer, and operated his own trucking business. He was a member of the Maple Glen Conservative Mennonite Church, Grantsville, and served as regional director for the Mennonite Disaster Service. He was also active in local and national agricultural organizations.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth A. (Yoder) Tice; one son, Daniel A. Tice, Grantsville; three daughters, Elaine Yoder, Accident; Doris Lichty, Grantsville; and Carol Heagy, Annville, Pa.; three brothers, Monroe J. Tice, Boynton, Pa.; and Simon J. Tice and Lewis J. Tice, both of Grantsville; two sisters, Elizabeth Tice and Melba Miller, both of Grantsville; and 15 grandchildren.

Friends were received at the Newman Funeral Home, Grantsville.

A service was conducted Wednesday at the Maple Glen Conservative Mennonite Church by the Rev. Ivan J. Maust and the Rev. Elmer S. Yoder. Interment was in the Maple Glen Cemetery.

The family requests that memorials take the form of contributions to the Mennonite Disaster Service.

FOREST PRODUCTS WEEK — The Garrett County Commissioners have signed a proclamation declaring the week of October 15 to 21 as Forest Products Week. In part, the proclamation states "Garrett County's forest products industry has played an enduring and vital role in the economic well-being of our state — and contributes more than $500 million annually to our economy ... our forest products industry — the fifth largest industry in Maryland — will continue to employ over 18,000 individuals both in the forest and the factory ... and wood is a renewable resource which will never be depleted so long as our dedicated foresters and natural resource professionals continue to find ways to properly and expertly manage our forests." Garrett County has 44 timber related industries and employs 690 persons in the county for a total of $19 million annual sales. Pictured above, front row, left to right, are: Garrett County Commissioners Ernest J. Gregg, Elwood L. Groves and John G. Braskey. Standing, same order, are John Forman, representative of the Garrett County Forestry Board and Mike Kozier, director of the Garrett County Office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Man Arrested For Auto Theft

An Oakland man was arrested this week by the Oakland City Police department in connection with the theft and destruction of a motor vehicle.

Carl D. Stalnaker, 20, was arrested by Chief John K. Sines after he reportedly took the vehicle to Terra Alta, W.Va., and burned it on a railroad track.

The vehicle, a 1980 Ford pickup truck, was reportedly stolen from Eugene D. Helbig, also of Oakland, on Friday between 1 and 3 p.m.

Stalnaker was charged with motor vehicle theft, unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, destruction of property, and driving with a suspended license.

Police said Stalnaker was taken to the Garrett County

AWARDS PRESENTED — The Grantsville Area Business and Professional Women recently presented awards for the Employer of the Year and Woman of the Year. Betty Jo Swauger presented Dr. Stephen Herman, president of Garrett Community College, with the award for Employer of the Year and Dr. Amy Harman, president of the Grantsville Area BPW, with the award for Woman of the Year. Pictured above, left to right, are: Dr. Herman, Ms. Swauger and Dr. Harman.

Jail, where he was released on ten percent of $2500 bond.

Also arrested this week was Danny Stemple, 35, Oakland. He was charged with indecent exposure and disturbing the peace.

The arrest was made by Sgt. Roger Lewis on Tuesday. The incident reportedly occurred Thursday at 6 p.m.

Handgun Wound Hospitalizes Oakland Man

An Oakland man remains in "stable" condition this morning at Garrett County Memorial Hospital as a result of an accidental gunshot wound to his hand.

Carlton J. Callis, 46, reportedly sustained the wound late Monday night at his home on Woodland Drive when a .22 caliber Derringer with a two-inch barrel accidentally discharged.

Callis was taken to the hospital by the Southern Rescue Squad. The incident was investigated by Cpl. Ernest L. Alexander of the Oakland City Police Department.

Firemen's Parade Winners Named

The winner of the Oakland VFD drawing for a trip to the Bahamas was Dot DeSignore, Gorman, W.Va.

Numerous Mishaps Investigated By Md. State Police

Numerous motor vehicle accidents were investigated this week by Maryland State Police at the McHenry detachment.

A two-vehicle accident occurred early Sunday morning on Route 135.

According to police reports, James L. McDonald, 89, Deer Park, was driving a 1982 Chrysler LeBaron, and was making a left turn from the IGA parking lot onto eastbound 135. Kimberly A. Welch, 18, Elk Garden, W.Va., was westbound on Route 135 in a 1989 Ford Mustang.

Police said McDonald failed to yield the right of way to Welch, pulling into her path. Welch reportedly swerved to the left in an attempt to avoid the collision.

Tpr. P.R. Brown investigated, charging McDonald with failing to yield the right of way at the entrance to a highway.

Several persons were taken to the hospital by a state police vehicle. McDonald was admitted to the hospital, but a spokesman reported that he has been released. Treated and released following the accident were one passenger in the McDonald car, Bessie Friend, 67, Deer Park; and three passengers in the Welch vehicle, Florence Welch, 39, Elk Garden, and Renee Junkins, 17, and Bonnie Junkins, 14, both of Mount Storm, W.Va.

A two-vehicle accident occurred Tuesday afternoon on the Chestnut Ridge Road.

Police reported that Lisa S. Beiler, 21, Grantsville, was traveling north in a 1981 Mercury Lynx, while Martha J. Ackerman, 35, Meyersdale, Pa., was leaving Route 48 to enter Chestnut Ridge Road. She was driving a 1986 Plymouth Reliant.

Police said Ackerman failed to yield the right of way to Beiler, and the front of the Plymouth struck the left side of the Mercury.

Sgt. C.R. Smith investigated, charging Ackerman with failing to yield at the entrance to a highway.

Beiler was taken to Memorial Hospital, Cumberland, by the Northern Rescue Squad, where a spokesman reported that she is not listed as a patient.

A Westernport man was injured in a single-vehicle accident Tuesday afternoon on Route 135.

Police reported that Jack R. Fazenbaker, 56, was operating a 1987 Ford truck when the left front wheel disengaged from the vehicle, causing a loss of braking ability. The vehicle ran off the road and struck a guardrail.

Tpr. J.K. Moore investigated, and reported that no charges were filed. Fazenbaker was taken to Memorial Hospital, Cumberland, by Tri-Towns Rescue, where he is not currently listed as a patient.

A two-vehicle crash Sunday night on Route 495 resulted in the DWI charge for a Grant-sville man.

According to police reports, Michael E. Gusk, 40, Elyria, Ohio, was driving a 1984 Ford Ranger. He was stopped in the southbound lane to make a left turn. David D. Stanton, 21, Grantsville, was southbound on Route 495 in a 1989 Ford Ranger.

Stanton failed to reduce the speed of his truck, striking Gusk's vehicle in the rear.

Tfc. L. Rosage investigated, charging Stanton with driving while intoxicated, failing to control his speed to avoid a collision, and driving with a license restriction. No injuries were reported.

A two-vehicle accident occurred Sunday on Route 135.

Police said Nina J. Terrill, 63, Bethesda, was traveling south on the Oakland Deer Park Road in a 1989 Chrysler LeBaron. She failed to grant the right of way to a 1978 Pontiac Bonneville driven by Eugene R. Friend, 59, Mtn. Lake Park, on Route 135. The vehicles collided, and

Oakland Police Investigate Thefts, DOPs

Several thefts and destruction incidents are currently under the investigation of the Oakland City Police department.

A destruction of property was reported by Charnell L. Walking, Oakland, on Monday.

According to reports, someone broke the window of her 1985 Mercury Lynx which was parked on Second Street. Damages are estimated at $200.

The incident reportedly occurred around midnight on Sunday. Sgt. Roger Lewis is investigating.

A breaking and entering and destruction of property occurred last Friday night at Tableland Milk Producers Inc., Route 39.

Police said someone entered the milk house by breaking a storm door. The culprits also broke into the office, but nothing was reported stolen. Damages reached $150.

Chief John K. Sines is investigating. Anyone with information on this incident is asked to call Garrett County Crime Solvers at 334-1975.

Two destruction incidents reportedly occurred Saturday night at the Old Bottling Plant, Oakland.

Police said someone knocked out a piece of plexiglass in the front door of Cogley's Barber Shop and removed $30 in change. Total losses reached $150.

The second incident occurred at Cuppet-Weeks Management

Inc. Someone apparently used a baseball bat to smash a large window at the front of the office, causing $150 in damage.

Chief Sines is investigating. A hit and run incident was reported by Regina E. Minzak, Elkridge, on Saturday.

The incident reportedly occurred around 5:30 p.m., when someone backed into the door of Minzak's 1988 Mercury. Damages are estimated at $100.

Sgt. Lewis is investigating.

Mtn. Lake Man Charged With Sexual Abuse

A Mtn. Lake Park man has been arrested by Maryland State Police on several sexual child abuse charges.

Van Franklin Reneker faces charges of child abuse, second degree rape, second degree sex offense, and fourth degree sex offense. The incidents allegedly occurred between December 1988 and October 1989, and involved a juvenile.

The case was originally reported to Social Services in Oakland, and a joint investigation was conducted.

BPW To Select Employer And Woman Of Year

The Garrett County Business and Professional Women's Club will be selecting its Woman of the Year and Employer of the Year this evening, October 19, at a program at Will O' the Wisp, Deep Creek Lake. The evening will begin with dinner at 6:30.

BPW annually selects Woman of the Year and Employer of the Year during the week of National Business Women's Week, October 15-21. The Woman of the Year program is designed to honor particularly outstanding business and professional women who have DRUNK DRIVING was apparently the cause of this two-vehicle accident which occurred Sunday just before 9 p.m. on Route 495. According to Maryland State Police, the accident occurred when David D. Stanton, 21, Grantsville, failed to control the speed of his pickup truck, which crashed into the rear of a second truck driven by Michael E. Gusky, 40, Elyria, Ohio. Stanton was charged with driving while intoxicated, failing to control his speed, and a violation of a license restriction. Police reported that no one was transported to the hospital following the accident.

and compost piles. These processes return needed nutrients to the soil, while efficiently eliminating the leaves.

Should collection be unavailable and other means of leaf disposal be ineffective, leaves originating on the premises can be burned by householders between the hours of 4 p.m. and midnight. The fire should not be closer than 200 feet to the nearest residence and should not create a nuisance.

Man Arrested For CDS Possession

An Irwin, Pa., man was charged with unlawful possession of a controlled dangerous substance last Friday following his arrest for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Maryland State Police at the McHenry detachment reported that Ronald P. Wiley was pulled over for the driving violation. The arresting officer, Tpr. S.W. Vincent, observed a pipe on the seat of the vehicle, and a further search revealed suspected marijuana.

Sheriff's Dept. Investigates Local Thefts

A local enterprise reported a loss of over $1,500 in an apparent theft, according to the Garrett County Sheriff's Department.

A spokesperson for Cecil Jackson Equipment Co., Oakland, reported the theft of three 46-inch mid-mount mowers designed to fit a 300 series tractor. The loss was discovered after an inventory was taken by the company. According to Detective P.J. Kelly, the theft occurred sometime between September 11 and October 10. The investigation is continuing.

Daniel Warren DiPietro, Fallston, reported a breaking and entering and theft that occurred between September 17 and October 12 at a residence on Beckman's Peninsula. A Norelco rotary razor and a Panasonic VCR model PV1220 valued at $434 were removed when perpetrator(s) broke a pane in a rear bedroom window and entered the residence. According to the investigating officer, Corporal L.E. Gnegy, the investigation is continuing.

A spokesperson for the Town of Crellin Water Association reported the theft of approximately $84 of cable. An electric cable that extended from the well house to test holes near the baseball field in Crellin was cut and removed from the premises. Detective P.J. Kelly is conducting the investigation. Anyone with any information concerning the theft is requested to contact the Garrett County Sheriff's Department.

MAN INJURED IN ASSAULT — Police are currently investigating an apparent assault which injured Kenneth Yommer, Meyersdale, Pa., on Sunday around 5:30 p.m. The incident allegedly occurred at the Wildwater Inn, Route 40 Alternale, and reportedly began with an argument. Yommer was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital, Cumberland, by Medevac helicopter, where a spokesman reported that he is not listed as a patient. Cpl. Mike Mattingly is continuing the investigation, and reported that charges are pending in the incident.

GCC Board Meets For Discussion On New Program

The Garrett Community College Board of Trustees met Tuesday evening for a discussion about a new program, Resort Management, that the college will be offering.

Dr. Lillian Mitchell, Dean of Student Services, explained the Resort Management Program. GCC has applied to the State Board of Community Colleges for approval of the program which is slated to begin the fall of 1990. The program will require 600 hours of practical experience. There will be 6 100 hour practicums, with two each in hotel and resort management, food preparation and events management and promotion.

An academic standard of at least a B average must be maintained for the student to graduate and Dr. Steven Herman, president of GCC, hopes that all internships will be paid. Frostburg State University is interested in articulating the program with the college and in developing the third and fourth years of the program.

"We will have very highly trained employees when the students leave the college. We are hopeful to obtain approval from the State Board of Community Colleges," said Dr. Herman after the meeting.

The Board of Trustees gave tentative approval to the project.

Dennis Gibson, coach of the men's and women's basketball, described a new program which the college has implemented.

Dr. Herman explained after the meeting that the new programs have been introduced to help athletes succeed at the college.

Athletes are given a set of instructions which clarify the terms of athletic scholarships and the student/athlete monitoring system.

Dr. Herman explained that the athletic coordinator is notified whenever a student/athlete misses a class, and then the coach is notified that the student may be having a problem. Dr. Herman said that this new system is working well and is helping coaches communicate with the athletes and with the teachers.

The Middle States Association will be conducting the Small Team Visit on October 24 and 25 to follow up the accreditation policy which was granted to the college.

Bloodmobile To Visit Friendsville

The next visit of the American Red Cross Bloodmobile to Garrett County will be Friday, Oct. 27, when blood will be collected at the Friendsville fire hall from 1 to 7 p.m. All persons who are at least 17 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds, and are in generally good health are encouraged to respond to this visit.

Western Maryland Band Tourney, Festival Parade Winners Named

The twelfth annual Western Maryland Tournament of Bands, hosted by the Southern Garrett Marching Band, was held Saturday at the Southern High School Football Field. Over 700 high school instrumentalists from eight bands in the tri-state area competed in the annual tournament.

Placing first in the Class A Division was Greensburg-Salem High School, Greensburg, Pa. Northern Garrett High School, Accident, received second place honors. Greensburg-Salem also captured Best Band Front, Best Drum Line, and Best Drum Major for its division.

In Class AA, University High School from Morgantown, W.Va., placed first. Northern High School Patriot Band from Owings, Calvert County, captured second place honors.

University High School won Best Band Front and Best Drum Line for Class AA, while the Northern Patriot Band received Best Drum Major. McGuffey High School, Claysville, Pa., won first place in Class AAA, in addition to capturing Best Band Front, Best Drum Line, and Best Drum Major.

Three bands competed in the Open Class Division. Severna Park High School, Severna Park, won first place honors, with Clear Spring High School, Clear Spring, winning second and Allegany High School of Cumberland placing third. Clear Spring won Best Band Front and Best Drum Major, while Allegany High School took honors for Best Drum Line.

The Best Western Maryland Band Award was received by Clear Spring High School.

Grand Champion honors were won by Severna Park, which also captured Best Overall Street and Field Awards. This is a combined street (parade) and

Health Dept. Advises On Leaf Disposal

While the changing color of leaves yields a magnificent spectacle, once the leaves begin to fall, their accumulation can present a problem.

Leaf burning may seem to be an easy solution to leaf accumulation. Dr. Jane Ficus, Garrett County Health Officer, however, warns that Maryland air pollution regulations prohibit this practice where collection service is available.

The smoke from burning leaves contains a high concentration of such pollutants as hydrocarbons, particulate matter and carbon monoxide. Every five pounds of leaves burned will yield about one pound of air pollutants.

Pollutants resulting from leaf burning can greatly aggravate the condition of persons suffering from respiratory disorders, and can cause eye and nose irritations, fever, coughing and cramps in a healthy person. Additionally, the pollutants in the air can cause house paint to deteriorate, retard plant growth, injure shrubbery and increase laundry and cleaning costs.

Towns that provide leaf collection for residents include Oakland, Mountain Lake Park, Accident and Grantsville.

Oakland and Mountain Lake Park residents have two options for weekly leaf removal. Leaves will be picked up in bags, or swept from the side of the street by a vacuum truck, beginning October 23.

The Towns of Accident and Grantsville will collect bagged leaves on a weekly basis.

Residents in other municipalities or those individuals served by private collection services in unincorporated areas of the county should check with their contractors to determine if and when they will accept leaves for collection.

Ficus urges residents living in areas where there are too many leaves to be collected or where no collection is available to investigate the use of leaves in mulching, erosion control

An Exciting Program . . .

The topic for this column last week centered on the newly organized Garrett Community College Foundation and urged citizens to support the Foundation with financial contributions. We mentioned how we believe the college to be of great value to our community and we commented on the top quality of the persons who are employed there.

In a related vein this week, we want to note how pleased we are to have learned about a new program that will be started this school year with all fifth grade students in the county. GCC Dean Lillian Mitchell joined forces with Al Coviello, director of pupil services for the Board of Education, to write a proposal and gain approval for the Early Intervention Program. The program will involve transporting all local fifth grade students to Garrett Community College for one full week of classes. They will be taught on the GCC Campus by the regular teachers and by members of the college faculty. A variety of interesting, exciting supplemental activities will be a part of the schedule.

The reason we like this idea so much is that it will give every student in the county an initial sense of what it is like to go to college. They will indeed be "in college" for a full week and perhaps the greatest benefit of the entire program will be simply giving many of them the confidence to make attending college following high school one of their goals.

For too many of our young people, attending college has never been an option, either because of the expense, the lack of self-confidence, or the fact that no one else in the family has ever attended college and it is just too scary even to consider. Yet many who fall into these categories definitely have the ability to go to college and obtain a degree. Too many good minds are being wasted. We have not yet begun to tap the intellectual resources in the youth of our community.

The encouragement to attend college should not begin in senior high school, or even middle school, but in elementary school. And the idea should be nurtured each and every year so that it becomes just taken for granted by those with the ability that college follows high school.

The schools, of course, cannot do it all. Parents need to do most of the encouraging and they need to be aware of the post-high school opportunities that may not have been available to them, but are now available to their children. The large attendance at GCC's recent Career Exposition seems to indicate that more and more parents are getting involved and wanting to learn about these opportunities.

We reiterate — education is a major key to the future and to the quality of life.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Autumn Glory Festival Committee of the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council would like to thank all of the people who helped to make the 22nd Autumn Glory Festival a fun experience for so many residents and visitors. We appreciate the positive spirit that our community dedicates to this annual celebration of pride in Garrett County's natural beauty.

We are grateful to the Oakland Street Department for returning the streets of Oakland to their usual appearance by Sunday morning. We also want to acknowledge the tremendous help donated by the volunteers, offices, and merchants who have directed the traffic, produced the parade, provided the equipment, and allocated the space for the Autumn Glory Festival year after year.

We welcome the opportunity to share the fun and work with individuals and organizations who have not yet become involved with the festival. We are looking forward to the 23rd Autumn Glory Festival, October 11-14, 1990!

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Rees Gilbert,
Events Coordinator
Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council

To the Editor:

Last week you printed a parody by Craig Speicher, entitled "Dr. Gallwell's Strange Burden," my question to you is, "why?"

Did you feel our weekly newspaper needed a little more humor mixed in with all the serious news? Well, maybe someone found humor in it. Did you feel since we had a lot of the big city tourists visiting and reading our local news that we should make them feel more at home by printing an article like those printed in the Big City News? (I've read their liberally slanted opinion pages and if I wanted to read such opinions as these, I'd pay a $1.10 and get $10.00 worth of coupons and a lot of firestarter).

Did you run out of news and feel a "burden" to fill an 11x3x3 inch space? Well, maybe you could do a little local journalism and find a good local charity that could use some community support — like the excellent "Keep Opening Doors," also printed on the same page.

Do you think maybe next year "Dr. Gallwell" would leave Libertarian University and visit our friendly town? Well for the last two years of Autumn Glory, representatives from a certain university that "purely and intentionally resembles" the "Libertarian University" have come to our Autumn Glory. I bought them a copy of The Republican in which they were featured in an article. I don't believe I'd take that chance again. Or maybe this parody was printed for their benefit. Thank goodness they didn't come this year.

Where's my sense of humor? Well, I'm a Christian and happen to take offense at cheap shots at people who may have faults (don't we all) but are try-

Small Business Scanner

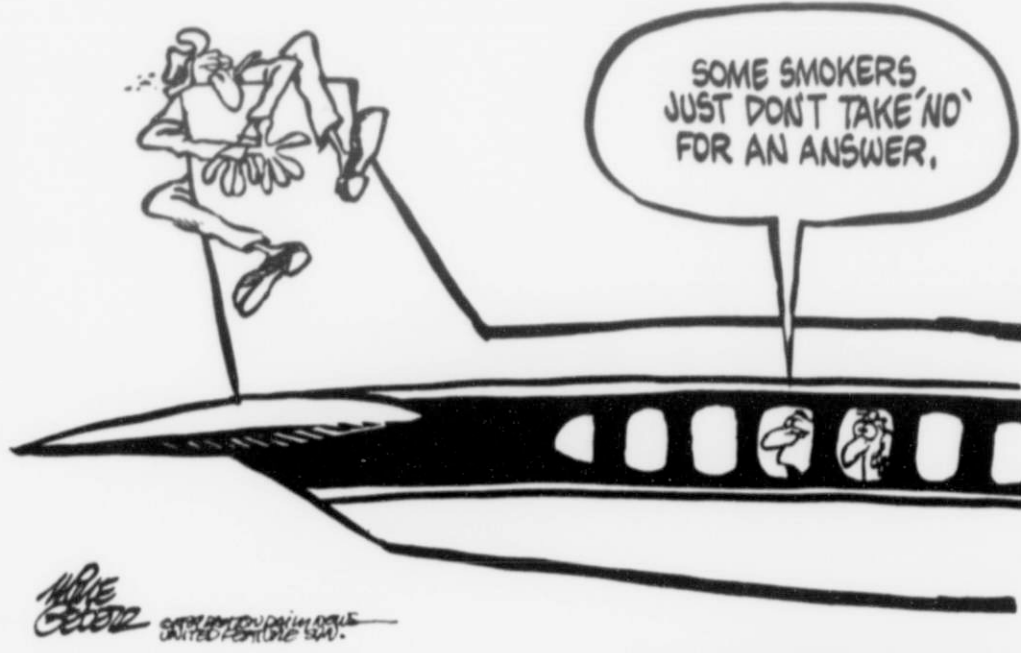

The following column was prepared by members of the Garrett Community College Small Business Development Center, who invite persons to call to set an appointment to discuss ideas and receive free help initiating, planning or running a business. Call 387-6666 and ask for the SBDC.

Starting a business implies risking your nest-egg, so preparation is vital to success. Among the first things to consider should be: Am I really cut out to be in business for myself, am I the "entrepreneurial type?" Here are 20 questions to start with:

1. In meetings do you find yourself clarifying what others have said?
2. Did you do well in your written work in school?
3. Do you like active participation rather than spectator sports?
4. Are you able to handle a lot of things at the same time?
5. When you start a task, do you usually see it through to the end?
6. Are you active in outside organizations?
7. Do you consider yourself a good listener, especially to people who are older and more experienced than you?
8. Do you generally try to match your vocabulary to your listeners?
9. When faced with a sudden change in plans, are you able to re-think your situation and quickly move ahead on a specific course of action?
10. Do you believe that your accomplishments and failures were due to your actions rather than external influences?
11. Have you taken any courses that would help you in your job in the past three years?
12. When you start a task, do you often get so involved that you forget about everything else?
13. Do you have any close relatives who are in business for themselves?
14. Do you seek out situations in which you will have more responsibilities?
15. Do you work well under pressure?
16. As a child, did you have a paper route, a lemonade stand, etc.?
17. Before you fall asleep, do you plan out what you are going to do the next day?
18. Have you ever been fired?
19. Would you ever consider working strictly on commission?
20. Do you have an extremely high energy level?

If you can answer yes to most of the above, then you have a fighting chance to become a successful entrepreneur!

ing to "turn this nation back to God," as Craig Speicher put it. I do have a sense of humor.

I thought "The Mind Wanders" also printed that page, was insightful and enjoyable, because the best laughs come when we are laughing at ourself. We could spend a lot of time and newspaper space doing just that.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Kimberlie Rush

To the Editor:

We are concerned parents, and we would like it to be known that our daughter, Kimberly M. (Rishell) Keller, was cleared of the charges, on October 5, that she received as a result of the fatal accident which occurred on August 22.

At approximately 11:15 a.m., our daughter was in a car accident on Route 42. She was on her way to the High Risk Clinic, Morgantown, travelling north with her grandmother. As a result of the accident, her grandmother, Bertha E. Harvey, was fatally injured.

In The Republican of August 24, my husband noticed the report of the accident stated that our daughter was travelling south, which we knew was incorrect. Therefore, on August 25, he contacted the State Police Barracks with his questions concerning the direction in which our daughter was travelling.

As a result of our concern, a further investigation was conducted, and the charges were dropped.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs.
William J. Rishell

To the Editor:

Re: Garrett Co. Memorial Hospital and Humble Pie.

Very recently I was exposed to the confining walls of that location and I must here and now make some amends.

First, I must admit that over the years we generally healthy folks would hear stories of horror, relative to that institution; however, in retrospect, I believe those were likely more fairly applicable to a doctor who may have goofed, with a result that the entire institution

1990 Census Of Population

by Dr. Stephen Herman President, Garrett Community College

As autumn glory delights our eyes, what could be further from our minds than Spring, specifically April Fool's Day, 1990? This coming April Fool's Day will not be any ordinary day of pranks and foolishness; it will be Census Day. Once every decade Americans are asked to be counted. Each of us will be sent a form to complete.

Don't get irritated! The tranquility of your country mailbox is not being disturbed by some nose Washington bureaucrat with nothing better to do than annoy innocent citizens. In this instance Washington is obeying the best of taskmasters — the U.S. Constitution, which requires that the federal government conduct the census. Marylanders have always done their part; they have participated in twenty censuses, dating back to 1790.

You may wonder what makes the census so important. Much more is at stake than curiosity about how many of us there are. Voting districts and political representation are aligned on the basis of the census. In addition our tax money gets redistributed back for special purposes and programs. Money from governmental resources enters our local economy and ripples from there, touching many lives as it exchanges hands through savings and purchases.

The amount of money Garrett County receives depends to a considerable extent on the number of people counted in the census. Every person we neglect to count can mean $1,500 in federal moneys lost to Maryland. The quality of our roads, housing, schools, medical care, job training, day care, and much more is affected.

So when the first buds appear on the trees and that letter from Uncle Sam greets you as you open your mailbox, please be a good citizen and complete the form.

I'll tell you more about the census as the warmer weather grows near. In the meantime, I have to close, I have wood to chop.

got the blame; with a further result that MANY local people would leave town if other than a hangnail problem were to be faced.

Now, let me set the record straight. When I arrived to gain admission I received assistance, cooperation, and kindness throughout the entire period. I will not name the good people because I believe some 25 to 30 people were in contact with me at some point and to miss even one name would take away a compliment I would like to share with all. My doctor's hand was guided by his experience; however, I am satisfied that his talents are God-given and guided.

LWV THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

ADVOCATING FOR THE VOTER: CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM IS KEY

In our democracy, the voter should be the most important participant in the election process. But two trends in Congress threaten this basic tenet. First, campaigns are becoming more and more reliant on contributions from special interests. And second, it is becoming more difficult for challengers to compete with incumbents. Both these trends mean that elections often can be over before they really begin and that voters' concerns are not the central concern for elected officials.

What can be done? The most important thing is for Congress to reform the campaign finance system. It is essential that there be tough, realistic negotiations to reach real compromises on campaign finance reform that will protect the interests of voters. It is far too easy for Democrats and Republicans, congressional leaders and the President, incumbents and challengers, to make proposals that will never be enacted. Instead, they must come together to make genuine reform a reality.

And what reforms should be adopted? The League of Women Voters believes that three goals must be kept in mind: preventing undue influence, providing for political competitiveness, and enhancing citizen participation in the electoral process. To accomplish these goals, Congress should enact comprehensive legislation to:

- *curb the undue influence of special interest group contributors and wealthy individuals;
- *provide public benefits, such as reduced-cost postage and media access, for congressional candidates who accept voluntary spending limits;
- *restore federal tax credits for small political contributions from individuals;
- *provide limits and full disclosures of questionable campaign practices, such as "soft money" donations and "bundling" of contributions, which are designed to circumvent existing campaign laws;
- *curtail the "grandfather clause" which permits certain members of Congress to make personal use of campaign funds once they leave office; and
- *enable the Federal Election Commission to more vigorously monitor and enforce campaign laws.

Please write to your representative and your senators and urge them to act to reform campaign finance laws. Stress that action is needed to restore public confidence in our electoral system and to get people back into the political process. Urge them to develop bipartisan approaches that will prevent undue influence, provide for political competitiveness, and enhance citizen participation in the electoral process. The next League's public meeting will be Monday, October 23, at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Clint Englander, 247 North 2nd St. The topic will be centered upon the above information.

The Mind Wanders

by Sherry Frantz

As I look around, I see a number of people committed to their careers and a number of people committed to a marriage or a relationship. There also appear to be a few among us committed to a life-long worthy cause.

But it seems alarmingly clear that many of us experience a great tendency to hold back from commitments, plagued by an inability to determine what or who is the appropriate choice.

It is, however, an understandable phenomenon. After all, we are living in a "throw-away" society where we have learned to toss out imperfections. And we are assured that technology is waiting with something that is perfect — and perfectly within reach.

Why make a commitment to something or someone when, just around the corner, something (or someone) better awaits us? Why take time to see something through the rough spots? Why use the energy to make something work?

We see mistakes being made. People unhappy in relationships or miserable at work. We are warned, and rightly so, that "fools rush in." So we become cautious, even frightened, that we could make the same mistakes.

Indeed, there are many more reasons to be cautious nowadays than there once were. It's more difficult to trust others, more difficult to trust our own decisions, more difficult to determine where we will find happiness.

There have been numerous articles published in women's magazines in recent years expressing the phenomenon in terms of dating. We read about men with "intimacy issues," men who say they'll call and don't, men who won't commit to a relationship.

An unmarried female friend of mine, living in the city, recently experienced an attack of cockroaches in her apartment. After trying every product on the market to get rid of the pesky buggers, she was finally successful by asking them for a commitment.

After the barrage of magazine articles about men not being able to commit, I finally found one written by a man who had the same complaint about the women he'd been dating. So I guess we can assume that it does transcend the sexes.

I, myself, have to admit guilt in this area. Of course I give myself a little slack and imagine that it has more to do with not being sure of what or to whom I'm making a commitment than it does my innate ability to make a commitment.

So as not to create a misunderstanding, let me assure you that I do not believe in hanging in there with something that doesn't work or is destructive. If it isn't right, it isn't right. Additionally, I am not indicting a whole generation. Clearly, with each new generation, more acceptable choices are made available, and it requires more time and energy (not to mention brains) to be able to sift through all that confronts us.

So exactly what is it that I am saying?

I guess it's this: With caution and discretion in whatever "to commit or not to commit" situation that confronts us, weigh, balance, and determine the risk factors as well as the valuable rewards. Test the waters, but don't rule out jumping in. It's much more refreshing.

There is risk in commitment, certainly, but there is also risk in noncommitment, and I'm fairly certain that the rewards produced by "a life committed" are more satisfying than forever standing at the crossroads.

This information was supplied by Dr. Alan Arnson, medical director of the Garrett County Mental Health Department. Dr. Arnson received his education at Yale University and through the National Institute of Mental Health. For more information on mental illness, persons are encouraged by Dr. Arnson to contact their family physicians, the Garrett County Mental Health Department (334-8111), various counseling centers and clinics in the tri-state area, or the American Psychiatric Association, Division of Public Affairs, 1400 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

Do people ever recover from mental illness?

In reality, as many as eight in 10 people suffering from mental illnesses can effectively return to normal, productive lives if they receive appropriate treatment. While learning about various mental illnesses, scientists have discovered effective, specific medication and psychotherapies that restore patients to normal, happy lives.

Scientists think some people may inherit a predisposition to certain mental disorders which could be triggered by a stressful life event. A traumatic experience, a childhood of abuse or neglect, loss of a parent or other event may make a person more sensitive to psychiatric problems. Some people suffer only one episode of depression, while others may have repeated episodes. Both the single and chronic forms of the disorder can be successfully treated.

In addition, researchers have discovered an association between some mental illnesses and an overabundance or lack of chemical messengers in the brain. For example, some people suffering from depression have a malfunction in their adrenal system, which produces the hormone cortisol. Their adrenal systems don't respond normally to the body's regulatory mechanisms. Other people suffering from depression have abnormalities in their thyroid or growth hormone systems.

However, antidepressant medications help bring these abnormalities into line and reverse the symptoms of depression in 80 to 90 percent of those receiving treatment. When psychotherapy is added to the treatment, these people can better cope with the social, emotional and vocational complications brought on by their illness.

Likewise, psychiatric care can bring much needed relief to people suffering from anxiety disorders. Medications reduce the acute symptoms of anxiety disorders. In treating phobic disorders, medications often are combined with behavior therapy, which exposes a patient to the source of his fear under controlled circumstances. In fact, scientists have found that appropriate treatment often alleviates phobic disorders without relapse for at least seven years.

Overeaters Anonymous will meet Thursday, at 7 p.m. at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Oakland.

Schizophrenia, the most mysterious of the mental illnesses, also responds well to treatment. Scientists have found that the brains of some people suffering from schizophrenia have abnormalities in the biochemistry or physical structure. Research continues into whether these abnormalities actually cause the symptoms of schizophrenia.

Psychiatrists know that medications alleviate the severe symptoms of schizophrenia such as hallucinations and delusions, which are the hallmarks of this disorder. Only 20 percent of those who take medications for schizophrenia will suffer a relapse within two years of being discharged from a psychiatric hospital. Once the psychosis is under control, psychotherapy helps these patients understand their illness and learn to distinguish reality from distorted perceptions.

Though no single cure for schizophrenia has been found, the disorder can be effectively treated. Given treatment tailored to their needs, many people suffering from schizophrenia can return to the community. In fact, one long-term study found that of almost 2,000 patients, 25 percent fully recovered and half partially recovered.

Despite impressive gains in treating mental illnesses, only one in five people suffering a diagnosable psychiatric disorder seeks treatment. Instead, they suffer in silence, reproaching themselves for not "pulling themselves up by their bootstraps." They don't understand that the illness itself destroys those "bootstraps." Most people who take this approach will, in fact, never get well. Only by receiving appropriate psychiatric assessment and referral to treatment can those suffering from mental illness recover.

Ellen L. Maffett Becomes Bride Of Ervin J. Allen In July Ceremony

Ellen Lynne Maffett and Ervin James Allen were united in marriage July 7, 1989. The double-ring ceremony took place at 7 p.m. at the Salem Presbyterian Church, Limestone, Tenn., with Pastor Michael Fleenor officiating. Mrs. Caroline May was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh F. Maffett, Route 5, Oakland. The groom is the son of Marian Allen, DeLand, Fla., and Ervin Allen, Dothan, Ala.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a tea-length gown of ivory crepe back satin. The back of the skirt featured wide flounces from waist to hemline and a large satin bow at the waistline. The bodice was made with a lace over satin yoke edged with wide scalloped lace. A shoulder-length veil of tulle was held in place by a crown of ivory silk flowers. The bride carried a bouquet of peach colored gerbera daisies, miniature carnations and baby's breath. She wore a coral pendant necklace belonging to her mother and carried an old hankie which had belonged to her late maternal grandmother.

Janet Gregory, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her gown of peach colored brocade was tea-length made in similar style to the bride's gown. She carried peach colored gerbera daisies tied with a matching ribbon. The bride's gown and that of the matron of honor were made by the bride's mother.

Dennis Mull, Limestone, was the best man. Ushers escorting the mothers of the couple were Wayne Maffett, Germantown, brother of the bride, and Michael Sinsal, Falls Church, Va., step-brother of the groom. The couple presented guests with scrolls tied with peach ribbons on which was inscribed an Indian wedding blessing. Amanda Gregory, niece of the bride, and Matthew Wecker, nephew of the groom, gave out the scrolls. Justin and Jeffrey Scott Gregory, nephews of the bride and Jaimee Wecker, niece of the groom distributed bird seed. Carol Marple, sister of the bride, registered guests. The couple presented their mothers with long-stem peach roses during the ceremony.

A reception was held in the church social hall following the service. Elaine Davis, Sykesville, sister of the groom, served the punch and Kristine Meyer, Gaithersburg, sister of the bride, cut the cake.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Southern High School and a 1982 graduate of Garrett Community College. She attended Washington School for Secretaries where she earned a certificate in word processing. Mrs. Allen is currently employed as a computer analyst by Doehler-Jarvis Industries, Greenville, Tenn. The groom graduated from Atholton High School, Columbia, and is employed as a mason by Adkins Masonry Company, Johnson City, Tenn.

The couple was honored with a shower by members of the Allen family during a reunion prior to the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Allen are residing near Telford, Tenn.

Birthday Party Set For Amanda Casteel

A birthday party will be held for Amanda Casteel on Sunday, October 22, at her home near Friendsville.

All relatives and friends are invited to an open house celebration beginning at 1 p.m.

Ronald and Jackie Barnard Sr., Swanton, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Vickie Sue Barnard, to Thomas Joseph Footen, son of Thomas Allen and Margarte Footen, McCoole.

Miss Barnard is a 1988 graduate of Valley High School and a 1989 graduate of International Beauty School.

Mr. Footen is a 1986 graduate of Bruce High School and Vo-Technical School of Allegany County.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, November 18, at 3 p.m. at Oak Hill Wesleyan Church, McCoole.

A reception will follow at the Piedmont Legion, Piedmont, W.Va.

Although some invitations have been sent, all friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Miss Paugh To Wed Mr. Ramey

Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Paugh, Kitzmiller, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Rogetta (Sissy) May, to William Ronald Ramey, son of James and Alma Ramey, Elk Garden, W.Va.

Miss Paugh is a 1989 graduate of Southern High School.

Mr. Ramey is a 1984 graduate of Elk Garden High School. He is employed by Kessell Lumber Company, New Creek, W.Va.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, November 4, at 2 p.m. at the Kitzmiller Assembly of God Church, Kitzmiller.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Kitzmiller Community Center.

Some invitations are being sent, but the couple invites all friends and relatives to attend.

Following the wedding, the couple will establish residence in Elk Garden.

Maxwell DeWitt SHA Employee Of The Week

Maxwell W. DeWitt has been named the Garrett County State Highway Administration Employee of the Week through the Maryland SHA Employee Recognition Program.

DeWitt, who was hired by the SHA in April 1976 as a laborer, is currently working out of the Oakland shop as a motor equipment operator III. He is a member of the NCO retired organization and the AFSCME Union.

According to an SHA spokesman, DeWitt is "a dedicated employee who spends many long hours in the winter plowing snow on U.S. Rt. 219." DeWitt resides in Oakland with his wife, Gloria. They are the parents of six children and also have 13 grandchildren. He enjoys fishing and hunting and says he is looking forward to retirement in two years, after which he plans to travel and possibly relocate in Florida.

Before concluding with my finality, I do have a small curiosity that is likely a trade secret kept by a blood promise — how do they know between 10 and 12 seconds after you fall asleep? They can be three miles away (always there at the beep of the buzzer), but you fall asleep and in one comes. I am convinced there is a committee to figure out a new reason to come into the room perfectly every time!

It's great to be home and I am so very thankful for each and every one of you who kept me plugged in, drained, cleaned, drugged, awake, fed (I'd gain 50 pounds a month if I stayed that long (good food)). It was due to your efforts that I got out so quickly. I apologize to the public for any prior negative comments I may have made in years past. Your dedication is obvious. Thank you and may God richly bless you, giving you not only happiness, but His peace.

Respectfully,
Thomas E. Doyle

To the Editor:

The League of Women Voters of Garrett County calls on our representatives in Washington to commit themselves to meaningful debate on a vitally critical issue facing the American electorate: campaign finance reform. Partisan politics has so far placed the issue in "committee limbo." With the House and Senate soon to reconvene and 1990 races looming, Congress must act now.

The average price for a successful congressional race in 1988 was approximately $3 million for a Senate seat and $350,000 for a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives. Total spending for those congressional campaigns exceeded $450 million, representing nearly a four-fold increase in spending since 1976. Based on current projections, the 1990 federal races will continue this pattern of escalating campaign costs. These staggering figures have set up prohibitive financial hurdles for qualified candidates and are largely responsible for the increasingly influential political role special interest groups have with elected officials. Special interest groups contributed almost 34 percent of all receipts for House and Senate races in 1988, with an even better percentage earmarked for ranking congressional members. More and more, calls for the reform of present campaign finance rules are being heard from all sectors, including incumbent politicians.

The League of Women Voters of Garrett County urges Congress to enact comprehensive legislation that will:

- 1) curb the undue influence of large special interest group contributors and wealthy individuals;
- 2) provide public benefits for congressional candidates who accept voluntary spending limits;
- 3) restore federal tax credits for political contributions by individuals;
- 4) provide for limits and full disclosures on such questionable campaign practices designed to circumvent existing campaign laws such as "soft money" and "bundling" of contributions;
- 5) repeal the "grandfather clause," which permits certain members of Congress to retain unspent political contributions for personal use once they leave office; and
- 6) support reforms that will enable the Federal Election Commission to more vigorously monitor and enforce campaign finance laws.

By acting now Congress can enable future candidates to compete more equitably and effectively prevent the undue influence on elected officials. Without action, suspect campaign spending practices will undoubtedly further erode both the confidence and trust of the American people in our representative government.

Sincerely,
Constance C. Margison

To the Editor:

For 20 years, members of the Faculty and Student Body of Zion School of Christian Education — and more recently, Zion Christian Academy — with its band and chorus have gone on periodic Recruitment Tours. In an attempt to meet new pastors and prospective students, it is necessary, on many occasions, to contact pastors who we may not know or who do not know us. Sometimes the contacts are made through mutual friends. Many times contact and reception is made on trust.

Generally, if the date we propose is open, the pastor will schedule a ministry. However, if there is a conflict on the proposed date, the pastor so informs us, and that is the end of the communication. On our tour in late September, we ran into two situations which we think deserve mention. We wanted Berkeley Springs, W.Va. to be our beginning point for a Fall Tour. Several conflicts in dates or housing accommodations had wasted much of our planning time. With just a little over two weeks remaining before our starting date, we called Rev. Sheldon Reese, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Berkeley Springs. He advised that his planning session had been held the week before so he could not arrange to have us. However, he exhibited a generous spirit of helpfulness, as he voluntarily gave us several telephone numbers where he thought there might be interest. One of these numbers was that of Rev.

Jerry Grace, pastor of Francis Asbury United Methodist Church. It was also too late a date for Rev. Grace, but he also wanted to help. He said that if we could schedule a service at a local church (which we did) he would let us stay in the educational building of the church.

In twenty years of tour we have never met ministers who wanted to be as helpful as these two Methodist pastors. We would like to take advantage of this medium to recognize their open, generous spirit. It is very commendable that these two Methodist ministers should exhibit such open, receptive spirits to visiting Christian brethren. We thank them and hope that we could be as willing and helpful if we were to find ourselves in a similar situation.

LEAP Program Initiated At GCC

An innovation in the academic area of Garrett Community College this year has been implementation of the Learning Enhancement Assistance Program (LEAP), an instructional support system designed to address student learning needs. Students are placed in one of four levels for each of the academic areas of reading, writing, and mathematics, where instructional support is tailored to meet each student's individual needs.

Level I courses are designed to develop the basic skills of reading, writing, and mathematics before a student begins his academic program. Level II courses re-enforce and refine these skills to prepare a student for college level work. At this level students take an introductory 3-credit course in social science, humanities, or natural science, as well as the 1-credit college seminar and college study skills courses.

In addition to time spent in classrooms, students in these first two levels work in the instructional labs where they receive tutoring, computer assisted instruction and other academic help.

According to George McDowell, director of Developmental studies, 160 students are presently enrolled in developmental courses which include four levels of mathematics and two levels of algebra, three levels of reading, and three levels of writing. Instructors for these courses are: Jane Nolan and Jane Wildesen, writing and reading; Linda Buckel, reading; Fran Storck, reading and math; Dwight Jeffrey, Nancy Priselac, and Judith Ramer, math; and Jack DuBose and George McDowell writing.

Instructors in the developmental courses schedule class time in the computer labs, which are open for an additional 10 hours each week for any students needing help. The math lab is open for 17 hours each week, when professional staff are available to help students.

Students placed in Level III take courses that are equivalent to freshman and sophomore courses at any four-year college or university and that strengthen conceptual development, critical thinking skills, reading, writing, and mathematics competencies across the curriculum. Through tutoring, computer-assisted instruction, and individualized instruction, the LEAP supports all content areas of the curriculum.

Although Level IV courses and an honors program are still in the planning stage, students capable of doing advanced work are presently being challenged by instructors of individual courses who plan assignments for them.

Meeting Set By Mastectomy Support Group

A newly-formed mastectomy support group for victims of breast cancer will meet Tuesday, October 24, in the board room of Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

The group is open to anyone who needs its services.

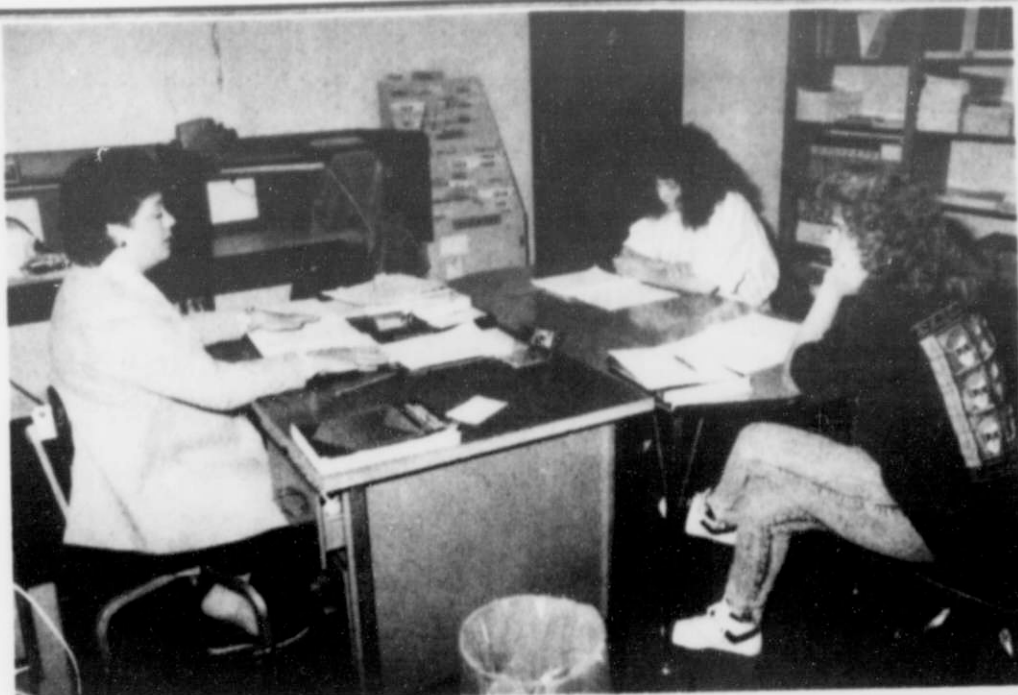

Management Course Slated

The Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College, the Small Business Administration, and the Western Maryland Small Business Development Center are sponsoring a new class at GCC entitled "Making the Time to Manage." According to a GCC spokesman, the class is designed to help supervisors and managers make the time to meet their many responsibilities.

"Practical individualized learning experiences will help each participant evaluate his or her use of time in the work place and in private life," the spokesman said, adding that the class can also be helpful for office personnel and others in the workplace who need to learn to use their time more effectively.

The class will be held Tuesday, Oct. 31, and Tuesday, Nov. 7, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the McHenry Campus. The class is part of a series of GCC fall classes slated to offer practical learning experiences that can immediately benefit business persons.

Those wanting to register for the class or obtain more information may contact the GCC Continuing Education Division at 387-6666, ext. 169.

LEAP PROGRAM AT GCC — A new program has been implemented at Garrett Community College to provide instructional support to students in the areas of reading, writing, and mathematics. The Learning Enhancement Assistance Program (LEAP), is divided into level I and level II courses. Level I courses are designed to develop basic skills, while level II courses reinforce and refine the basic skills. Above, instructor Jane Nolan provides individual assistance to students. Below, George McDowell instructs a student in the computer lab. At right, Dwight Jeffrey provides instruction in a math lab.

COVE

The women of Zion Lutheran Church, Accident, are sponsoring a fall bazaar this Saturday, October 21, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Lunch will be served the entire time. Arts and crafts, holiday items, baked goods, homemade soup and homemade sauerkraut will be for sale. Proceeds will be used for Lutheran World Relief projects. The public is invited.

The Accident volunteer firemen will sponsor the usual fundraising activity this Saturday at the fire hall beginning at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be available.

The Cove Homemakers Club will meet Monday, October 23, at 8 p.m. at the Accident Branch of the Ruth Enlow Library. The hostess will be Mrs. Chester Otto and Randall Harman will give the demonstration about computers. Mrs. Irmgard Koscielnik, Extension agent, Oakland, Mrs. Earlena Tressler, Grantsville, and Mrs. Oren Bender attended the State Homemakers fall meeting at Frederick on Wednesday.

The State Line United Methodist Women's Group will meet Wednesday, October 25, at the church. The hostess will be Mrs. Wilma Brown and the program will be led by Mrs. Flo Tissue.

The Aid Association for Lutherans, Branch #588, will sponsor a Halloween Fellowship and fun night on Sunday, October 29, at 6 p.m. at St. John's Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod. A light supper will be provided. Youngsters are encouraged to wear Halloween costumes. The entire congregation, AAL members, their guests and friends are invited to attend. During the short business meeting, election of officers will be held. One of the projects of the Aid Association for Lutherans this fall was saving aluminum cans for recycling. That project will continue until Monday, October 30. The cans can be taken to the church or given to AAL members until that time.

The Braille Work Center #173 and Aid Association for Lutherans Branches 585 and 588 will sponsor the annual Lutheran Braille Dinner that will be held at the Northern Middle School on Saturday, November 4, from 4:30 to 7 p.m. The cost will be $5.00 for adults and $2.50 for children. Anyone wishing to help with the dinner or donate pies, crafts, baked goods or cash to help defray the cost of the meal may contact Mrs. Ernest Lindner at 826-8466 as soon as possible.

Saturday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bender were Mrs. Melvin Betzel, Salisbury, Pa.; Mrs. David Brennenman, Grantsville; Mrs. Richard W. Brennenman, Accident; and Mrs. Gordon Bender. Evening visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hummer, Chambersburg, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bender were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Maust, Accident, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Enos Maust, who celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary on Monday, October 16. It was also the 90th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Enos Maust and the 48th wedding anniversary of the Raymond Benders. Ray Yoder, Grantsville, a brother of Mrs. Bender and former resident of Keyser Ridge, is a patient at Memorial Hospital, Cumberland, where he was admitted last week.

Rev. Ernest Lindner, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, was admitted to Garrett County Memorial Hospital on Friday evening, where he remains a patient, after suffering a heart attack.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. John's Lutheran Church, ELCA, met Wednesday evening with the hostess being Mrs. Stephen Yelovich, Accident. She also presented the program. At the congregational meeting held on Sunday evening, the new councilmen elected were William Graham, McHenry; Mrs. William Robinson, Friendsville, and Melvin Schwing.

Charles Springman, Pittsburgh, was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson and sons, Friendsville. The five of them were guests at a covered dish dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Cumberland. She showed slides and told of her recent stay in Rwanda, where she served as a volunteer missionary nurse. A Friday overnight and Saturday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt was Miss Julia Maust. Miss Pamela Schmidt and Julia spent Saturday in Cumberland shopping and watching a movie in observance of Pamela's 15th birthday anniversary that occurred on Wednesday, October 11. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt and daughters were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt, Friendsville, where the 20th birthday anniversary of Bryan Gardner was celebrated that occurred that day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strider went to Hagerstown on Sunday, where John attended an Aid Association for Lutherans meeting on Monday before returning to their home here.

Mrs. Douglas Bender was among those accompanying Mrs. Sharon Platter's kindergarten class from the Accident Elementary School on a tour of Accident on Thursday. They were at National Bank, the post office, Accident Floral and Gifts, Matthew's Food Store, the fire hall and rescue squad. Anthony Bender is a member of the class. Michelle and Michael Bender spent Saturday with their aunts, Misses Angie and Faith Brennenman, Accident, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bender, Keith and Anthony attended a cattle sale at Berlin, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Yoder returned to their home here on Wednesday after spending a week at a Christian executive seminar at Los Angeles, Calif., and remaining in that state for a few days of sightseeing.

meeting at Williamsport on Monday.

Margaret Doak and Betty Flake, Cumberland, and Mrs. Esther Margroff spent a few days in Dayton, Ohio, visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. Freida Terwilliger.

Tuesday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanft were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Needer and daughters, Timonium, and Miss Kristen Hanft, Addison, Pa. Mrs. Needer and daughters and Kristen returned to Timonium on Wednesday morning, where Kristen is spending two weeks of vacation with the Needers. Jim Henline, Kingwood, W. Va., Carroll Hanft, Addison, Pa., and Charles Needer left on Wednesday morning for a hunting trip to Colorado for 10 days. Saturday guests of the Walter

GCC To Offer Private Pilot Ground Training

A Private Pilot Ground Training course will be offered by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College in cooperation with Lakeside Aviation, Inc. The course, which is scheduled to begin on November 1, 1989, will meet at the McHenry Campus of the college, room 306, on Wednesday evenings between 6:30 and 9:45 p.m. There will be 10 sessions and the last class session is scheduled for January 17, 1990. There will be no class sessions held on November 22 or December 27.

This course is designed to familiarize students with the techniques necessary to pilot an aircraft. Specific topics will include aircraft aerodynamics, airplane performance, navigation, weather and applicable regulations. Students who successfully complete the training should be able to challenge the Federal Aviation Administration written private pilot test. For more information, including fees, persons may contact the Office of Continuing Education at (301) 387-6666, ext. 169/170.

Home Maintenance And Repair Funds Now Available

The Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) has announced that $341,900 is now available for matching grants under the state's Home Maintenance and Repair (HOMAR) program for FY 1990.

The HOMAR program awards funds to nonprofit and local government agencies to help them provide minor safety and security repairs for the homes of elderly or disabled homeowners with very limited incomes.

The program is funded and administered through DHCD's Community Assistance Administration, but each HOMAR program is organized and managed locally. Presently there are more than 28 programs operating across the state.

Political subdivisions, local community development agencies and nonprofit corporations may apply for up to $25,000 to establish or continue a home maintenance and repair service for the elderly and handicapped homeowners in their communities. Grants are awarded on a competitive basis, and support 12-month programs. The HOMAR funds must be matched by the grantee agency.

For a copy of the HOMAR Program Manual and an application, organizations should contact: Glenda Keel, HOMAR Program Coordinator, Division of Community Assistance, DHCD, 45 Calvert Street, Annapolis, MD 21401 or call (301) 974-2719.

Mini-Conference On Literacy In Workplace Slated

A mini-conference entitled "Literacy in the Workplace" will be hosted Tuesday, October 24, by the Continuing Education Division of Garrett Community College. The conference is free of charge to all local business persons or their representatives and will be held in the auditorium between 2 and 4 p.m.

"According to census data, 400,000 Marylanders are illiterate and nearly 50 percent of the residents of Garrett County, who are over 18 years of age are without a high school diploma," said Tom Kierstead, program coordinator for the college.

The Appalachian Regional Commission has made funds available to support the conference. Funds and program design are monitored by The Regional Education Service Agency of Appalachian Maryland (RESA). Frank Peto, executive director of RESA, notes that the regional conference's intent is to "draw together education, business, industry and other public and private-sector institutions in a united thrust to align existing educational services with adult literacy needs."

Garrett Community College has a long history of involvement in literacy programs and is currently operating Adult Basic Education and General Education Development courses throughout the county. In addition, the Learning Enhancement and Assistance Program (LEAP) at the college offers credit and non-credit students with the opportunity to develop their reading, writing and mathematics skills. Peer tutoring is also available through the LEAP Center.

Other agencies which offer literacy education include the Literacy Council and Ruth Enlow Libraries, the Garrett County Board of Education, the Western Maryland Consortium (JTFA) and the Department of BAND BOOSTERS AWARD CAR — A Hagerstown couple were the lucky winners of the 1990 Chevrolet Lumina, purchased by the Southern Garrett Band Boosters from Team One in Oakland and given away by random drawing Saturday night during the annual Western Maryland Tournament of Bands. The winners were Kevin and Shirley Anders, who said they were in the market for a new automobile anyway, but didn't plan on obtaining a brand new one for just $10, the cost of their raffle ticket. The Boosters sold 1,500 tickets and raised $2,500 for the Southern Band, the Maryland State Class III Champions. Pictured with the Anders are Greg Shockey, left, of Team One, and Al Devine, committee chairman and president of the Band Boosters.

Human Resources. The Private Industry Council is also involved in the literacy effort throughout the county.

Kierstead said, "One of the major purposes of this conference is to identify resources and services available to local businesses. They have daily contact with many individuals we might never get to know. We want to match the individual with the service they desire and work together to eliminate illiteracy."

Business leaders who wish to learn more about the literacy effort are asked to call the Office of Continuing Education, (301) 387-6666, and confirm their reservation.

Real Estate To Be Next DACUM Project At GCC

Local real estate professionals have been invited to participate in Garrett Community College's fourth DACUM process. The college uses DACUM, which stands for Developing a Curriculum, to provide a detailed and graphic portrayal of the duties and tasks involved in the occupation being studied.

The first phase of the DACUM process is scheduled for November 1 and 2, and phase two, which reorganizes the occupational duties and tasks into specific areas of study, is scheduled for November 9.

Tom Kierstead, program coordinator for the college, said, "The DACUM process operates on the premise that expert workers are better able to describe or define their job than anyone else, that the job can be described in terms of the tasks that successful workers perform and that all job tasks include knowledge and attitudes that workers must have in order to succeed. Therefore, it is the educator's responsibility when developing a curriculum to make full use of the expertise in the field."

"Earl George, acting as the educational chairperson of the local Board of Realtors, has been very instrumental and helpful to the college," said Kierstead. "He has made our job easier by identifying local real estate experts to be members of the DACUM Phase I panel."

"The college has invited real estate professionals from the following companies: A&A Realty-Better Homes & Gardens, Bernard Realty, Century 21-Country Time Realty, Deep Creek Realty, Doyle Realty, Garrettland Realty, and Railey Realty," said Jim Allen, director of technology at the college. "We have had an excellent and positive response from the people we have contacted."

Kierstead and Allen are DACUM Phase I facilitators for the college. They were trained for the DACUM process at the Maryland DACUM Resource Center at Dundalk Community College. Although Kierstead has been involved in all three previous DACUM's, this will be Allen's first involvement at Garrett.

Previous DACUMs at the college have included Resort Management, Secretarial Science, and Construction Technology. "The Resort Management Program has been submitted for approval and is expected to begin in the fall of 1990," said Kierstead. "The Secretarial Science and Construction Technology programs are still in the review process."
